

FORTUNES IN HORSE FLESH.

Some of the Fleet-Footed Beauties Now Owned in Omaha.

WHERE THEY ARE QUARTERED.

The Organization of a Jockey Club and What it Would Do for Sporting Matters in This City.

Beautiful and Fleet Steeds.

Considering the large number of fine trotting horses there is in Omaha, it is a matter of much surprise why there is not more interest taken in the matter of a summer meeting in this city.

In a drive around the city, the past week, a Bee man paid a visit to several of the leading stables owned by private individuals.

Dick Wilde's stables are located at the corner of Seventeenth avenue and Jackson streets. He has as handsome and promising a string of horses as can be found anywhere in the country.

First comes the four-year-old trotting stallion, Trenton, (4152). He came from the Fashion Stud farm, near Trenton, N. J.

By Stanger, dam by Jay Gould; second dam by Alexander's Abdallah. The strong point in Trenton's pedigree, is that on either side he comes for generations back from producing and fashionable families.

May Clark, sorrel mare, record 2:24 1/2, is a splendid animal, and Mr. Wilde's exclusive road horse. She has done much racing and hard work, but shows not even as much as a "wind-puff."

Annie B., b. f., two-year-old pacer, by Charles Caffrey, out of May Clark, is a hollyhack, neat of limb, and exceedingly promising.

Goddie Saturn, s. f., another two-year-old, by Saturn, dam Florence L., by Ladd's Gold Dust, is also a bute, and bound to make her mark on the turf.

Bangs, b. f., same age, by Saturn, dam untraced, is much thought of.

Bee, s. f., a yearling, by Saturn, dam Beatrice, by Charles Caffrey, is of equal merit.

Niobe, s. f., same age, by Saturn, dam Dot, by Davenport, by Belmont, possesses all the points judges best like to see.

Queen is another yearling, by Saturn, dam Frankie Queen, matinee record, to top wagon, 2:32.

Flora Saturn, yearling s. f., same sire, out of Flora Sherman, by John Sherman, by Waspie.

Dick Welby, b. c., yearling, by E. B. Woods' Victor Sprague, by Governor Sprague, dam Annie.

Annie, by Charles Caffrey, dam unknown, in foal by Trenton.

Rhona, b. f., 4 years, sired by Norment, by Belmont (53), dam Nellie Clay, by C. M. Clay jr., in foal to Trenton.

Minnie M., b. m., 5 years, by Colonel Orr, dam Nelly Clay, in foal to Trenton.

Annie Scamnerhorn, b. f., four years, a magnificent creature, by Oriental (1919), dam by Ital, second dam by Volunteer Chief, by Volunteer.

Magnolia Maid, g. m., pacer, 8 years, record 2:30 1/2; breeding unknown, in foal to Saturn.

Bessie, b. m., by California Patchon, record 2:27; dam unknown in foal to Victor Sprague, 2:24.

In addition to the above Mr. Huston is handling probably a dozen other promising youngsters.

E. B. Wood's stables are at 1510 California street. He has from thirty to forty sale horses now on hand.

His thoroughbred racing stock includes Victor Sprague, gray stallion, five years old, record 2:29, without question one of the most super animals in all this western country.

Victor was sired by Governor Sprague, record 2:21, by Governor Sprague, record 2:23, Rhode Island, 2:23; dam by Swiger, sire of twenty-three in the 2:30 list; second dam Angeline, record 2:27, by Richard's Bellfounder. Victor Sprague is as fine a styled stallion as there is in the state; a noble looking and head always well up on the shoulders, clean and stout in limb, and "with enough brains," as Mr. Wood remarked, "to make a congressman."

Dan D., b. g., record 2:15 paces; ten years old, by Diadem, Dan D. is surely capable of beating his record as he is in better shape to go into races this summer than ever before.

Last summer he paced a trial heat in 2:12. Trickett, b. m., five years, by Lester, son of Almont, dam Messenger Durock, second dam thoroughbred, no mark. Trickett has the right material in her for a winner.

Adrian Thompson's stables are at the fair grounds, Fred Ellis, foreman. Following is his finest stock:

Ethan Allen, a bright bay stallion, ten years, record 2:37; is a grandson of old Ethan Allen by King Phillip.

Trickett, b. m., five years, by Lester, by Jack Sheppard, very fast but has never been tracked to amount to anything.

Prince, b. g., pacer, six years, by Monument, by Almont, first dam Kate F., by Bourbon Chief, second dam by Alexander's Norman, sire of Lulu, record 2:15. Prince is a half brother to Fullerton 2:19.

Joe Dandy, b. s., a son of Ethan Allen, by Dan Maggie Wallace, she by Sir William Wallace. Has never been tracked, but is a coner.

Also a fine two-year-old stallion, unnamed, by Jack Sheppard, dam said to be by Blue Bell. Regarded as a horse of much promise.

Mary Sheppard, b. m., four years, sired by Jack Sheppard, gaited like the gray stallion and exceedingly well thought of by Mr. Thompson.

FLASHES FROM THE DIAMOND. In the spring the young man's fancy is lightly turned to bats and balls.

Ben Wood has a beautifully matched team of white and four white fives, and he is a very good player.

Then nobody must overlook Old Gold Nate, record 2:24. He looks a little like a horse for war, but when Mr. Briggs turns him loose someone is bound to get left.

Charlie Green has a very rangy team of boys and if looks and actions go for anything they will be a hard pair to beat.

Fin Gridley is a hard man to overhaul when he is behind and his roan gelding, Modoc, the latter has a record of 2:42.

Fred Nash drives a very stylish bay, and can be seen at almost any pleasant afternoon.

P. E. Her is proud of a highly bred matched team of blacks. They can pole trot in about 2:50.

E. W. Nash sports a team of magnificent bays.

Jim Stephenson never fails to attract attention when he appears with his suit and a big black horse.

George Canfield drives a very topsy team of sorrels, and is always ready to give anyone a brush who comes along.

Dr. Coffman generally has the best at the market, but he doesn't keep a team long enough to enable the efficient reporter to collar a description of them.

Fred Davis speeds along behind a nicely matched team of blacks, for which he paid a bushel of money.

A Boy Should Learn To saw. To chop. To write. To figure.

To ride a horse. To respect old age. To save his money.

To study economy. To support himself. To tell a good story.

To be at home nights. To black his own shoes. To keep out of politics.

To live within his means. To think naught of Canada. To encourage his better half.

To button on his clothes. To count not the employer's funds. To eat his wife's pies without a murmur.

To indorse for nobody, especially relatives. To look out for a wife with a bank account.

To get up nights for baby's medicine with a smile on his face. To give up his kick in the street car to homely as well as pretty women.

The favorite key of the sailor's songs is C.

The man who is lynched will find notice in the noose column.

The flower of the family frequently happens to be a sun-flower.

The matter of rents annoys both the professional tramp and the land baron.

Some realize after marriage that the "apple their eye" is a crab-apple.

Should this country be involved in war we have sufficient reserve force in the "killing" dudes that abound.

The favorite gait of the inebriate is the de-center.

With a bear of a husband there is always trouble brew.

A silo is where green feed is kept. A favorite in the western cities.
