No Game at St. Joseph.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 20.—The St. Joseph-Milwaukee game was prevented by rain.

This Afternoon's Game.

The game between Omaha and St. Paul, which was to have been played yesterday, and postponed on account of rain, will be played this afternoon. It is Greek against Greek, and ought to be a great battle, and there is no doubt but what a great crowd will turn out to witness the strife. St. Paul will be the home team, and the stars with Hawes, Worrall, Waggoner, Daly, H. Broughton, Mains and all represented, but Omaha must make her fight under a slight handicap, as Canavay, the neat little left fielder, can not play on account of sickness. Following are the positions of the two teams:

A large audience greeted the first performance of the reproduction of the home opera, "Mr. Sampson of Omaha," which took place at the Grand opera house, last night. The audience was demonstrative, but bestowed its favors with more than usual discrimination. Some changes have been made in the cast which appeared in the original production of the piece, and in many instances the changes may be pronounced. The chorus is larger, more numerous in grouping and attire than it was originally, and seems to grasp the idea of its introduction much more firmly than did its predecessor. More pain also appears to have been taken in getting the piece in a circumstance which contributed greatly to its success. There is not an objectionable voice among the principals. Messrs. Brigham, Young, Deuel and Barton received recalls, as did also Mrs. Martin Cahn and Miss Bertha Baylies. The singing of the chorus was excellent, and the vocal parts have been nicely balanced, and the beautiful choruses as a consequence are very effectively rendered. Whatever may be said as to the engrossing interest of the story, the measure of success which must be accorded the performers for their acting, the fact can not be gainsaid that "Mr. Sampson" is a tuneful work which of itself is worthy of patronage.
