

THE CITY.

The revenue collections yesterday were $12,145.95. The women's ball will take place at the Exposition hall on Tuesday evening, April 23.

Eight men charged with vagrancy were dismissed by Judge Berka in the police court yesterday. The case against Leon Kopold, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, has been continued until April 22.

A man named Golden was arrested yesterday on the charge of swindling, referred by a lady named Arnold. Nathan Merriam has disposed of his residence, corner of Twenty-first and Burt streets, and will soon depart for California.

Thomas Roche was arrested yesterday charged with having stolen twelve sturgeon valued at $2 from a peddler, William Simon. Work has been commenced in earnest on Deilone's new $50,000 hotel, on the northwest corner of Capitol avenue and Fourteenth street.

There will be an excellent May festival in St. Philomena hall on the 1st of next month and an excellent programme has been prepared for the event. J. H. Harrison was arrested yesterday charged with the larceny of a suit of clothes, valued at $30, from Edward Meredith at 716 North Sixteenth street.

A complaint was filed yesterday afternoon against C. L. Oakford, the street car driver who ran over Mrs. Goodson on Wednesday night, charging him with assault and battery. It is estimated that the cost of the sewer on Izard from Sixteenth street eastward will be in the neighborhood of $50,000. Bids for the construction are to be opened on the thirteenth.

The remains of Knud Nelson were interred in Forest Lawn cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held at the family residence, No. 2304 Dayton street, at 2 o'clock.

Personal Paragraphs. Colonel Guy V. Ninth cavalry, left for Fort Robinson, yesterday, to be present at the obsequies of his late friend, General Edward Hatch, United States army. At the Barker-S. J. Miller, Alvin D. Hogeman, Lincoln, W. Cleveland, John, Cary, Des Moines; F. Berzer, Shelby; M. Saunders, Platte Center; E. P. Campbell, St. Louis.

At the Arcade—David Sisk, Lindon; B. S. Harrington, Oakland; C. C. Baker, Fremont; John Brienbach, Coleridge; L. Jackson, Ashland; J. H. Harty, Alliance; L. O. Bartley, Atkinson. A. E. Johnson, of St. Paul and Chicago, one of the most distinguished Scandinavians of the United States, and especially identified for many years past with Scandinavian immigration from Europe to the west, is at the Paxton.

Stone for $25,000. To-day, at noon, bids will be open at the office of Engineer Potter, Shely block, for 4,000 yards of stone to be used in rip-rapping at Sioux City near the bridge. The material will be valued in the vicinity of $25,000.

Murphy's Mastodon. Hugh Murphy's gang of excavators, now at work on Eleventh street near Williams unearthed the skeleton of a monster mastodon yesterday. Mr. Murphy says they took out a wagon load of bones, among them a shoulder blade that measured three feet in length.

Third Ward Rubbish. That part of Dodge street, east of Ninth street, has been used for a long while as a dumping ground for all of the refuse of the Third ward. Garbage Inspector Goldsmith has placed a guard in that locality and will prosecute any person found depositing garbage or rubbish of any kind in that part of the city.

Bell's Valuable Padlock. Somebody stole a padlock valued at 75 cents from C. Bell, on West Farnam street, and he caused a warrant to be issued for three boys, Fred Johnson, Clay Mueselwhite and Henry Williams. Young Johnson was arrested yesterday afternoon. He strongly denies any knowledge of the alleged theft.

Paying for Payment. To-day Dr. Mercer paid to City Treasurer Rust $1,103.89 for tearing up the pavement on Twenty-fourth street from Patrick avenue to Grant street. Also $120.24 for the pavement to be torn up and across Jackson on Fifteenth street. This money was placed to the credit of the property holders in the immediate vicinity of these places.

Disease is the center of weakness. Use Warner's Log Cabin Hops and Buchu Remedy. The best Hop Remedy known. Drive disease out of the stomach, the center of weakness.

A Fire Department Display. There will be a public and an exhibition by the fire department of the city on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 23. After the parade, in which the city council, fire and police commission and city officials will be invited to participate, there will be an exhibition run on Dayton street from Sixteenth street to Ninth street, in which all of the fire companies will be given a chance to show agility.

Two Blazes. A mysterious fire broke out in a barn and coal shed at Seventeenth and Clark streets, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. A young fellow who was seen hanging about in the vicinity of the barn at a late hour is thought to have set the building on fire. A building at Florence belonging to J. J. Brown and occupied by Mr. Swanson as a boarding house, was consumed by fire, the cause being a defective fire. The building was valued at $50 and was uninsured. Nearly all the furniture was saved.

A Conductor Shot At. Yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Conductor Pettis, of train No. 6, on the cable line, was shot at when the car was passing Twentieth and Burdette streets. The bullet came from a house on Grace street, passed through the roof of the car and dropped at the conductor's feet. Superintendent Tucker, of the cable line, instituted an investigation, but could not ascertain the cause of the shooting. It is thought that the shot was fired by some boys who were playing on the roof of a tenement in that vicinity. The ball was of a .32-caliber.

A New Train. The connecting link between Nebraska and Kansas has just been placed in service by the Union Pacific railway. This train leaves Council Bluffs daily at 4:45 a. m.; leaves Omaha at 5:05 a. m., and runs through without change to Manhattan, Kan., making direct connections there with the Kansas division of the Union Pacific railway. It will stop at points in Kansas and Colorado westward, and for Topeka, Lawrence, Kansas City and points east and south via Kansas City. Returning, train leaves Manhattan at 2:25 p. m.; arriving at Beatrice at 6:25 p. m.; Lincoln at 7:50 p. m., and Omaha at 11:20 p. m., Council Bluffs 11:40 p. m., making direct connection with Kansas division trains from Kansas City, Lawrence, Topeka and the east, and from Denver, Salina, Abeline and all points west, enabling passengers to visit the principal points in Kansas and Nebraska in the shortest possible time. These trains have first-class equipment, consisting of smoking cars and first-class day coaches of the latest pattern. The car train will fill a long felt want, and is bound to be popular.

HARDIN'S THIEVES.

He Still Holds He is Willing to Prosecute Them. Mr. J. J. Hardin denies the statements made by Chief Seavey in regard to his showing a disposition to drop the prosecution of the thieves who robbed him of about $1,000 worth of guns and revolvers. He says that when $200 worth of guns had been recovered from Cowin, the pawn broker, and sufficient evidence had been secured to convict Dingman and Turfield of the robbery, he had a long talk with Captain Green in Chief Seavey's office concerning the prosecution. The chief was too busy to talk at that time, but asked Hardin to leave the guns at police headquarters, which he did. Green then told Hardin not to come again until called for, leaving an impression on his mind that Dingman and Turfield, who were still in the city at that time, were to be immediately arrested and prosecuted. Hardin says he received no word from either of the defendants, and was surprised to see in The Bee the statements made by Chief Seavey in regard to the matter, but still more astonished when he learned that the guns had been returned to the pawnbroker. Mr. Hardin denies that Turfield had made any settlement with him and that Turfield had any hold on him whatever that kept him from prosecuting. He says further that he has been and is still most anxious to prosecute the thieves if they can be found.

Depicted and Worn Out. The Hon. Albert Daggett, writing from the Senate Chamber, Albany, New York, says: I have used ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for the past 10 years with marked results. I have found them especially effective when the system more readily than any remedy I have ever found. I have also used them for rheumatism with very beneficial results.

Mistaken Identity. A case of mistaken identity was the cause of considerable commotion at the Union Pacific depot Wednesday. A large number of passengers awaiting the west-bound train at the depot, and, shortly before train time, a woman dressed in deep mourning entered. Some mischievous individual whispered to Harry W. King, who was in the crowd, and the curiosity of those present to see the heroine of the homicide was aroused. In an instant the word was passed around the depot and all eyes were turned upon the woman, who posed as a subject of admiration and curiosity unbeknown to herself. Not only was she the subject of admiration and curiosity by representatives of her sex, but the report reaching the ears of the sturdy engineers and trainmen in the yards brought them to the scene. Afterward work Officer Chamberlain persuaded the crowd that it was a case of mistaken identity, and reluctantly the throng dispersed. The woman's name could not be ascertained, failed to realize the situation and took the west-bound train unaware of the scrutiny to which she had been subjected.

Polinski's Method. A bevy of excited females talked a couple of policemen into hysterics at the station yesterday afternoon and succeeded in causing the arrest of J. A. Polinski on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Polinski, it appears, called on a number of residents of Harney street and received orders for the enlargement of photographs. He promised the completion of all orders by May 1, and gave an office number on Douglas street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth, as his place of business. He collected $5 from each patron, for which they claim they failed to give a receipt. The prospective customers went to the number given by Mr. Polinski, but, finding it closed, decided that they had been swindled and caused his arrest.

Mr. Henry Valerius, of Harper, Keokuk county, Iowa, has found what he regards as a sure cure for rheumatism. He says: "In regard to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, I am pleased to say that I can recommend it with confidence, and that it has done more for me than any other medicine for rheumatism, of which I have been a great sufferer." Sold by all druggists.

Objectionable Cement. Two gentlemen representing the Utica Cement company, of Utica, N. Y., arrived in the city yesterday, called by the action of the board of public works, forbidding the use of this brand of cement in public works in Omaha. This action was taken by the board because of a failure of the cement to give satisfaction where it has been used. The representatives of the Utica company examined the complaints made by the board and visited the locations where the poor quality of cement is said to have been shown. All effort will be made to have the board consider its action under a guarantee of quality to be offered by the Utica people.

Gallagher's Manifesto. Postmaster Gallagher said to a reporter that he will not be a candidate for the mayoralty. His reasons are that he is interested in city contracts and expects to continue in the contracting business; that a city official cannot legally engage in city contract work. "No one had authority to say I would be a candidate for any city office," concluded Mr. Gallagher. "If it is supposed by any of my friends that I would stand against Mayor Broach's Sunday closing order, in case the latter be nominated for re-election, they will find their mistake later on. I am in favor of the Sunday closing order, and would vote for Broach as against any democratic candidate who would not demand that the saloons be closed Sundays."

Starch grows sticky—common powders have a vulgar glare. Pozzoni's is the only Complexion Powder fit for use.

Mortuary. The remains of Charles Le Marsh, a printer employed on the Republican, lie at Healy & Healy's awaiting word from his relatives in Wyoming. The deceased was twenty-eight years of age. He will be buried under the auspices of the Typographical union, in the event of no word being received from his friends. Johnny Mahoney, the little boy who was killed by the cars on Tuesday last, was buried in St. Mary's cemetery yesterday.

Becham's Pills act like magic on a weak stomach. The suit of George H. Drew, a carpenter, against Fremont L. Jaynes for $199 claimed for extra work on a house, consumed two days in Justice Kroeger's court. The case was tried by jury and resulted in a verdict for the defendant, he having receipts to show that he had already paid to Drew, although the contract called for $675. The jury awarded $25 damages to the defendant.

NEW CLASS ROOMS. New class rooms have been opened this week in the following buildings: Farnam, Long, Central, Lake, Pacific, Center, Hickory, Walnut Hill and Omaha View. It is possible that one or two more may be necessary in other places. A strenuous effort has been made to avoid opening new schools, wherever it was possible, but notwithstanding the number of teachers will have to be increased somewhere between twelve and twelve. The present force of teachers numbers 245.

AWAY FROM HER TROUBLE.

Libbie Biechler Starts Back to Her Mother's Cleveland Home. Libbie Biechler left for Cleveland last evening on the Milwaukee train. After a session of nearly three hours duration with her attorneys in General Cowin's office yesterday afternoon, they finally concluded that the quickest she reached her mother's home and care the better, not only for her, but everybody concerned. The poor woman is in a terribly bad condition. Her mind is shattered. Speaking of her last night, General Cowin said: "It is only a question of time until she will have to be confined in an insane asylum. I could see plainly that she was growing worse every day, and seriously considered taking upon my own shoulders the responsibility of having her examined. She could not remain here without being subjected to annoyances that irritated and worried her. The fact is," continued the general, "she is crazy, and I fear will never recover."

About half-past 4 o'clock Miss Biechler walked from Cowin's office, accompanied by Judge Baldwin, back to the jail and got ready to start on her journey. She was conveyed to the jail in a closed car, and hurried into the sleeping car without any other than the two lawyers, jail officials and Sheriff Coburn knowing it. They wished to get her away as quietly as possible, so as not to attract a crowd of curious gazers, and succeeded most admirably. General Cowin made complete arrangements with the railroad people to have her well taken care of and see that she goes through safely.

During her stay in General Cowin's office Miss Biechler acted very strangely. For fully one hour he could not induce her to say a word. Occasionally she would look around the room in a strange, staring sort of manner, laugh hysterically, and then lapse into a languid, motionless attitude. When she did talk, her speeches were accompanied by frequent outbursts of hysterical laughter, and she could not remember distinctly anything of the trial.

An Imperative Necessity. What pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat housekeeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody, at this season. The body needs to be thoroughly renovated, the blood purified and the system freed from the germs of disease destroyed. Scrofula, salt humor, and all other blood disorders are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the most popular and successful spring medicine.
