Reports of a Change Stir Up a Lively Breeze.

AN INTERVIEW WITH MR. PAXTON.

The Business of the Company in a Satisfactory Condition-Menacing Attitude of the Iowa Roads.

Mr. Payton Talks.

The first and exclusive publication in THE BEE that a radical change in the management of the Omaha stock vards is contemplated by the company has stirred us quite a breeze in that locality, especially among the brokers, many of whom have for a long time been secretly urging THE BEE to criticise the management of the yards.

Hon. William A. Paxton was found by a reporter, who was instructed to ascertain, if possible, what causes existed for the movement reported to have been made for a change in the management of the stock yards. Mr. Paxton's reply was somewhat evasive. He said that the business of the stockyards was at present in a very satisfactory condition; that more stock was being received this year than last, and that a very encouraging increase had marked the business of the company from the day it commenced to receive stock. He was proud of the fact that he had been one of the incorporators of a company which has raised Omaha in five years to the third packing center in the United States. He confidentin the United States. He confidently believed that within two years Omaha would reach second place as a pork-packing center. In support of this belief he said that the great stock-raising region of the west was tributary to Omaha. Kansas City was, however, endeavoring by svery possible means to take from this territory that which naturally would come to Omaha if the business was properly worked."

"is it true that the railroads have been dis-"Is it true that the railroads have been dis-criminating against Omaha?"

"The railroads have been treating us very fairly, in my opinion. It is true that they have had an eye to the long haul, but the B. & M. shows a very kind disposition towards Omaha. The worst feature in this railroad matter is the charge of $6 a car across the Union Pacific bridge for every car of stock coming from bridge for every car of stock coming from western lows. The Union Pacific charges that amount for hauling a car from Council Bluffs to the stock yards. We have been working hard for some time past to have this working hard for some time past to have this rate reduced, and at one time we succeeded in getting the Union Pacific to agree to a rate of $4 a car for this service, provided the Iowa roads would make up their cars of stock into a train in the Union Pacific yards at the transfer so that the Union Pacific might hitch an engine to it and take it to the stockyards at South Omaha. This system, however, of handling the stock consignments from westhandling the stock consignments from west-ern Iowa did not prove satisfactory, and the greater part of the stock which comes across

"The South Omaha Stockyards company and the packers are now engaged in an effort to induce the railroads in lowa to make it possible for shippers to send their stock to this market. The Iowa roads have stub-bornly fought all previous attempts to bring stock here because they want the long haul to Chicago on the business. They have treated Omaha very unfairly in this matter, even going so far as to switch car loads of stock on to intermediate side tracks, and leave them there for ten hours before bringing them to the transfer, for the sole purpose of rendering the shipment of stock to this the river, to-day, is charged for at the rate of rendering the shipment of stock to this market unprofitable.

"And this is not all. It is next to impossible for a shipper of stock in western lown to receive an empty car for the purpose of shipping stock westward, but when he asks for cars on which to ship stock to Chicago, there is not the slightest delay in getting them. This is a matter which the inter-state commerce commission will have to take hold commerce commission will have to take hold of sooner or later, and if it is the last thing I do before I die, I mean to bring these Iowa roads to time. Every stock shipper within a hundred miles of Omaha ought to and would ship his stock to this market if the railroads would meet him half way. The newspapers ought to thoroughly investigate this matter and aid in the movement to compel the Iowa roads to give Omaha a square deal in this matter."

Dickinson Misquoted.

Assistant-General Manager Dickinson, of the Union Pacific, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the management of the Union stock yards, at South Omaha, has returned from Sioux City. Concerning the matter he said: "I did not say to the correspondent at Sioux City that I would not accept the position; I did not say that I would accept or that I had entertained the matter in any way. Consequently, I was misquoted. I will say, however, that a few days agol a conference was held between myself and certain stockholders of the South Omaha stock yards. They did not formally tender me the position referred to but made me a proposition which I have under consideration. I have not said whether would or would not accept. I will have to ook the situation over and see what is to be done before I can render my answer. I have not as yet given the matter my attention, and consequently can not say just what I will do. The announcement that I had declined to accept the situation, let me repeat, is untrue; neither have I accepted. As I have just said, I have the matter under consideration."

Vrooman Talks. George Vrooman, chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Loco motive Engineers, is in Omaha. As regards the report of another break in the ranks of engineers, he said he had heard that a certain western road had decided to move against the brotherhood, but that he had not ascertained which road it was. "We are in better condition to meet an issue of are in better condition to meet an issue of this kind." he said, "than ever. If it means another strike, it will be a strike of no small magnitude. In its fight with the Burlington all the other roads held that road up and rendered it assistance. If it comes to an-other issue of this kind, this kind of work will not be allowed, and not a car can be moved by a connecting line. Let me say that the road that attacks our order again will be in the hands of a receiver in-side of sixty days. We do not seek the ill-will of any road, but we will maintain our sight.

Abolishing Differential Rates. The intention of the Central Traffic lines to abolish differentials received further confirmation, to-day, in a joint meeting of the passenger men of all the Central Traffic and Trunk line roads. Chairman Blanchard presided, and Commissioner Link headed the Trunk line delegation. The general subject of passenger differentials was under discusof passenger differentials was under discussion, all the strong lines favoring the complete abolishment. No vote was taken, but it was the general opinion that the Baltimore & Ohio should no longer use its $18.50 differential rate to New York. The regular rate being $20. The discussion will be continued to morrow. The report comes on unquestioned authority that if the Central Traffic roads abolish differentials, the Western association will do the same. The Eric, which fought, bled and almost died last year for its dressed beef differential has laid down this year. It sent word to the Chicago & Atlantic, to-day, that it would accept the 45-cent dressed beef rate to New York, the rate now made by all lines.

Every Detail Completed. Assistant General Manager Dickinson, Superintendent Resseguie and Mesars. Buckinguam and Lomax, of the Union Pacific, have returned from Sioux City. They report that everything is now complete for the run-ming of trains to Sioux City Sunday next. The trains will run to the union depot at that point. D. M. Collins, now agent of the Union Pacific at Norfolk, will be transferred, in a similar capacity, to Sioux City, and Donahoe, cashier at Norfolk, will be made agent at that these

A GUILTY CONSCIENCE.

Leads to a Fraud and Consigner George Freyer to Prison. George J. Freyer, the man arrested in Madison county some weeks ago by Deputy United States Marshal Stewart, as a fugitive from justice, from Canada, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for seveu years. Freyer was the agent of the American Express company at Ontario, Canada, and fell into arrears through embezzlement and forgery in his accounts to the extent of $7,000. He fled the country. He came to the United States and drifted from place to place until he was finally apprehended at Madison, in this state. The express com-pany employed the most skilled detectives to pany employed the most skilled detectives to hunt him down and expended over $10,000 in this effort, but without success until he was located and taken into custody by Marshal Stewart. He left a wife in London, Canada, who followed him to the states, and finally obtained a divorce from him in Chicago.

obtained a divorce from him in Chicago.

Freyer, on getting safely into this country, went to Kansas, where he bought a small stock farm and proceeded to get rich. He changed his name to Charles J. Baldwin, and was identified only by accident. The constant fear of arrest haunted and annoyed him beyond measure, and he was incessantly at work endeavoring to devise some means to relieve himself of this never ceasing terror. Finally he went to the small town nearest his ranch and applied to a physician for medicine for an alleged sick man at his place. The physi-cian said he would be compelled to visit the farm and diognose the case. Fryer said this was unnecessary, and besides, he lived twenty miles away, and he was unnecessary, and besides, he lived twenty mines away, and he could describe the invalid's symptoms with sufficient accuracy to justify the doctor's issuing a prescription. He did so. Several times afterward he visited the doctor's office and got medicines, and finally, one day last winter, he called and informed the doctor that his patient was dead. He said that his name was George J. Fryer, and he asked for a certificate of death. The doctor refused to give him this, but finally gave him a certificate testifying that George J. Fryer had tificate testifying that George J. Fryer had not died of any contarious disease.

Then Fryer disappeared, but it was developed that he got the

The express authorities who handled the corpse were suspicious and the United States authorities at Omaha were communicated authorities at Omaha were communicated with. Marshal Stewart, with assistants, was detailed to investigate the affair. He visited Kansas and found out all about the man Baldwin, that he had come there a perfect stranger, bought a stock farm, got rich, married a lovely giri of the quiet countryside, then suddenly and mysteriously disappeared. After weeks of arduous search he was traced to Madison county, this state, proven to be Fryar himself, and arrested. He proven to be Fryer himself, and arrested. Some interest is manifested by certain parties to know whether Brad Slaughter, as United States marshal, will continue to de-posit court funds with the Omaha National bank, as all his predecessors have done, or whether he will select some other of the banks of the city for the purpose. RESISTING OFFICERS.

Superintendent of Plumbing

Offended by a Contractor. On April 9 Robert Duncan, superintendent of plumbing, notified William S. Spelman, who has the contract for the plumbing in the New York Life insurance building, that his work was not up to the requirements of the plumbing ordinance, and asked him to see that it was improved.
Yesterday the superintendent sent In-spector Ed Taylor to see if the notice had een complied with. been complied with.

When Taylor entered the building, he was recognized by Spelman, and a moment later Craig, Spelman's foreman, came up, it is alleged, and ordered the city inspector out of the building, threatening to throw him out if he did not immediately retire.

Mr. Taylor says he told the foreman that he was sent there by Superintendent Dur.

he was sent there by Superintendent Dun-can, whose business it was to look after such matters, and he was only doing his duty as an official of the city. But the fore-man repeated his order and signified his in-tention of putting his threat into execution. Mr. Taylor, thinking discretion the better part of valor, left the place. He immediately reported to the Superintendent Duncan, and reported to the Superintendent Duncan, and that official repaired to the scene to see if the story were true. He found it was not only correct, but was treated almost as badly as was his deputy, the foreman refusing to let him inspect the plumbing work on the building or even see the diagrams showing the location of the pipes.

Mr. Duncan has made complaint to the city engineer and asset for the revocation of Speci.

A Short Walkout at Florence. There was a little breeze created at the waterworks at Florence Thursday by the sending up of a non-union plumber to do a job of steam fitting let out on contract. Four or five union plumbers followed him to the place and the officers of the company say that they attempted to interfere with him in nis work, but were finally ordered from the premises. When the plasterers and steam fitters at work for other contractors on the same building heard of the matter they threatened to quit work. The va-rious foremen communicated the state of affairs to the waterworks officials, who sent back word to give every man, who wanted to quit, his time, and on no conditions to hire him afterwards, as the company was pushing the completion of the water works as rapidly as possible and would have no workmen who were not This communication was delivered to the various workmen and had the effect of set-tling the difficulty.

The Plasterer's Are Satisfied.

A local paper last night stated that the plasterer's union had held a meeting and decided to demand higher wages. This is not true. At a meeting of the union held last night the paper in question was scored for printing such an unwarranted statement. The plasterer's declare themselves satisfied with their wages and the manner in which they are being treated by their employers. The only trouble now existing was caused by the walkout of men at work in The Ber building because the Hussey-Day company put non-union plumbers at work there, and the difficulty will be settled to-day.

"It is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day," said the late Dr. J. G. Holland in Scribner's Magazine, "are more successful than many physicians, and most of them were first discovered or used in actual medical practice. When, however, any shrewd person, knowing their vir tue and foreseeing their popularity, secures and advertises them, in the opinion of the bigoted, all virtue went out of them." Failure of eyesight, fickle appetite, headacke, extreme wakefulness, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night, gradual failure of strength and dropsical swelling,—these are symptoms of kidney disease. If you neglect the symptoms you will eventually have Bright's Disease. War-ner's Safe Cure is the only specific which has ever been discovered for this disease. The late Dr. Dio Lewis, over his own signature said: "If I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble, I would use Warner's Safe Cure."

AFTER A COPP.

He Leaves Suddenly and Many Creditors Remember Him. John Copps, who until last Monday cor ducted a cigar factory, No. 10, on Eighteenth and Vinton streets, has left the city. He also leaves a number of creditors who promise to make it warm for him. Before going, he managed to obtain money on bogus notes and in other ways. The Bank of Omaha it is said advanced $150 on a note which has since been found to be worthless; Morris Morrison is out $140 in the same way; Louis Schroeder remembers him to the extent of $190; Krug Bros., grocers on Sixteenth street, and Lang on Thirteenth street have his name on the books for large amounts; Frank Leift, a cigar box manufacturer, is minus $55 loaned him and others have "gone long" on Copp's promises and

Senator Manderson has filed a communica

The collector's stated salary is only $300 a year, but, in addition to that, he receives a tee for each importation which, at present, gives him an income from the office of about $500 per annum. The assistant gets $30 a month. It is conceded by nearly everyone that the collectorship is worth more, and that the salary ought to be raised. The fact has also come to light that Senator Manderson has filed a strong petition, with Secretary Windom # signed exclusively

Maryland Club

Pure Old Rye Whiskey. The wide popularity of this superb brand has tempted other dealers to place upon the market inferior Wibskey under a similar name, intended to deceive the public. The New York Court of Appeals has declared our brand, the MARY LAND CLUB, to be a trade mark entitled to the protection of the law (see dealston in Cahn, Bell a Co. sa. Jacob Gottechalk, Feb. 12, 1889), and we now give notice that we shall instantly prosecute any person or firm, in any part of the United States, who shall be guilty of any intringement of this trade-mark.
