

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Any Part of the City...

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing company. Coalwood. E. E. Mayne, 619 B'way.

Harmony chapter No. 25, O. E. S., meets this evening at Masonic hall in regular session.

The Firemen's Veteran association will meet at the city building to-morrow evening to elect officers...

The Kensington club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. F. H. Evans, corner of Sixth avenue and Sixth street.

Seymour C. Watson, of Exira, is bound over to the federal grand jury in the sum of $500 for violating the internal revenue law.

The funeral of the four-year-old son of Mrs. Senath will take place from the residence 2319 Avenue A, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Building permits were issued yesterday to W. W. Hike for a $200 cottage; L. D. Fowler, $1,600 cottage; C. J. Roth, $500 cottage; Ed Pierce, $1,200 cottage.

Ella Brown, Verne Perry and Carrie Bennett, three Masonic street boys, were carried last night for disturbing the peace on Washington avenue.

The work on the Eisenman block is being pushed along vigorously. It is a great improvement, and will be one of the most attractive buildings in the city.

The Johnson-Gleason dog case has been resurrected and will again be a whirl through the courts. Mr. Johnson has filed a notice of appeal in the superior court.

The work has been commenced on the enlargement of the Globe building. The building will be entirely remodelled, and will present a very fine appearance when completed.

Arrangements are being made for the presentation of "The Temple of Fame" soon after Easter. It will be given for the benefit of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The Electric Light company is having the electric towers treated to the annual coat of paint. The painters find the work a little bit too lofty, and complain that the breezes toy with their chinchillas.

The medical society of the Missouri valley meets in the Masonic Temple hall this evening, and will continue in session to-morrow. This is the regular quarterly meeting, and will doubtless be an interesting one.

The Rescue steamer, that has been doing duty at Lincoln for the past three months, arrived home yesterday in charge of Fireman Norris Wick, who was detailed to run the machine while at the Nebraska capital.

Mrs. Turner, who was arrested Tuesday night on a charge of adultery preferred by her husband, was discharged yesterday by Judge Aylesworth. The alleged paramour is A. L. Frotter, with whom Turner claims his wife has been living since August, 1888.

The board of trade has appointed a committee consisting of T. J. Evans, F. Weis, J. D. Edmondson, H. H. Van Brunt and L. M. Traylor to act in conjunction with a similar committee of the firemen's association to secure a rate of a cent a mile for the June tournament.

The funeral of Lahan J. Childs took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning from the residence, 325 West Avenue, and was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Crofts, of the Congregational church. The remains were interred in Walnut Hill cemetery.

A. B. Franey and Chas. Hummel paid $12.50 each yesterday morning for fast driving, and George Toiver received a fine of $7.50. Joe Sheldon ran against an assessment of $8.10, and E. A. Bradford tripped over a levy of $19.20, and was fined for violation of ordinance. Neither had the necessary cash, and are lamenting their poverty in the bastille.

The Brown was disturbing the peace yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of the North-western depot, and a policeman advised him to go home. He went about a block, when he stopped and defied the officer to catch him, at the same time using an abundance of profane and obscene language. Officer Isenberger started for him, and got him, but not until he had chased him to the fair grounds, fully three-quarters of a mile.

As Al Royer and W. A. Wells were returning from a hunting trip to Lake Manawa Tuesday evening, their horse refused to cross the railroad track at Fifteenth avenue, and turning around quickly tipped over the buggy and ran away. The horse was considerably bruised, and the buggy was badly damaged. Guns were broken, ammunition spilled, and hags generally was the result. The horse was not hurt, and the hunters were able to be around yesterday, but they did not have roast duck for dinner.

Notice the beautiful finish given collars, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest. No publicity; fair and honest dealing. A. A. Clark & Co., office cor. Broadway and Main, over American express.

E. H. Sheafe & Co. offer bargains in city property, either improved or unimproved. Easy payments. Good lots on $10 payments.

Personal Paragraphs. J. Medley is quite sick with typhoid pneumonia, at his home, 207 North Eighth street. Colonel Cochran has recovered from his illness, which was of long duration, and is now able to be about as usual.

Sheriff Rainbow, of Shelby county, was in the city Tuesday evening, on his way to Clarinda, with a party for the asylum.

Sheriff Jones, of Atlantic, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and took charge of William Tipton, who is wanted there for larceny.

Harry Winter, F. W. Neal and Billy Maloney leave this morning for a four days' shoot at Onawa. Will Butts joins them this evening. Guests at the Ogden will doubtless revel in game dinners for the next week.

H. C. Cheney, the assistant superintendent of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad company, has secured the services of an additional engineer. The youngster will undoubtedly figure prominently in railroad circles one of these days, but is very, very young now.

Remnant Sale at Eisenman's. Our big special sale for the past week has left us with a large lot of remnants, which we propose to offer at special sale at a cost for THURSDAY AND FRIDAY ONLY.

Remnants of silks. Remnants of dress goods. Remnants of black goods. Remnants of satinettes. Remnants of gingham and prints. Remnants of sheetings and shirtings. Remnants of linen towels. Remnants of hosiery, gloves, embroideries, white goods.

ALWAYS REMEMBER, DON'T WANT THEM, SO COME AND TAKE THEM AWAY. The lengths are very suitable for children's wear.

Every lady should not fail to attend this sale, and take advantage of the bargains offered at HENRY EISEMAN & CO'S. PEOPLE'S STORE. COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA.

Happily Joined. Mr. J. C. Richards, of the Nonpareil force, and Miss Minnie C. Parkinson, of Shenandoah, were married Tuesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. L. P. Wickham. The groom is a young gentleman well known in this city, and to him and his fair bride are directed the congratulations of many a young man. They will make their home at 924 Third avenue.

THE NEWS OF THE BLUFFS.

A Reckless Shooting Scrape Being Investigated by Judge Thornell.

EXTENSION OF THE MOTOR LINE. Will it Take in Fairmount Park?—A Happy Union—The Firemen—The Union Depot—Personals.

Chased by a Woman. A drunken Omaha prostitute made things lively in the vicinity of the dummy depot for a while yesterday afternoon.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 18th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Organist. An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

New and full line of spring goods at the London Tailors, 637 Broadway.

An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

The finest line of spring goods to be found in the market is at A. Reiter's, No. 310 Broadway.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block, S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 236 Main street.

Something new and nice, English taffets at Baird's. You should try them, 525 Broadway.

Will exchange for horses or cattle, cottage 5 rooms, mostly completed; also two lots, all in Council Bluffs; also 120 acres near Sioux City. No incumbrance. L. D. Fowler, No. 10 Pierce st.

SOUTH OMAHA. Sell Twenty Feet. About 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, J. B. Watkins, of the J. B. Watkins & Co., lumber company, while at work on the roof of the Barry block N. and Twenty-seventh streets, fell to the ground, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet.

The Copper Situation. Paris, March 20.—It is stated that the holders of the copper warrants have decided not to sell them, but to continue negotiations with the mine owners with a view to reaching an agreement for the diminished production.

Another Losing Road. INDIANAPOLIS, March 20.—The annual report of the Chicago, St. Louis & Pittsburg railroad for the year 1888 shows a decrease in gross earnings as compared with 1887 of $516,000. The net results on all lines show a loss of $216,000 against a profit in 1887 of $540,000.

FOR ACHE AND PAINS. Recent, Prompt, Good Results. Headache, Kansas City, Mo., June 23, 1888. The "Pain" says: MR. CHAS. BAKER, Cor. 1st and 2nd Sts., has cured me of my headache, at times unbearable, by using your "Pain" ointment. I have used it several times, and it has cured me every time. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better.

THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Md. SPECIAL NOTICES. LOST—An English pug dog. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning him to 533 Willow avenue, corner 6th st.

GIRL wanted for general house work, 722 Willow ave. Mrs. J. Mueller. IF you have property of any kind to sell or exchange see Johnston & VanPatton, 33 Main.

FOR RENT—Office No. 2 over Baird's confectionery store, lately occupied by Wm. Ward, architect. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—On monthly payments, house and lot in Van Brunt & Rice's addition, by J. Y. Fuller, 32 Pearl street.

FOR RENT—Possession given April 1st, the residence now occupied by Robert Carpenter, corner 9th and 2d aves., $30 per month. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—Furnished and unfurnished rooms, with or without board. Mrs. F. A. Burke, 523 Washington ave.

FURNISHED—Rent; second floor, No. 117 Fourth street. Mrs. John Wyatt, of the rural precincts of the eastern section of Brown park, and her festive hubby do not get along well together. There seems to be a cog out of the domestic machinery, and Mrs. Wyatt has taken up her bed and board and removed to her brother's home. The cause is a neighborhood guess.

Building Inspector Joseph J. Ereen granted five permits yesterday, one to Frederick H. Schmitt, on the alley between J and O streets, rear Twenty-fourth street; two to O. Thorndison, Forty-first and Monte Cristo streets, Harwood's addition; and three to M. S. Lindsey, Thirtieth and Hoffman streets.

Gus McDonough is having too much religious experience in his. For knocking down Major George Kelly of the Salvation army Monday night, yesterday Judge Reuther fined him $25 and costs. He is indignant with $20. At 10 o'clock next Monday he will answer before Judge Reuther for disturbing a religious meeting. The offense charged is for disorderly conduct in the Salvation army meeting at Hunt's opera house Sunday night.

Dr. J. Smiley is visiting in Shelby, Ia. Charles Reimer has bought the Gas Rag saloon at Albright. S. H. Robertson's part of the Louisiana lottery drawing is $500. Rescue nose company's house will be ceiled with boards and repaired soon.

Mrs. James O'Hara was very low last night, and called a doctor. There will be a meeting of Scandinavians on Twenty-sixth street Sunday forenoon. Max Horgen has opened the barber shop formerly occupied by Charles F. Darand. Both Daniel Smith and wife are on the sick list, Mrs. Smith having the lung fever. The cigarmakers' union will be formally organized and the officers installed this evening.

M. E. Hanlon, of Exira, has removed to this city and rented a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets. A Sunday child of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hara is dead, and was buried in St. Mary's cemetery yesterday.

Refreshments will be served at the Presidential social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Miller this evening. H. C. Barnes, of Springfield, has removed to this city with his grading outfit and has taken a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets.

A party of young society people, Wednesday evening, went to Omaha to spend the evening at the home of Miss Catherine White. Oliver Davis, son of the man who had grading contracts in the city last year, has removed from near Springfield and rented a house on Twenty-third and C streets.

The citizens of the Third ward, irrespective of party affiliations, are invited to attend the political meeting Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Darand. Messrs. Otto and Sawyer, of Creighton, near Chicago, Ill., have leased the building No. 309 and 311 South Twenty-sixth street, and will open a wagon and carriage manufactory and a general small shop.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Wednesday evening a section of the high bank on Twenty-fifth and C streets fell, coming within an ace of burying grading team, wagon and driver. The wagon was almost covered on one side, but no one was hurt.

A Sunday school has been organized in the German Methodist Episcopal church, and the Rev. Gustav Brecker is superintendent. It meets at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon. A public examination of the curriculum will be held about the middle of May.

Jeremiah and Timothy Courtney, of Exira, have secured the Epley brick yards between Exira and Council Bluffs, and a mile and a half streets, have removed to this city, and yesterday began repairing the yard for spring work. The city water has been connected.

Mrs. Simon S. Remer, H. S. Ober, Joseph H. Egger and Michael Kemmer have gone to the Platte for a few days' hunt. George W. Ferguson, of the Pacific hotel, conductor Jackson and five companions have gone up a few miles above Sioux City, Ia., for a short shooting time, while Fred Juley and James A. Hayes have packed their guns and ammunition and are west for a trial of the trigger and nerve.

THE BURKE TRACT GOING FAST.

The Burke tract is building up rapidly with nice new residences and is the most desirable place for a home. If you want a fine lot here come now, or the chance to get it at first hands will be gone, for we are bound to close them out.

D. J. HUTCHINSON & CO., 617 Broadway.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 18th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Organist. An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

New and full line of spring goods at the London Tailors, 637 Broadway.

An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

The finest line of spring goods to be found in the market is at A. Reiter's, No. 310 Broadway.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block, S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 236 Main street.

Something new and nice, English taffets at Baird's. You should try them, 525 Broadway.

Will exchange for horses or cattle, cottage 5 rooms, mostly completed; also two lots, all in Council Bluffs; also 120 acres near Sioux City. No incumbrance. L. D. Fowler, No. 10 Pierce st.

SOUTH OMAHA. Sell Twenty Feet. About 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, J. B. Watkins, of the J. B. Watkins & Co., lumber company, while at work on the roof of the Barry block N. and Twenty-seventh streets, fell to the ground, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet.

The Copper Situation. Paris, March 20.—It is stated that the holders of the copper warrants have decided not to sell them, but to continue negotiations with the mine owners with a view to reaching an agreement for the diminished production.

Another Losing Road. INDIANAPOLIS, March 20.—The annual report of the Chicago, St. Louis & Pittsburg railroad for the year 1888 shows a decrease in gross earnings as compared with 1887 of $516,000. The net results on all lines show a loss of $216,000 against a profit in 1887 of $540,000.

FOR ACHE AND PAINS. Recent, Prompt, Good Results. Headache, Kansas City, Mo., June 23, 1888. The "Pain" says: MR. CHAS. BAKER, Cor. 1st and 2nd Sts., has cured me of my headache, at times unbearable, by using your "Pain" ointment. I have used it several times, and it has cured me every time. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better.

THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Md. SPECIAL NOTICES. LOST—An English pug dog. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning him to 533 Willow avenue, corner 6th st.

GIRL wanted for general house work, 722 Willow ave. Mrs. J. Mueller. IF you have property of any kind to sell or exchange see Johnston & VanPatton, 33 Main.

FOR RENT—Office No. 2 over Baird's confectionery store, lately occupied by Wm. Ward, architect. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—On monthly payments, house and lot in Van Brunt & Rice's addition, by J. Y. Fuller, 32 Pearl street.

FOR RENT—Possession given April 1st, the residence now occupied by Robert Carpenter, corner 9th and 2d aves., $30 per month. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—Furnished and unfurnished rooms, with or without board. Mrs. F. A. Burke, 523 Washington ave.

FURNISHED—Rent; second floor, No. 117 Fourth street. Mrs. John Wyatt, of the rural precincts of the eastern section of Brown park, and her festive hubby do not get along well together. There seems to be a cog out of the domestic machinery, and Mrs. Wyatt has taken up her bed and board and removed to her brother's home. The cause is a neighborhood guess.

Building Inspector Joseph J. Ereen granted five permits yesterday, one to Frederick H. Schmitt, on the alley between J and O streets, rear Twenty-fourth street; two to O. Thorndison, Forty-first and Monte Cristo streets, Harwood's addition; and three to M. S. Lindsey, Thirtieth and Hoffman streets.

Gus McDonough is having too much religious experience in his. For knocking down Major George Kelly of the Salvation army Monday night, yesterday Judge Reuther fined him $25 and costs. He is indignant with $20. At 10 o'clock next Monday he will answer before Judge Reuther for disturbing a religious meeting. The offense charged is for disorderly conduct in the Salvation army meeting at Hunt's opera house Sunday night.

Dr. J. Smiley is visiting in Shelby, Ia. Charles Reimer has bought the Gas Rag saloon at Albright. S. H. Robertson's part of the Louisiana lottery drawing is $500. Rescue nose company's house will be ceiled with boards and repaired soon.

Mrs. James O'Hara was very low last night, and called a doctor. There will be a meeting of Scandinavians on Twenty-sixth street Sunday forenoon. Max Horgen has opened the barber shop formerly occupied by Charles F. Darand. Both Daniel Smith and wife are on the sick list, Mrs. Smith having the lung fever. The cigarmakers' union will be formally organized and the officers installed this evening.

M. E. Hanlon, of Exira, has removed to this city and rented a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets. A Sunday child of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hara is dead, and was buried in St. Mary's cemetery yesterday.

Refreshments will be served at the Presidential social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Miller this evening. H. C. Barnes, of Springfield, has removed to this city with his grading outfit and has taken a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets.

A party of young society people, Wednesday evening, went to Omaha to spend the evening at the home of Miss Catherine White. Oliver Davis, son of the man who had grading contracts in the city last year, has removed from near Springfield and rented a house on Twenty-third and C streets.

The citizens of the Third ward, irrespective of party affiliations, are invited to attend the political meeting Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Darand. Messrs. Otto and Sawyer, of Creighton, near Chicago, Ill., have leased the building No. 309 and 311 South Twenty-sixth street, and will open a wagon and carriage manufactory and a general small shop.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Wednesday evening a section of the high bank on Twenty-fifth and C streets fell, coming within an ace of burying grading team, wagon and driver. The wagon was almost covered on one side, but no one was hurt.

A Sunday school has been organized in the German Methodist Episcopal church, and the Rev. Gustav Brecker is superintendent. It meets at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon. A public examination of the curriculum will be held about the middle of May.

Jeremiah and Timothy Courtney, of Exira, have secured the Epley brick yards between Exira and Council Bluffs, and a mile and a half streets, have removed to this city, and yesterday began repairing the yard for spring work. The city water has been connected.

Mrs. Simon S. Remer, H. S. Ober, Joseph H. Egger and Michael Kemmer have gone to the Platte for a few days' hunt. George W. Ferguson, of the Pacific hotel, conductor Jackson and five companions have gone up a few miles above Sioux City, Ia., for a short shooting time, while Fred Juley and James A. Hayes have packed their guns and ammunition and are west for a trial of the trigger and nerve.

THE BURKE TRACT GOING FAST.

The Burke tract is building up rapidly with nice new residences and is the most desirable place for a home. If you want a fine lot here come now, or the chance to get it at first hands will be gone, for we are bound to close them out.

D. J. HUTCHINSON & CO., 617 Broadway.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 18th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Organist. An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 513 Main street.

New and full line of spring goods at the London Tailors, 637 Broadway.

An efficient organist from the east desires a position as organist in Omaha or Council Bluffs. References: Max Meyer and Charles Baetens, 325 Paxton building, Omaha, or 120 Seventh street, Council Bluffs. Good testimonials shown.

The finest line of spring goods to be found in the market is at A. Reiter's, No. 310 Broadway.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

Rooms to rent in the Merriam block, S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 236 Main street.

Something new and nice, English taffets at Baird's. You should try them, 525 Broadway.

Will exchange for horses or cattle, cottage 5 rooms, mostly completed; also two lots, all in Council Bluffs; also 120 acres near Sioux City. No incumbrance. L. D. Fowler, No. 10 Pierce st.

SOUTH OMAHA. Sell Twenty Feet. About 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, J. B. Watkins, of the J. B. Watkins & Co., lumber company, while at work on the roof of the Barry block N. and Twenty-seventh streets, fell to the ground, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet.

The Copper Situation. Paris, March 20.—It is stated that the holders of the copper warrants have decided not to sell them, but to continue negotiations with the mine owners with a view to reaching an agreement for the diminished production.

Another Losing Road. INDIANAPOLIS, March 20.—The annual report of the Chicago, St. Louis & Pittsburg railroad for the year 1888 shows a decrease in gross earnings as compared with 1887 of $516,000. The net results on all lines show a loss of $216,000 against a profit in 1887 of $540,000.

FOR ACHE AND PAINS. Recent, Prompt, Good Results. Headache, Kansas City, Mo., June 23, 1888. The "Pain" says: MR. CHAS. BAKER, Cor. 1st and 2nd Sts., has cured me of my headache, at times unbearable, by using your "Pain" ointment. I have used it several times, and it has cured me every time. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better. I have no more headache, and I feel much better.

THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Md. SPECIAL NOTICES. LOST—An English pug dog. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning him to 533 Willow avenue, corner 6th st.

GIRL wanted for general house work, 722 Willow ave. Mrs. J. Mueller. IF you have property of any kind to sell or exchange see Johnston & VanPatton, 33 Main.

FOR RENT—Office No. 2 over Baird's confectionery store, lately occupied by Wm. Ward, architect. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—On monthly payments, house and lot in Van Brunt & Rice's addition, by J. Y. Fuller, 32 Pearl street.

FOR RENT—Possession given April 1st, the residence now occupied by Robert Carpenter, corner 9th and 2d aves., $30 per month. Horace Everett. FOR RENT—Furnished and unfurnished rooms, with or without board. Mrs. F. A. Burke, 523 Washington ave.

FURNISHED—Rent; second floor, No. 117 Fourth street. Mrs. John Wyatt, of the rural precincts of the eastern section of Brown park, and her festive hubby do not get along well together. There seems to be a cog out of the domestic machinery, and Mrs. Wyatt has taken up her bed and board and removed to her brother's home. The cause is a neighborhood guess.

Building Inspector Joseph J. Ereen granted five permits yesterday, one to Frederick H. Schmitt, on the alley between J and O streets, rear Twenty-fourth street; two to O. Thorndison, Forty-first and Monte Cristo streets, Harwood's addition; and three to M. S. Lindsey, Thirtieth and Hoffman streets.

Gus McDonough is having too much religious experience in his. For knocking down Major George Kelly of the Salvation army Monday night, yesterday Judge Reuther fined him $25 and costs. He is indignant with $20. At 10 o'clock next Monday he will answer before Judge Reuther for disturbing a religious meeting. The offense charged is for disorderly conduct in the Salvation army meeting at Hunt's opera house Sunday night.

Dr. J. Smiley is visiting in Shelby, Ia. Charles Reimer has bought the Gas Rag saloon at Albright. S. H. Robertson's part of the Louisiana lottery drawing is $500. Rescue nose company's house will be ceiled with boards and repaired soon.

Mrs. James O'Hara was very low last night, and called a doctor. There will be a meeting of Scandinavians on Twenty-sixth street Sunday forenoon. Max Horgen has opened the barber shop formerly occupied by Charles F. Darand. Both Daniel Smith and wife are on the sick list, Mrs. Smith having the lung fever. The cigarmakers' union will be formally organized and the officers installed this evening.

M. E. Hanlon, of Exira, has removed to this city and rented a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets. A Sunday child of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hara is dead, and was buried in St. Mary's cemetery yesterday.

Refreshments will be served at the Presidential social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Miller this evening. H. C. Barnes, of Springfield, has removed to this city with his grading outfit and has taken a house on Twenty-fourth and C streets.

A party of young society people, Wednesday evening, went to Omaha to spend the evening at the home of Miss Catherine White. Oliver Davis, son of the man who had grading contracts in the city last year, has removed from near Springfield and rented a house on Twenty-third and C streets.

The citizens of the Third ward, irrespective of party affiliations, are invited to attend the political meeting Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. J. H. Darand. Messrs. Otto and Sawyer, of Creighton, near Chicago, Ill., have leased the building No. 309 and 311 South Twenty-sixth street, and will open a wagon and carriage manufactory and a general small shop.

Shortly before 6 o'clock Wednesday evening a section of the high bank on Twenty-fifth and C streets fell, coming within an ace of burying grading team, wagon and driver. The wagon was almost covered on one side, but no one was hurt.

A Sunday school has been organized in the German Methodist Episcopal church, and the Rev. Gustav Brecker is superintendent. It meets at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon. A public examination of the curriculum will be held about the middle of May.

Jeremiah and Timothy Courtney, of Exira, have secured the Epley brick yards between Exira and Council Bluffs, and a mile and a half streets, have removed to this city, and yesterday began repairing the yard for spring work. The city water has been connected.

Mrs. Simon S. Remer, H. S. Ober, Joseph H. Egger and Michael Kemmer have gone to the Platte for a few days' hunt. George W. Ferguson, of the Pacific hotel, conductor Jackson and five companions have gone up a few miles above Sioux City, Ia., for a short shooting time, while Fred Juley and James A. Hayes have packed their guns and ammunition and are west for a trial of the trigger and nerve.

Advertisement for SAPP & KNOTTS Fuel Merchants, No. 31 South Main St. Includes various signs for 'Watch The SIGNS of the TIMES', 'If you want a Nobby Rig', 'MONEY TO LOAN', 'SINGER MACHINE', 'READ THE B', 'GO TO THE BANKRUPT SHOE STORE', 'DR. S. STEWART', 'Singer Machine', 'MONEY TO LOAN', 'SINGER MACHINE', 'READ THE B', 'GO TO THE BANKRUPT SHOE STORE', 'DR. S. STEWART', 'Singer Machine', 'MONEY