

LINCOLN NEWS AND NOTES.

Arrest of the Last of the Beatrice Jail Breakers.

SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Incorporation of the Nebraska and Wyoming Investment Company.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE.

Deputy Sheriff Baird succeeded in capturing John Kelkenburg, the last of the Beatrice jail breakers, at the Depot last night at 11 o'clock.

District Court Matters.

After an all night's sitting the jury in the case of Braine vs. Levy found for the plaintiff and assessed the damages at $500.

This morning Judge Field called the case of Martin Perrine & Co. vs. Herrick.

This has been considerable complaint of late arising out of the blockading of the South street crossing by the Union Pacific.

New Investment Company.

The Nebraska and Wyoming Investment Company will commence business April 1, and continue ninety years thereafter.

Some Nuts to Crack.

It is strange, remarked a prominent Lincoln physician today, that some of our legislators will insist that virus, or prepared vaccine matter, such as Billings uses to inoculate hogs for the prevention of cholera.

Settled and Dismissed.

The complaint of A. T. McDonald, of Crawford, against the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley Railroad company has been happily adjusted.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

The following cases were admitted to practice: William C. Miller, Burt Mapes, William W. Young, James H. McIntosh.

Has a Hoodoo.

Evans and Hoy are having bad luck with the animals belonging to their company, and Manager French thinks he has a hoodoo in this city last night.

THE FAIR CYCLISTS.

A Sextette Now in Training at the Coliseum.

There are now six lady bicyclists in active training at the Coliseum and several more are expected by Saturday.

RAILWAY SIMPLICITY.

The Middle-Man and the Railway Sharks Expense.

A well-known railway official stated yesterday that if the presidents' organization accomplished nothing but the weeding out of the numerous traffic associations, it would be performing a worthy mission.

Blockades Traffic.

There has been considerable complaint of late arising out of the blockading of the South street crossing by the Union Pacific.

The Missouri Pacific to Huron.

The Missouri Pacific is considering a projected line from Omaha to Huron, Dak. It is said that this is one of the matters that will be brought before President Gould.

Foley and Baxter.

As was stated in The Bee of Monday, R. M. Baxter will to-day succeed J. A. Foley as manager of the Union Pacific with headquarters in Omaha.

Water a Luxury.

From reports received water is a luxury in certain districts in the west. The Union Pacific has completed wells at certain points on the line to obtain a supply for the engines.

Railroad Notes.

T. W. Lee, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has returned from the west.

General Passenger Agent.

The fact that the Northern Pacific has just awarded a contract for the construction of twenty emigrant sleepers makes the Pullman negotiation a matter of conjecture.

General Passenger Agent.

General Passenger Agent of the Burlington, will left last evening for Chicago where a meeting of the general managers of all the lines covered by the present agreement, will be held to-morrow.

$5,000 Reward $5,000.

For a better or more pleasant remedy for the cure of consumption, bronchial troubles, cough, croup and whooping cough than SANTA ABE, the California king of consumption.

Has a Hoodoo.

Evans and Hoy are having bad luck with the animals belonging to their company, and Manager French thinks he has a hoodoo in this city last night.

WOULD TALK TO THE COURT.

Theo Gallagher Knows More Than Has Yet Been Told.

The Commission's Deaf Ears.

A Promising Young Son—Story of "Walking Joe"—Beds Alive With Vermin—Dr. Taggart's White Wash Brush.

A Talk With Theo. Gallagher.

The Mahoneys have some neighbors who from their doors are able to see nearly all that goes on in the neighborhood.

The Dereliction of the Commissioners.

"If you know of any mismanagement at the hospital, Mr. Gallagher, why don't you complain to the commissioners?" asked the reporter.

The Devil in Him.

The name of Mrs. Mahoney's son, who is charged with lying imbeciles up by the neck, being mentioned, Mr. Gallagher exclaimed:

Johnson's Happy Valley.

Realized in the Felicity and Innocence of that on the U. P.

Detective Ormsby tells a queer story of the state of affairs at Valley precinct, a little station thirty-four miles from Omaha.

The Meat Smelled Ailment.

"I was an inmate of the Douglas county hospital for nearly three years," said E. A. Hughes, at present an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Grand Island.

Woman's Inhumanity to Woman.

"I have known of cases where women in delicate condition were compelled to work in the laundry and kitchen, until finally the child was born, and then to attend to the child."
