News From the Ball Fields—Collegium Events—Questions and Answers, and Miscellaneous Sports

On Lovely Osakis.

Messrs. W. G. Albright, Jeff W. Bedford, J. S. McCormick, George C. Ames, Marsh Kennard, C. W. Hood, E. T. Duke, and W. J. Hahn.

On the morning dawned bright and entrancing, with that delicious, mellow warmth of early summer, muzzling woods and waters and a fringe of golden glory.

Albright and Bedford pulled off at an early hour for Coon Point, where the reeds and rushes abound in exuberance, and the bass fishing world is in a ferment.

They all had a great day of it, pulling in the fishy beauties, bass, crappies, Oswegos, pickersel, nice and so on, until their arms ached.

catch of the party—a large pickersel weighing over 15 pounds, and measuring 18 inches in length and 21 around.

After two weeks of unalloyed sport, during which nearly two thousand head of fish were taken, the party packed up their luggage and came home considerably brozzed by sun and water, with minds refreshed and limbs invigorated, and better every way for their two weeks sojourn upon lovely Osakis.

McCormick's Flyers. Charles McCormick shipped his little spotted pacer, Little Willie, to Kearney, yesterday, where it is entered in the 24 class and free-for-all, in the meet that opens up on June 4.

Some Fine Shooting. There was a week-stakes shoot on the grounds of the Omaha Gun club yesterday afternoon, 25 standard target, 15 yards rise with the following result:

Flashes from the Diamond. Duryea is Cincinnati's whipping pitcher.

Among the Amateur Wheelmen. Monthly meeting of the Omaha Wheel club Tuesday, June 4.

The Mormons have a quarter mile track at Salt Lake City, and much interest is shown in the sport.

The woman's wheel club of Buffalo have adopted a uniform of dark green cloth with hat and gloves to match.

The New Mail Safety made quite a sensation at the Chicago show, being ridden on the track and around the sharp curves, hands up.

Why does not the chief consul of Nebraska appoint a secretary and treasurer? The L. A. W. must have at least $100 in the treasury and it should be made use of, for the good of the members.

All wheelmen should have seen Barber, the trick rider with the minstrels last week, he being about the best ever seen in this city.

A curious case is pending in the superior court of Maine which will establish the liability of a cyclist who, through taking a header frightened some valuable horses and caused damages to both animals and carriage.

It is to be regretted that Ley devotes so much of his time to the safety machine, with which he can do but very little fancy riding.

The majority of the Wheelmen of this city confine themselves to the beaten paths and do not know the pleasure of a day's journey over unexplored country, and sometimes in ways they will never see again.
