

THE HEALTHFUL MINNEAPOLIS

THE TERRITORY OF THE SIOUX

Walks, Drives, Baths, Legends and Falls of One of the Most Delightful Resorts in the Country.

A Day of Pleasure.

The excursionists arose early at Buffalo Gap, on their way to Hot Springs.

The monotony of the ride was destroyed when we had passed the limits of the city.

The drive led over roads, by running streams, up steep hills, and down into valleys in which the early sun rendered almost superfluous the wraps which were appreciated on the hill tops.

Every turn on the road revealed new beauties. There were castellated buttes, particularly in the distance, and a long, winding stream, and the next instant the heavily wooded hills.

The restraint having been removed from the people's mouths, a long, piercing scream echoed and re-echoed throughout the hills, and the next instant the heavily wooded hills.

With the old man upon his lips, the spirits of these lovers ever afterwards met in the air, and their names were indissolubly associated in various ways with this off-told legend.

Below the town of Hot Springs, which is soon to enjoy the benefits of a $45,000 soldiers' home, and a $30,000 Methodist college, are the Minnekahta falls.

The water flows over a bed of solid rock worn into channels and pools of countless shapes, directions and sizes. Some of the pools seem like entrances to Avernus.

We again took our stages, and as the evening sun was disappearing in the west, reached Buffalo Gap, where a warm reception awaited us.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

An Extra Session of the Board Held Yesterday Afternoon.

An extra session of the board of county commissioners was held, yesterday afternoon, at which County Attorney McKeown stated in a communication that a young woman by the name of Nettie Evers, had informed him that she had been induced to come to this city under the promise of a situation in a restaurant.

She was met at the transfer in Council Bluffs by a woman who enticed her to come to Omaha. She pretended to the attorney that she had secured employment, but instead was taken to the "French Elm's" house of ill-fame.

She remained in the place two weeks, and was afterwards arrested. The attorney stated that he could not present the woman as a witness for the girl was over eighteen years of age.

John P. Coats, superintendent of construction of the new county hospital, stated, in a communication, that he had appointed Charles H. McKeown as his assistant, at a salary of $1,000 per month.

10-15—W. J. Adams vs. A. Brandenburg. 13-30—Carl O. Endling vs. Louis Braconfer. 12-10—George W. Lounsbury vs. the estate of Walter G. Phelps, vs. Grace Phelps et al.

13-35—Edward G. Hunaproy et al. vs. the Nebraska Tile and Pottery company. The superintendent had also been called upon by the foreman of the steam heating works for instructions in relation to the plans were to put the boilers on the surface of the cellar floor at the end of the building.

Another plan was to have both the supply and return pipes placed in a trench under the cellar bottom, with brick side walls and corrugated iron cover, and to install an additional tank and steam pump. This plan would allow the return pipes being laid under the cellar bottom.

Justice of the Peace Anderson submitted a bill for $100. The county attorney, in his opinion, said that the majority of the cases before the justice were bastardy suits, and were not within the jurisdiction of the courts. The board allowed Justice Anderson $30 on his claim.

District Court Clerk Moore reported that he had referred to the county treasurer the sum of $335 for fines and trial fees for the months of October, November, December, January, February and March. The report was referred to the finance committee.

John J. Mahoney, superintendent of the poor farm, stated that a man by the name of Frank McNamara, who died about three months ago at St. Joseph's hospital, had about $50 at the time of his death. The superintendent also said that McNamara had been an inmate of the poor farm, and had a half, and as the man had no relatives to whom the money would go, he recomended that the amount be turned over to the county as the money would revert to the state. The matter was referred to the county attorney.

The finance committee recommended that the claim of Sheriff Coburn, amounting to $28, for the employment of deputies during the Grand Army encampment in the fall of 1897, be allowed. The report was adopted.

A delegation, consisting of half a dozen residents of Hemis' park, asked the board to pay a portion of the cost of grading Nicholas street from Thirty-fourth to Twenty-fourth and Thirty-fourth from Cumma to Blondo, and Thirty-fifth from Nicholas to Hamilton street. The petition was referred to the committee on roads.

The board will again meet on Saturday afternoon.

LOCAL LEVIATHANS. The Courts However Must Restrain Their Street Jobbing Propensities.

The Motor Railway company and the Omaha Street Railway company injunction cases will probably be brought to an end this week.

The South Eleventh street viaduct question has been submitted and the attorneys expect a decision on next Saturday morning. Friday, next, the South Sixteenth street case is argued.

Then comes the latest injunction, that relating to Thirteenth street, which questions the validity of the consolidation of the cable tramway and horse railway companies.

A BOOMERANG.

The World's Circulation Bubble is Flattened Out.

The Saturday Bee published interviews with a number of respectable residents on South Ninth street. They made damaging statements concerning the practice of the Omaha World in forcing papers upon unwilling people.

They stated in forcible language that they had protested against that paper being delivered at their doors, but were unable to have it stopped.

Monday the World failed to deny the imputations, and in a weak attempt to baffle the point at issue printed the following list of persons, whom, it claimed, had stopped The Bee in order to take the World:

Richard Moore, No. 1434 Pierce street. E. E. Ashton, No. 1233 South Fourteenth street. Mr. Mcintosh, No. 1911 Douglas street. O. S. Horn, No. 3011 Harney street.

E. K. Edgill, No. 1324 Farnam street. E. J. Morton, north-west corner Eighteenth and Farnam streets. Mr. O. Arman, No. 1810 Farnam street. J. J. McKitterick, No. 1510 Half Howard street.

C. Thomas, No. 423 South Nineteenth street. C. A. Whitaker, No. 1235 South Fourteenth street. John Cummings, No. 1731 South Fourteenth street. E. J. Deemer, No. 1438 South Fifteenth street.

Macartney, No. 1894 South Fifteenth street. Mrs. M. J. Foley, No. 505 North Twelfth street. Patrick Hinesley, No. 1118 Arbor street. Patrick Killigan, No. 316 North Thirteenth street.

Kotler, No. 802 Dorcas street. Mrs. Waller, No. 104 North Thirteenth street. John Rote, No. 1715 South Sixteenth street. E. J. Deemer, No. 1234 Cass street.

The same evening Mr. E. E. Ashton, mentioned in this list, called at The Bee office and said: "I came two weeks ago and asked me to take the World. They said: 'I will drop you the paper for a week, and you can take it back. If you don't like it, you can stop it. I don't want it, and never subscribed for it. I never discontinued The Bee, because I had never been one of its subscribers."

In order to show up the World in its misrepresentations, the following note was handed to the publisher of The Bee: "Mr. Williams: Please check these names over and see if the parties all stopped The Bee, and as far as possible present reasons for stopping it. If there are any who never took The Bee of you, please note one of its subscribers."

In reply to the above Mr. Williams makes the following report in detail: "Richard Moore, 1234 Pierce, U. P. watchman. This party is shown in The Bee, in case it was discontinued. If there are any who never took The Bee of you, please note one of its subscribers."

E. E. Ashton, 1233 South Fourteenth, not on our books since 1887. E. J. Deemer, 1438 South Fifteenth, not on our books. O. S. Horn, 3011 Harney, gets Bee now. W. R. Edgill, 1303 Farnam, not on our books.

E. J. Morton, 214 South Eighteenth, irregular subscriber, discontinued April 22. Mrs. D. Arman, 1810 Farnam, was $1.20; not paid; no dispute; discontinued April 1.

Robert McKitterick gets Bee now at 1810 Howard, in place of J. J. McKitterick. E. J. Deemer, 1234 Cass, discontinued April 1. C. A. Whitaker, 1235 S. Fourteenth; discontinued January 7. John Cummings, 1731 South Fourteenth; no one has had it there on our books; J. J. Cummings take Bee now.

C. W. Deemer, 1438 South Fifteenth; not on our books. E. J. Deemer, 1894 South Fifteenth; A. M. Macartney, 1894 South Fifteenth; A. M. Macartney, 1894 South Fifteenth; not on our books at that number; three Michael Foley gets Bee now.

Patrick Hinesley, 1118 Arbor, ex-pecie; discontinued January 7. Patrick Killigan, 316 North Thirteenth, not on our books. Mike Gilliland, 318 North Thirteenth, was discontinued 4-15, owing $1.25; no money. O. Kotler, 802 Dorcas, not on our books. W. R. Edgill, 1303 Farnam, not on our books. John Dawson, 1124 Cass, discontinued 7-16, 1888.

Summarized, this report shows conclusively that one-third of the names are still on our books as paying subscribers who got The Bee regularly; one-third of the names have discontinued The Bee, and the others discontinued at various times within the past season for reasons that are plain on the face of the report.

Plus the World's circulation bubble is flattened out by a boomerang. The reaction will strike it with a deafening force.

BEFORE YOU BUY Your Spring Suit or anything else in our line, ask yourself this question: Is there a rger or more reliable house than the Nebraska Clothing Company? No city in the West has a larger nor better conducted establishment, and what is more, no city in the Union has a store that sells goods as cheap as we do. We simply invite comparison of our goods and prices with those of any other house. Every day we serve customers who are amazed at the low figures at which our goods are marked.

The Cheviot suits we advertised last week are pronounced by everybody to be the greatest bargain, and nothing ever shown here can approach them. The Sacks are nearly all gone, but of Frocks we show a larger line than last week, having received during the past few days several big lots, many of which are much finer than those advertised before. The new ones are all with fine silk facing, and make elegant fitting garments.

In addition we will offer to-morrow a lot of strictly all wool Cassimere Sack Suits at $4.50. This is the greatest all wool suit ever offered, and we do not hesitate to pronounce it ahead of any suit for which other houses are asking $7.50 and more. It is of a stylish light check, well trimmed and made, and makes a handsome as well as a durable suit.

We are pleased to announce that we have again a large stock of those fine English Corkscrew Suits at $10.00 and customers who have been waiting for these suits, can now be supplied—This is the most extraordinary bargain ever offered and the fact that the first big lot was sold in such a short time proves it.—Those we have now are if anything better lined and finer made than the first ones. As we made such a hit with those suits, we take pride in having them made up well. Send for a sample of these suits, it will do you good to see it.

A visit to our new shoe department will soon convince you that you have been paying right along too much money for your footwear. We will show you the finest Calf Shoe strictly handsewed welt, at $3.90 which cost you in regular shoe stores $5.50 to $6.00. Excellent Calf Shoes, Goodyear welt which is as good as handsewed at 2.75. These are destined to be the most popular shoes in Omaha. They have neither pegs, wax threads nor tacks inside to hurt the feet, and are as flexible as genuine handsewed shoes. The identical shoe costs you in any other place from $4.00 to $4.50. We have them in congress and lace, all widths and sizes.
