St. Patrick's Day in New York. NEW YORK, March 16.-At sunrise this morning the stars and stripes were run up on the city ball, state and municipal standards waved from poles on the east and west wings, and the green flag of Ireland occupied a conspicuous place between two of the main poles. The great feature of the day's cele-bration was the parade, which was reviewed by Mayor Grant, the board of aldermen, and heads of the municipal departments.
