

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE, NO 12 PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in Any Part of the City...

REPORTED AS MURDERED. A Body Found Supposed to be That of John Kramer. A SPECIAL RAILWAY TREAT, The Funeral of Noland—Notes From Court—Farmers Cling to an Old Road—Another Motor Line.

section line. The argument used against this move is that the section lines run over very rough country, which would render it impossible for the farmers to haul an ordinary load to this city...

MANY WRECKERS RESULT. The Storm Works Havoc Among Shipping in Chesapeake Bay. BALTIMORE, April 9.—The storm which raged in Baltimore Saturday and Sunday swept over the lower Chesapeake bay...

N. Y. Plumbing Company. There will be a meeting of the Women's Relief Corps in the G. A. R. hall at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Council Bluffs Rowing association is making arrangements to give a party at the Masonic temple about the 5th or 6th of May.

A large audience listened to the temperance lecture of Joe Critchfield, "The rough diamond," at the Presbyterian church last evening.

New plate glass fronts are to be put in by W. N. Young's drug store and the building formerly occupied by the Palace saloon, on Middle Broadway.

John W. Paul, of Omaha, is figuring with Council Bluffs contractors for the erection of six cottages near the corner of Avenue G and Twentieth street.

Fritz Bernhardt has leased the room in the Everett block recently occupied by the Council Bluffs Patent and Oil Co., and will soon occupy it with a first class barber shop.

Officer Thomas was detailed for special duty yesterday, notifying the saloon men and prostitutes that their lines for the month of April are overdue and must be paid at once.

The street car that has been leaving the corner of Pearl and Broadway at 9 o'clock each evening, has been discontinued until after the completion of the new Broadway bridge at Thirtieth street.

J. S. Mercer and J. McLaughlin were arrested near the depot last evening by Officer Kent for burglary and the larceny of two horses from Mr. Pontius and a neighbor living in Silver Creek township.

The "Temple of Fame" will be presented at the opera house May 15 for the benefit of St. Paul's church. It is a musical and literary entertainment novel and pleasing, and will be given mainly by home talent.

A Bluffs Man Murdered. Yesterday morning a gardener, living in the eastern part of the city, called at the office of the city marshal and showed a German paper containing a telegram from Spokane Falls, W. T., announcing the finding of a body in the Spokane river...

Have our wagon call for your soiled clothes. Cascade Laundry Co. J. G. Tipton, real estate, 527 B'dway

A New Motor Line. The move for another motor line is meeting with favor. The southern part of the city desires some direct and cheap route to Omaha, and a large portion of the city lying south of Broadway is equally anxious for increased accommodations.

With the starting of a new company it is unlikely that the greatly desired 5-cent trains, morning and evening, may be secured. The building of Broadway bridge for crossing the river and from the approach to that bridge will run up into the city, thus accommodating the southern part of the city, which is too far from the electric motor line.

Not a Tear Was Shed. The body of the suicide and murderer, Noland, was yesterday buried. It was not expected that any services would be held, but in the adjournment of the business men's prayer meeting, the members came pouring down stairs into the undertaking rooms of Field & Estep.

Money loaned at L. B. Craft's & Co.'s loan office on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, personal property of all kinds, and all other articles of value without removal. All business strictly confidential.

The Deadlock Broken. At its meeting last evening the city council followed up its example of a year ago, and by a little judicious trading among the aldermen, managed to elect city officers.

Notice the beautiful finish given coats, cuffs and shirts by Cascade Laundry company.

The Barbers in Conclave. Twelve members of the barbers' union of Omaha visited this city last evening and held a joliet meeting with the journeymen barbers of this city at the shop of Frank Tevin, with a view to establishing a branch here.

Want the Old Road. A mammoth sack has been instituted by the farmer living on the old "Hallard state road" against the proposed closing of this road.

Council Proceedings. The council met in adjourned session last evening. Present Mayor Rohrer, Waterman, Bellinger, Everett, Knepper, Alderman, and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.

Real estate loans, F. J. Day, 39 Pearl. The council met in adjourned session last evening. Present Mayor Rohrer, Waterman, Bellinger, Everett, Knepper, Alderman, and the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.

Report of County Auditor Hendricks, of state appropriation for railroad company and neglected to pay a bill of $65 for the services of a paving inspector in paving Broadway after said company had relaid its tracks, was referred to the special committee on damages on Avenue A.

On motion of Alderman Everett, the council proceeded to elect city officers. The first ballot was a formal one. It resulted as follows: C. D. Walters 4, J. L. Templeton 3.

The council immediately convened as a board of health. The reading of the minutes were dispensed with. On motion, it was decided to proceed to elect a city physician.

Resolved, That the above preamble and resolutions be placed on the records of the company, and a copy of the same be furnished to M. B. Brown, esq.

At the Institution. "I have been out to the institution for the deaf and dumb," said Rev. G. W. Croft, to The Bee, yesterday, "and I am extremely well pleased with what I saw."

Attention, Firemen. All members of the Council Bluffs Firemen's association are hereby notified to meet at No. 4 fire house this afternoon at 1 o'clock, sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral of James Soars, of engine company No. 1.

Religious Activity in Texas. NAVASOTO, TEX., April 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The ministers of this section have adopted vigorous christian methods in dealing with delinquents.

Another Futile Ballot. PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 9.—The legislative body met in joint session and took another ballot for United States senator, which was without result.

Two Trains Badly Wrecked. LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 9.—The west-bound overland passenger on the Atlantic & Pacific, which arrived many hours late, collided last Sunday with an eastbound passenger near Peach Springs, Ariz., 103 miles beyond the Needles. The trains, drawn by two engines each, met on a sharp curve on a high embankment and came together with a fearful crash, demolishing the engines and throwing them down the bank into a stream, carrying three or four cars with them.

The Burned Comet. SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The following dispatch to the Associated press has been received from Prof. C. P. Holden, of the Lick observatory, at Mount Hamilton: An approximate orbit of the comet discovered here on March 31 by Mr. Barnard, has been computed by Prof. Schueble. It is a short period comet, with a period of eight or eight thousand times as bright as at present, with a distance from the sun of about four million miles, on May 20 next. It should be carefully observed. The sky is now cloudy here.

For the Sealing of the Omission ship. SYDNEY, N. S. W., April 9.—Henry Scoble, the Australian seaman, will leave Sydney May 4 for England. On his arrival there he will issue a challenge to John Teemer, the American seaman, and William J. O'Connor, the Canadian seaman, to row on the Thames for $2,000 each and the championship of the world.

The Dressed Beef Investigation. ST. LOUIS, April 9.—Senator Vest, who arrived here from Washington to-day, says he will call a meeting of the senate committee appointed to investigate the dressed beef combination, of which he is chairman, about June 1, and they will take testimony through the summer.

SPECIAL NOTICES. FOR RENT—Nine room Swiss cottage in James block on Third avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets.

FOR RENT—April 1, two-story brick business house on 1st Broadway, opposite the opera house, Council Bluffs, Inquire of Robert Mullis, 191 Broadway.

FOR RENT—Office No. 2, over Baird's confectionery store, lately occupied by Wm. Ward, architect, Horace Everett.

A. F. CLATTERBUCK, REAL ESTATE BROKER, 419 BROADWAY, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. PRIVATE DETECTIVE.

Artistic Decoration! AT PETER C. MILLER'S. The Most Modern Novelties PAPER HANGINGS.

Religious Activity in Texas. NAVASOTO, TEX., April 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The ministers of this section have adopted vigorous christian methods in dealing with delinquents.

Advertisements for SAPP & KNOTTS Fuel Merchants, P.C. MILLER, and various local businesses like 'GO TO THE BANKRUPT STORE' and 'MONEY TO LOAN'.

THIS CHECK is good on presentation for $1.00 on each pair of pants bought of London Tailor. Good for Thirty Days. NO 637 Broadway. TAILOR'S SAVINGS BANK, DOLLARS or better.

THE ORDER WAS POST NO BILLS! KELLY & YOUNKERMAN. E. S. GROCERIES & STATIONERY. Full Line of SCHOOL SUPPLIES. Justice of the Peace, G. W. SMITH & BROS. Piano & Organ, N. W. PLUMBING CO. SANITARY PLUMBERS. W. W. BILGER. Real Estate, City Loans. W. A. HAYES. L. KINNEHAN. CITY STEAM LAUNDRY.

THE BEST IN THE LAND. THE Mueller Music Co. Is preparing for a Grand Opening and Piano Display, which will take place about May 1st.

Watch for the Date DR. Rice's Merial Support. PAT. NOV. 1, 1887. LADIES OF OMAHA AND COUNCIL BLUFFS ARE INVITED TO CALL AT Mrs. C. L. GILLET'S Hair Emporium.

THE BEST IN THE LAND. THE Mueller Music Co. No. 405 Broadway. WE ARE OPENING THE SEASON'S TRADE WITH A GREAT CUT SALE. On our entire stock. Call and see or write us. COUNCIL BLUFFS CARPET CO.

THE RUSSELL Especially Adapted for ELECTRIC LIGHTING, Mills and Elevators. AUTOMATIC CUT-OFF ENGINE. Specifications and estimates furnished for complete steam plants. E. C. HARRIS, Agent, No. 510 Pearl Street, Council Bluffs. F. J. BREZEE, Taxidermist and Naturalist. Permanently located at No. 14 North Sixth Street, opposite post-office, on motor line, Council Bluffs, Iowa.