State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is secretary of the Bee Publishing Company...

Sworn to before me and subscribed to in my presence this 23rd day of June, 1890, at Omaha, Nebraska.

AMERICAN HORSE has impressed the Sioux commissioners at Pine Ridge with the fact that he has good horse-sense.

VENEZUELA successfully weathered a peaceful revolution, and a Cape May belle eloped with her father's French cook.

THERE is cause for much rejoicing in the announcement that Senator Blackburn did not pull Senator Chandler's ears.

THE wheat harvest, this year, promises to equal, if not exceed, the great record of 1884, when five hundred and thirteen million bushels were harvested.

AN ex-assemblyman of New York city is at present confined in the Queen's county jail on the charge of stealing lunches from a hotel.

THE farmers of the state do not appreciate the full value of the flax crop. In addition to renting a snug snug from the seed, the fiber, properly woven and pressed, possesses all the persuasive power of hemp as a specific for crime.

THE money has been raised for laying a telegraphic cable from San Francisco to the Sandwich islands.

ARIZONA proposes to hold a constitutional convention next winter for the purpose of giving expression to the movement for statehood.

THE fame of the American engineer is evidently not circumscribed by the Atlantic seaboard or Pacific slope.

THE graduates of the Omaha high school will listen, to-day, to what corresponds in colleges to the baccalaureate sermon.

THERE is a striking contrast between the assessment of railroad property in Douglas county, Nebraska, and Pottawattamie county, Iowa.

PLAYGROUNDS FOR CHILDREN.

Boston has recently opened a great playground for her school children in one of the large parks of the city.

Referring to the Boston playgrounds, the Advertiser of that city says: "Why should not every city provide some simple, wholesome and inexpensive amusement for its little folks?"

The reasons for such an institution in Boston or Brooklyn are doubtless much more urgent than in smaller cities like Omaha, particularly in the matter of the health of the children.

A STUDY OF SUICIDE. Statistics show that suicide is increasing in nearly all countries with terrible rapidity.

Besides dissipation, reverses of fortune and overwork, love, jealousy and remorse play an important part in the etiology of self-destruction.

THE fame of the American engineer is evidently not circumscribed by the Atlantic seaboard or Pacific slope.

colleges of the west, and to follow out to a great extent the evolution in education now in progress, not alone in America, but in Europe.

The growth of loan and building associations in the United States during the past few years has been phenomenal.

The change of the word "indications" to "forecasts" in the daily official bulletin of the signal service department has not been followed by any nothing influence on the weather.

THE death of John Gilbert, the noted Boston actor, removes from the stage one of its brightest ornaments.

THE wearisome struggle between the syndicate and the settlers on the Des Moines river lands is no nearer settlement than during Cleveland's administration.

THE daily literary efforts of the six service bureaus are to be rechristened "forecasts."

IT is now in order for the Sioux to christen General Crook "Man-Afraid-of-His-Hair."

THE fact that there is not enough hair on his pate to whet a scalp knife gives him peculiar influence over the redskins, who look upon a bald head as the essence of "bad medicine."

ENTERPRISE and generosity are characteristics of the street sweeping contractors.

THE report that leeches have made their appearance on the Atlantic is premature.

THE Volynsk club, of Boston, is about to disband, being unable to find a president possessing the necessary versatility to shape its destinies.

AN eastern weather prophet predicted a week of severe storms, culminating in a life-size cyclone.

THE fate of red-headed Nick Foley, who has his neck by plunging off a bridge in Antelope county, is a crude but effective mode of dispensing justice.

AS OTHERS SEE US. But One Eye is Open. THE OMAHA BEE still frantically clamors for an Omaha & Yankton railroad.

ANYTHING FOR AN ADVERTISEMENT. Omaha is jealous because Dr. Spurgeon made a favorable comparison of Chicago to London.

ECONOMIC QUESTIONS.

The Use of Capital. In economic discussions the attention of the public has, of late, been directed principally to the controversies between capital and labor.

Country Breezes. Laying For Ben. B. W. Riddle, of Cresco, is a man that has played the stinker with the Tribune and left us in the hole for several years' subscription.

Help the Editor. Do not be afraid to tell the editor of any news you might get on; because he cannot be around all the time and neglect his office duties.

A Treacherous Memory. Last week some evil genius worked sad havoc with the intentions of ye Republican local scribe.

Tributes to Enterprise. It is a Newspaper. THE BEE is a newspaper and deserves success.

Most Marked Success. THE OMAHA BEE celebrated its eighteenth anniversary by occupying its large and handsome new building.

An Occasion to be Proud Of. Edward Rosewater was the proudest man in Omaha on Wednesday when he cut the ribbon of the new building of THE BEE.

Deserved Prosperity. THE OMAHA BEE celebrated its eighteenth anniversary by moving into its elegant new building.

Untiring Industry Did It. THE HISTORY OF THE BEE is a history of untiring industry, of far-sighted enterprise, and of splendid management.

Doubly Rewarded. THE OMAHA BEE celebrated its eighteenth anniversary by occupying its new seven-story building and entertaining its friends.

Reaping Its Reward. THE BEE richly deserves its splendid success, its helpful influence in building up the city of Omaha.

An Idol of the Berkshire Hills. A country boy by the old stone wall, That keeps the meadow and road apart.

Now to manhood grown, and the bells sound sweet As the cows come slowly from the meadow.

And he leaves the wall and buries to meet The mid-day creatures, for they all know The hand that strikes them as they pass.

And each one stands by the cow-ward bars Seeming well content with the strong brown hand That milks them there 'neath the summer stars.

As if they were away at the foot of the hill, Happy they wait, for they know ere long The cows will come from the meadow side.

So Sam caresses his little son, While the young wife looks with joy and pride; And a piping voice o'er the old stone wall Just breathes in baby notes the call.

Once more Sam stands by the meadow bars With his wife beside him, and her arms Enfold a dear form, whose baby prate Is sweeter to them than the brook's gay song.

As if they were away at the foot of the hill, Happy they wait, for they know ere long The cows will come from the meadow side.
