MARSHALS ORGANIZING A POSSE.

Beventeen Settlers Arrested and Held to the Next Term of Court -A Woman Burned to Death.

The River Land Troubles. FORT DODGE, Ia., April 5,-Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-Sheriff Adams and a single deputy effected the arrest of seventeen river land settlers charged with conspiracy, without serious trouble. The entire number of sturdy and determined farmers who defled the United States official peaceably accompanied the county officers, whom they regard as friends. They were arraigned in a justice court this afternoon, and, waiving examination, were each placed under $300 bonds for appearance at the May term of court. Bail was readily secured. The settlers announce an intention to then secure a postponement of the trial, and continue this policy until congress takes definite action. They hope to obtain certain relief from the next session of congress, and thus evade the present fine and imprisonment. The United States marshals who have been forced to suspend operations because of continual harrassment will not resume evictions until they can do so with largely increased forces. Land owners announce that evictions will be made if ittakes the state militia, and as the settlers state their determination to die rather than be driven from their homes, some stormy times are anticipated. Marshal Holbrook, who had charge of the evictions last fall, is organizing a posse to resume evictions on the Snell lands next week simultaneously with the Litchfield sylictors.

Fuller investigation of the reported shooting of United States marshals fails to confirm the reports telegraphed from Webster City and Des Moines yesterday. Later statements are to the effect that when the officers neared "Hell's Hollow" they encountered a party of boys squirrel shooting, and the boys fired at a squirrel and the mar-shals, thinking it was the settlers, took to their heels and retired to Webster City.

He was seriously hurt and died this morning. This is the second serious affair of the kind that has occurred in that county.

THE PRAIRIE FIRES. Additional News From the Flame

Swept Regions. YANKTON, Dak., April 5.—The stories of farmers who suffered by the flames last Tuesday show that it was no ordinary prairie fire. It licked up everything combustible, and grass, stubble and wood broke into flame seemingly without coming in contact with the fire. Combustion was almost spontaneous in the dry and heated condition of the atmosphere set in motion by the terrible gale.

Highwork, Dak., April 5.—The prairie fire was more destructive and calamitous than at first supposed. A revised list of deaths is as follows: Miss Annie Sweeney, Mrs. Thomas Tibbs and boy of four years: Mrs. Jessup, Mrs. Ruby and two boys, names not given. Several others are severely burned. BOULANGER'S MANIFESTO. Vive la Republique the Burden of His

Song. (Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.)
BRUSSELS, April 5.—[New York Heraid
Cable—Special to The Bee.]—The principal fact to-day in the Boulager affair is that the general and his friends have held two long conferences. After the second one Mm. 'Laguerre and Cassant returned to Paris, taking with them the following manifesto, which will make its appearance in the Paris morning papers: "To the Electors-You have read the requisition which the procureur general, Quesnay de Beaurepaire, has presented to the chamber of deputies in order to attempt to justify the infamous proceedings to which the frightened parliament has given its adhesion. It is proposed to bring me before an exceptional tribunal, before the senate, composed of my enemies, whom I cannot Going the odious document of M. de Beaurepaire treats nearly all the acts of my existence prior to my being minister of war, and to my return to political life, as so many crimes. These acts have long been known to all. If they were culpable I must have had as my accomplices the men who made me a minisister, and more especially those who were my colleagues, as for the rest all the lying inventions of of the man who has placed himself at the service of a dishonored government, and who for that reason has proved himself unworthy of the title of magistrate. will have no hold on your minds. You will treat this pitiful romance with the contempt that it inspires in me. As a soldier I devoted my life to the service of the country, as a minister of war I contributed to her defence, and as a patriot and a citizen I have had the legitimate ambition to wrest the republic from the hands of those who were weakenand ruining it. You desire and I desire an honest republic, a republic for all good Frenchmen. In one word a national republic. You wish and 1 wish to secure the republic by legal means, by the regular exercise of universal suffrage. All the violence, all the calumnies that are heaped upon us will not turn us aside, neither from the end we have in view nor from the means we have resolved on for reaching that end. In a few months universal suffrage will confirm your decision, which this requisition of an agent of a chance and exceptional jurisdiction is careful not to mention. It will in this way by its sovereign sentence assure the deliverance of our country. Vive la France! Vive la Republique!

"GENERAL BOULANGER." BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

The Slayer of a Whole Family Captured in Arkansas. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 5 .- A Fordyce, Ark., special says: G. B. Dickson, sheriff of Titus county, Texas, has arrested Frank Shultz at that place on a charge of murder. On the night of December 10 last the house of J. R. King, a well-to-do farmer of Titus county, was burned, and the charred remains of King, his wife and six children found in the ashes. Upon examination it was found that the skulls of all the family had been crushed in, and an axe and hatchet were found in the house. On the day of the murder King and his son, aged twenty, had killed hogs, and as they were to move into a new house a few hundred yards distant, they had carried the meat into the new house, and young King slept there to guard the meat on the night of the murder. Before going down to the new house for the night, young King had used a knife and had left it at the yard gate. Suspicion pointed to King's son-in-law, Schultz, first cousin to the man arrested here, who had run away with King's daughter and had forged an order for a marriage license, and it was fear of being prosecuted for forgery that caused him to murder King and his family. Schultz, King's son-in-law, had made threats, and has since confessed to a friend that he and his cousin did the killing—that he killed King and his wife, and that his cousin killed the six children and then set fire to the house.

Young Schultz, who was arrested here, came to Dallas county in January with John Parham, and has been living with him. He says he can prove that he was forty-five miles away at the time of the killing. The sheriff says that he has positive proof that Schultz was seen near King's late on the Cal was declared the winner after punishing the Philadelphia man's head and face almost to a mass of bleeding fiesh, in six rounds. The Philadelphian has a good reputation as a boxer, but never had any experience as a finish fighter. He is twenty-two years old, stands five feet four and a half inches tall, and weighed 113 pounds. Cal McCarthy has a record of never having been defeated. This was his twentysixth battle. His age is twenty-one years and he stands five feet two inches in heighth, weighing 114 pounds.

Both boys were in the pink of condition.

The Philadelphia boy proved nothing more nor less than a chopping block. In the first round the betting was $100 to $40 on Cal, and he scored a dozen clean left hand jabs on his account of the province of t opponent's jaw and face without a return. During the second, third and fourth rounds t looked only a matter of time before the lit tle Jersey man would knock Mat out. The latter was bleeding and swollen on the face and neck, and both eyes were closing. The fifth round was thought to be the last, but Holske's man proved himself very game. In the sixth and last round Cai met him full on the neck with a desperate left and right double-handed blow, and he went down Just as time was up he was on his feet stag-gering all over the ring. The Work of Ghouls.

MOTLEY, Minn., April 5-| Special Tele gram to THE BEE. |-- A matter that has caused considerable wonder and speculation among our citizens, and of which no satisfac tory solution has yet been given, is the molestation of a grave in the Motley cemetery, that of Emma Lyons, whose remains were buried three weeks ago. It was opened Saturday night or early Sunday morning. The grave had been opened by some sacrilegious person or persons, the coffin pried open, and the coly laid on the sand. It had been roughly handled, but was not mutilated in any way. It was then thrown back into the coffin, the lid replaced, and a few shovelfuls of earth

A Cattle Shipper Tripped Up. Chicago, April 5.—A report is current that a prominent cattle shipper a few days ago approached one of the weighmasters in the employ of the Western Railway Weighing association and offered him a sum of money to return a false report of the weight of a certain shipment of live stock, or to pass it at an estimated weight. This is a clear viointion of the inter-state commerce law as recently amended. The agent accepted the money and subsequently turned it over to George K. Carman, superintendent of the weighing association. Carman went at once to the shipper and confronted him with the charge of bribery. It is said that the shipper was greatly agitated and pleaded hard for no exposure, actually bursting into tears as the vision of the penitentiary loomed up before him. Both she and her mother testified that they did not know Paddock was a married man until 1884. It was put in evidence by Maggie Mitchell that there was no collu-sion between her and Paddock to secure a divorce.

Maggie Mitchell says that she married Paddock in 1869, and lived with him until the discovery of the Minnie Moore letter. She was a true and faithful wife and had supported him out of her means. She had frequently heard charges affecting his character, but did not put any faith in them until Minnie Moore told her story

A BLOODY ELECTION RIOT. The Town of Cohoes, N. Y., in the Hands of a Mob.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 5 .- Cohoes has been in the hands of a mob all day, and to-night the condition of affairs is unchanged, with drunken brawlers and excited adherents of the two factions still excitedly discussing the situation.

The democratic primaries to nominate supervisors, aldermen and a city ticket were held to-day. On one side was a Cleveland following, with Pestmaster Larkin in im mediate command. On the other was a Hill following, with Major Garside in command. The rioting was confined to three wards. In the other two the Larkin regulars had things their own way. The Larkin regulars had things their own way. The Larkin men had the inspectors. Garside's men had the police. The latter were present at the polls in force. Factional feeling runs so high that it is impossible to secure reliable news. Two democratic city tickets and two democratic candidates in each ward will be the result of the day's doings.

RETRENCHMENT.

An Economical Streak on the Part of the B. & M.

The policy of retrenchment adopted by the Burlington system on its Iowa and Illinois lines will, it is reported, be carried into effect by the B. & M. in Nebraska. On the Iowa and Illinois lines a general reduction has been made on almost every branch of the system. The clerical force has been curtaised, the number of train crews reduced and the working forces in the shops materially cut down. It was currently reported yesterday that the work of reducing the forces of the system in Nebraska would be commenced at once. The head-quarters' forces, it is asserted, will be especially affected by the new order. A large number of clerks will be laid off, a number of sinecures will be abolished and the staff generally reduced. The report was given currency last evening and caused a great deal of excitement among the Burlington's Omaha employes. They are all guessing as to their chances to dodge the lightning when it strikes. General Manager Holdredge and General Freight Agent Miller are both absent from the city, presumably upon matters curtailed, the number of train crews reduced sent from the city, presumably upon matters connected with the proposed change.

rigor throughout the system, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It seems peculiarly adapted to overcome that tired feeling caused by change of cason, climate or life, and while it topes and sustains the system it purifies and renovates the blood. We carnestly urge the large army of clerks, book-keepers, teachers, housewives, operatives and others who have been closely confined during the winter and who need a good spring medicine to take

Hood's Sarsaparilla "For years at irregular intervals in all seasons, I suffered the intelerable burning and tiching of blood disoning by ivy. It would break out on my lega, in my throat and eyes. Last spring I took Hood's Sar-saparilla, as a blood purifier, with no thought of it as a special remedy for ivy poisoning, but it has effected permanent and thorough cure." CALVIN T. SHUTE, Wentworth N. H.

"I suffered a great while with dyspepsia. A friend briged mu to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and two bottles have entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and a scrotulous affection. I can hardly find words to express my high appreciation of it." ALLEN H. MELHON, City Hotel, Lancaster, Pa.

ood, the weakening effects of the long, cold winter the lost appetite, and that tired feeling, all make a good spring medicine absolutely necessary. Hood's Sarsar arilla is peculiarly adapted for this purpose. and increases in popularity every year. Give itatrail.

That languld feeling, sometimes called "spring fever" will never visit the system that has been for by this never-falling remedy." W. H. LAWRENCE Editor Agricultural Epitomist, Indianapolis, Ind. "Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me of blood poison, gave me a noble appetite, overcame headache and dizzness, so that now I am able to work sgain." LUTHER NASON, 53 Church St., Lowell, Mass. N. B.
