adjourned. The last day was devoted to the consideration of minor bills.

The insane commissioners yesterday ex-amined Mrs. Harriet Meyers, living on Statesman street, a charge of insanity hav-ing been filed against her, and decided that she was not insane.

A meeting of the boys of the Catholic church is called for next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. Joseph's hall, to organize a club to furnish a booth at the bazaar to be given for the benefit of St. Bernard's hos-pital. L. MITHEN, President.

Coroner Waterman was called to Minden vestorday to hold an inquest over the re-mains of Charles Hartensen, a young man who resided in this city until about a month ago, who was found dead in an ice house there yesterday morning. The verdict was death from paralysis of the heart.

death from paralysis of the heart. The fire department was called out at about a quarter past 6 last evening by an alarm from box 35. The fire was in a small stable in the rear of the "Q." depot. The blaze was extinguished without much diffi-culty, and the loss was merely nominal.

Charles Machan, of Boone, is preparing to start up a steam dyeing establishment on Lower Broadway, just east of the North-western depot. He will be ready for busi-ness in about two weeks, as soon as he can not ble machinest set his machinery.

The monthly meeting of the Fruit Grow ers' and Gardeners' association will be held in the south court room of the county court house at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A full at-tendance is desired, as matters of importance demand immediate attention.

Papers have been filed with the clerk of the district court wherein the plaintiff, Cole Bros., claim of defendant, J. T. Hart, the sum of $43,060, alleged to be due them on business transactions that occurred during the partnership of Cole Bros. & Hart.

Fred Peterson, an eight-year-old pupil at the institution for the deaf and dumb, died yesterday morning of croup after an illness of three days. The funeral occurred yester-day afternoon. The remains were interred in the institution cemetery. The boy's parents reside at Marshalltown.

The Presbyterian young folks have pur-chased for their use in the Sunday school room a Concert Grand Knabe piano. It is not a second-hand instrument, as has been re-ported, having been used only for a short time at the Chautauqua assembly sessions at Crete, Neb., last year. It is a fine instru-ment, and the young recople are to be congratulated upon their really valuable ac

Work on the Broadway bridge over Indian creek is progressing rapidly, and the struc-ture will be completed in two weeks. The bridge should have been completed some time ago, according to contract, but the su-pervisors granted an extension of time. The new structure will be the full width of the street, and will add much to the appearance of Lower Broadway as well as to the con-venience of the public.

Adison Hill was arraigned; before Judge Aylesworth yesterday for the larceny of a watch from a second hand dealer on Upper Broadway. Hill swept out the place of business of the other and it is alloced that Walks and drives are also being laid out so that this spot will be easy of access from the city. The principal drive will be east of the driving park, from which point the grove can be easily retched. The attractions, at Big lake are numerous, and the new picnic ground will quickly be- come popular. At Fairmount the move now on foot is to run the electric motor line into the park. The indications are that within sixty days the cars of this company will unload passengers in the very center of Fairmount. A Midnight Row.

About midnight Thursday night there was a row on North Main street, and blows fell thick and fast until Officer Fowler took a hand and collared a couple of the belligerents. He succeeded in getting to the station with one of them, who gave the name of Charles Shaver, but the other, J. A. Billick, got away and retreated into his house and barricaded the door. Shortly afterward three or four policemen appeared, and the locked door flew open in response to the locked door new open in response to the united efforts of the peelers. All was pitch dark inside, and while one of the policemen went for a lantern the others stood guard. Before the absent guardian of the peace re-turned with the glim, Billick concluded to give himself up and came out. His brother Ed, who was also wanted, soon appeared in ed. the second state to be the second state to be Ed, who was also wanted, soon appeared in answer to his calls to "Show up and don't be a d-d bit afraid." The pair were taken to the station and locked up, with Shaver, but the fight was all out of them, and they passed the night in peace and quiet. Yesterday morn-ing Shaver pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace, and was fined $0.60. J. A. Billick was charged with resisting an officer, and Ed. was held for disturbing the peace. Both pleaded not guilty, and their case was con-tinued. When Ed. was arrested he concluded he had better go with the officer, "as it
