

PEACE IN THEIR PARLIAMENT

The French Legislators Will Have an Exhibition Truce.

FERRY AGAIN IN THE TRIBUNE.

Continued Suspension of Hostilities Dependent on His Reception—The Trenchy Radicals May Precipitate a Row.

M. Tirard to Continue Premier.

Paris, May 16.—[New York Herald Cable.]—[Special to THE BEE.]—It does not seem probable that the meeting of the French parliament will interfere in any way with what is called the exhibition truce.

Terrible Fire Near Quebec and Two Lives Lost.

QUEBEC, May 16.—A fire broke out early this morning in the house of Mrs. McCann, at St. Sauveur. The flames spread with great rapidity through the wood district which surrounded the place where the fire started.

Will Succeed Himself as Director of the Union Pacific.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The subject of patronage, which the appetite of Nebraska sharply in view of the limited number of offices and the multitude of applicants therefor, that new avenues of approach seem very inviting.

His Politics Cut No Figure. The President Evidently Determined Upon a Non-Partisan Board—Adjutant-General Shurt's Shoes to Be Filled Promptly.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—In well informed circles it is accepted as a fact that the president's intention is to fill the existing vacancy on the bench of the supreme court by the appointment of General Miller.

The Central Traffic Association. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is the belief of all railroad men in Chicago, outside the Central Traffic association, that the association is a majority of the lines are determined to abolish differentials.

The U. P. Against the N. P. Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—President Villard, of the Oregon Transcontinental, has returned from the Portland meeting. The hasty reorganization of the executive committee of the company has a somewhat peculiar character.

The Alton Wants Lower Rates. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The application for the establishment of a 10-cent lumber rate from Chicago to Missouri river points, made by the Alton, was today referred to the executive board by the general managers of the Interstate Commerce Railway association.

Oregon Transcontinental Troubles. New York, May 16.—[Judge Barrett, in the supreme court to-day, heard arguments upon the application of Elijah Smith and Edward W. Hill to continue the Oregon Transcontinental company and others from issuing $100,000 additional stock of the company.

Receiver Dudley Retires. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—T. E. Dudley, of the Central Iowa railroad, appeared in Judge Gresham's court this morning and announced that the affairs of the road had been turned over to the officials of the reorganized company.

Northwestern Extension Claimed. Pierre, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train has made its first trip to Pierre in the last two days, having on board S. Sanborn, general superintendent, and P. Hollenback, assistant, with C. C. Wheeler, all Northwestern officials.

Second Class Sleeping Coaches. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The question of charges for second class sleeping coaches on the cars or coaches furnished for that purpose between Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri river points, which has caused a good deal of contention among the railroads, was definitely settled to-day.

The Omaha & Yankton. Yankton, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—James H. Teller, officially connected with the Omaha & Yankton railroad, returned from the east last night and says the road will positively be built this year, and grading will commence next month.

Challenged by a Chink. Railroad Magnate Henry Villard Boeckn arrested by a Chink. ALBANY, N. Y., May 16.—Richard Boeckn, a young German, was arrested here this afternoon for challenging to a duel Henry Villard, the well known financier.

To Build a Parallel Line. Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Bee correspondent saw President Adams, of the Union Pacific, to-day, and he acknowledged that his company has, as stated in a western dispatch, begun to get estimates for a new line of road to parallel the Northern Pacific from Portland to Seattle to cost about $4,000,000.

Dakota Supreme Court Doings. SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The case of the Territory of Dakota, defendant, vs Curtis E. Pratt, plaintiff, in error. The attorney for the defendant is the attorney general, and for the plaintiff H. C. and T. J. Walsh.

An Independent Englishman. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. Thomas Baring, the English banker, who has been on a trip of inspection over the Santa Fe system, was in the city to-day.

The Beautiful at Deadwood. DEADWOOD, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Snow in a mild form has been falling a greater portion of the day, and this evening the pine trees on the hill-sides presented a scene of indescribable beauty.

The Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Local rains, except in the northwest portion, fair, northerly winds, slight changes in temperature, except in the northwest portion, light to moderate breeze.

Steamship Arrivals. At Liverpool—The Palestine and Istria, from London.

At Queenstown—The Adriatic, from New York.

At Philadelphia—The Prussian, from Glasgow.

SAVAGE TO BE SELECTED.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The subject of patronage, which the appetite of Nebraska sharply in view of the limited number of offices and the multitude of applicants therefor, that new avenues of approach seem very inviting.

His Politics Cut No Figure. The President Evidently Determined Upon a Non-Partisan Board—Adjutant-General Shurt's Shoes to Be Filled Promptly.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—In well informed circles it is accepted as a fact that the president's intention is to fill the existing vacancy on the bench of the supreme court by the appointment of General Miller.

The Central Traffic Association. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is the belief of all railroad men in Chicago, outside the Central Traffic association, that the association is a majority of the lines are determined to abolish differentials.

The U. P. Against the N. P. Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—President Villard, of the Oregon Transcontinental, has returned from the Portland meeting. The hasty reorganization of the executive committee of the company has a somewhat peculiar character.

The Alton Wants Lower Rates. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The application for the establishment of a 10-cent lumber rate from Chicago to Missouri river points, made by the Alton, was today referred to the executive board by the general managers of the Interstate Commerce Railway association.

Oregon Transcontinental Troubles. New York, May 16.—[Judge Barrett, in the supreme court to-day, heard arguments upon the application of Elijah Smith and Edward W. Hill to continue the Oregon Transcontinental company and others from issuing $100,000 additional stock of the company.

Receiver Dudley Retires. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—T. E. Dudley, of the Central Iowa railroad, appeared in Judge Gresham's court this morning and announced that the affairs of the road had been turned over to the officials of the reorganized company.

Northwestern Extension Claimed. Pierre, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train has made its first trip to Pierre in the last two days, having on board S. Sanborn, general superintendent, and P. Hollenback, assistant, with C. C. Wheeler, all Northwestern officials.

Second Class Sleeping Coaches. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The question of charges for second class sleeping coaches on the cars or coaches furnished for that purpose between Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri river points, which has caused a good deal of contention among the railroads, was definitely settled to-day.

The Omaha & Yankton. Yankton, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—James H. Teller, officially connected with the Omaha & Yankton railroad, returned from the east last night and says the road will positively be built this year, and grading will commence next month.

Challenged by a Chink. Railroad Magnate Henry Villard Boeckn arrested by a Chink. ALBANY, N. Y., May 16.—Richard Boeckn, a young German, was arrested here this afternoon for challenging to a duel Henry Villard, the well known financier.

To Build a Parallel Line. Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Bee correspondent saw President Adams, of the Union Pacific, to-day, and he acknowledged that his company has, as stated in a western dispatch, begun to get estimates for a new line of road to parallel the Northern Pacific from Portland to Seattle to cost about $4,000,000.

Dakota Supreme Court Doings. SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The case of the Territory of Dakota, defendant, vs Curtis E. Pratt, plaintiff, in error. The attorney for the defendant is the attorney general, and for the plaintiff H. C. and T. J. Walsh.

An Independent Englishman. Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. Thomas Baring, the English banker, who has been on a trip of inspection over the Santa Fe system, was in the city to-day.

The Beautiful at Deadwood. DEADWOOD, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Snow in a mild form has been falling a greater portion of the day, and this evening the pine trees on the hill-sides presented a scene of indescribable beauty.

The Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Local rains, except in the northwest portion, fair, northerly winds, slight changes in temperature, except in the northwest portion, light to moderate breeze.

Steamship Arrivals. At Liverpool—The Palestine and Istria, from London.

At Queenstown—The Adriatic, from New York.

At Philadelphia—The Prussian, from Glasgow.

DEATH GAME VERY SUDDENLY

Allen Thorndike Rice Expires at New York This Morning.

ALL READY TO SAIL FOR RUSSIA

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

He Had Only Been Confined to His Bed For Four Days and His Case Was Not Considered Dangerous.

Rice had been suffering from a throat affection for a few days past, but was not supposed to be in any danger. He intended to sail for Europe yesterday on the human steamer City of Paris, but was compelled to delay his departure on account of his illness.

Demise of a Diplomat.

New York, May 16.—Allen Thorndike Rice, the newly appointed minister to Russia, and formerly of the North American Review, died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue hotel, where he was stopping.

PENDING FREIGHT WAR.

Differential Rates About to Be Done Away With.

THE ALTON MEANS BUSINESS.

Resumption of Control by the Iowa Central—Another Road for Omaha—Fighting Over the Oregon Company.

The Central Traffic Association.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is the belief of all railroad men in Chicago, outside the Central Traffic association, that the association is a majority of the lines are determined to abolish differentials.

The U. P. Against the N. P.

Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—President Villard, of the Oregon Transcontinental, has returned from the Portland meeting. The hasty reorganization of the executive committee of the company has a somewhat peculiar character.

The Alton Wants Lower Rates.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The application for the establishment of a 10-cent lumber rate from Chicago to Missouri river points, made by the Alton, was today referred to the executive board by the general managers of the Interstate Commerce Railway association.

Oregon Transcontinental Troubles.

New York, May 16.—[Judge Barrett, in the supreme court to-day, heard arguments upon the application of Elijah Smith and Edward W. Hill to continue the Oregon Transcontinental company and others from issuing $100,000 additional stock of the company.

Receiver Dudley Retires.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—T. E. Dudley, of the Central Iowa railroad, appeared in Judge Gresham's court this morning and announced that the affairs of the road had been turned over to the officials of the reorganized company.

Northwestern Extension Claimed.

Pierre, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train has made its first trip to Pierre in the last two days, having on board S. Sanborn, general superintendent, and P. Hollenback, assistant, with C. C. Wheeler, all Northwestern officials.

Second Class Sleeping Coaches.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The question of charges for second class sleeping coaches on the cars or coaches furnished for that purpose between Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri river points, which has caused a good deal of contention among the railroads, was definitely settled to-day.

The Omaha & Yankton.

Yankton, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—James H. Teller, officially connected with the Omaha & Yankton railroad, returned from the east last night and says the road will positively be built this year, and grading will commence next month.

Challenged by a Chink.

Railroad Magnate Henry Villard Boeckn arrested by a Chink. ALBANY, N. Y., May 16.—Richard Boeckn, a young German, was arrested here this afternoon for challenging to a duel Henry Villard, the well known financier.

To Build a Parallel Line.

Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Bee correspondent saw President Adams, of the Union Pacific, to-day, and he acknowledged that his company has, as stated in a western dispatch, begun to get estimates for a new line of road to parallel the Northern Pacific from Portland to Seattle to cost about $4,000,000.

Dakota Supreme Court Doings.

SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The case of the Territory of Dakota, defendant, vs Curtis E. Pratt, plaintiff, in error. The attorney for the defendant is the attorney general, and for the plaintiff H. C. and T. J. Walsh.

An Independent Englishman.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. Thomas Baring, the English banker, who has been on a trip of inspection over the Santa Fe system, was in the city to-day.

The Beautiful at Deadwood.

DEADWOOD, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Snow in a mild form has been falling a greater portion of the day, and this evening the pine trees on the hill-sides presented a scene of indescribable beauty.

The Weather Indications.

For Nebraska: Local rains, except in the northwest portion, fair, northerly winds, slight changes in temperature, except in the northwest portion, light to moderate breeze.

Steamship Arrivals.

At Liverpool—The Palestine and Istria, from London.

At Queenstown—The Adriatic, from New York.

At Philadelphia—The Prussian, from Glasgow.

PEACE IN THEIR PARLIAMENT

The French Legislators Will Have an Exhibition Truce.

FERRY AGAIN IN THE TRIBUNE.

Continued Suspension of Hostilities Dependent on His Reception—The Trenchy Radicals May Precipitate a Row.

M. Tirard to Continue Premier.

Paris, May 16.—[New York Herald Cable.]—[Special to THE BEE.]—It does not seem probable that the meeting of the French parliament will interfere in any way with what is called the exhibition truce.

Terrible Fire Near Quebec and Two Lives Lost.

QUEBEC, May 16.—A fire broke out early this morning in the house of Mrs. McCann, at St. Sauveur. The flames spread with great rapidity through the wood district which surrounded the place where the fire started.

Will Succeed Himself as Director of the Union Pacific.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The subject of patronage, which the appetite of Nebraska sharply in view of the limited number of offices and the multitude of applicants therefor, that new avenues of approach seem very inviting.

His Politics Cut No Figure. The President Evidently Determined Upon a Non-Partisan Board—Adjutant-General Shurt's Shoes to Be Filled Promptly.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—In well informed circles it is accepted as a fact that the president's intention is to fill the existing vacancy on the bench of the supreme court by the appointment of General Miller.

The Central Traffic Association.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—It is the belief of all railroad men in Chicago, outside the Central Traffic association, that the association is a majority of the lines are determined to abolish differentials.

The U. P. Against the N. P.

Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—President Villard, of the Oregon Transcontinental, has returned from the Portland meeting. The hasty reorganization of the executive committee of the company has a somewhat peculiar character.

The Alton Wants Lower Rates.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The application for the establishment of a 10-cent lumber rate from Chicago to Missouri river points, made by the Alton, was today referred to the executive board by the general managers of the Interstate Commerce Railway association.

Oregon Transcontinental Troubles.

New York, May 16.—[Judge Barrett, in the supreme court to-day, heard arguments upon the application of Elijah Smith and Edward W. Hill to continue the Oregon Transcontinental company and others from issuing $100,000 additional stock of the company.

Receiver Dudley Retires.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—T. E. Dudley, of the Central Iowa railroad, appeared in Judge Gresham's court this morning and announced that the affairs of the road had been turned over to the officials of the reorganized company.

Northwestern Extension Claimed.

Pierre, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A special train has made its first trip to Pierre in the last two days, having on board S. Sanborn, general superintendent, and P. Hollenback, assistant, with C. C. Wheeler, all Northwestern officials.

Second Class Sleeping Coaches.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The question of charges for second class sleeping coaches on the cars or coaches furnished for that purpose between Chicago, St. Louis and Missouri river points, which has caused a good deal of contention among the railroads, was definitely settled to-day.

The Omaha & Yankton.

Yankton, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—James H. Teller, officially connected with the Omaha & Yankton railroad, returned from the east last night and says the road will positively be built this year, and grading will commence next month.

Challenged by a Chink.

Railroad Magnate Henry Villard Boeckn arrested by a Chink. ALBANY, N. Y., May 16.—Richard Boeckn, a young German, was arrested here this afternoon for challenging to a duel Henry Villard, the well known financier.

To Build a Parallel Line.

Boston, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Bee correspondent saw President Adams, of the Union Pacific, to-day, and he acknowledged that his company has, as stated in a western dispatch, begun to get estimates for a new line of road to parallel the Northern Pacific from Portland to Seattle to cost about $4,000,000.

Dakota Supreme Court Doings.

SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The case of the Territory of Dakota, defendant, vs Curtis E. Pratt, plaintiff, in error. The attorney for the defendant is the attorney general, and for the plaintiff H. C. and T. J. Walsh.

An Independent Englishman.

Chicago, May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mr. Thomas Baring, the English banker, who has been on a trip of inspection over the Santa Fe system, was in the city to-day.

The Beautiful at Deadwood.

DEADWOOD, Dak., May 16.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Snow in a mild form has been falling a greater portion of the day, and this evening the pine trees on the hill-sides presented a scene of indescribable beauty.

The Weather Indications.

For Nebraska: Local rains, except in the northwest portion, fair, northerly winds, slight changes in temperature, except in the northwest portion, light to moderate breeze.

Steamship Arrivals.

At Liverpool—The Palestine and Istria, from London.

At Queenstown—The Adriatic, from New York.

At Philadelphia—The Prussian, from Glasgow.

PEACE IN THEIR PARLIAMENT

The French Legislators Will Have an Exhibition Truce.

FERRY AGAIN IN THE TRIBUNE.

Continued Suspension of Hostilities Dependent on His Reception—The Trenchy Radicals May Precipitate a Row.

M. Tirard to Continue Premier.

Paris, May 16.—[New York Herald Cable.]—[Special to THE BEE.]—It does not seem probable that the meeting of the French parliament will interfere in any way with what is called the exhibition truce.

Terrible Fire Near Quebec and Two Lives Lost.