A Family Train East. Among the changes recently made by the Michigan Central, the most important is the new Special New York Express, No. 20, which leaves Chicago at 10:35 a. m., except Sunday.

This effects a connection with all western, northwestern and southwestern lines entering the city, and enables passengers from Chicago or any of its suburbs, to leave at a comfortable and convenient hour.

For this reason, as well as its admirable through car service to New York without change, it is especially adapted to the convenience of families and of ladies and children.

All New York state points are reached the next day, and the hour of arrival at the Grand Central depot, New York, 4 o'clock p. m., enables passengers to make rail or steamer connections and reach all parts of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, and their suburbs, and the sea-shore before dark.

The through car leaving Chicago, Saturday, goes forward on No. 6 from Buffalo to New York on Sunday.

REWARD OFFERED. Beware of Impostors. It has recently come to my ears that canvassers who are peddling tickets from house to house for using my name in order to make a sale for their work.

They claim that their pictures are being finished at Hoy's gallery, which is a barefaced falsehood, as I have no branch gallery wherever, and positively do no ticket business, as we are not obliged to resort to such means to procure customers.

Agents claiming to be in my employ, or assuming that their interior work is finished at my studio, are impostors, and I will pay a reward of $5 to any party for information leading to their arrest. Geo. HEYN, The Photographer.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between Edmund M. Bartlett and Edward J. Cornish has this day been dissolved.

Edward J. Cornish succeeds to the old business and retains the papers of said firm, and is authorized to receive all moneys owing to said firm of Bartlett & Cornish, and all claims against said firm of Bartlett & Cornish are to be presented to said Edward J. Cornish for payment.

Mr. Cornish will continue business at the same place, No. 213 South Fourteenth street, Omaha, Neb. Mr. Bartlett has formed a partnership with Howard H. Baldrige, under the firm name of Bartlett & Baldrige, and will engage in the law and collection business, having their offices in the New York Life insurance building, Omaha, Neb.

A Breezy Man. Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, will be one of the most picturesque figures in that solemn body, the United States senate, when it next convenes.

He is the embodiment of active, aggressive western force, a staunch friend and a foe to be feared. Many stories are told of his cool nerve, his princely generosity, his contempt for the conventional and the loyalty of his nature.

Such a man is the outcome, the net result of close association with the inspiring air of Colorado, the state which is beginning to be recognized by the medical faculty as nature's sanitarium, and the lovely resorts reached only by the Union Pacific railway charm alike the tourist, the invalid, the artist, and the man of science.

It's Getting Hot. In view of this fact, the Sioux City Route has placed on sale round-trip tickets to the cool tourist retreats of the north.

Many people who are now using the Quick Meal thought their stove was perfect; they thought it baked beautifully and worked perfectly, but after they tried the Quick Meal they were more than surprised at the difference, and bought it at once. At least 300 other brands have been driven out of the market by the Quick Meal in the last eight years.

To the Ladies of Omaha. A meeting of the women of Omaha is called for 8 o'clock this evening, at the Paxton house parlors, to discuss certain matters of humanity, and especially to express their horror and detestation of the barbarous and inhuman mode adopted for the slaughter of dogs in this city. Addresses will be made. Mrs. Edward Lee, Mrs. Levi Carter, Mrs. Edgar Morsemann, Mrs. J. W. Gannett, Mrs. C. E. Pritchard, Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick, Mrs. Truman Buck, Mrs. R. H. Clark, Mrs. D. O. Clark, Mrs. James E. Boyd, Mrs. J. M. Woolworth, Mrs. P. L. Pering, Mrs. Clark Woodman, Mrs. Leavitt Burham, Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. Ezra Millard, Mrs. J. W. Savage and others.

Military Notes. The troops at Bellevue were in a sad plight Friday night, having sent their tentage to Omaha by rail. They were compelled to battle with the storm as well as they could till morning, when they marched to Fort Omaha. Company A, of the Second infantry, Dr. Brown, will carry the pennant for the right wing.

Colonel Wheaton, of the Second infantry, is expected home about the 15th. Dr. Brown, now stationed at Fort Omaha, expects to leave for his new station, about July 4.

Bellevue rifle range was quite lively, this week, as there were quite a number of pleasure seekers at the camp, guests of the officers.

Major E. Butler, who was in command of the range, during the right wing's practice, continues in command with the left wing.

Knocked His Eyes Out. William Murphy, 110 E. 5th, was struck by a horse before Judge Herlea, yesterday, for knocking Frank Belcher's eye out, and was put under $100 bond and sent to the reform school. The testimony showed that Belcher fell out with some little boys, who were playing together, and whipped one of them, Murphy, feeling that vengeance was due the little fellow, championed his cause and laid for Belcher with a club, and proceeded to knock his eye out.

A New Mail Clerk. Chauncey B. Treadwell, of North Bend, has received his appointment to a clerkship in the railway mail service. He succeeds Charles N. Holmbeck, in the Platte mouth and Schuyler run, who has been transferred to take J. A. Stonecker's place on the Pacific junction and McCook run. Stonecker has resigned.

A Dark Secret. H. M. Sykes and his wife were, until recently, tenants of Oliver E. Martz, Sixteenth and Webster, but Sykes, as said, was suddenly stripped for other parts, after leaving his house rent unpaid and disposing of his household goods to a second-hand store in order to defraud his creditors. Suit was brought by Martz in Justice Kroeger's court, and the second hand store was attached. Sykes' whereabouts are unknown, and will probably remain a dark secret.

Arrested for Wife Beating. O. C. Ludlow, a carpenter residing at the corner of Twenty-second and Clark streets, was arrested yesterday afternoon for wife beating. It seems that Ludlow and his wife had had one to get drunk and the other to go home and beat his family. While indulging in these habits yesterday, Officer Fields came along and took the irate and cruel husband to the police station, and the wife, who was brutally being beaten by her daughter, who upon seeing him beating her mother, went to the rescue, when she received a share of the brutal blows intended for her mother.

A Choice List of Summer Resorts. In the lake region of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the two Dakotas, there are hundreds of charming localities pre-eminently fitted for summer homes. Among the following selected list are names familiar to many of our readers as the perfection of northern summer resorts. Nearly all of the Wisconsin points of interest are within a short distance from Chicago or Milwaukee, and none of them are so far away from the "busy marts of civilization" that they cannot be reached in a few hours of travel, by frequent trains, over the finest road in the northwest—the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway: Oconomowoc, Wis. Clear Lake, Iowa. Minocqua, Wis. Lakes Okoboji, Iowa. Wausau, Wis. Spirit Lake, Iowa. Palmyra, Wis. Frontenac, Minn. Tomahawk Lakes, Lake Minnetonka, Minn. Lakeside, Wis. Ortonville, Minn. Kibouren City, Wis. Prior Lake, Minn. (Dells of the Wis. River Bear Lake, Minn.) Beaver Dam, Wis. Big Stone Lake, Dadeson, Wis. kota.
