Late Fashions. "I will be very glad," said Mrs. Rodgers. "to tell you all about these latest styles," and pointing to a magnificent display, continued: "New York dealers have nothing newer than you see there. I think that for quiet, beauty and attractiveness the inventions this year surpasses anything ever brought out. Let me sh ow you a few hs and bonnets that in Gotham are considered very swell and just the thing.

"There for instance," taking down from its pedestal a wee bit of a bonnet, "is the latest agony. That is what we call a Carolatest agony. That is what we call a Caroline Rewboux, and it has made a decided hit with the ladies for street wear." The bonnet is of light colive shade, trimmed with fancy mixed braffi, clusters of fine rosebuds around the brim, the whole set off most effectively with a black velvet bow and large steel buckle.

"That is a very sweet bonnet," observed the lady, "but if you would like to see something that the ladies simply rave over just take a squint at that," and she held up the cutest specimen of feminine head-gear the reporter ever saw. It is referred to as a sensation in crush pink enhanced by a wreath of rosebuds around the brim, crown decorated with fine cut jet, rosebuds and French leaves.

A reception bonnet pink clive, trimmed in lace of gold and poppies, would strike the favorable bent of any woman's fancy.

"There is a hat," continued the fair talker, "that black Milan I refer to, that is the rage east." It has a cluster of moss rosebuds nestling under the front rim and partually hid by a short lace veil falling gently over the forehead. "That is one of the most stylish things in the market." A toque of cardinal crepe, crown formed entirely of silk and decorated with poppies and leaves, is ravishingly beautiful.

The black leghorn hat is also much in fashion this season and among the bon ton considered quite swell.

Artificial roses, buds, forget-me-nots, lilacs, etc., are largely worn as party and reception ornaments. The make of these imparts adornments has come to be marvel-itation, adornments has come to be marvel-

Donne College Commencement. Commencement week at Doane college this year begins June 23 and ends on the 27th. The first feature is the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. J. T. Duryea of Omaha, Sabbath morning, June 23. Dr. A. R. Thain of Omaha will give the address to the Y. M. C. A. Sabbath evening; Monday evening, Dawes oratorical contest; Tuesday morning, senior preparatory exhibition; Tuesday evening, Hesperian club exhibition; Wednesday evening, commencement concert; Thursmorning, commencement, followed by alumni dinner. *

The graduates of all colleges, wherever

The graduates of all colleges, wherever situated and of whatever name, receive a cordial invitation to this dinner as guests of Doane college, and are requested to announce their coming by a letter to the secretary of the faculty, Prof. H. H. Hosford. The letter should be sent by June 20.

This is an attempt, for the first time in the history of Nebraska, it is believed, to bring together all college graduates, to renew old college associations.

college associations

The Nebraska Chautauqua begins the evening of commencement day, Thursday, June 27. An address on the Chautaugus grounds will be given Friday, June 28, to college graduates by Dr. Charles F. Thwing, of Minneapolis. It is hoped that a large number of college alumni and alumna wil come to the Chautauqua in season to attend commencement.

Do not forget to announce your coming

Birthday Party. On Thursday evening, May 30, the hand-some home of Herman Deiss, on Twentieth and Wirt streets, was the scene of great merriment. It was the birthday of the accomplished daughter, Miss Mamie, and a large surprise party was tendered to her. The charming hostess proved herself worthy of the occasion, and, sided by her hospitable parents, gave gracious welcome to all. Vocat and instrumental music, dancing and card playing, with pleasant social converse, made the hours pass quickly. The evening, spent so delightfully in this begutiful home, will long be remembered. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hansen and family, Dr. and Mrs. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Premian, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deiss. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Creary, Mr. and Mrs. H. Henneberg; the Misses W. M. O'Shaughnessy, W. Balduff, W. J. Paul, George Paul, Joe Murphy, John W. J. Paul, George Paul, Joe Murphy, John Murphy, Mr. Moffat, Will Truckey, the Misses Maude Paul, Mary and Etta Creigh-ton, Maggie Millett, Minchoff, Nellie and Ida Truckey, Alice and Maggie Cannon, Mamie Truckey, Alice and Maggie Cannon, Mamie and Margie Fitzpatrick.

On Monday evening, May 27, the friends of E. J. Snyder tendered him a party at the home of his parents, 2515 Hamilton street, in honor of his sixteenth birthday. The young folks had a merry time. The house resounded with music until a late hour. Danoing and card playing were indulged in and elegant refreshments were served.

A Card of Thanks.

As about two hundred of our friends Monday evening June 3, took the great trouble to make us a very pleasant and generous sur prise in our new home at Monmouth park and at the same time also showed us their thankfulness for our work in the past as we as their best sympathy in our present work of mercy and charity. We feel constrained to in this way express our heartiest thinks for all their kindness. Especially we thank the committee of arrangements and its chair man, Mr. P. E. Floodman, who had a good deal of work in the matter. True christian charity abideth for ever.

Carmody-McGovern. The wedding of Mr. John Carmody and Miss Mary McGovern occurred on Wednesday morning at St. Peter's church, Rev. Father St. Lawrence tying the knot, Miss Maggie McCarthy acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Stephen Carmody as groomsman. The bride was attired in a white Henrietta dress trimmed with Spanish lace; she wore a white hat and a wreath of orange blossoms. The wedding breakfast was served at the residence of Mr. P. McGovern, brother of the bride, at 2615 Chicago street, and in the evening a reception and ball were given in honor of the newly wedded pair at Wolf's hall. About eighty couples took part in the dances. Mr. and Mrs. Carmody will make their future home and Twenty-second and Mason streets.

A Pleasant Surprise About forty of the friends of Messrs. I. J. Cushing, Frederick Cain and George Thorpe under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson made an unceremonious descen upon them at their home with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thompson, 2215 Dodge street, last Wednesday evening. The secret was well kept and the young men were taken entirely off their guard, but believing that discretion The evening was passed very pleasantly with games, music and animated conversation. Refreshments were served and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The popularity of the three gentlemen was fully demonstrated. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson carefully watched after interests of their guests who voted the entire evening's entertainment a success.

Marriage Reception. Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Smith, who were married at the Holy Family church on the 22d of May, returned from their bridal trip to Colorado Tuesday, and spent the week at their home, No. 1710 Webster street, receiving their friends. Mrs. Smith, nee Kate Liddell, is well known in this city, she being a native Omaha girl with a whole host of friends. The happy groom holds a respon-sible position in the office of the general at-torney of the Union Pacific railway and is a young man of considerable promise. The high estimation in which this young couple is held is attested by the many costly, ele-gant and useful presents received from their many friends in this city and elsewhere, and the good wishes extended them for a long

A Notable Event. The Excelsior says: The formal opening of the new Bee building, June 19, for which very fine invitations are now being prepared, will be an event of no little interest to Omaha. The building, which is one of the Omaha. The building, which is one of the handsomest in the country, its grand dimensions being 17,424 square feet, stands as a monument to the enterprise of the founder of the best known paper of the Missouri valley. No expense has been spared to make it the model newspaper building of America, and no little credit is due Mr. Rosewater for giving to the Gate City the largest newspaper structure on this continent. The inpaper structure on this continent. The in-terior of the building and especially the well-lighted court, finished in stucco, has been tastefully planned, the artist being every where discernable.

A European Tour. Mr. J. N. Metcalf, vice president of the Lininger & Metcalf company, accompanied by Mrs. Metcalf, left Monday on a tour through Europe. They will first visit relatives and friends in Philadelphia and New York city. At the latter place they will be joined by E. J. Cornish of this city, and A. J. Cornish of Lincoln. The party has taken berths on the Cunard steamer, Etruria. which leaves New York on June 22. It is the intention of the tourists to travel through Europe, visiting all the principal cities in England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Ger-many, Austria, Bohemia, Italy, Greece, Tur-key and probably the Holy Land.

Second Presbyterian Church. The members of the Ladies society of this thurch held their annual picnic in the grove of Broadway park at Council Bluffe, Thursday last. A very pleasant and enjoyable time was experienced gathering wild strawberries, in conversation and games, The berries, in conversation and games. The ladies present included Mesdames M. Hutmaker, Jno. Trench, Dr. Gilman, C. A. Westerfield, F. C. Shields and daughter, L. A. Collins, H. O. Fredericks and son, C. J. Canan, M. R. Howard, F. M. Fitch, J. M. Lowe, L. F. McGinn, J. K. Briggs, D. H. Pratt, Dr. Spaulding, Fraze Robbins, Thos. H. Moffat, and Miss Laferty.

Another Newspaper Man Mated. Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Victor E. Bender, of the Omaha Dispatch, to Miss Alma Colville, an accomplished young lady at Galesburg, Ill., on Tuesday, June 11.
The couple will make their home at 2200 Dodge street, in this city. Mr. Bender is at present in Galesburg making arrangements or the approaching nuptials Visited the Range. Doc Haynes, Tom Boyd, W. E. Hamilton Minot Terrell, Frank Dana, Chester Beruard, Sess Douglas and Alfred Meinberg visited the rifle range at Bellevue, Tuesday afternoon. They were the guests of Lieu tenant Wright and Captain Keller. Howe-Stoutenborough.

On June 3, Mr. Charles F. Stoutenborough was married to Miss Bella M. Howe by Rev. Willard Scott. Both are residents of this city. After Juno 15 they will be at home to their friends at 2817 Poppleton avenue.

The event of the week was the reception given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haas, at their home, No. 124 South Sixth street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Hart, who had just returned from their wedding trip. The occasion was a most delightful one in all respects, no pains being spaced that would tend to increase the pleasure and comfort of the guests. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated by electric light, which added much to their attrac tiveness. The interior of the house was a mass of fragrant flowers and potted plants, arranged in a variety of pleasing designs. Although the floral decorations were not on as elaborate a scale as is sometimes seen, yet it was frequently remarked that never had a more tasty arrangement and pleasing effect been seen. The rooms of this hospitable home were thrown open to guests from 8 to 11 o'clock, and in that time there were over two hundred guests who were present. The scene was constantly changing parties ar-riving and departing, entailing quite a strain on the host and hostess, and Mr. and Mrs

Last Wednesday evening there was a glad-some gathering of music lovers at the residence of Mr. D. W. Bushnell, the invitations being limited to those who took part in the recent presentation of the new light opera,

"The Smugglers of Senovton," composed by Miss Belle Robinson, of Council Bluffs. On of the pleasantest features of the evening came as a surprise to Miss Robinson. A number of the veterans called in a body, and in paying their respect to the young gifted musician, had their sentiments well voiced by Judge Hubbard, who in their be-half read the following address: THE OLD SOLDIERS' GREETING.

Miss Belle Robinson: Your kind and thoughtful remembrance of the members of Abe Lincoln post, Grand Army of the Republic, and other old soldiers which enabled them to enjoy an evening with "The Smuggles of Senovton," has quickened in them a feeling of admiration for the awakening graphs of the author. In days of liberty, the critizen-soldier, while he has a heart strong enough for war, is possessed of a spirit that is appreciative of good work and is generous in his desires for exaltation of merit in all those pathways of men that lead upward to better experiences and onward to a fuller enjoyment of the ele-vating pleasures of life. Harmony and beauty are the entrancing allurements of the noblest and best in being and those who are able to reach the hearts of men through the melodies of sound and the beauties of creative thought are an inspiration to the world that lifts it up to its best estate. That this is your field of effort we believe, and we trust the future for its more perfect recogni-tion. There are many difficulties to be overcome before full acknowledgement will be made. The world is cold and critical in its dealings with the asperations of genius, and it positively refuses to honor individuals until they become the living exponents of an expression of sout that compels homage for truth's sake. That you will be able to reach this commanding place we confidently believe. We are conscious of your genus; we lieve. We are conscious of your genius; we have faith in your courage; we have confidence in your devotion, and as you toil on, remember that there are mone that have a remember that there are mone that have a more pride in your achievements than the old soldiers of Council Bluffs. May God be

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wolcott was the scene of a beautiful wedding, Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Myrtle, was united in marriage to Mr. E. E. Shackelford, of York. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Loren F. Berry, pastor of the Congregational church, the bride and groom standing under an arch elaborately ornamented with floral decorations. Mr. Arthur Smith acted as "best man," and Miss Incz Wolcott, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. After the nuptial knot had been tied, the company present sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. At 10:30 o'clock the bride and groom left for York, where they will make their home for the present.
