THE DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. OMANA OFFICE, NOS. 914 and 916 FARNAN STREET. CHICAGO OFFICE, 597 ROOKERY BUILDING. NEW YORK OFFICE, ROOKS 14 AND 15 TRIBUNE BUILDING. WASHINGTON OFFICE, NO. 618 FOURTEENTH STREET.

CORRESPONDENCE. communications relating to news and edi-matter should be addressed to the EDITOR Orial matter should be addressed.

OF THE BEE.

HUSINESS LETTERS,

All business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company, OMAHA. Drafts, checks and postofice orders to be made payable to the order of the company.

The Bee Publishing Company, Proprietors. E. ROSEWATER, Editor.

THE DAILY BEE.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, | 83, George R. Tzschuck, secretary of The Ree Pub-Hahing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of The Daity Bee for the week ending May 4, 1889, was as follows:

 Funday, April 28
 18,865

 Monday, April 29
 18,588

 Tuesday, April 30
 18,599

 Wednesday, May 1
 18,572

 Thursday, May 2
 19,068

 Friday, May 3
 18,577

 Baturday, May 4
 18,611

Seal.

Seal.

N. P. FEIL, Notary Public.

State of Nebraska,
County of Douglas.

Sea.

George B. Tzschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of the Bee Publishing company, that the actual average daily circulation of The Dally Bee for the month of April, 1888, 18,744 copies; for May, 1888, 18,185 copies; for June, 1888, 18,184 copies; for July, 1888, 18,033 cepies; for August, 1888, 18,185 copies; for September, 1888, 18,184 copies; for October, 1888, 18,034 copies; for November, 1888, 18,183 copies; for December, 1888, 18,123 copies; for Junuary, 1889, 18,574 copies; for February, 1889, 18,584 copies; for March, 1889, 18,354-copies, GEORGER, TZSCHUCK, Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 16th day of April, A. D., 1889.

N. P. FELL, Notary Public.

THE observance of the Washington inaugural centennial cut a wide swathe in the bank clearings of the mercantile cities of the country last week. Omaha, despite the holiday, shows up an increase as compared with last year.

Iowa is ambitious to become a great sugar state and wants government aid to develop the sorghum sugar industry. It may be questioned, however, whether the business can be made profitable, in comparison with corn growing and cattle raising, for which Iowa is preeminently adapted.

CONGRESSMAN DORSEY proposes to entertain a number of his brother congressmen this summer with a trip through the west. It is timely that men who represent the country in congress should acquaint themselves by a personal visit with the progress of this section of the country.

MANAGERS of western railroads have been summoned before the inter-state commerce commission, at Washington, to answer certain questions as to the methods of paying commissions on the sale of tickets. Interesting revelations may be expected when the commission applies the thumbscrews to these

MR. ANDREW CARNEGIE is said to ave contributed fifteen hundred dollars to help along some striking workmen. This would ordinarily be looked upon as a highly meritorious act. The fact, however, that these workmen were the employes of an iron mill in competition with his own puts a novel aspect upon Mr. Carnegie's practical sympathy with workingmen.

PHIADELPHIA is seriously considering the plan of building underground conduits and compelling the various telegraph and telephone companies to string their wires through them at an annual rental to the city. With New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and other leading cities of the country insisting on underground wires, the time is not far distant when Omaha will follow their example.

It is constantly reiterated that the building of lines west of the one hundredth meridian is for the present at least to be abandoned. Dispatches from Wyoming, nevertheless, bring the information that rival railroads are disputing every foot of the territory in the heart of the Rockies. The truth is, the roads already in Wyoming dare not for a moment relax their vigilance for fear that a competitor will cut into their territory.

THE farmers and taxpayers of Platte county are to be congratulated upon having a phenomenal county treasurer. He has voluntarily paid into the treasury a surplus of fees collected. The good example of Platte county's treasurer should be followed without delay by the treasurers of every county in Nebraska. For it follows as an axiom that what is true of Platte county is likely to be true of other counties, and the people may wake up all along the line to demand an investigation of the rec-

The incorporation of an English company with a capital of a million for the purpose of developing the beet sugar industry at Welldeet, Nebraska, will attract universal attention. It is the evident purpose of the company to engage in the industry of beet growing and sugar manufacture on a scale sufficient to insure its success. It is claimed that the sandy soil and water power about Wellfleet are admirably adapted to the business. If the prospect is as promising as the company would have us believe, Nebraska will gain a most important industry.

DAKOTA evidently enjoys a high rating in the centers of finance. The recent sale of territorial bonds was without precedent in the history of the public credit of that or any other territory. University bonds drawing interest at four per cent running twenty years, but payable at the option of the territory after ten, sold at a premium of three and one-half per cent. Other four per cent bonds commanded a premium of five and one-quarter per cent. The active competition for the purchase of these bonds is evidence of the confidence of investors in Dakota's public credit and varied resources.

A NEBRASKA IDEA ELSEWHERE. It should be very gratifying to every citizen of Nebraska to know that the observance of Arbor day, in the states which have wisely imitated her example, has this year been more general and zealous than ever before. There is evidently a growing and widening interest in this Nebraska idea which gives assurance that at a not very remote time it will have become extended to every state in the union, and will command the enthusiastic interest not merely of scattered communities, but of every communwhere there is a preponderance of intelligence, refinement and the finer and gentler sentiments. It is no longer the practical benefits to be derived from this annual tree-planting which alone commend the observance, but the beauty, the poetry, and the refining and ennobling influence of the "idea" have impressed themselves upon the people. Arbor day has been found by those who have given it proper observance, to be an occasion on which all can find pleasure, which may be made to appeal with delightful and improving effect to the sentiment and the imagination of both young and old, and the fruits of which are an ever-present and permanent incentive to maintain the beautiful and interesting observance. In New York and other states Arbor day this year enlisted the interest of the school children more generally than ever before. And this is growing to be the most delightful feature of the daythe grand army of American boys and girls in the public schools of the nation devoting one day in the year to setting out trees, under whose shade and shetter they and their successors will find pleasure and protection in the years to come, while contributing to practical benefits of immeasurable value. Arbor day was indeed a great conception, and Nebraskans have the right to feel proud of having given it to the country and feel gratified that the "idea" has taken firm root in many states and is annually

VERY SMALL BUSINESS. The attempt to deride and villify Governor Saunders because he has seen fit to take an active interest in postoffice location is very small business for great newspapers to engage in. Governor Saunders had as much right to go to Washington as Judge Crounse, John B. Furay, Jim Creighton and John A. Harbach. He had a right to go there as a citizen, either in his own interest or as a representative of other property owners who are interested with him. He has a right to remain there as long as he feels able to pay hotel bills. His presence his at Washington is not an offense against public morals or a menace to good government.

He may even go so far as to take dinner with the president and play peekaboo with the president's grand-daughter, who happens also to be his own grand-child. And so far as Omaha is concerned, she ought to feel proud of the fact that one of her honored citizens enjoys a relationship to the president and his family.

We have exhibited a great deal of pride because the father of one of our citizens was at one time a partner the father of General Grant in the hide and harness business, at Galena. We have even thrown up our hats when this Omaha citizen was taken into partnership by President Grant's brother as post trader at Fort Laramie.

Now has it come to such a pass that a man who has been governor of Nebraska for seven years and United States senator for six is to be lampooned and blackguarded because he has free entre at the white house? And one of the blackguards who is constantly flinging mud at Governor Saunders never refers to him excepting as Father-in-law Saunders, as if it were a disgrace that his daughter had married the son of Benjamin Harrison.

And this conceited and greedy booby has the insolence to intimate corruption and dishonesty in connection with the senator's course in the postoffice location. Were he a manly man with a grain of common decency in his makeup, he would realize that he is the last man to talk about the greed of Fatherin-law Saunders.

How about Father-in-law Crounse? Was he entirely disinterested when he joined Son-in-law in calling that postoffice meeting in a city in which he does not reside? Was he guilty of reason when he went to Washingtont o help his son-in-law sell one-fourth of the Planter's house block to Uncle Sam for two prices, and at the same time was trying to double the value of his rookery across the street? If the shoe fits one father-in-law, why is it a misfit on the other? And why should a man who helped to obstruct the erection of a city hall for three years keep up his howl against Senator Saunders and others because the postoffice has not been located within sixty days after Harrison had become president. Some people never know how small they appear until their measures have been ## taken in public view.

тне оню мал. The Ohio man was once, and not very long ago, a powerful factor in national affairs, but he appears to have entirely lost his grasp. At any rate, the present administration seems disposed to get along without him. With the exception of the appointment of Mr. Halstead, no citizen of Ohio has received preferment for any important position from President Harrison, unless the office of second assistant postmaster-general be classed as important. This is not due to the fact that Ohio men have been less modest than usual in urging their claims to consideration. They have been quite as ardent in seeking office as those of other states. The explanation lies in the fact that the factional conflict in Ohio has made it necessary for the administration, both for its own peace and as a suggestion to harmony in that state, to ignore the claims of both factions. It appears that the politicians are beginning to worry over the situation, which shows the wisdom of the administration's course, for only in this way can they be brought to make peace with each other. If they can be forced to harmonize there is every reason to believe the administration will give Ohio all the recognition she can reasonably claim, but harmony there must be. It is essential not only in order to prevent any issue between the administration and any element of the party in Ohio, but it is absolutely necessary to enable the republicans of that state to win in the election of next fall, which will be an extremely important contest, involving the election of a United States senator to succeed Senator Payne. The republicans of Ohio are making a very sorious mistake in quarreling among themselves, and the disciplinary policy of the administration regarding them is eminently wise.

THE fact that Secretary Noble, at the banquet of the Spanish-American commercial union in New York, took the ground that in order to build up trade with South America it will be necessary for the government to subsidize steamship lines, suggests that this is the policy which the administration may urge. Another speaker on this occasion, indeed, went so far as to say that he violated no confidence in stating that the president is in favor of granting government bounties to steamship lines, but no man's authority should be taken as to the president's views on this subject. The obvious conclusion, however, is that the subsidy question is likely to occupy prominent attention in the next congress, whether by instigation of the administration or not. The forces in favor of steamship bounties are evidently mustering for the conflict, and such expressions as were made at the New York banquet of the Spanish-American commercial union must be regarded as the notes of warning. It is well, therefore, that the public mind shall begin to prepare itself for a vigorous discussion of the subsidy question.

ADVERTISEMENTS in ready-made hand-me-down newspapers are worth no more than street dodgers and circulars. Papers that are given away are seldom read and hardly ever appreciated. As advertising mediums they are a sham and a fraud. This is well known to expert pusiness men who have made a study of advertising mediums and explains why some papers in these parts that circulate their papers by throwing them into the front and back yards of people who do not want them cannot procure patronage for their advertising columns at any price. Merchants who pay money for printers' ink want to see results, and they usually keep themselves well informed as to where their investments will bring largest returns.

THERE is probably a good deal of truth in the report that the Sioux are ready to give up nearly eleven million acres of their reservation lands. From all appearances, little opposition will be made to the signing of the agreement to be laid before the Indians by the Sioux commission. The new bill is eminently favorable to the Indians. It grants them even more than what they have demanded. Barring unforseen emergencies, the reservation will be opened for settlement by the president within a comparatively short time. The lands of the Sioux are well adapted to the raising of corn and stock. They are thoroughly watered, and compare favorably with those in the best agricultural counties of Dakota.

Jerry as a Literateur. Allanta Constitution.

The new secretary of agriculture has written a pleasant essay on hog cholera, with profile maps of the disease.

Maud's Consolation.

Minneapolts Tribune. Maud Miller was fined $10 for misdemean or in Kansas the other day. Tough on Maud. but she can reflect that "it might have been" made fifteen days by the judge.

How the Villain Escaped. Indianapolis Sentinel.

Miss Stout went out into the gutter and seizing a bowlder hurled it at the villain with all her might. Had it not been that the fe male sex is physically incapacitated from hurling weapons with any degree of accuracy by too long a collar bone Luke's career might have been ended on the spot.

Not Many Seek This Office. New York Telegram,

A computer is wanted in the Nautical almanac office. Here is an office which seeks the man in vain. The incumbent has merely to compute occultations and make up ephemeris tables, and is allowed as much as $750 a year, which may be increased to $900. The ordinary clerk in the department, who has perhaps given his time to the more valuable study of politics and avoided dry mathematics, receives from $1,200 to $1,800 a year. Thus do liberal studies flourish among a free

Ella and Gertie.

Chicago Times. Mrs. Elia Wheeler Wilcox having said that Gertrude Franklin Atherton was built like a lath, a Frisco reporter hunted up Ger tie's dressmaker and asked her if it was true. The dressmaker gave the following figures to combat Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox "Bust, 39; waist, 2314; upper arm, 16; neck, 13; front length, 17; back length, 18; skirt front, 39; skirt back, 43." The Times understands that these figures indicate mehes and not feet. The dressmaker further stated to the reporter that Gertie can wear as low a bodice as anybody; that her skin is lovely, as white as satin, and that she can wear black velvet, which is so trying to a skinny woman. Also that she pays her bills. That dressmaker understands her pusiness.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Nebraska Jottings. Nelson county proposes to invest $60,000 in court house. The mail carriers of Beatrice handled 30,451 pieces of mail during April.

Another newspaper and a new hotel are developing substantial proportions in Colum-The amount of dust kicked up in these parts during the past few days is proof of ctivity in real estate sails. The Flail has made the discovery that Fre-most water is good. Men have been known to commit suicide with it.

evements have been started in Kearney within the past two weeks. Fremont is determined to rid herself of female sports. A democratic administration has a weakness for reform in the abstract. A party by the name of W. W. Brown, of Culbertson, is an extremely modest office-seeker. He has flooded neighboring towns requesting signatures to a petition prepared

Forty-three thousand dollars worth of im-

by himself, setting forth his eminent quali-floations for the land office at McCook. His success has been flattering, to the extent of securing some very caustic opinions of Bill Tekama's canning factory will not be operated this season. Over-production and consequent low prices are the cause of the misfortune.

The investigation mania has spread to Platte county. There is a pretty general demand for a thorough overhauling of the county business. The O'Neill Tribune insinuates that the Omaha excursionists smelt like a distillery. It is more probable that Killoran incautiously sniffed his own breath. Fremont has opened the campaign for a city hall. Five thousand dollars have been invested in a site and plans for the building called for. The cost is not to exceed $0,000. Kearney is engineering another excursion of eastern capitalists, with the object of booming the new cotton mill. The town is willing to share the enterprise with the rich men of the east. Norfolk enterprise laugns at all obstacles It is now proposed to creet permanent moun-ments on every street corner. The visit of the Omaha excursionists appears to have de-veloped a strong taste for "busts."

The state industrial school has a total of 244 boarders—179 boys and 65 girls. The boys are employed in the tailor and shoe shops and the girls mending and repairing. The management propose to cultivate a farm of 102 acres this year and expect to raise suf-ficient vegtables to supply the table for the season. With proper business tact the insti-tution could be made self-sustaining.

The North Nebraska Argus, Dakota City, has again changed hands, E. B. Wilbur having sold to Harry A. McCormick. The change revives the melancholy fate of Father Martin. Since he retired from the Argus to pass the sere and yellow season of life in the sunshine of matrimony, he has sunk totally out of sight, though to memory dear. He has been submerged in the soup of giddy Cupid, and from the depths of domestic obscurity comes the melancholy conundrum, "Is marriage a fallure!"

Iowa Items. Iowa has 100 newspapers less now than it had last year.

The Iowa State Druggists' association will hold their annual meeting in Dubuque, June 4, 5 and 6. The eleventh annual tournament of the Iowa State Firemen's association will be held at Council Bluffs, June 11, 13, 13 and 14. S. Masters, a Burlington architect, died suddenly Friday night, and left a strong sus-picion that morphine took him off. No in-estigation was made. There are about one hundred and six miles of railroad in Wright county, the assessed valuation being $532,000, which represents an annual income to the treasury in the way of taxes of about $15,000.

Kate Shelly, the heroine of Boone, who crossed a wrecked bridge at that place to save a train, is lecturing at different places in the state to raise money to pay off the mortgage on her mother's homestead. The report of the Iowa hospital for insanc at Independence for the month of April shows that there were 752 inmates at the close of the month, against 745 a month ago, an increase of seven during the month. A. J. Green, a stock dealer, living in Lee county, some miles west of Keokuk, has a shepherd dog that he refused to sell for $500. The animal is as near human in intelligence as animals generally get to be. It drives large herds of cattle with perfect case and without the slightest assistance. Melchor Mucher, who resides near Bellevue, county of Jackson, bears the distinction of being the father of one of the largest families on record. Twenty-eight children have been born to him, eighteen of whom are dead and ten living. In this number there were three pair of twins. He has had two

About three miles north of the township of Dows, on the Rowen road, there lives in a one-story house one of the most remarkable families on record. It consists of a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Marks, with twenty-two girls and one boy. The oldest child is only twenty-four years of age; the youngest an infant of eight months.

In an ancient mound on the Cedar river near Floyd, the skeletons of five persons, evidently a family, have been found in a good state of preservation. The tomb was a bowl-shaped excavation, the bottom of which was macademized with gravel and limestone. The skeletons were in a sitting tombed at the same time, suggesting an epidemic or a sacrifice.

Roundabout the Rockies. Montana has no public debt. She has gold and silver in her treasury as well as in her

The authorities of San Francisco are fight ing the electric motor poles and wires, in the ourts.

Ninety-seven cars of bullion, lead and cop per ore were shipped from Salt Lake City ast week.

Smallpox has broken out in Provo, Utah. It is said to have been brought from Mexico by the Mormons.

The new placer diggings in Jefferson rulch. Montana, are the richest on record The dirt yields from $25 to $50 a pan. The locality is forty miles northwest of Helena Wild hogs are very numerous and savage in the willow thickets near Woodland, Cal One old sow was killed last week whose tusks measured seventeen inches in length There have been over thirty thousand acres of land entered for settlement in Bingham county, Idaho, since April I. On April 20 nearly 7,000 acres were entered. These settlers are principally Mormons and for the most part hail from points in Utah.

The Pelican Dives of Clear Creek county is worked profitably by lessees. This is the once famous bonanza mine of Colorado which is said to have produced $3,000,000 and over which the first great mining law suit in the state took place, and murder was committed.

California's wheat crop is reported to be in splendid condition and full of promise for the harvest approaching in that state. If the weather proves favorable for the next mouth or two, the prospect will be equally favorable in the great winter wheat belt on this side of the Rocky mountains.

In parts of Montana it is dryer than ever before known since the settlement of the territory. Vegetation is backward for want of showers and warm sunshine. There is time enough yet for rains and a good season, but anxiety is naturally growing. Taking the country generally, and the prospect of crops and a favorable season were never brighter.

A Private Secretary "Roasted." Superior, Neb., May 6 .- To the Editor of THE BEE: As your correspondent at Culbertson gives us some light on the subject of Mr. Laird's silence, I would like to say a few words touching upon the same. Within the past six months a number of the leading republicans of this city have written Mr. Laird upon very important points, and I think there has never been an answer returned to a single letter or question that has been sent to the honorable representative of the Sec ond district. There are parties here who have contributed both time and money to Mr. Laird's cause, and think they have a right to be heard, and that if Mr. Laird is unable to attend to the requests of his constituents, it certainly should be the guty of his private secretary to at least answer his correspondents and inform them of the cause of non-representation or failure to at-tend to their wishes. Like the Culbertson gentleman, we are of the opinion that Mr. Laird does not see a majority of his friends or constituents' letters, nor is he aware that that a great many of the latter are being darkness and suspense as to their just rights, wishes and recognition A CONSTITUENT.

The Emerson Strike Another squad of laborers have been sen to Emerson by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway to take the place of the striking Italians. Since the last diffi-culty a great many laborers have applied at headquarters for a job at the reduced wages. The company has now all the men it needs. So many laborers, however, continue to make application, that it has been necessary to post up a notice outside the depot in this city to the effect that no more men are needed.

Broke Into a Box Car.

Three young lads named Benish, Freeman and McDonald were arrested, yesterday, charged with breaking into a box car of the Union Pacific. They were remanded for triai on Wednesday.

KING.

Saint Anthony's Falls to Be Rivaled at Lincoln.

OFFICIAL RAILROAD INSPECTION.

Druggists Who Sell Whisky on Sunday-New Enterprises Springing Up - Notaries Public, Supreme Court, and Notes.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMARA BEE, 1029 P STREET, LANCOLN, May 6.

Some gentlemen from Plattsmouth were in Lincoln, to-day, who unfold a scheme that now tickles the imagination of the citizens of that place. In a word it is this: Engineers report that a canal can be built from Cedar creek, fourteen miles west, into the city that will provide a water power that will rival the noted falls of St. An-thony at Minneapolis; and, moreover, the initiatory steps have been taken for its construction. In conversation with The Bee representative the gentlemen stated that the B. & M. railroad company stood ready to aid the enterprise, and would co-operate with the city as soon as it could run engineers over the route to further test its practicability. There seems to be no doubt in their minds but that it would prove to be a winning venture, and that it would realize before cold weather. With water power they sensibly argued that there would be opportu-nities for manufacturing establishments without a rival in the state. It is learned. also, that the canal can be constructed with very little more expense than the average orice per mile of railway construction. Capitalists stand ready to back the enterprise, and it is understood that as soon as preliminaries can be arranged, the permanent survey will be made and work commenced. is quite propable that the metropolis of Cass county has a bright future before her. At least "Poor old Plattsmouth will not be the cry much longer.

Change of Route.

Governor Thayer, Treasurer Hill and Auditor Benton, comprising the state board of equalization, start to-morrow morning on their "round-up" of the railroad property of the state before making the tax levy. It is earned to-day that the board has changed its plan of route somewhat. From Lincoin, the board will go to Hastings via Linwood, thence to Superior. From there back to Fremont and then to Blair and Omaha. From Omaha, the board will take the Elkhorn for Norfolk, then to Creighton and back, and then to the end of the road in the state. En route back, the governor will leave the rest of the party at the nearest point to Springview, Keya Paha county, where he will go to see what he can do towards ridding that part of the state of horse and cattle thieves. He will reach that place some time Friday afternoon or evening.

A Sunday Snap. The rumor has been current for several days past that certain druggists were violating the liquor law in this city, and, consequently, druggists and drug stores in some juarters have been under very close police surveillance, and not in vain. Warrants for the arrest of Woempner & Hargis were sworn out this morning. The information charges them with selling liquor on Sunday, and also with selling without the necessary ordinance permit. It is said that a regular "arsenal of saloon fixtures" were found yes-terday behind their prescription case, includ-ing beer glasses. The evidence of their guilt is thought to be conclusive. Other arrests in this line are expected to follow.

Local Manufacturies. The Ewing Creamery association and the Kearney Starch company filed their articles of incorporation for record to-day. The Ewing Creamery company will manufacture and deal in milk products, and also buy and sell produce. Business commenced April 1, and continues from that date ten consecutive years. Capital stock, $5,000, Incorporators: J. G. Cortelvon, M. N. Vanzandt, C. A. Cromer, L. M. Leslie, O. C. Rogers, A. A. Ego, D. C. Horton, W. E. Rogers, A. A. Ege, D. C. Horton, W. E. Barley, G. P. Barnes, J. N. Kay, F. K. Rignold, J. J. Carmichael, R. W. Lane, C. Selah, O. Wallace and P. A. Elder.

The Kearney Starch company, organized for the purpose of manufacturing starch, glucose and refined syrups from corn, and to sell the same. Capital stock, $50,009. Insell the same. Capital stock, $50,000. In-corporators: E. J. Huffel, George Fleharty, J. B. Lynch, E. H. Andrews, H. A. Lee, J. Turner and S. W. Thornton.

New Notaries Public.

The governor, to-day, made the following otarial appointments: H. J. Merrick, Adams, Gage county; H. J. McLaughlin, Hastings, Adams county; John A. Martin, Buffaio, Kearney county; John C. Black, Harrisburg, Banner county; David W. Spurling, Chadron, Dawes county; D. D. ynch, Platte Center, Platte county; Henry leardsley, Clarks, Merrick county; Edward Blake, Riverton, Franklin county; Helen Morrill, Omana, Douglas county; William W. Blackman, Fremont, Dodge county; Ber-nard W. Robertson and Daniel J. O'Donahoe, Omaha, Douglas county.

Supreme Court Matters. The following cases were filed for trial n the supreme court to-day:

A. E. Alexander vs. the city of Platts mouth; A. E. Alexander vs. H. L. Hunter, and A. E. Alexander vs. D. T. Thacker, errors from the district court of Cass county James H. Patterson vs. A. W. L. Wood land, error from the district court of Dougas county. City News and Notes. A case of black scarlet fever is reported in this city. The patient is a newcomer, who is said to have caught the disease on board ship while en route here. The case causes considerable uneasiness. District court commenced, to-day. The

May term promises to be todious as well as interesting. There will be two murder trials and a num-ber of civil cases of great local interest. No cases were called to-day. Several equity decisions, however, were handed down from Mayer Bros.' base ball team covered itself with glory at Hastings yesterday and the day before. Though defeated, it proved that it could play good ball. The score of the last game stood 3 to 2. Instead of Lincoin base ball team, the name should be re-corded Mayer Bros.' base ball team, of Lin It is rumored here that Guy A. Brown has endered his resignation as state librarian But, it is only a rumor, however, and should be taken with due allowance. This was gleaned while your correspondent was at the state house this morning. Sherman Avenue School.

The Sherman avenue school will open to day. The building is located at the intersection of Sherman avenue with the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad, just a mile cast of Fort Omaha. It was built by Mr. Jaynes for the benefit of the families in that part of the city, and the the families to that part of the city, and the school district of Omaha is to have the use of it free for one year. one large room, and to-day Mr. Jaynes, super-intendent of schools, appointed Miss Carrie Utzler as teacher.

Fell From a Scaffold. William Doran, a carpenter, fell from a scaffold while working on a building at the corner of Seventeenth and Izard, yesterday afternoon, and had his leg broken. He was removed to his home at the corner of Thirtieth street and Patrick avenue.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby wes sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria. SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

The Sunflower Social.

The following committees have been spn ted for the Sunflower social to be given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church in the Hardy building. Thursday evening, the 9th: Music-Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kiser, Mr. James C. Corby, Mrs. Edward D. Munshaw, Miss Zoe Williams and Miss Kate Wyman. Decorations-Mrs. Robert T. Maxwell and assistants. Ice cream Robert T. Maxwell and assistants. Ice cream and berries—Mesdames O. T. Fenner and Henry Ames. Cream—Mesdames F. I. Gilbert and Henry Ames. Tables—Misses Ella McDonald, Myra P. Brigham, Maud Hayward, Nellie Bayless, Lu Hunt, Cora R. Smith, Kate Wyman and Jessie Savage. Transportation—Messrs. A. W. Hibbard and George W. Kiser.

The young ladies on the table committee will meet Tuesday afternoon at the residence.

will meet Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. McDonald, Twenty third and J streets, to make sunflower caps. All other members of the committees will meet Tuesday afternoon at F. 1. Gilbert's, Twenty-first and J streets to complete arrangements.

Live Stock Exchange Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange was held Monday afternoon, with President A. C. Foster in the chair. The transportation committee reported that each and every one of the roads on the lowa side of the river, except the Northwestern, had failed to give the transportation needed and promised, and, on equest, the committee was granted further

The committee on inspection of stock reported that a competent inspector had been appointed by the mayor, and that the aspector was doing his duty, and the committee was discharged.

The telegraphic toll committee reported that it had done some talking and some work, but had not accomplished anything, and asked for time, but did not think any-thing could be done. Colonel Savage thought that the telegraphic matter was very important, and the exchange should make one grand, vigorous, universal kick on the rates. The rate to Chicago was only 40 cents, while only half as far west, where most of the city's business is, the rates are 50 and oven 60 cents. President A. C. Foster re-ported that the charter had been granted and

The following communication was read: COLUMBUS, Neb., April 13, 1889.—Gentle-men of the Executive Committee of the South Omaha Live Stock Exchange, South Omaha, Neb.: At a meeting of the Nebraska Live Stock Shippers' association, held on April 10, 1889, I was instructed to inform you that it has come to our knowledge that members of your exchange have been buying stock in the country contrary to your constitution, and against our mutual interests. We respectfully ask that you will do your utmost to stop this abuse and we will render you any assistance you may reasonably ask of us.

John Wiggins, Secretary.

John Wiggins, Secretary.

The secretary was directed to communicate with Secretary Wiggins and get the names of persons violating the rules and the evidence to sustain the charges.

James G. Martin and J. B. Blanchard

stated that they, as members of the board of directors, had been called in the shipper's meeting and had agreed with the members of that association in regard to commission men and their agents going out and buying stock, and believed that it should be discon tinued or stopped.

William Daily's application for member-ship was read and Mr. Daily was elected. J. B. Blanchard stated that South Omaha is getting fewer hogs than any other place, and less than ever before at this season. Packers are getting discouraged, as these markets are better than those at Kansas City, Sioux City and other western places, and equal to Chicago, and yet they fail to get sufficient recruits to meet the needs here. Mr. Blanchard states that he does not know the cause, but would like to know it, but believed that it was largely due to the failure to receive lowa shipments. William E. McCloud thought the irregular markets here were caused by the dockage, which is greater here than anywhare else. Hog receipts ought to be twice as large as they are. Mr. McCloud asked why persons living north of here would ship their hogs to Lincoln and Nebraska City, and then reship them here at additional expense. President A. C. Foster stated that the Nebraska City packing house had closed, and he had bought

New School Board Organized.

The members of the board of education effected a temporary organization at the neeting. Monday afternoon, by electing Frank J. Persons chairman, and C. T. Van Aken secretary. John C. Carroll was elected to fill the vacancy caused by John A MacMurphy's resignation. The new board consists of Frank J. Persons, C. T. Van Aken, John C. Connell, David Hoban, Wal-ter J. Stote and John D. Robinson. The secretary's report to May 1, showing a balance of $8,941.20, was read and approved number of bills were ordered paid, and the board adjourned.

The City Council.

Mayor Sloane and all the councilmen except Mr. Bayless, were present at the council meeting, Monday afternoon. The finance committee reported favorably on twenty-one bills, aggregating $1,094.59. The ordinance committee reported favorably on ordinance No. 111, the gas ordinance; No. 130, making water connections; No. 132, creating the first paving district and authorizing the paving of N street, and No. 134, to vote on the adoption of the new They were read section by section and passed. No. 131, relating to peddlers, was reported adversely and the report adopted. No. 135, relating to licenses and repealing No. 63, was read and referred. The license committee reported favorably on the followcommittee reported favorably on the following license petitions, and permits were ordered to be issued: Hermann Zeller, Kunn & Decker, Henry Martin, Simon S. Rejner, Michael Dailey, George H. Ferguson, D. L. McGucken, Thomas Friedmann, Gus Seldier, James Moognall, O. B. Hill, Alfred A. Burch, Charles Kauthold, John N. Burke, C. A. Melcher, Christ & Lowry, J. Robinson, M. McCoy, Thomas O'Connors, Christ Durr, Thomas Costello, Henry Strothman, B. Blum and John S. Mullen.

The mayor and chairman of the license committee were authorized to examine li-committee were authorized to examine it-cations found to be correct. cations found to be correct.

The committee on streets, alleys and viaducts reported against the proposed rail on the Q street viaduct, and the report was adopted. The same committee reported adversely on C. M. O'Donovan's claim for lumber in the sewer at Albright, and recommended the adoption of the engineer's report.

The report was adopted.

The report was adopted.

Chris. Durr was authorized to construct and maintain at his own expense a cross-walk on Twenty-Seventh street, from the Depot Exchange to the depot. The same committee reported an order on the L street viaduet contractor to remove all coment from all five of the pits because it was not good, and because the street was not good. was not good, and hereafter all work done and material used to be of first class quality, as called for in the contract. Engineer Lawrence being present, stated that the concrete used in the five pits was to preserve the timbers and not to support the piers, and was all right for the purpose used, and that nothing but first class concrete will be used in the piers. The communication of the Rev. Father D. W. Moriarty, in regard to grading Q street from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-first street. was not good, and hereafter all work done from Twenty-fourth to Twenty-first street, was referred, with the original petition. Chief Fred M. Smith, of the fire department, recommended that Roy A. Hall be appointed hose cart driver, vice John O'Grady, and that the salaries of the drivers be increased from $50 to $60 per month. The report was adopted. Howard & Bradford's bill for $105 was referred. Messrs. Johnston, Feune and O'Rourke were appointed a special committee to examine and report where expenses could be cut down.

Shot By a Policeman.

Thomas Corlaugh, John Burns, John Casey and Robert Stewart, four toughs, invaded the town and attempted to run it, but a police force that is doing its duty, ran them in after a desperate fight, in which Casey was shot in the log. He was then taken to St. Joseph's hospital. In the row two or three of Casey's friends were knocked down by those summoned to help the officer. All were Notes About the City.

A girl at E. C. Goff's. A boy at Harrison Wynick's, The Union Pacific railroad call boys have truck against a reduction. A car of iron piers and two cars of cut stone for the L street viaduct have arrived George Kimberly, late of Falls City, has taken a clorical position with Z. P. Hedges, Ex-Marshal A. C. McCracken was appointed constable by the county commissioners. The Presbyterian Aid society will meet Friday evening at Mrs. F. I. Gilbert's Twenty-first and J streets. The Caledonian society will meet Tuesday evening and will arrange for its athletic contest with the Omaha Caledonian athletic A mission Sunday school will be organized next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Fourth ward school house. All are invited

Charles Wehner, boss of one of the de-partments in the Armour-Cudahy works, has gone to Chicago and will bring a bride back with him.

Photographers have been taking photographs of all the departments of the Armour-Cudahy works with samples of the output of each department. Tramps infesting the neighborhood of Twenty-fourth and J streets, with headquarters near the brick yards, have made living in that neighborhood disagreeable and even dangerous. E. C. Howe, of Omaha, superintendent of he curing department of the Hammond Packing company, during the absence of Mrs. Howe, who is visiting friends in Iowa, is the guest of Joseph O. Eastman. South Omaha Lodge No. 66, A. O. U. W., has received an invitation from Hermann Lodge No. 96, A. O. U. W., Omaha, to attend a meeting of the lodges of Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha, Tuesday evening, May 14th, and will accept. Daniel Cameron, head of the Armout Cudahy canning department, Chicago, is here overseeing that department and instructing Harry Klinger, late of Chicago, who will have charge of the canning department of that company at this place. Ben Higgins was arrested by Marshal Ma-loney and Officer Redmond at Albright Mon-day wearing a $40 suit of clothes stolen a week ago from Thomas Doyle in Jeremiah Dee's house and Mr. Higgins will have a chance to explain pefore Judge King. At the last meeting of lodge No. 53, U. O. T. B., Treumeister John Frey and Bundes-meister Hermann Trenkei resigned, intending to go to Europe to visit relatives and friends. Jacob Jaskolek was elected Treu-meister and Simon S. Remer Bundesmeister. At the meeting Friday evening a parting re-ception will be given brothers Frey and Trenkel. The new officers will also be in-

Four tramps got into a vicious fight in the Union Pacific yards yesterday morning, using iron coupling pins for weapons and when they got through some of them were so badly battered up that it required a firstclass surgeon to make them look like men again. After a desperate struggle, in which the officers were badly used, Marshal Maloney and Officer Redmond arrested and jugged Frank Hunter and John Murphy. Hunter is badly cut and battered about the head. Too much credit cannot be given the police for the good and efficient work being done by them.

TENTLEMEN who are bald will appreciate the Ivory Soap for Washing the head, for it quickly removes the oily exudations of the scalp and by the application of clear water after the head and hair are well lathered, the soap is instantly rinsed off, in other words it does not leave a gummy substance on the scalp, or the hair harsh and stiff with dry lather. The "Ivory" is, par excellence, the soap for the purpose.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be" just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it

Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.