

STANLEY PRESSING ONWARD.

The Great African Explorer Heard From at Last.

A LONG AND GRAPHIC ACCOUNT.

After a Terrible Experience In Dense and Trackless Forests the Expedition Reaches the Land of Promise.

Stanley's Letter.

[Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.]

LONDON, April 2.—[New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BE.]—The great African explorer, Henry M. Stanley, has at last been heard from in a long and graphic letter, dated on the Aruwimi river, in August last.

It gives a most dramatic account of the miseries through which he and his men passed on their way to the relief of Emin Pasha. Starvation, nakedness, desertion of native troops, pillage and desolation spread in his path.

Months of gloom in the heart of dense African forests, and the joyful entrance at last into sunshine and a land of plenty, form his thrilling narrative of adventure.

HE WAS A SHOOTER.

A German Citizen of Lincoln Blazes at Phantoms of the Night.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BE.]—To-night about 9 o'clock a sensation was caused in the Alexander block on the corner of O and Twelfth street by the actions of a German named Stutenburgh who occupied one of the rooms on the second floor.

He had been for some time under treatment for mental trouble, but had not developed dangerous tendencies before to-night. He had armed himself with an Evans repeating rifle and two revolvers, and began shooting through the doors, walls and ceiling of his room.

A crowd and several policemen were soon at the spot, but no one dared to enter the room where Stutenburgh sat at the table, gun in hand, watching the door.

He was finally secured by drawing the window by which he was looking out, and taken to the police station.

On his person was found a certificate of membership in the Knights of Labor organization of Jersey City, N. J. He is a middle-aged man and claims to have worked for several months with the Nebraska Phantoms. His certificate of membership was dated last December.

The man is undoubtedly crazy. He fired in all between thirty and forty shots at the walls and doors of two rooms, riddled with bullets. Several persons were struck by spent balls, but were not hurt.

HE LEFT NO WORD.

But His Record Gives All the Necessary Explanation.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 2.—[Special Telegram to THE BE.]—General H. K. McConnell, one of the most prominent attorneys of Kansas City, committed suicide this morning at 5:30 o'clock in his room in the Fifth avenue hotel by shooting himself in the head with a pistol.

He was not discovered until a few minutes later. He was sitting in a chair and had the pistol in his hand which he had shot himself.

About two months ago General McConnell figured in a sensational shooting affair at Kansas City, which resulted in the death of James McNamee, a well known contractor, came home unexpectedly and found McConnell in the act of shooting at him.

McConnell attempted to escape, but was shot twice by McNamee and seriously wounded. He had about recovered, however, and came to the city last night on business.

It was noticed that he acted strangely all the evening. McConnell's wife, who had never suspected her husband of any such thing, was prostrated ever since the shooting two months ago, and it is said, which caused McConnell to suicide.

McConnell held several important positions in his country. He was a brigadier general in the army of the Potomac.
