

THE CITY.

Eleven vagrants were discharged in police court yesterday.

The first meeting of the Omaha presidency will be held to-day in the Walnut Hill church.

B. F. Rodman was assaulted by a man too big for him yesterday and secured a warrant for his arrest.

The funeral services of Frank Walters will be conducted under the auspices of the Danish society.

Sara Small will give a lecture, "From the Bar Room to the Pulpit," at the first Baptist church May 20.

Dick Dwyer, the well-known ball player, yesterday received his appointment as a railway mail clerk between Omaha and Chgo.

The case against Alex Gauder, charged with carrying of C. S. Gardner's furnace in a scrap iron cart will be heard before Judge Herka to-day.

A warrant was issued in Judge Berka's court yesterday afternoon charging Charles Kitchin with the larceny of a $11 watch from H. Hartman.

A warrant was issued in police court yesterday for the arrest of James McCann, charged with stealing fifty cents worth of lead pipe from J. B. Barnacle.

Chief Seavey has recommended Charles O'Hara, late captain of police at Shenandoah, Pa., for the position of week watchman on Farnam from Thirtieth to Fifteenth streets.

Carl P. Metzger, a young man of nineteen, who ran away from his home at Elgin, Ill., is thought to be in Omaha and his mother has asked the aid of the police here in trying to find him.

Officers Marshall and Sergeant Johnson are rapidly recovering from their wounds, the latter being able to take an occasional walk. Officer Fish is the only officer besides those that is reported sick.

Frank Beard will give a chalk talk before the Y. M. C. A., this evening. Mr. Beard has an enviable reputation as a chalk artist and his entertainments are highly spoken of by the press.

There will be an open meeting of L. A. 7,625, K. of L., at their hall, Twenty-second and Cumine streets, next Wednesday evening, at which the public is cordially invited.

Personal. L. C. Lewton, of St. Paul, is at the Barker. E. J. Roderick, of Beatrice, is at the Paxton.

H. A. Brown, of Detroit, is a Millard guest. Leo B. Cobb, of Rochester, N. Y., is at the Millard.

J. P. Hathaway, Jr., of Kearney, is a Paxton guest. J. H. Drake, of Bancroft, is registered at the Barker.

C. C. Knapp, of Beatrice, is registered at the Millard. D. T. Kelley and wife, of Chicago, are at the Millard.

S. H. Calhoun, Jr., of Nebraska City, is at the Millard. W. Winslow and wife, of Crete, are stopping at the Barker.

W. G. Ward and wife, of Blair, are registered at the Barker. John Fitzgerald and John P. Sutton, of Lincoln, are at the Lincoln.

J. F. Hurst, Esq., of Denver, son of Bishop Hurst, is the guest of his college class-mate, Mr. R. C. Patterson, at 2513 Farnam street.

An Old Omaha. On April 5 Samuel Herman, an ex-president of the Omaha city council, died at Lake Geneva, Wis., and was buried at Indianapolis.

Three America Committees. Yesterday at the meeting of the directors of the board of trade, President Martin announced Messrs. D. H. Wheeler, Horman Koutzke and J. J. Brown as a committee to represent the board in opening of the great exposition of the three Americas, which is to be held in Washington in 1892.

The board discussed the appointment of an Omaha man to act on the interstate commission, vice Walker resigned.

Mickey Shay, the Highwayman. Mickey Downey, alias Mickey Shay, an old highwayman run out of Omaha two years ago, turned up as a vagrant in the police court yesterday under the brand name of John Brady.

Acquitted of Embezzlement. G. W. Morrow, a sewing machine agent, who was arrested a few weeks ago at the instigation of George S. Smith, general agent for an eastern sewing machine factory, on the charge of embezzlement, was put on trial yesterday afternoon before Justice Head. Morrow was discharged.

Looking for Grounds. The young men of the Y. M. C. A. are meeting with poor success in securing grounds for their athletic field. They had hoped to get a square in Koutzke place, but have been disappointed in their expectations.

Failed to Materialize. The carpenters who want to start a new union made another attempt to have a meeting last night. The call published announced that the meeting would be held in Goodrich's hall on Saunders street.

Richard's Challenge. Word has reached this city that "Dick" Shannon, of Nebraska City, has been invited by a man named Stuart, the builder of the pontoon bridge at that place, to meet and make the latter to kill him.

A Doctor's Bill. Dr. Ernest Hoffman was arrested yesterday by Constable D. P. O'Connell on a peace warrant served out by Detective A. Blaufuss, of the State of Nebraska Secret and Detective association. The trouble which led to the arrest occurred on a Thirteenth street car Saturday afternoon.

Actors Married. Judge Shields' private office, adjoining the county court room, was the scene, yesterday, of a quiet but somewhat interesting wedding. Clarence Linhard and Annie Wals were the high contracting parties.

THE DEAD OFFICER.

Imposing Ceremonies in Honor of the Late General Hatch. Yesterday the remains were removed from the beautiful room in which they remained during the night.

On the south side of the street, their polished rifles glistening in the sun stood the companies of the Second Infantry, of Fort Omaha, at parade rest, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel J. S. Fletcher.

The detachment of the Second Infantry, under Lieutenant Arrasmith, was drawn up on the sidewalk near the house. When the flag-encased casket made its appearance at the door, a number of heads were uncovered, and on order from Colonel Fletcher the ranks were ordered to march.

The line of march and procession was then taken up, as follows: Platoon, eight police under Sergeant Sigward.

Band, Second Infantry, under leader, Wiedemeyer. Colonel Fletcher, Lieutenant Ebert and Lieutenant Kinzie mounted.

Second regiment of police with arms reversed. Hearse containing the remains of the deceased and drawn by two black horses.

Pal bearers, Colonel McParlin, Lieutenant Colonel Brock, Lieutenant Colonel Terrell, Lieutenant Colonel Hyde, Major Henry and Major Barringer.

Guard of honor, composed of the sergeants of the Ninth cavalry above named, and making an imposing appearance.

Brother and son of the deceased. General Brooks, Major Vroom, Major Butler, Major W. H. Hughes, Major Taylor, Colonel Ludington, Captain Corliss, Lieutenant Truitt, Major Benjamin and Captain Euston.

Officers of the Ninth above enumerated. Thirty members of the various local posts of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The route lay north on Ninth to Douglas, north on Fifteenth to Webster. There the regiment fell to one side and presented arms as the hearse passed, the band meanwhile playing "The Star Spangled Banner."

At the depot the remains were placed on board a special chair car, and promptly at the minute of the schedule the train pulled out and the deceased general was forever removed from hosts of friends who had revered and loved him in life.

The escort to Leavenworth consists of Lieutenants Taylor, Finley, Day and Hutchinson, and the noncommissioned officers before referred to.

The officers of the Ninth cavalry and relatives of General Hatch were much pleased and gratified by the arrangements made by General Brooks, department commander, for the reception, care and escort of their late comrade.

Nothing was left undone which could contribute to the respect paid to the memory of General Hatch. They are also under indebtedness to Mr. Burt of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad, who placed at the disposal of General Hatch's family his own private car, in addition to another for the remains and the escort of soldiers.

A Great Battle. Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave.

A good reliable medicine, like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

Board of Trade Matters. At a meeting of the directors of the board of trade yesterday afternoon, a resolution recommending the appointment of Judge L. A. Groff, of Omaha, for the place made vacant in the interstate commerce commission by the resignation of Anderson J. Walker, was adopted.

The directors also recommended that the president and secretary of the board call a special meeting of the board of trade to consider the proposed appointment on Wednesday evening.

The meeting will be held. The president appointed D. H. Wheeler, H. Koutzke and J. J. Brown as a committee on the appointment of a delegation to attend the commercial congress of the nineteen independent states of three Americas, an exhibition to be held at Washington in October, 1892.

Arrangements were about completed for the weaker occurrence of the board. About forty members will go.

The Passover. During this week the progressive and the orthodox Hebrews of all lands celebrate the feast of the Passover. It is a memorable event of the Jewish calendar and is observed with the most religious fervor.

The celebration of the Passover will begin this evening at sunset. At the hour of sunset sun goes down all the male Jews over thirteen years of age will go to their synagogues and temples to begin the celebration.

The women of the household do not generally stay at home, but go to the synagogue to prepare the feast and illuminate the house. The Christian stranger who will go into a Hebrew temple at the sundown service to-day will feel an uncomfortable desire to uncover his head when he enters the meeting room, where the pews, the pulpit, the ark, etc., show that it is a place of worship.

The black silk hats, brown derbys and top hats worn by the men in the synagogue will be of the Christian, or other unfamiliar eyes, elements of incongruity due to forgetfulness.

In the Temple of Israel, on Harnes street, services will be conducted by Rabbi Benson at the hour named.

Catarth Cured. A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease, Catarth, at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death.

The sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 83 Warren St., New York City, will receive the recipe free of charge.

Actors Married. Judge Shields' private office, adjoining the county court room, was the scene, yesterday, of a quiet but somewhat interesting wedding.

Clarence Linhard and Annie Wals were the high contracting parties. The honor performed the ceremony with true judicial dignity, but did not kiss the bride.

That disapproving look which probably to the fact that her husband presented to her a muscular and dangerous appearance. Mr. Linhard and his wife are artists of the variety stage and are being engaged to perform at the Eden Music.

him and kill him. This is the version of the case given by Blaufuss, and in view of this he applied for a warrant at Justice Dunn's court for the doctor's arrest, and the arrest was made as above stated.

He gave bonds in $200 to appear to-morrow.

Indian Territory. I have used Swift's Specific for a scrofulous affection and nervous disorder resulting from blood poison, and pronounced it the very best medicine made.

Always Recommends it. I have used Swift's Specific in my family for years for various disorders incident to this climate, and it has always given prompt relief.

I took it myself for a nervous disorder produced by indigestion that had troubled me for five years, and it gave me the long sought relief. I induced a friend of mine to take it for a sore leg of over twenty years' standing, and it cured him.

HAYDEN BROTHERS' OPENING. How Crowds Enjoyed a Gorgeous Display Last Night.

The Hayden and Sixteenth streets, corner of Dodge and Sixteenth streets, was the theater of a busy and exhilarating scene last evening. It was the spring opening of this mammoth and popular house, and for hours there was a regular procession of handsomely dressed ladies, gentlemen and children passing to and fro, and it was all one could do to find accommodation within the establishment.

The entire house, from basement to the top floor, was brilliantly illuminated, and tropical plants and fragrant flowers abounding upon every hand lent an additional charm to its already enchanting realms. One of the most conspicuous, as well as pleasing, features of the Hayden Brothers grand emporium of the useful, the novel and the beautiful, is the exceptionally fine corps attaché and clerks. It is certainly one of the most efficient, accommodating and courteous forces employed in the city.

Every man and every lady employ, in polite, prompt and gracious. It is a pleasure to deal with such people.

The first floor of this colossal house is devoted to a stock of general dry goods, embracing silks, satins, velvets and dress goods, laces and trimmings of all descriptions, shades, designs and prices. There are many things in spruce and summer silks, in both design and shade, that captivate the fair sex and throw them into ecstasies of delight.

Then there are boots and shoes, ladies and gentlemen, in the latest styles, and in the most perfect workmanship. There is also a fine stock of hats, in all the latest styles, and in the most perfect workmanship.

The jewelry department is also upon this floor, and affords a rare opportunity to the public to purchase at a low price, and in the most perfect workmanship, the finest jewelry of the day.

The second floor is occupied by the general warerooms for the reserved stock, and that is an immense quantity of goods, including the vast loads of goods that are carried away from this thriving and bustling mart every twenty-four hours.

The fourth and fifth floors are also occupied by the carpet department, and here are to be had carpets from the luxurious Axminster and silk Brussels down to the cheapest grades. Personal and family linens, men's and women's wearing apparel, and a vast quantity of other goods, are also to be had.

The basement, divided into commodious departments, is given up to groceries, queensware and household goods, fruits, nuts, bon-bons and everything that is calculated to please the sight and taste the palate. There are no corners, and the fact of the spring opening of the Hayden Brothers was a success, incident and unqualified.
