The Irish Sultan of Morocco. It is not generally known that besides being the lineal descendant of the prophet's daughter, Fatima, by her marriage with Mohammed's famous General Bu Belr, the present sultan has some Irish blood in his veins.

He is the son of an Irish sergeant of sappers, who had been detached from the British garrison at Gibraltar at the request of Sultan Sidi Mohammed, died in the latter's service.

His widow, a pretty Galway girl, wishing to be sent home, sought an audience with his majesty. It was granted, with the result that Sidi Mohammed, struck by her beauty, made her an offer of marriage, which she accepted.

She became the sultan's favorite wife, and on his death her son, Muley Yezid, nicknamed "the Red Beard," assumed the power, and figures in history as the most sanguinary monarch known in the annals of Morocco.

His favorite pastime was to roast Jews alive in the body of a bull or to play bowls with the heads of his attendants, freshly decapitated for the purpose.

With strange inconsistency he would at other times perform acts of the most astounding generosity and kindness, thus causing his name to be cursed and blessed in turns.
