The regular monthly meeting of the Veteran Firemen's association will be held at the city building at 8 o'clock this evening. By order of John Bohn, president.

Building permits were issued yesterday to R. B. Armstrong for two cottages on Third avenue, to cost $500 each, and Peter Jackson for a $500 cottage on Twelfth street. Dr. Stewart, assistant state veterinary surgeon, reports two cases of glanders dis-posed of during the past month. One of the

The grand lodge of the Treubund insti-tuted a subordinate lodge in this city, Wed-nesday evening. It will be known as Coun-cil Bluffs lodge, No. 93, and starts out with flattering prospects. The first marriage license issued for week was taken out yesterday by A. E. Ax-tell and ida Bailey, both of Harrison county. The couple were married shortly afterward at the parlors of 'Squire Schurz. A citizen who has just returned from Chicago gives the information that he there saw, on West Madison street, the missing deputy city clerk of Council Biuffs. The young man was trudging along with a beefsteak in his hand, as if he lived thereabouts. Alexander Barr, of Harlan, was brought in by Deputy United States Marshal Wyland, of that place, for "bootlegging" whisky and placed under $200 bonds to appear at the next term of the federal court and answer to the charges. There are many waiting anxiously for the Electric Motor company to put on 5 cent rate for morning and evening, between the Bluffs and Omaha. Such a change would doubtless prove a profitable one for the company. The public would surely appreciate it. There will be competitive recitations in arithmetic and spelling this afternoon in the auditorium of the Bloomer school, between the pupils of the third grade in Miss Morris' room, at the Atkins school, and Miss Meyers' room, at the Bloomer school. The public generally is invited.

John McLaughlin and Charles Cleveland were arrested, yesterday, on suspicion of breaking open a tool chest belonging to C. J. Anderson, a carpenter working in a house in Squires' addition. About $70 worth of tools were stolen, and some of them were recovered in an Omaha pawnshop. Preparations for Easter services of unus ual interest in all the churches are nearly completed. At the Congregational church the services will be in charge of the committee of the Juvenile Society of Caristian Endeavor. A special song service will be the attraction at St. Paul's. Benevolent association, of this city, re-turned home, yesterday morning, from Madi-son, Wis., where he succeeded, before the legislature, in having his company permitted to do business in that state. For Pure Milk. The question of diseased milk is again being agitated, and several complaints have been made to THE BEE. It is but a short time since two cases of consumption were found in Omaha dairies, and it is not improbable that similar cases should exist here, and for this reason; in order to protect the public from milk from such animals as well as to protect the honest dairyman, the appointment of a dairy inspector is recom-mended. The services of a competent vet-crinary could be secured without expense to erinary could be secured without expense to the city, the dairyman paying for the inspection of his herd at stated periods. An ordinance requiring all dairymen selling milk in the city to have a certificate from the inspector, regarding the health of his cows, would cause unscrupulous milkmen to quit the business or to conform to the regulations governing it. It is stated that an ordinance of this kind will be presented at the next meeting of the council, and that body will be asked to pass it.

Increase of City Business. "It seems a little strange not to have to get around to the city building every morning,' said ex-City Clery Burke yesterday, "but I guesa I am entitled to a place on the retired list if anybody is. I had a siege of it for twenty-nine years, and had almost become one of the permanent fixtures. There has been a great change in the amount of busi-ness done and the manner of doing it in that ime, in fact the whole system has been com-

"When I first went into office, the offices of city clerk and auditor were one, and there was no deputy. For years I transacted all of the work connected with those two offices myself, with exception of what my son Fin-ley, who was then a boy at school, could help me on Saturdays. In those days we always used to have the council meetings on Friday night. We would copy the proceedings and straighten out reports the next day. You straighten out reports the next day. You see, thirty years ago there wasn't any of this business that now takes up so much time the grading, paving and sewerage, and but very little sidewalk. There wasn't a group of city contractors on every street corner and half a dozen of them always hanging around the city building waiting for certifi-cates or bonds. These things all came gradually, however, and as ordinances were granted for the building of water works, gas works, electric light and telephone plants, the work of the office materially increased and now from three to five men are employed constantly to attend to the business of the offices of city clerk and its offspring, the city auditor. Yes, thirty years is a long time to stay in one office and as I said before, it seems rather odd to be out of it, but I suppose I will get used to it in a little while."

Before His Honor.

Judge Aylesworth is meeting with great success at the Bryant street recruiting station, and manages to keep the ranks of Officer Tyson's street brigade fairly well filled with recruits. Yesterday John Layton, John Murphy, Thomas Burke, Clarence Williams and Ira Bennett, vags, were enlisted for ten days. John Fay had a fricasseed drunk, with patrol wagon on the side, and it cost him

J. L. Boyd journeyed in from Shelby county, but his legs became weary, and he fell by the wayside. His rest at the station cost him the same amount. Mike Griffin, all the way frem Neola, mon-keyed with the Council Bruffs nerve tonic, and it got away with him. He was taxed $8.10 in addition to the original cost of mixture. He was short of cash, and was put on the streets to work it out. As soon as he saw an opening he flew, but was rearrested a few hours later, and will start in again this morning in chains.

Charles Baker and Mrs. Sarah Hill, the pair discovered Wednesday evening by Officer Mullen asleep in an alley in the eastern part of the city, were charged with drunkenness and lewdness. The man was fined $50 and costs, which he will work out on the streets. As the woman has a family, and is ordinarily well behaved and industrious, the court fined her simply $8.10 on the former charge. She will board it out with Scottish Rite rings and charms just received at C. B. Jacquemin & Co's.

A Sample Kicker. There is a class of individuals in this city who fondly imagine that they can give any editor in the land cards and spades and then tell him more about running a newspaper than he could over hope to know without their advice and suggestions. A member of this class had a few minutes at his disposal yesterday, and devoted them to the enlightenment of THE BER office. Said he: "Why don't you roast somebody? You ought to have a paper that is aggressive, and to be aggressive you must roast these follows who don't do right. The electric motor company ought to be ripped right up the back be-cause they don't reduce the fare between this city and Omaha to 5 cents. They will never do it until the papers jump onto them and roast them from h-l to breakfast. You keep on telling of the advantages to be derived from such a move, but it will not do a particle of good, and the scouer you give them a genuine red-hot roast the sooner you them a genuine red-hot roast the sooner you will get the cheap fare.

Why don't you roast McConnell for failing to come to time and enlarge Hotel Manawa! He is the man who kept the Union Pacific away from Omaha this year, but none of the papers ever peeped about it. That's another great chance for a roast that you let slip by. Then here's the school board. If ever anybody needed roasting it's that school board. The city voted a new school house for the western part of the city, and now the school board says the district is and now the school board says the district is too much in debt already, and the new build-ing must go over another year. What busi-ness is it of theirs, if the taxpayers want to pay for it? Is the school board going to run the city, or the city run the school board? I want to know if that don't call for a roast. The trouble is that the papers are afraid to climb onto these fellows and pound them, and none of them are made an example of. I could give you pointers to keep you busy for a week, but it don't pay to waste my time."

The Big Amphitheater. The contract for the erection of the new amphitheater at the grounds of the Council Bluffs & Omaha Chautauqua assembly, was yesterday awarded to Mr. J. A. Murphy, of this city. The contract price is $10,100. The next lowest bidder was Chris Besen, $10.254, and the highest bid was by an Omaha contractor, $19,554. Mr. Murphy will begin work at once, and expects to have the structure completed by the 10th of June. It will require nearly 200,000 feet of lumber, $0,000 brick and $2,000 worth of iron work to build to it. It will be a bandsome structure when it. It will be a handsome structure when

County Collectors.

Constable H. B. Crofts and Henry Cooper. of Oakland, have been collecting delinquent personal taxes for some time past, and came in yesterday to make a return to the county treasurer. They have collected about $1,000 that would not otherwise have been collected. The law allows them 5 per cens of what they collect, and the board of county supervisors is paying a small amount per diem in addition to that.

It is stated that the board is inclined to oppose this means of collection, and is averse to paying for it, and it is not yet decided whether or not the collections will be continued. Said a county official yesterday, in speaking of the matter. "The county will not have any too much money if it is all col-lected, and I think it is better to pay for collecting it and have the greater part of it in cash than to refuse to pay and have the whole amount on the books. It strikes me that it would be poor economy for the board to refuse to pay it."

Protect the Fishing. "A matter that should be looked after at once is the unlawful seining that is being constantly carried on by fishermen at Man-awa," said a local sportsman yesterday. "These offenders are daily violating the law, and ought to be summarily dealt with. It seems strange that the parties who have large financial interests at the lage do not take the matter in hand, as it is greatly injuring their interests, yet they seem blind to

To have good fishing grounds at the lake would do as much to make Manawa a popu-lar summer resort as any one thing. There are hundreds and thousands who go to Spirit lake simply for the fishing, and par-ties living near there Would prosecute a man for seining as quickly as they would for rob-bing their hen roosts or pig pens. Still at Manawa, those who are the most deeply in-terested in the future of the lake sit idly by with the greatest indifference imaginable with the greatest indifference imaginable and make no attempt to mete out justice to these pirate fishermen. I wish you would call their attention to the matter, and perhaps they will see that they are neglecting their own interests. Manawa is now splen-dialy stocked, and with a little care fine sport may be had there for years to come, but if these fellows and their seines are per-mitted to operate there much longer there will not be a fin left in the lake."

District Court.

In district court yesterday Judge Macy tisposed of a number of injunction cases Many were dismissed, but judgment was entered in the following: Overton vs John Mergen; Jacob Barton and John Mergen; G. T. Wolfe and Mrs. Price Gibson; John Norman: $50 and attorney's fees in each case. In the case of Gerspacher vs Flickinger, administrator, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff, foreclosure of mortgage ordered and a special execution of sale thereof.

In the north room Judge Deemer listened to the arguments in the case of Henry vs Evans. J. N. Baldwin opened for the glam-tiff at 10 o'clock, and talked until 4 o'clock, when N. M. Pusey began for the defense He had not concluded when court adjourned He will be followed by Colonel Sapp, and Judge Hubbard will close for the plaintiff. It is hardly probable that they will get through to-day. The Presbytery Meets.

The opening session of the semi-annual neeting of the Council Bluffs Presbytery was neld at the Presbyterian church, in this city, last evening. There were present about eighty delegates from the sixteen counties embraced in this presbytery. The attendance was unusually large, owing to the central location of this city and the ease with which it is accessible by rail from all parts of the state.
It is expected that about twenty-five more delegates will arrive this morning. The opening sermon last evening was preached by Rev. Charles Whetzel, of Avoca, the reby Rev. Charles whetzel, of Avoca, the re-tiring moderator, who took as his theme "The Reality of Unseen Things." The transaction of routine business was com-menced after the sermon. Rev. O. A. Elliott, of Logan, was elected moderator. It was decided to hear Mr. J. E. Harkness for a half hour this morning on the Chautauqua Assembly subject.

The Ladies' Presbyterial society will be in session the entire day in the Sunday school room. The annual address before that society will be delivered, this afternoon, by Rev. A. M. Berrett, of Shenandoah. The presbytery will hold over Sunday, and will adjourn Monday morning. John Myers, Bob Akers, Levi Painter and Merritt L. Taylor were arrested and taken before Justice Ross, in the northwestern part of the county, for examination. Henry Myers, another vigilante, appeared voluntarily. The parties arrested waived examination and county, for examination. Henry Myers, another vigilante, appeared voluntarily. Colonel W. M. Forbes explained the necessity of duplicate lines, and said the company in the next four years will need over $10,000,000 in the construction of new lines, mostly on the long distance system.
