

Barr's

Are the recognized LEADERS in Low Prices and the Latest Fashions. If you note the prices quoted today in this advertisement, and then go to Barr's tomorrow, and examine the qualities, you will find out the absolute truth of what we are saying.

IT TAKES GREAT STORES TO GIVE GREAT BARGAINS.

Barr's Black Silk Department.
Headquarters for Black Silks.
Ladies' goods in the most desirable styles and qualities. You can never find this fact by simply going to our store and examining the qualities and prices of our large and well-assorted black silk department.
A new special silk velvet, the latest and most desirable black velvet.
You can buy a rich black Armure silk this week for $1.75 a yard.
We offer a beautiful Felted Silk, a silk that we know will give perfect satisfaction for 90c a yard.
A Satin Rhadame, most reliable goods, for 90c a yard.
Gros de l'oyat at $1.35; makes a handsome dress.
Intelligent investigation pays.

Barr's Colored Silk Department.
Headquarters for Silks.
Ladies, come to Barr's this week and see our assortment of richly colored silk novelties for street and reception wear.
We call special attention to our black and white and fancy colored China Silks. Fabrics for our door costumes at 90c a yard; regular value 75c.

Barr's Wash Fabrics.
A few pieces of Fine Imported Lace Zephyr Gingham, 37 inches, colors fast, 30c worth 50c.
37 inch Fine Zephyr Gingham, plaids and stripes, 25c.
Whitewash fine Scotch Zephyr, 30c.
Finest imported French Holland Sateens, latest and most handsome designs, 40c.

Barr's White Goods Department.
Ladies' fine 22 inch Mull Plaids, 10c.
10 pieces Large Flat, 15c.
10 pieces Fine Hemstitch Stripes, 20c.
10 pieces Fine Striped Muslin, 25c.
Beautiful Indian Dobby, 30c and 40c.
Genuine Flannels, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, etc.

Barr's Cloak and Suit Department.
We have just received the latest novelties in spring wraps, consisting of fancy Ladies' Dressing Suits, Mary Anderson Lace Circulars, Jackets, Fancy Jerseys, House Waists, Spring Shawls, etc.
In our Suit department we have an elegant assortment of Misses' and Children's Dresses, in the latest styles, and of all conceivable shades; also, Ladies' Suits, Tea Gowns and Wrappers.

Barr's Corset and Underwear Dept.
In our Underwear department we carry a complete line of Corsets, of all styles and sizes, of all materials, including the latest styles of corsets, made of the finest materials and of the best workmanship.
We carry a French woven long waist corset for 40c.
Also to see our "C" Silk corset, in light blue, cardinal and black. Something new.

Barr's Dress Goods Department.
BARR'S is undoubtedly the great HEAD-QUARTERS for fine and medium priced dress materials.
50 pieces 40 inch All Wool French Albatross cloth, in cream, sage, evening colors and street shades, 60c per yard.
40 pieces 40 inch All Wool French Foye Belge, in all the new spring mixtures, 50c per yard.
40 pieces 38 inch finest French Challies, 90c per yard; our own importation selected styles.
20 pieces 14 inch French Serotie cloths, $1.40 per yard. These come in double checks and border effects; latest Paris novelty.

Barr's Black Goods Department
Is now complete in every detail.
Some grand values in All Wool Cashmires and Henriettes.
The finest line of silk warp goods in the west in all the new and desirable styles.
A superb assortment of black and white silk mixtures in stripes and plaids.
A first class line of silk Warp Henriettes at $1.75 worth $1.25.
New line of All Wool Greenadines at $1.40 worth $1.25.
A Full Line of Family Mourning.

Barr's Lining Department.
We are sure to please the ladies with our linings for summer dresses. We aim to keep this department complete in every detail and have on hand a full assortment of Cambrics, Percales, Glases, Padings, French Caucuses, Silicas and Sateen Silicas.
Prices the Lowest.

Barr's House Furnishing Department.
Housekeepers will find that we are better prepared than ever to show in our house furnishing department all the necessary household necessities, Glases, Glassware, Crockery, &c. &c.
50-piece Tea Set only $8.00; handsomely decorated.

Barr's Fancy Goods Department.
Ladies! Do not fail to call and see our Fancy Goods. We keep all the latest novelties in ready-made articles, and a complete line of materials for use in art needlework. We call special attention to our low prices.
Plain China Silks, 60c yard.
Ladies' novelties in Figured China Silks, 90c yard.
Ladies' Chemise, 30c dozen.
Towel Linings, 50c piece.
We are now able to fill any order for indelible stamping as we make a specialty of this, and carry by far the largest collection in the city. Lessons given in all kinds of decorative work.

Barr's Ribbon Department.
Fresh arrival. Moire with satin edge, in all shades.
Special line of Gros Grain, satin edge, No. 9, at 10c per yard.
Fancy Neck Ribbons, in figured and striped, at 10c a yard.
10 pieces Satin, with gros grain stripes, No. 9, 10c No. 12 at 10c per yard.

Barr's Notion Department.
Great bargains for the coming week in our popular notion department.
Just received full line of Trimming Braids, such as feather braids, ribbon braids, etc. in various colors and widths, at 10c per yard.
We quote just a few of the new and desirable goods.
100 pieces Full Hosiery Buttons for wash fabrics in the latest shades, 50c dozen, 10c per dozen.
100 pieces 2 1/2 inch Dress Pearl Buttons, worth 10c, 8c per dozen.
100 pieces 2 1/2 inch Dress Pearl Buttons, worth 10c, 8c per dozen.
100 pieces 2 1/2 inch Dress Pearl Buttons, worth 10c, 8c per dozen.

Barr's Millinery Department.
Artistic Paris Bonnets and English Bonnet Hats.
$4.25—Beautiful Straw Bonnets, trimmed with flowers, ribbons and lace.
$5.00—Pretty Straw Bonnets and Toques, all colors, trimmed in best styles.
A large assortment of Paris Bonnets, Daisies, Violets, Leaves, etc., from 30c to $2.00. This is only one third of their value.

Barr's Linen Department.
Splendid Linen, Damask, 19 inches wide, for sheeting scarfs, 30c.
Largest variety of Honeycomb and Marseilles Bedspreads, from 50c up.
Embroidery Crashes, in all widths and qualities, from 1c upwards.
Extra fine Huckaback Linen, 27 inches wide, for fancy work, 90c per yard.
Lace Handkerchiefs, 18 inch long, very handsome, from $1.25 per pair upwards.

Barr's Gents' Furnishing Dept.
Every day adds something new in seasonable goods, never to be missed complete stock of gents' furnishings. We have just added a full assortment of the celebrated Star Suit Waists, in various colors and patterns, and a fine line of shirts, which we offer at our usual popular prices. We call special attention to the following:
50 dozen gents' full regular striped cotton shirts, 4 1/2 button, 40c.
50 dozen gents' untrimmed shirts (The Faultless at 60c) worth 70c, 50c per dozen.
50 dozen gents' medium weight Steel Cashmere Shirts and Drawers, at 25c each.
50 dozen gents' medium weight Merino Socks, full regular made, 5c a pair.

Barr's Handkerchief Department.
At this popular department will be found much that is new and attractive in ladies' dress goods. We have a full line of ladies' handkerchiefs, in all conceivable styles, in plain white, hemstitched, fancy pointed borders, white and fancy embroidered, all marked at prices which insure a speedy sale. We mention a few of our prices and invite inspection.
50 dozen ladies' hemstitched printed borders at 10c each.
50 dozen ladies' white and fancy embroidered handkerchiefs at 25c each.
50 dozen gents' white and fancy borders, China Silk at 10c each.
100 dozen ladies' embroidered China Silk Scarfs at 50c each.

Barr's Domestic Department.
Is the most complete and best assorted in the city, as can be proven by inspection of our satens, glashes, sergeeters, chevilles, crotons, percales, French caucuses and prints. The following are a few of our prices:
Garner's best satens, 10c a yard.
Cambric muslin, 10c a yard.
30 inch French percales, 10c a yard.
Holland French and Ayrshire dress glashes, 10c a yard.

Barr's Important Lace Sale---Special
The most beautiful assortment ever shown in Omaha.
Spanish Guipure, chintilly, English, Irish point and fancy laces.
Black lace novelties, great variety.
A fine assortment of black chintilly lace, for wraps. Also 16 inch black chintilly for valencenes laces, a large assortment, from 5c upwards.

Ladies' & Misses' Glove Dept.
We will put on sale Monday, a full line of kid gloves, Spanish Valen, at 60c a pair.
We have a nice line of taffeta silk gloves, in black and all colors, we sell at 25c.
Just received a new line of Helen Louise kid gloves, in all shades, $1.25 a pair.
50 dozen ladies' Milners silk gloves $1 a pair; in all the new shades.
Gloves fitted to the hand by an expert.

In Our Trimming Department.
We can show you an immense line of the latest novelties in the market.
Tinsel Gaiety, at 25c a yard, worth 50c.
Applying to all the desirable shades at 50c worth $1.25.
Black silk and beaded fringes for any style of dress, ranging from 10c to 50c a yard upwards.

Special Sale of Embroideries.
Monday and all week, prices ranging from 50c to 10c, worth 10c to 25c.
A large assortment of Swiss skinings for 50c, 50c and 60c, worth up to $1 a yard.
A large assortment of edgings, scalings, flouncings and borders.

Barr's Parasols.
We have received a full line of black and colored parasols, with long handles, ranging in price from $1.50 to $5.00. We call to your attention our patented attachment on parasol handles, which has the advantage of making handles easily changed, and also allows of their being detached so that they will go in any trunk.

Orders for goods or samples received from patrons in the country, are promptly filled and safe delivery of goods through U. S. mails guaranteed.

WM. BARR DRY GOODS COMPANY, 16th and Douglas Sts., Omaha.

Lincoln News and Notes.
Proceedings of the Republican Municipal Convention.
GRAHAM NOMINATED FOR MAYOR
A Legion of Candidates Already in the Field for the Position of Secretary to the Board of Transportation.

Lincoln Bureau of the Omaha Bee, 1029 P Street, Lincoln, March 30.
The city convention held to-day at 2 o'clock was spirited and full of interest. There was no waste of words or useless oratory. The battle had been fought at the primaries. Temple hall was crowded with the various delegations, and a hundred or more spectators who attended, doubtless, to cheer at the success of their favorites. The convention was called to order by Mr. McClary, chairman of the republican central committee, who announced the purpose of the assembling. R. H. Oakley and Senator Raymond were put in nomination for chairman. Raymond withdrew and Oakley was nominated by acclamation. J. H. Farwell was chosen secretary and O. C. Bell assistant secretary.

The committee on credentials having made report, the temporary organization was made permanent, and nominations from the various city offices was declared to be in order. Walter C. Graham, J. D. McFarland and John Doolittle were put in nomination for the mayoralty in the order named. But one ballot was taken. Graham was nominated, having received sixty-eight votes, and the boys were happy. The names were acknowledged the honor with a happy little speech. Elmer Stephenson, of the First ward, and John P. Johns, the present incumbent, were named as candidates for city treasurer. Both men had warm supporters, and warm speeches were made in their favor. Lamberton called that new blood ought to be grafted into the public trusts now and then, and as Jones had held the office three consecutive terms, he favored Stephenson. The convention evidently voiced its sentiment for Stephenson was nominated by a vote of 64 to 26. This contest proved to be the most exciting one of the day. Stephenson was carried to the platform to make his acknowledgments.

A. W. Scott presented the name of D. C. Van Dryn for city clerk, and M. E. Cheney named Mr. K. C. Manley as a candidate for the same position. After a spirited canvass the vote was announced and D. C. Van Dryn was declared the nominee of the convention for city clerk.

The alderman ticket nominated is as follows: First ward, Pat Hayden; Second ward, J. L. Doty; Third ward, Joseph Burns; Fourth ward, F. A. Boehmer; Fifth ward, H. M. Bushnell; Sixth ward, L. P. Pace.

All Sur of the Plum.
Monday, April 1, is the day set apart for the election of a board of three secretaries and one clerk and two other business organizations as may be done before the state board of transportation. A few persons who claim to be in a position to know, assert that the state has been agreed upon, and that the board of secretaries will remain unchanged. Others, however, are very emphatic in stating that there will be a general ousting, but that the board is wholly as usual as to who the successors will be. The following candidates all claim to have the inside track, and expect to knock down $1,000 each during the next two years: J. H. Ballard, of Geneva, Fillmore county; O. E. Walker, master of the state grange, Irraduate, Otos county; H. M. Wells, editor of the Vidette, Crestone county; N. V. Harlan, of York, York county; S. W. Gardner, of Red Cloud, Webster county; J. O. Love, of Fremont, DeLuca county; John G. Mumpse and J. H. Bunting, of Hastings, Adams county; F. P. Ireland, of Nebraska City, Oto county; W. J. Bryan, of Lincoln, Lancaster county; H. O. Healy, of Alliance, Saunders county; L. W. Gutchrist, of Alliance, Sioux county.

THE PART OF FRANCIS P. BLAIR
Continuation of Dr. Miller's Narrative of Construction Times.
FAMOUS MEN OF THOSE DAYS,
And the Part They Took in the Inauguration of One of the Greatest Enterprises of Modern Times—Etc., Etc.
Building the Union Pacific.
"I wish to recall attention to a statement I recently made about the reason why Mr. Peter A. B. De, the early chief engineer of the Union Pacific resigned his position. Mr. Poppleton, through the Mercury, corrects my statement, and I believe properly, although there might have been at the time some dispute about that. According to Mr. Poppleton's statement, and Mr. Bell of the Mercury prints a letter verifying it. Mr. De resigned because it was costing a larger amount of money to build through Mud Creek than it would have on the De line, and Mr. De holding that his honor was involved, would not permit it to be compromised. All who know him will know that this was very characteristic, and I have no question of the truth of the matter as stated by Mr. Poppleton. It is errors like these into which men whose memories are not liable to group all the incidents and movements in this part of the world in the early days will fall.
"Whilst upon this subject I wish to say that in 1853, when Mr. De began the surveys of the Union Pacific, associated with him at that time or soon after was our well known fellow townsman, Mr. J. E. House. It was in February, 1854, that the line was changed to Mud creek, the present roadbed of the Union Pacific. In November of that year Mr. John A. Henry, of Davenport, was appointed engineer in charge of construction, and served in that capacity until his resignation in the spring of 1856. Mr. House was called into the service in immediate charge of all construction work, and in that capacity he located the first 200 miles, graded it, and the first 100 miles and ironed the first forty miles. He directed the erection of the original shop buildings, saw mill and burnitiner, a machine for burnitiner ties, which was so much of a failure that it disappeared in due time. General G. M. Dodge was appointed chief engineer of the road in May, 1856, and it was at his personal solicitation and request that Mr. House was transferred from the construction to the engineering department and placed in charge of the Omaha office with the title of division engineer. Mr. House filled this position until the completion of the road in May, 1859. No words need be spoken about the long, faithful and able service of Mr. House in connection with the greatest railway enterprise of modern times. I desire to introduce at this time the name of a man famous in his day for his public service in congress and for his military service in the war; and whom perhaps such as any other decided the fate of Missouri at the early beginning of the war, and who was the intellectual and moral warrior behind the movement which resulted in the capture of Camp Jackson under Lyon in 1861, (Lyon, the hero of Dug Springs), who flew at the head of his small column to do battle against Price, and decided the destiny of Missouri as a United State. I refer to Francis P. Blair, jr., who was a candidate for the vice presidency on the ticket with Horatio Seymour in 1858. As brave and gallant a spirit, whether in civic or military life, as ever honored the American name or nation. He was among the men who in the very earliest periods of the construction of the Union Pacific, and came to Omaha as a commission to inspect the road and report thereon. The little village that then received him with the courtesy and cordiality due to a man of his rank and record contains few people in its present dimensions to-day who remember the general and gentle Blair, in social life unassuming, and in duty, of a trial possessing every apt, he was ready to face death at any time in vindication of his personal character or in defense of the public interest. He is now a resident of the city of St. Louis, where he is to be told of the gallant Francis Blair, of his anti-slavery war in Missouri, which came near costing him his life, and of his war for the restoration of the rights of the people of Missouri. He is a man in which his life and his energy were widely known as any other man in the country in connection with all railroad enterprises of later days as well as of the early days, being a promoter of the Texas Pacific, which he constructed, and other projects in that part of the country under Mr. Gould's system, including what might be called his own road now completed from Fort Worth, Texas, to Denver. General Dodge has been a director from the very beginning of the Pacific railroad as well as its chief engineer for so many years.
I may have to talk very plainly about the general in connection with the location of the Union Pacific bridge over which controversy arose that lasted many years, and I shall have something to say concerning that which many gentlemen in Omaha will doubtless not agree with, but I intend to bring to the attention of the city as to what I think I know and understand from beginning to end, and I hope to do this in our next conversation.
JUST A MINUTE.
News of the Saturday Evening Bee Boiled Down.
Chicago had a $800,000 blaze Thursday night.
The gold find at Santa Clara is said to be greatly exaggerated.
The Pacific investigation has been postponed till October.
The fishing touches are rapidly being put on the cruiser Charleston.
There is great dissatisfaction among the New York cigar makers.
The widow of Stonewall Jackson has declined an offer of the postoffice at Lexington, Va.
O'Brien's amendment to the Jesuit estates act has been voted down in the Canadian house of commons.
Edward Jarvey, who was injured in the company's mines in 1885, has secured a verdict for $125,000 against the Union Pacific.
Jude Prichett (colored), hanged at Chatham, Va., yesterday, fought so fiercely that it took four deputies to overpower him.
The English cabinet will propose at the next session of parliament a land purchase bill for Ireland, and have decided to introduce a bill for the purchase of land.
The St. Paul and St. Louis express went through a bridge near Queen City, Mo., Thursday night. The engine and train were killed. No passengers were hurt.
While excavating for the foundation of a new building at Ottawa, Ill., laborers found the skeletons of two men in one grave. They were identified as having been murdered.

Among the City Churches.
The President of Creighton College to Preach This Morning.
METHODIST BISHOPS TO MEET.
Notes From the Young Men's Christian Association—New Buildings in Prospect—To-Day Known as Mid-Lent.
General Secretary G. C. Jenner, of the Y. M. C. A., thinks he will have 100,000 members by mid-summer. Up to the present time 69,000 members have been enrolled. During the past two months the increase in membership has been 250. Mr. Jenner's assistant, H. W. Schachsky, will arrive tomorrow evening to assume his duties with the general secretary.
Nominations for the directory of the Young Men's Christian association will be made the early part of this week. There are five directors to be elected, and the members of the association are now preparing their ballots. The retiring board is composed of Dean Gardner, A. P. Tukey, P. L. Perine, G. H. Payne and L. O. Jones. All of these gentlemen are eligible for re-election. On the 1st of May the committee of the association will be elected.
To-day is mid-Lent, or the fourth Sunday of the fasting season. The offerings for domestic missions, for the remainder of the season the appointed offerings are as follows: For colored missions on Palm Sunday; for diocesan missions on Monday, Thursday night at the bishop's visitation; for Jewish missions on Good Friday; for parish indebtedness on Easter Sunday.
Whose Jewelry.
NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 30.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Two young men having their names as John McCall and George Wilson were arrested to-night while trying to dispose of some jewelry. They had about them five gold and eight silver watches and other jewelry supposed to have been stolen somewhere. They are held for identification.
Charged With Fraud.
NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 30.—(Special Telegram to THE BEE.)—Henry Eggenman was arrested to-day and brought to town at the instance of King Bros., of Chicago, for obtaining goods by fraud. He had been a general merchant at the above place and is charged obtained credit with the firm to the amount of $1,100 by misrepresentation and then failed. He was placed under bonds of $1,000 to appear for hearing April 9.

THE PART OF FRANCIS P. BLAIR
the movement which resulted in the capture of Camp Jackson under Lyon in 1861, (Lyon, the hero of Dug Springs), who flew at the head of his small column to do battle against Price, and decided the destiny of Missouri as a United State. I refer to Francis P. Blair, jr., who was a candidate for the vice presidency on the ticket with Horatio Seymour in 1858. As brave and gallant a spirit, whether in civic or military life, as ever honored the American name or nation. He was among the men who in the very earliest periods of the construction of the Union Pacific, and came to Omaha as a commission to inspect the road and report thereon. The little village that then received him with the courtesy and cordiality due to a man of his rank and record contains few people in its present dimensions to-day who remember the general and gentle Blair, in social life unassuming, and in duty, of a trial possessing every apt, he was ready to face death at any time in vindication of his personal character or in defense of the public interest. He is now a resident of the city of St. Louis, where he is to be told of the gallant Francis Blair, of his anti-slavery war in Missouri, which came near costing him his life, and of his war for the restoration of the rights of the people of Missouri. He is a man in which his life and his energy were widely known as any other man in the country in connection with all railroad enterprises of later days as well as of the early days, being a promoter of the Texas Pacific, which he constructed, and other projects in that part of the country under Mr. Gould's system, including what might be called his own road now completed from Fort Worth, Texas, to Denver. General Dodge has been a director from the very beginning of the Pacific railroad as well as its chief engineer for so many years.
I may have to talk very plainly about the general in connection with the location of the Union Pacific bridge over which controversy arose that lasted many years, and I shall have something to say concerning that which many gentlemen in Omaha will doubtless not agree with, but I intend to bring to the attention of the city as to what I think I know and understand from beginning to end, and I hope to do this in our next conversation.
JUST A MINUTE.
News of the Saturday Evening Bee Boiled Down.
Chicago had a $800,000 blaze Thursday night.
The gold find at Santa Clara is said to be greatly exaggerated.
The Pacific investigation has been postponed till October.
The fishing touches are rapidly being put on the cruiser Charleston.
There is great dissatisfaction among the New York cigar makers.
The widow of Stonewall Jackson has declined an offer of the postoffice at Lexington, Va.
O'Brien's amendment to the Jesuit estates act has been voted down in the Canadian house of commons.
Edward Jarvey, who was injured in the company's mines in 1885, has secured a verdict for $125,000 against the Union Pacific.
Jude Prichett (colored), hanged at Chatham, Va., yesterday, fought so fiercely that it took four deputies to overpower him.
The English cabinet will propose at the next session of parliament a land purchase bill for Ireland, and have decided to introduce a bill for the purchase of land.
The St. Paul and St. Louis express went through a bridge near Queen City, Mo., Thursday night. The engine and train were killed. No passengers were hurt.
While excavating for the foundation of a new building at Ottawa, Ill., laborers found the skeletons of two men in one grave. They were identified as having been murdered.

THE PART OF FRANCIS P. BLAIR
the movement which resulted in the capture of Camp Jackson under Lyon in 1861, (Lyon, the hero of Dug Springs), who flew at the head of his small column to do battle against Price, and decided the destiny of Missouri as a United State. I refer to Francis P. Blair, jr., who was a candidate for the vice presidency on the ticket with Horatio Seymour in 1858. As brave and gallant a spirit, whether in civic or military life, as ever honored the American name or nation. He was among the men who in the very earliest periods of the construction of the Union Pacific, and came to Omaha as a commission to inspect the road and report thereon. The little village that then received him with the courtesy and cordiality due to a man of his rank and record contains few people in its present dimensions to-day who remember the general and gentle Blair, in social life unassuming, and in duty, of a trial possessing every apt, he was ready to face death at any time in vindication of his personal character or in defense of the public interest. He is now a resident of the city of St. Louis, where he is to be told of the gallant Francis Blair, of his anti-slavery war in Missouri, which came near costing him his life, and of his war for the restoration of the rights of the people of Missouri. He is a man in which his life and his energy were widely known as any other man in the country in connection with all railroad enterprises of later days as well as of the early days, being a promoter of the Texas Pacific, which he constructed, and other projects in that part of the country under Mr. Gould's system, including what might be called his own road now completed from Fort Worth, Texas, to Denver. General Dodge has been a director from the very beginning of the Pacific railroad as well as its chief engineer for so many years.
I may have to talk very plainly about the general in connection with the location of the Union Pacific bridge over which controversy arose that lasted many years, and I shall have something to say concerning that which many gentlemen in Omaha will doubtless not agree with, but I intend to bring to the attention of the city as to what I think I know and understand from beginning to end, and I hope to do this in our next conversation.
JUST A MINUTE.
News of the Saturday Evening Bee Boiled Down.
Chicago had a $800,000 blaze Thursday night.
The gold find at Santa Clara is said to be greatly exaggerated.
The Pacific investigation has been postponed till October.
The fishing touches are rapidly being put on the cruiser Charleston.
There is great dissatisfaction among the New York cigar makers.
The widow of Stonewall Jackson has declined an offer of the postoffice at Lexington, Va.
O'Brien's amendment to the Jesuit estates act has been voted down in the Canadian house of commons.
Edward Jarvey, who was injured in the company's mines in 1885, has secured a verdict for $125,000 against the Union Pacific.
Jude Prichett (colored), hanged at Chatham, Va., yesterday, fought so fiercely that it took four deputies to overpower him.
The English cabinet will propose at the next session of parliament a land purchase bill for Ireland, and have decided to introduce a bill for the purchase of land.
The St. Paul and St. Louis express went through a bridge near Queen City, Mo., Thursday night. The engine and train were killed. No passengers were hurt.
While excavating for the foundation of a new building at Ottawa, Ill., laborers found the skeletons of two men in one grave. They were identified as having been murdered.