The Board of Trade Excursion Taken in Chadron.

Omaha's Travelers Received Every where With Open Arms.—The Coaches and Horses Unloaded For a Spin.

On the Road.

CHADRON, Neb., April 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—A ride of an hour after sunrise on the 23rd brought the party to Long Pine. When the excursionists first looked from the coach windows they were passing through a country as uninviting as could well be imagined. It was relieved at intervals of miles only by the sod house or more wretched dug-out of some dauntless settler.

The soil was neither white nor black. It seemed to be undergoing the change which, as it is well known, has changed certain parts of Nebraska from a desert into a garden. How a human being could muster up courage to settle upon a few acres of such a waste was a mystery to the party.

Another train, east bound, stood on an adjoining track. Two cars of this were filled with braves, warriors, squaws and papooses. The warriors were marshaled in columns of fours and led past the Omaha men in a body. They were hideously painted in red, green and yellow, and their hair was braided, parted, coiled, interwoven with gaudy colored ribbons and ornamented with many designs, mosses, trimmed in the same manner as the hair of the Omaha wearers themselves.

At Crawford and Fort Robinson. Crawford, Neb., April 24.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Promptly at 3:30 a.m. conveying the train to Chadron.

At Crawford and Fort Robinson. The party were introduced to Major Wilhelm, Captain Ernst, Lieutenant Bingham, and other members of the garrison.

A Young Visitor. A young lad named Jimmy Mitchell crawled out of a B. & M. freight car at the local depot, yesterday afternoon, and was arrested by the police.

IN THE COURTS.

Judges and Lawyers Grow Facetious. But Transit Considerable Business.

The judges, the lawyers, and everybody else in the district court seemed to be enthused yesterday with an unusual spirit of fun. Judge Baldwin gave up his privilege of arguing a motion for a new trial in the suit of Mrs. Caroline Michels against Montgomery & Co., by saying that he preferred taking some other course to secure his ends.

George Davis, charged with burglary, was put on trial before Judge Coffey. A jury was empaneled at 10 o'clock and the trial commenced, after which the jury retired and convicted him of the charge.

Frank Williams was put on trial Tuesday afternoon on the charge of burglary. The jury was empaneled at 10 o'clock and the trial commenced.

George Davis, charged with burglary, was put on trial before Judge Coffey. A jury was empaneled at 10 o'clock and the trial commenced.

On Arbor Day the foreman's residence at the Douglas County nurseries burned to the ground. Only a little clothing and furniture were saved.

FROM THE HAWKEYE STATE.

Conviction of a Notorious Dealer in Counterfeit Money.

ANOTHER BOOTLEGGER TAKEN.

Several Business Men and Bankers in Des Moines Victimized by a Smooth Confidence Man.—Other Iowa Notes.

Des Moines Merchants Victimized.

Des Moines, Ia., April 24.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A systematic swindler started last night to victimize a number of business men, using the mayor as a decoy. He visited different groceries, and ordered purchases to be delivered at a certain street and a money order placed by presented a check for $25 on the Citizens National bank of this city, signed by the mayor, W. L. Carpenter. The check was accepted and the balance, about $25, was handed over. The same game was repeated elsewhere, and it was not until this morning when the grocers hunted for the fictitious number that they discovered that the mayor had promptly denounced the forger of his name.

Accidentally Shot.

Des Moines, Ia., April 24.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Stewart Heatly and Charles Ciperly, lads of sixteen and seventeen, went out Sunday afternoon near Long Tree, in Johnson county, to shoot ground squirrels. The elder boy noticed a flock of ducks coming toward him, and said to his partner, "Shoot the ducks." The younger boy, however, mistaking the ducks for ground squirrels, fired, and the bullet struck the head of the elder boy, who was instantly killed.

Death in Counterfeit Money.

Des Moines, Ia., April 24.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Frank Miller, of West Union, was convicted in the United States court, here, to-night, of using the mails for fraudulent purposes. He had been sending out circulars offering "green goods" for sale, and was convicted of using the mails for this purpose.

Fined for Bootlegging.

Des Moines, Ia., April 24.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—J. Ward Howell, a shoemaker in this city, was fined $50 and ten days for selling liquor contrary to law.

Governor Jackson is Well.

BALTIMORE, April 24.—Governor Jackson has entirely recovered.

TORTURE IN BOKHARA.

Confession in the "Black Well"—Squeezing Acid Into the Eyes. The report that the ameer of Bokhara has ordered the abolition of torture in his kingdom in honor of the czar's escape from death in a railway accident will suggest painful memories to Englishmen, says the St. James Gazette. The commonest form of torture in Bokhara is confinement in the "black well," which is a deep well, into which the victim is thrown. This was the fate of a student, who was afterwards put to death along with Conolly, by the present ameer's grandfather. Other cruelties too, were practiced by "the butcher," as he was called. The children were thrown down from high walls or towers, were flayed alive, or roasted in ovens. Mr. George Curzon, at the last meeting of the Royal Geographical society, showed a photograph of a student, who was afterwards put to death along with Conolly, by the present ameer's grandfather. Wanamaker's Clerks All in Black.

The lady clerks at the postoffice department are now almost in uniform black. This is a departure from the fashion of the past, when there has been no general order concerning female dress over there, nor, as might be supposed from the prevailing sombre black, has any high official recently departed this life. But in place of the dove color, and the soft pink, and the pale blue, and the other colors of the past, the clerks are now in black.
