SUNDAY TRAINS.
 A Movement to Reduce This Part of the Service.
 General Traffic Manager Mellen, of the Union Pacific, has gone to Chicago, where a meeting of the general managers and general superintendents of all the western roads will be held to-day. Some important questions will come up before this meeting. The principal one, however, is in connection with the abolition of the Sunday train service. For some length of time there has been considerable controversy over the running of Sunday trains, both passenger and freight, and the matter has reached that point that something pointing to their reduction is about to be arranged. The movement has been brought about by representatives of the Union Pacific, Burlington, Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley, Missouri Pacific, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, Milwaukee, Northwestern, Wabash, Rock Island, and in fact all western and central lines. In this direction its principal issue will be made on freight trains.
 Owing to the decrease in the volume of traffic, it is thought that freight can be maintained during week days, and that there is no occasion for operating freight trains on Sunday, aside from those required to move perishable freight. With this in view the representatives of the roads will meet at Chicago to-day and decide. Some of the lines also favor the reduction of passenger service on Sunday, and it is thought that a change in this line may result by operating through Sunday trains alternately by parallel lines.
 Should the Sunday freight trains be discontinued the train service of all the roads will be decreased about one-eighth, resulting in the saving of an enormous amount of money.
 An official of the Union Pacific stated that the change would be accompanied by a meeting to be held to-morrow the matter would be decided.

MINOR MENTION.
 N. Y. Plumbing Co.
 The condition of Mrs. Jacob Sims was very much improved yesterday, and her many friends hope for speedy restoration to health.
 The funeral of Miss Lucy White took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of her parents on Harrison street.
 J. H. Riland, Dobbie; Chas. B. Hardin, Moberly; M. K. Sawyer, Dixon; and R. N.
 Morrison, Milwaukee, were registered at the Ogden yesterday.
 Mr. R. S. Beasley and Mrs. Ina E. Kinne, both of Omaha were married yesterday afternoon at the congregational parsonage by Rev. S. W. Crofts.
 The ladies of the Harmony chapter, O. E. S., will hold a social in the parlors of the Masonic hall Friday evening, May 4. All members invited.

Who Shall Have the Money?
 The question of refunding the money recently paid over to the city clerk by the saloon men of the city as fines for April, and ordered returned by Judge Aylesworth, is still causing trouble in the minds of interested parties. Yesterday afternoon, John Lindt, esq., attorney for the saloon men, appeared at the city building, and demanded that the money be paid over as ordered. The city clerk refused, as City Attorney Holmes had instructed him that the cases were not dismissed. Judge Aylesworth was present, and insisted that they were dismissed, and ordered the money refunded forthwith. Some of the saloon men, and it is thought that the City Clerk, Burke, will hold about $800 belonging to the city, and refuses to turn it over until he is satisfied that the amount is actually paid. Of this amount, $125 is saloon money that must be refunded. It is stated that suit will be brought against the bond-men of the city clerk to recover the money.
 It will be remembered that when Judge Aylesworth made his ruling in the saloon cases, several of them were dismissed, and the others set for a new trial. The defendants did not appear in court, and bench warrants were issued for their arrest. At the request of City Attorney Holmes, the warrants have not been served, as he desired to make arrangements of some kind. The cases are still pending, and the indications are that the outcome will be the same as in those already tried, and the money paid in will be ordered refunded.

Laborers Dissatisfied.
 Considerable dissatisfaction is prevalent among the workmen in the repair track circle of the Union Pacific at this place. Tuesday two of the three men composing the wrecking crew were transferred to the repair track and two of the workmen at the latter point were discharged. In doing this the men taken from the wrecking crew are compelled to perform double service. They are included in the wrecking crew and are also compelled to work on the repair track with the men before very long. They have derrick is called out they must be on hand at any hour of the day or night and for the double service they are to receive pay for but one. They, they think, sayers of retrospective to finely and in consequence a bitter feeling toward a certain official is brewing.

Legal Varieties.
 A new register was opened in police court yesterday morning, and the first parties booked thereon were five vags, who were corralled in the Rock Island freight yards.
 Sam Driehack, who was arrested Tuesday evening for disturbing the peace, had his case continued until this morning. Two other evil doers settled for the deeds done in the body by promptly paying a fine and costs.
 George H. Dexter paid costs and took out a warrant to run an employment agency on Pearl street. There are certain features connected with this case that are yet to be developed. Some weeks ago Dexter applied there for a situation as a servant. A few days later Orlin Thomas went there to get a girl and the man asked Dexter to get a girl and Dexter taxed the officer another dollar for filing the vacancy. Thomas refused to pay it, saying that he had paid and that was sufficient. Dexter was persistent and the officer arrested him for running an employment agency without a license. The case was set for this morning, as above stated.
 Council Bluffs seems to be quite prolific in the way of miniature Jones county civil cases just at present, and men are to be found on every corner fairly active in suits, as in backing up 5 cents worth of opinion.

Equalized Rates.
 The petition of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha for the right to put in a tariff on business originating at northern Nebraska points on the Union Pacific to Duluth corresponding with that to Chicago has been granted by the board of arbitration.
 This matter has been before the traffic managers for a considerable length of time and every effort put forth by the Omaha road met with powerful opposition by the representatives of the Chicago roads. Why Chicago roads should receive a differential over Duluth for a like haul is what prompted the Omaha road to present its petition. This will make the rail-railone circuit for Nebraska products a permanent one.

Burlington Changes.
 The Burlington will make changes in its overland trains in the time of arrival and departure at this place to correspond with that of the new schedule on the Union Pacific. General Manager Holdrege left yesterday for Chicago, where he will attend a conference to-morrow in connection with the new transcontinental train schedule.

Was Overworked.
 John W. Scott, chief clerk of the passenger department of the Union Pacific is at Colfax Springs, and not in the best of health.
 He has been ill for some length of time which is attributed to overwork at his desk in the headquarters. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is recovering and will soon be at Kansas City with the title of passenger and ticket agent for the Union Pacific.

 The case of Barrett & Barrett vs Wheeler & Herard was called in the district court yesterday morning. This case is getting very chestnutty, and is covered with long, gray whiskers. It has twice gone to the supreme court, and been sent back for a new hearing each time. The costs, already, are in excess of the original amount in controversy. The case was begun in 1883, when the plaintiffs, who reside in Chicago, brought suit against the defendants, who reside in Council Bluffs. The case occupied the entire day yesterday, and was not completed when court adjourned.

New Landlords.
 As stated in yesterday's Bee, an important change is about to take place in the management of the Ogden house. The negotiations are not yet completed. But will be by the last of the week. Mr. A. W. Etter, an old hotel man of Los Angeles, Cal., and W. H. H. Pierce, of Sioux City, will be the new landlords, and continue to run the hotel at its present high standard. The proprietors now in charge, Messrs. Winter & Milligan, will remove to Chicago, where they will continue in the hotel business. They are now negotiating a lease of a fine, 200-room hotel, centrally located, in that city. Mr.
 Etter is expected to arrive here in a few days, and the final arrangements will then be made. Messrs. Winter & Milligan are courteous, affable gentlemen, ever solicitous of the comfort of their guests, and their departure from the city is to be greatly regretted. They have worked very unobtrusively to build up Council Bluffs, and to place their hotel on a paying basis. They have been very successful, and were not anxious to change, but they received a large offer, and seeing a promising opening elsewhere, accepted it.

Personal Paragraphs.
 Miss McDermott is seriously ill with tonsilitis at St. Bernard hospital.
 H. N. McGrew, for the past two years manager of the Omaha office of the Nonpa-riel, has severed his connection with that establishment and accepted a position as advertising solicitor for the Republic. The vacancy is filled by Mr. R. Hubbard, of this city, who has held the position of bookkeeper for that concern at the home office.
 He entered upon his new labors yesterday.
 He is succeeded by John Matthews, who held that position up to four years ago.

 participated. The concert room on the second floor was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. For to-night another attractive program is arranged. All are invited to witness the wonderful display, and enjoy the rare musical treat.

A Musical Opening.
 The extensive establishment of the Mueller Music company presented a brilliant and attractive appearance last evening at the opening. The interior has been beautifully redecorated and refitted. The display of pianos, organs and various musical instruments is the largest ever made in this city.
 Besides the other attractive features there was a most excellent concert, in which prominent musicians of Omaha and Council Bluffs
 program is arranged. All are invited
