Sudden Death. The death of Mr. Peter West comes with startling surprise. Only last Thursday he was apparently hale and rugged, and was busily engaged on the carpentering work of the Chautauqua amphitheater.

Mr. West was born in Sweden. For eleven years he was connected with the institution for the deaf and dumb in this city. Two years ago he revisited the old home, across the water, where the aged father and mother still live.

Mr. West was a sturdy, honest man, of kindly heart and excellent moral character. He was a wide circle of friends by whom he was most highly esteemed. He has a considerable estate, and a family.

He was an honored member of the Masonic fraternity, a Knight Templar and a member of Excelsior lodge. The funeral services will take place this afternoon at St. Paul's church, under the auspices of the Masons.

City steam laundry, 34 Main, tel. 141.

Several of the saloon men got 'on their ear' yesterday morning, and for a while the outlook for a grand row was promising.
