MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company. Coal and wood. E.E. Mayne, 619 B'way. Several minor building permits, aggregating about $3,000, were issued by he city clerk yesterday.

There is another falling off in police business. There was but one solitary drunk to be disposed of yesterday morning.

The jury in the Fagely case returned a verdict at 8 o'clock last evening finding the defendant guilty of petit larceny. The funeral of A. A. Smith, an old resident of this city, took place yester day morning, and was attendeded by a large number of friends.

A. A. Bowman is now associated with Charles A. Moore, at the old stand of Moore & Kiplinger. The title of the new firm is Moore & Bowman.

A special meeting of St. Alban's lodge, K, of P., will be held at their hall this evening. Work in the second and third degrees. Visiting knights welcome. By order of the chancellor commander, J. M. Scanlan,

One of the gambling houses opened up again last evening on the second floor, and did a good business with those who had a tip. There was no interference by the police, and the sports rejoiced accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bublitz were tendered a very pleasant surprise by a number of Omaha friends last Thursday evening at their residence, 427 South First street, on the occasion of the fourth anniversary of their marriage. All kinds of games were indulged in and some excellent music was furnished by Miss Minnie Musser. A very pleas-ant evening was spent by all.

The attendance at the temperance meetings held at the Broadway M. E. church during the past week, has increased so rapidly that the church has proved too small to accommodate it and the opera house has been secured for the meeting to-morrow evening. There is not the slightest doubt that the house will be crowded. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present and hear the successful temperance missionary, James M. Dunn.

Officer Tyson and his gang of vagrants are doing good work on the streets. Mayor Rohrer's experiment in this respect is working finely, and he has practically demonstrated to the croakers the error of their position in maintaining that it was a costly experiment to try to work the vags. The only additional expense is the officer's pay, and the work done exceeds that several times over. At the present rate of improvement the streets will soon be in fine condition, and the spring rains will not transform them into seas of mud.

Hollenbeck Bros. has begun work moving the Marcus building from its present position on Broadway to north side of Indian creek. The build-ing has been purchased by Dan Carrigg, who will lease it as a carpenter shop after it is moved to its new location, about one hundred and fifty feet north of where it now stands. It will be replaced by a handsome brick structure, 33x100 feet. It has not yet been decided whether the new building will be two or three stories high. This question will be determined Monday, when the plans will be drawn. Work will be com-

The Woman in the Case.

Certain of the police officials are feel-

The loss of his wife proyed heavily upon his mind, and he was anxious for reporter, and from him was gleaned comething of the past history of the dead man. He was twenty-five years of the reunion. The remains of the wife were brought to this city last Sunday over the Wabash, and the funeral took age, and lived at Sioux Falls three years, working in a livery stable. Those present were royally enter-tained and a pleasanter little dance was never held in South Omaha.

Notes About the City.

John C. Walters, of the stock yards chute gang, who has been alling for some time, yesterday was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha.

H. Lindsey has taken out a p ermit to build wo $500 cottages on Thirtieth and Hoffman treets.

Miss Kate Condon, daughter of Daniel Condon, candidate on the republican ticket last fall for the general asaembly, is the last and most active aspirant for the postoffice appointment. Miss Condon is popular, and is receiving a strong support. She is mak-ing vigorous efforts for success and is ad-mitted by all to be fully competent.

Considerable feeling exists against the or linance in Omaha exacting a $10 license fee rom draymen who haul goods from Omaha o South Omaha. Retaliatory legislation will undoubtedly be the result, and it will all be in favor of South Omaha and against Omaha, for a score of Omaha teams deliver goods in South Omaha to one in Omaha.

At 11 o'clock Friday forenoon Charles Ychout, an employe at the George H. Ham-nond packing houses, cut his left hand with a butcher knife, laying the flesh open from the center of the palm around the outside of and to the center of the back of the hand.

The new furniture in Waggoner, Birney & Co.'s office, Exchange, makes it one of the finest suite of office rooms in the city.

A republican caucus was held in Savage & Green's office, Exchange. Those present do not seem disposed to let the object or pro-ceedings be known.

In the suit of Isaac T. Van Fess against G. L. Sweeny, before Justice Wells, judgment was entered for the defendant for $163,10.

"Did you see the Herald this morning! asked one of the policemen of The BEE rep resentative. On being answered in the af firmative, he continued: "I wish you would state that the policemen sold their January orders at from 71_{\pm} to 10 per cent discount and no more. One man got face for his, and the most anyone had his paper discounted was 10 per cent. I sold mine, both for February and January, for $35 each, and it called for $30. There is not a word of truth in the statement that the police salary orders are discounted 20 per cent." Charles F. Durand will open the Exchange barber shop to-day. John Smith, of this city, and Miss Jennie Bennett, of Vail, Ia, will be married Wednes-lay, April 8.

The Independent political club had a lively neeting. P. Trainor was elected vice presi-lent and Reed Darnell financial secretary. The next meeting will be held at John Frye's Monday evening.

C. H. Rich, of the Stockman, is sick and confined to his home in Omaha. Charles E. Curtis and wife have arrived from Chicago, and will reside here. Mr. Cur tis will go into business. D. S. Curtis is circulating a petition for a sidewalk on N street, east from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-first streets. A meeting will be held Tuesday evening.

In the Court.

The larceny case of Peter Fegarty was submitted to the jury about 11:30 yesterday, and when court opened in the afternoon a verdict of not guilty was returned. The prisoner was accused of stealing $10 from a German at Weston. He had been confined in the county jail for three months. The next case taken up was that of State vs. Fagely. The defendant is accused of stealing a gold watch from an intoxi-cated stranger on lower Broadway.

The Chips Will Rattle. There is fun ahead among the sporting fraternity. Dan Carrigg recently stepped out from the democratic ranks and began to pay off some old political scores. Alderman Pat Lacy was one of his targets. Just preceding the recent election the official order went forth that there must be a reform. The gambling houses must close. Strangely enough Carrigg's house was the only one which was found to be unwarned. He is the only one against whom a case has been brought. This has made the move so evidently a political one as to bring forth no little criticism. Carrigg has now a fresh grievance. and it is brought out as additional proof that he is being pinched as a punish-ment for his political opposition to the democratic circle.. A combination is said to have been formed so that gambling nouses may run up-stairs, but none are to be allowed on the first floor. All the other establishments cept Carrigg's have an up chamber, to which the tables exupper Car readily be moved. Carrigg's building is only one-story, and he must move or remain closed. It is also intimated that he will be kept shut anyway. He threatens to run if others are allowed to run. The work of preparing the upper chambers has commenced. The first cret of it is that the preparation re-ceives a great deal of free advertising from people who use it and find it much superior to anything else of the kind that they have ever used, that they persuade their friends and neighbors to try it. It is certainly a sure cure for colds and croup and a preparation fully worth the popularity it en-joys. For sale by all druggists.

The Plot Di n't Work.

HALIFAN, N. S., March 8.- Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-At an early hour yesterday morning the sentry on duty at the powder magazine was fired at twice, one shot shattering two of his fingers and the other passing through his hat. The sentry fired three times, but it is supposed missed his mark. The man got away before an alarm could be given. The military regard the affair as a plot to blow up the magazine with dynamite, which would have resulted
