KICKING FOR A BIG REWARD.

A Novel Entertainment to Be Given by the Capital City Elks - General and Personal Gossip.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE.

Report has it that in an album containing the names of all the members of the lower house of the legislature. The report was yesterday proven to be true, and the question at once arises, how did the names get there? The book is a very ordinary and somewhat soiled volume, and is uninteresting enough on the outside, but its contents are apt to bring somebody into uncomfortable places somewhat. The supposition is that the compilation was made by some member of the demi-monde to make the place seem less lonesome when the legislature has adjourned.

They Want the Reward.

Baker, Bullock and Ferguson, the parties who captured two robbers east of the city a few days ago, demand a reward for the reward was offered. For some reason it was not turned over to them, and they now declare their rights to claim for it. The reward was paid to Marshal Cooper by the Palmyra party who offered it.

The Elks' Entertainment to-morrow evening is exciting much interest among the going circles in Lincoln, and promises to be all that those interested have claimed.

All America Defeats Chicago on the Dublin Diamond.

DENVER, March 28.—The great interest in the opening of the Oklahoma territory, evidenced by the throng which has crowded the place of the Oklahoma territory, was to-day opened. All day the office was besieged by anxious people waiting their rights to claim for the land.
