

SIT AS COURT AND JURY.

Councilmen Dean and Pace in the Investigation. COOPER IN THE SUPREME COURT. Attorney-General Lease on the Change in the Regular Meetings of the Board of Supervisors and Equalization.

LINCOLN HUB OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET, MAY 29. W. J. Cooper has commenced quo warranto proceedings in the supreme court to enquire by what authority W. S. Hamilton assumes to hold the position of councilman from the Fourth ward in this city.

At the special election following, W. S. Hamilton received a majority of the votes cast, secured a certificate of his election, and now occupies a seat in the council. Cooper received the nomination, but was defeated.

It will be remembered that distinct charges had been made against Councilman Dean and Pace, and yet they were not removed from office. A committee of investigation, named them as members of it.

More of McClellan's Rascality. H. T. McNett, the South Eleventh street upholsterer, admits his role in the evidence of McClellan's rascality.

McClellan has elegantly furnished rooms in the Mayes block at the corner of Fourteenth and S streets, and Painter McWilliams says he saw him on his way to the hotel.

McClellan has elegantly furnished rooms in the Mayes block at the corner of Fourteenth and S streets, and Painter McWilliams says he saw him on his way to the hotel.

That Cess Pool. The citizens residing in the vicinity of the Home of the Friendless, at the foot of South Eleventh street, are up in arms concerning the cess pool that is maintained by that institution.

The State Board of Transportation. On June 6 the case of William Bays, of Valparaiso vs the Union Pacific railway company, will be heard by the state board.

The Session Laws. The laws enacted by the last session of the legislature will be printed and ready for distribution about July 1.

proofs have been read. Secretary Laws says that the new statute relating to the right of non-resident aliens to acquire title to real property is creating widespread interest.

Royal Arcanum at Lincoln. About thirty gentlemen met at the office of Mr. J. L. Doty Tuesday evening and decided to organize a council of the above order.

Killed by a Hook and Ladder Truck. A very sad accident occurred between K and S, on South Ninth street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

John Ellsworth answered to the charge of perjury in Justice Snelling's court this morning. He lives in the north part of the county.

The American Loan and Trust company of Ashland filed amended articles of incorporation with the secretary of state today.

BARRED DOORS AND GOLD. The Iron Hall in Secret and at the Smelting Works. The Iron Hall delegates assembled behind closed doors yesterday making and revising laws for the government of the order.

Resolutions of sympathy were passed by a rising vote on the death of Mrs. Dana R. Hovey, wife of one of the representatives, who died at his home while on route to Omaha.

EDWARDS FOUND GUILTY. Only Eight Minutes Required by the Court to Reach a Verdict. Walter Edwards, the colored man who has been on trial the last three days on the charge of assaulting his wife with intent to kill, was found guilty yesterday afternoon.

The Chicago Hookster. The dog's case is now nearly settled. Filled with apples, heaped up high, and who lives and works on little food.

Unavailing Advice. New York Sun: Old gentleman (to young man with unlighted cigar in his mouth)—Young man, I want to say a word to you about the cigar you are smoking.

OMAHA STRIKE SITUATION.

Master and Journeymen Plumbers Fail to Harmonize. The Bosses Reject the Journeymen's Resolutions—Plasterers Ordered Back to Work on The Bee Building.

Masters and Journeymen Disagree. The master and journeymen plumbers met at the Paxton yesterday and attempted to reach an agreement upon the existing strike which might be settled.

Resolved, That the journeymen's union hereby agree to return to work in all shops upon the acceptance of these resolutions, and consideration of employing none but union help.

Resolved, That the Master Plumbers' association agrees to recognize the journeymen's union and abide by the rules and regulations heretofore existing between the two organizations.

Resolved, That no discrimination shall be made towards any members of either journeymen, jobber or helpers' unions when reinstated as by further.

Resolved, That these articles of agreement shall be binding on each organization for one year, commencing on the first day of June.

Resolved, That no discrimination shall be made towards any members of either journeymen, jobber or helpers' unions when reinstated as by further.

Resolved, That these articles of agreement shall be binding on each organization for one year, commencing on the first day of June.

Resolved, That no discrimination shall be made towards any members of either journeymen, jobber or helpers' unions when reinstated as by further.

Resolved, That these articles of agreement shall be binding on each organization for one year, commencing on the first day of June.

each against the Union Pacific Railroad company for $5,000 damages, for injuries sustained, brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The Wilson-Richards case has been disposed, and the jury cases against W. J. McMillen and Benjamin O'Neill, former officers of the Harmon Cattle company, will come up for trial, probably this afternoon.

H. C. Scott, sheriff of Webster county, this stated, J. L. Kilmer, agent of the Fairbanks and Harlow Cattle company, will come up for trial, probably this afternoon.

The American Building and Loan association began a suit against the Harmon Cattle company in the county court, yesterday, to recover $368.05, amount claimed to have been collected by the defendant while acting as agent of the association.

The Koenig-Chambers suit, in which ownership to lot 5, block 121, situated on the northeast corner of Douglas and Fourteenth streets, is being settled without going to trial.

Judge Savage said a satisfactory settlement had nearly been reached, but lest some slip should occur the case will not be dismissed until the papers shall have been signed.

Pears' soap is the most elegant toilet adjunct. The executive committee of the Plasterers' union had a meeting yesterday afternoon, subsequent to the plumbers' conference, and after considerable discussion it was decided to order the striking members of the union back to work upon The Bee building.

Charley Burns, one of the contracting plasterers in the Bee building, was yesterday cast for some time looking for men to take the place of the strikers, and telegraphed to his partner here yesterday morning that he had secured a second hand plasterer, but the partner, in answer, wired him to wait until after the conference of the plumbers.

Fifteen striking plasterers will resume work at the Bee building this morning. A man whose interests are clearly identified with the plasterers said last night that in his opinion the striking plasterers had discovered that they could gain nothing for themselves or the plumbers by remaining out, and that, as it now appears as to the result of the strike, they have decided to return to work.

Resolved, That no discrimination shall be made towards any members of either journeymen, jobber or helpers' unions when reinstated as by further.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The Programs of the Parade—Route of March and Other Exercises. Major Clarkson, marshal of the day, has made the following programs for the celebration of Memorial day which occurs today.

First Division—Fifteenth street, north of Douglas, right on Douglas. The Sons of Veterans, Ia. Band, Second U. S. Infantry. The Second U. S. Infantry.

Second Division—Fourteenth street, north of Douglas, right on Douglas. The Sons of Veterans, Ia. Band, Second U. S. Infantry. The Second U. S. Infantry.

Third Division—Thirteenth street, north of Douglas, right on Douglas. The Sons of Veterans, Ia. Band, Second U. S. Infantry. The Second U. S. Infantry.

Fourth Division—Twelfth street, north of Douglas, right on Douglas. The Sons of Veterans, Ia. Band, Second U. S. Infantry. The Second U. S. Infantry.

Music—request—by Barney, words by Rev. W. J. Harsha. To be sung by chorus fifty voices. THE SOLDIER'S SLEEP. Rest, warrior, rest, And the scattered flowers, O'er thy calm breast, Pass the fleeting hours, Thy native land, And with free hand, Seals thy high promotion.

Two hundred and nineteen graves were marked with flags yesterday, and at 8 o'clock this morning committees from all the business parts of the city to-day, and one in the public districts. The banks, public buildings, courts, public schools and freight depots will be closed today.

Forty committees given the first anniversary of our outstanding men Tuesday night at the South Omaha lodge, No. 66, Ancient Order of United Workmen. The following program had been arranged: Address of welcome by Master Workman Jacob Koskielek, who gave a history of the lodge, and explaining the degree of Ladies of Honor, urged the ladies to become members.

Resolved, That no discrimination shall be made towards any members of either journeymen, jobber or helpers' unions when reinstated as by further.

Resolved, That these articles of agreement shall be binding on each organization for one year, commencing on the first day of June.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

While fixing some belting in the beef department of the Armour-Cudahy packing house, Tuesday afternoon, William M. Rhyno got his clothes caught in the gears and received injuries which are serious, and may possibly prove fatal.

in the second division and Warner A. Root in the fourth division in the parade in Omaha Memorial day.

Drunk Peons Making Easter the Penance of Indian Girls. The gallant act of Sir Walter Raleigh, in spreading his cloak before Queen Elizabeth, to save her feet from the mud, will always be remembered as an instance of knightly devotion.

Whit-thin' vs. Snoring. Albany Journal: "It is a singular fact," said a well-known merchant to-day, "that the worst case of snoring can be stopped by a low whistle. You don't believe it? Well, there's my office boy asleep now on an old box. Hear him snore? Of course you do. The dead could hear him. Now listen."

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Mrs. Cleveland's Friends. Mrs. Cleveland is not forgotten by the children of Washington, says a correspondent of the New York Tribune. Her three years' reign impressed itself upon them, and they still measure beauty, amiability and power by the example of their mother.

Advertisement for Pearl Line soap, DR. HORNE'S Electro-Magnetic Belts, and STRANG & CLARK STEAM HEATING CO. Includes images of belts and text describing their benefits.