State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to before me and subscribed to in my presence this 24 day of March, A. D. 1890.

THE time to talk boulevards has come. EVEN the Waterworks company is moving toward Eighteenth and Farnam streets.

THE legislative deed has placed a quietus on the board of education's call for bonds.

THE BEE has contracted for exclusive use of Bill Nyo's copyrighted weekly letters.

THE building season in Omaha gives evidence of an early and promising opening.

THE senate Pacific railroad investigating committee may be looked for early this week.

RETIREDMENT is the order of the day among railroads.

THE state board of transportation in star chamber session elected its board of secretaries.

THE navy department is determined to have a full stock of our ships at Samoa, even though they pave the bottom of the harbors with their hulks.

IF the local members of the Oklahoma colony have a monkey and parrot time before their exodus, what may be expected when they reach the promised land?

OMAHA may expect greater activity in street railway construction this year than ever before.

CORONAL TANNER's first official act in turning the jackets of the democratic chiefs of the pension service has been altogether too severe to suit either the president or the secretary of the interior.

BY the time South Dakota is comfortably settled in the union, the people will be thoroughly prepared for the blessings of home rule.

THE farmers of Nebraska following the example of the farmers in Iowa, propose to resist the wine trust.

THE measure passed by the legislature to regulate the system for the drawing of juries is to be hoped will check the abuses growing out of the impeding of professional jurors which has too often brought discredit to our laws and our courts.

IF the "Q" would lop off some of its high salaried officials who have too often been guilty of bad faith to both stockholders and the public, instead of reducing its necessary working forces, the key to the policy of retrenchment would be found.

STREALKING streets by rival street car companies has not been definitely defined as highway robbery.

THE law requiring the city comptroller to make a monthly examination and report on the books of the board of education will give the public an insight into the peculiar business methods of that body.

THE Iowa state board of health has promulgated a series of rules and regulations tending to popularize the kerosene route to civility.

THERE is not much to cheer the patient, weary hearts of democratic officeholders in the report that the senate is disposed to let them serve out their commissions.

JEFFERSON'S BIRTHDAY.

To-day is the anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson. The great leader of the party opposed to the federalists, to which he gave the name republican, was born April 2, (old style) 1743.

The whole people hold in highest honor the memory of the author of the Declaration of Independence. His is one of the imperishable names of our history that will continue to grow in lustre and in the homage of a free people with the advancing years.

A BRIEF period of sober reflection convinces those who fought and bled for the honor, that legislative life is a waste of energy and a strain on one's character.

M. AUSTIN, of Grinnell, Ia., has been looked upon for some time as a prominent candidate for representative of this country to the Argentine Republic.

THERE is no scarcity of tickets or candidates for office in South Omaha. Every class and trade is represented, and the variety affords the voters an opportunity to select good men for the different positions.

THE observation of "An Omaha Abroad," printed in THE BEE fortifies the claim that Omaha real estate is the cheapest and best investment in this western country.

THE DENVER ROBBERY.

In the modern history of crime there appears no incident more interesting than that of the Denver robbery.

In the broad light of day, at the busiest hour, and at the most prominent corner of the city, almost in the presence of a score of clerks, with the footfalls of the passing multitude within plain hearing, the president of a bank was forced at the point of a pistol to yield up twenty-one thousand dollars.

"Billy the Kid" was an artist in his way. But he was crude and offensive. He liked to shed blood, and first and last managed to gratify this liking to a notable extent.

THE selection of Garber, Gilchrist and Gilkeson for secretaries of the state board of transportation is a rich compliment to Wahoo, Red Cloud and Alliance.

NEBRASKA soil is in splendid shape for spring planting. A remarkably early season has enabled the farmers to place the ground in prime condition.

NEBRASKA JOTTINGS. At Goodrich, formerly a resident of Verdun, died recently in Montana.

Burglars successfully cracked the safe of Dean & Fairchild at Marquette, and secured about $100 in cash.

Four North Bend men are in the clutches of the law charged with selling liquor without a license and will be given a trial on the 26th.

Three children of Jens Jensen, living near Oakland, are some wild parsnips the other

AIMING AT ALLITERATION.

A Peculiarity of the Nebraska Board of Transportation. LAWS FILES A REMONSTRANCE.

He Vetoes the Action of the Legislature in Donating the State's Property to Members and the Press.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, APRIL 1.

The old board of secretaries to the state board of transportation stepped down on this morning.

The old board of secretaries to the state board of transportation stepped down on this morning.

Albeit, speaking for himself, as to the future policy of the board, Mr. Gilchrist tersely remarked, "I propose to be as cold blooded as a lizard and do what I believe to be right."

"So far as I am concerned," said Mr. Gilchrist, "I propose to act for the people as in my judgment shall best."

"As for me," said Mr. Garber, "I will be found kicking along in the harness with my confederates. The sentiment of one will practice the same on the score of the state."

The personnel of the new board is summed up in a word. Mr. Gilchrist is fifty-three years of age and has devoted most of his life to farming and stock raising.

For the past fifteen years he has been in the practice of law at Wahoo, Saunders county, and which were said to be a part of the state.

In a moment of generosity during the closing day of the regular session of the legislature, the house of representatives voted several of the chairs and desks which had been used by members of that body and the reporters, which were voted to the new board.

The case of Benjamin Scaeffe et al, vs George Traver, which took up the time of Judge Field and a jury nearly all of last week, was decided by the court in judgment entered for the plaintiffs for $2,500.

That case ended the trials in the district court for this term.

Harry Roy was on trial yesterday before Judge Houston on the charge of killing a cow without a certificate of inspection and also for selling diseased meat.

That case ended the trials in the district court for this term.

THE FIELD OF INDUSTRY.

In Savannah, Ga., colored laborers refuse to work with Italians.

San Francisco clerks are supporting a movement to have stores closed on Sundays.

One thousand ship builders are on a strike at Belfast, Ireland, against a reduction in wages.

The tin mines of Dakota are to give employment to 1,500 men during the coming season.

The 10,000 washerwomen of Paris have formed a union. They will demand 75 cents per day.

Delaware river ship-builders have contracts enough on hand to keep them busy for two years.

The female cottonworkers of Madison, Wis., want their day's work reduced from twelve to ten hours.

Colored laborers are being brought from Virginia to the new granite quarries at Falls of French Creek, Pa.

A Michigan bill proposes to empower building inspectors with the enforcement of the law prohibiting child labor.

The New Orleans bricklayers have made a demand for 45 cents per hour, nine hours a day and eight on Saturday.

Laborers and mechanics are warned to stay away from Peoria, Ill., as work is dull and hundreds of men are out of employment there.

Castleton, Vt., has the only slate-pencil mill in the United States.

One man can chop 8,000 pencils daily on his own wheel.

Testimony in a recent suit brought by Harris Gold, of Philadelphia, Pa., to obtain wages due him, revealed the fact that he had been employed to make trousers for 90 cents a dozen, or 7 1/2 cents a pair.

Workingmen are warned to stay away from Peoria, Mich., and give no heed to misleading newspaper advertisements.

A bill recently brought into the states general of the Netherlands by the minister of justice makes provisions for the prevention of excessive labor of youthful persons and women.

A curious method of obtaining work was that recently employed by a Philadelphia man. He hung a board over his back inscribed "Work wanted," and took a stand in a business street.

At the master tailors' convention recently held in New York it came out that the Gothamite tailors keep lists of their customers after the fashion of such signs as "N. G.," "D. B.," "Black Sheen," "Fair," "Delinquent," "Undesirable," and the like.

Tradesmen of all kinds are requested to stay away from Superior, Wis., and Duluth, Minn., at present, as the number of laborers far exceed the demand, and wages for first class carpenters are only $2 per day and others in proportion.

The workingman's blacklist law which passed the Indiana legislature provides that such employers as may blacklist any workman shall be fined $500.

A Massachusetts bill provides that such employers as may blacklist any workman shall be fined $500.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

YOU have no doubt found it difficult to find a satisfactory soap for office use where the consumption is considerable and expensive soaps cannot be afforded.

"Cheap" soaps are used, but from their greasy, acid and irritating character, are very unsatisfactory.

No such experience can occur with the IVORY SOAP, for it is 99 1/2% pure, and no one is so poor but can afford "the IVORY."

Send your office-boy for a cake and try it.

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory."

They ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine.

Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

DEATH OF A RAILROAD MAN.

Charles W. Burdett, for a number of years superintendent of the Union Pacific bridge and the past eight years roadmaster at Denver, was accidentally killed March 25 while at work.

He had many warm friends in Omaha. He left considerable property to his widow and children.

His brother, Henry, of Gilmore, Neb., returned yesterday from Denver.

AN Important Deal. A rumor is afloat to the effect that the Union Pacific is making arrangements for the purchase of the Oregon Railway & Navigation lines.

What gives tangibility to the rumor is the fact that to-day C. A. Dolph, general attorney of the above company, arrived in Omaha from Portland and was all day closeted with Vice President Holcomb of the Union Pacific.

Inquiry was made, but no further developments could be obtained.

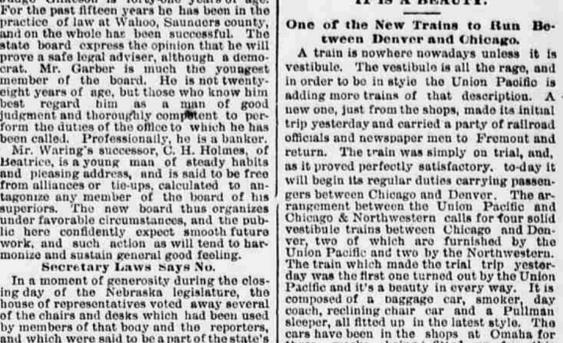

PEARS' soap secures a beautiful complexion.

NORTHWESTERN CHANGES. Trains No. 3 and 4 on the Chicago & Northwestern between here and Chicago have been discontinued on Saturday and Sunday.

The former train Chicago every day except Sunday at 12:01, and the latter Council Bluffs every day except Saturday at 6:40 p. m.

BOARD OF EDUCATION. The regular meeting of the board of education occurred last night eleven members being present.

The business transacted was a routine nature.
