

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE NO 12 PEARL STREET. Published by carrier in part for the City a Twenty Cents Per Week.

WHO WILL BE THE WINNERS? The Race for the City's Special Purposes, and the Entries. SOME OF THE HEAVY TAX-PAYERS where it is wanted. I wouldn't mind it once or twice, but it is an every day occurrence, and the yelling and swearing is a little to be desired.

LINCOLN NEWS AND NOTES. A Number of Peculiar Political Deals on Foot. SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing company. Join the watch club at E. Burborn's.

The committee on streets and alleys will meet this evening for the purpose of discussing the intersection at the corner of Avenue D and Ninth street.

Mr. L. S. Kendall, the genial yardmaster of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, rejoices over the advent of a brand new girl at his home on Seventeenth avenue.

The preliminary examination of the murderer, Thomas Brooks, will take place in Judge Aylesworth's court this morning.

The called meeting of the executive committee of the ladies' society of the Presbyterian church, which was to have been held in the church parlors, and the annual meeting which was announced for this afternoon, have both been indefinitely postponed.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff. How it shall be done and who shall stand the expense are the main points under discussion.

Gorman's Spectacular Minstrels drew a good-sized house at Doherty's last evening. Several new features have been added since the former appearance of the company, and a very amusing entertainment was given.

A large force of men is at work on the Manawa motor line, which is to be ballasted with cinders its entire length. Colonel Reed stated yesterday that he would begin running trains next week.

The funeral of Stewart C. Brown will take place this morning at his home, No. 219 Ninth avenue, Rev. Mr. Franklin officiating.

The art loan is worth your while to see. 15 cents admits you.

Barlett & Norton for hardware, stoves and cutlery, 787 and 2315 B'way.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block. Rooms to rent in the Merriam block. S. B. Wadsworth & Co., 236 Main street.

Heavy Taxpayers. "Our cash account will show up pretty well to-night," remarked County Treasurer Plumer yesterday.

For Sale or Exchange. A large and complete outfit in the way of LIVERY STABLE STOCK, CARRIAGES, etc., located in a flourishing city of 4,000 population.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.' loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal.

Accident to a Winelander. Fred, the sixteen-year-old son of J. S. Kuhn, met with an accident about 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bicycling.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 613 Main street.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 13th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Have you seen the $60 baby carriage at Brackett's? He has the finest line ever shown in the city.

From an Official Window. "Why don't you warn up those teamsters who abuse their horses so backing up to the rear of that building," asked City Auditor Hammer yesterday of a Bex reporter.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest. No publicity; fair and honorable dealing.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

Gorman's Spectacular Minstrels drew a good-sized house at Doherty's last evening.

The art loan is worth your while to see. 15 cents admits you.

Barlett & Norton for hardware, stoves and cutlery, 787 and 2315 B'way.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block. Rooms to rent in the Merriam block.

Heavy Taxpayers. "Our cash account will show up pretty well to-night," remarked County Treasurer Plumer yesterday.

For Sale or Exchange. A large and complete outfit in the way of LIVERY STABLE STOCK, CARRIAGES, etc., located in a flourishing city of 4,000 population.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.' loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal.

Accident to a Winelander. Fred, the sixteen-year-old son of J. S. Kuhn, met with an accident about 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bicycling.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 613 Main street.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 13th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Have you seen the $60 baby carriage at Brackett's? He has the finest line ever shown in the city.

From an Official Window. "Why don't you warn up those teamsters who abuse their horses so backing up to the rear of that building," asked City Auditor Hammer yesterday of a Bex reporter.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

Gorman's Spectacular Minstrels drew a good-sized house at Doherty's last evening.

The art loan is worth your while to see. 15 cents admits you.

Barlett & Norton for hardware, stoves and cutlery, 787 and 2315 B'way.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block. Rooms to rent in the Merriam block.

Heavy Taxpayers. "Our cash account will show up pretty well to-night," remarked County Treasurer Plumer yesterday.

For Sale or Exchange. A large and complete outfit in the way of LIVERY STABLE STOCK, CARRIAGES, etc., located in a flourishing city of 4,000 population.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.' loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal.

Accident to a Winelander. Fred, the sixteen-year-old son of J. S. Kuhn, met with an accident about 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bicycling.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 613 Main street.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 13th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Have you seen the $60 baby carriage at Brackett's? He has the finest line ever shown in the city.

From an Official Window. "Why don't you warn up those teamsters who abuse their horses so backing up to the rear of that building," asked City Auditor Hammer yesterday of a Bex reporter.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

Gorman's Spectacular Minstrels drew a good-sized house at Doherty's last evening.

The art loan is worth your while to see. 15 cents admits you.

Barlett & Norton for hardware, stoves and cutlery, 787 and 2315 B'way.

Dr. C. C. Hazen, dentist, Opera house block. Rooms to rent in the Merriam block.

Heavy Taxpayers. "Our cash account will show up pretty well to-night," remarked County Treasurer Plumer yesterday.

For Sale or Exchange. A large and complete outfit in the way of LIVERY STABLE STOCK, CARRIAGES, etc., located in a flourishing city of 4,000 population.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.' loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal.

Accident to a Winelander. Fred, the sixteen-year-old son of J. S. Kuhn, met with an accident about 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bicycling.

Headquarters for builders' hardware, Odell & Bryant, 613 Main street.

One Fare for the Round Trip. Tickets on sale April 8th, 9th and 10th, good for return from the 11th to the 13th inclusive for all who wish to attend the state encampment of the G. A. R. veterans at Burlington, Iowa, April 9th, 10th and 11th, 1889.

Have you seen the $60 baby carriage at Brackett's? He has the finest line ever shown in the city.

From an Official Window. "Why don't you warn up those teamsters who abuse their horses so backing up to the rear of that building," asked City Auditor Hammer yesterday of a Bex reporter.

Money loaned on furniture, pianos, diamonds, horses, buggies or anything of value at low rates of interest.

The city council failed to agree on a slate of appointees for the office of city clerk, city physician, poll tax collector, street commissioner, and chief of the fire department, at a caucus Monday evening.

Speculation is rife as to what the result will be, but no one seems to have any reliable authority on which to hazard a guess.

Of course there are a certain number who profess to know a thing or two, but if they do they are unwilling to tell what it is, and the public generally is as much in the dark as ever.

The matter of sprinkling Lower Broadway is receiving considerable attention from the business men of the bluff.

Advertisement for SAPP & KNOTT'S Fuel Merchants, Watch The SIGNS of the TIMES, and various other local businesses.

MERCHANTS BEGINNING WITH A CUT! IF YOU BUY OF THEM. AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

Advertisement for ADAMS & CO'S SHOES, THE BEST, CHEAPEST, and various other goods.

Advertisement for FIELD & HILL, FUNERAL DIRECTORS, and various other services.

Advertisement for LONDON - TAILOR, and various other clothing services.

Advertisement for What a Shirt, LOOK AT IT, and various other clothing items.

Advertisement for SPECIAL NOTICES, DWELLING HOUSE FOR RENT, and various other real estate notices.

Advertisement for BANKERS, OFFICER & PUSEY, and various other financial services.

Large advertisement for ODELL BROS. & CO. featuring a large illustration of a man and a woman, and text about their business.

Advertisement for 37,000 IN USE, featuring a large illustration of a man and a woman, and text about their business.

Advertisement for THE RUSSELL, featuring a large illustration of a man and a woman, and text about their business.

Advertisement for AUTOMATIC CUT-OFF ENGINE, featuring a large illustration of the engine, and text about its features.

Advertisement for STEAM HEATING OF PUBLIC & PRIVATE BUILDINGS, featuring a large illustration of a steam boiler, and text about the service.

Advertisement for F. J. BREZEE, Taxidermist and Naturalist, featuring a large illustration of a bird, and text about his services.