

THE CITY.

The Young People's society of the Southwestern Lutheran church will have a lemon squeeze this evening at the residence of Mr. D. W. Shull...

The degree of doctor of divinity has been conferred on Rev. John Gordon, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church of Omaha by his alma mater, the Western University of Pennsylvania...

It is reported that there are over five hundred cases of a mild type of pink-eye epidemic among horses of this city. The disease is chiefly confined to the large livery barns...

A jolly party of young folks in Jim Stephenson's livery, and drawn by six horses, attracted considerable attention on the streets yesterday afternoon. It was a party going out to Fort Omaha to have a lawn fête...

A little eleven-year-old girl named Ella Foley, residing at Twenty-second and Green streets, was severely bitten yesterday by a vicious dog belonging to Ed Brown. A complaint was made to police headquarters and a policeman was sent to kill the dog...

Personal Paragraphs. Mr. Will J. Scott, of Kearney, is in the city. Miss Annie C. Curly, of Des Moines, Ia., is in the city...

Mr. W. S. Garber, of Lincoln, secretary of the state board of transportation, is in the city attending the meeting of the board of trade.

Mr. W. E. Smythe, editor of the Kearney Daily Enterprise is in the city. He called at the Bee office and was shown through the building.

Dr. S. G. Kirby and Miss Carrie Fester, of Grand Junction, Ia., were married at the Paxton hotel, at noon, by William Evans, also of Grand Junction.

W. A. L. Gibson has been called to Chicago by the death of a niece. Joseph Franklin, R. L. Henry, of the William Barr Dry Goods company, St. Louis, arrived today on a visit to his home store on Sixteenth and Douglas streets.

Henry Gibson, grand commander Nebraska Knights Templar, is in the city to meet other leading knights and perfect preliminary arrangements for going to the biennial convocation at Washington next November.

Finest but Gallant. Mrs. Grady, was fined $3 and costs in police court for assaulting Rube Gray, one of M. F. Martin's grandsons. After he secured the conviction Martin paid the fine imposed, as Mrs. Grady was in a destitute condition.

Broom Suspended. Officer Charles Brown of the police force has been suspended by Chief Scavo for drinking in a saloon. Bloom alleges that he drank nothing but ginger ale, and used it only because he was afraid to drink the city water in its present muddy condition.

Duncan's Opinion. The break in the pavement on Sixteenth street south of the viaduct was caused, according to Plumbing Superintendent Duncan, by a break in the sewer connection with the water main at 1310 South Sixteenth street. The water works people allege that the break was caused by water getting in behind the curbing on the street and washing out the sewer trench.

Aiding the Woman's Home. Miss Marlin Chase, niece of Dr. Mercor, will give a musical at her new residence on the evening of July 2, for the benefit of the Woman's home, on Burt street. Seven hundred and fifty invitations have been issued.

The object for which the entertainment will be given is a most meritorious one, the home being one of the most worthy charitable institutions in the city, many of the infirm women being cared for there that otherwise might be homeless. A Council Bluffs "Fence." Detective Mostyn arrested in Council Bluffs yesterday Belle Johnson, alias Belle Henderson, alias "Johnny Bull," a negro, who is a notorious thief and fence and is wanted at Kansas City where she has been indicted by the grand jury together with the hardest gang of thieves that has ever plied the city on the Kaw. The woman was driven out of Omaha about three years ago and has since made her headquarters in Council Bluffs.

Hitching Post Ordinance. Omaha, June 26.—The edition of THE BEE: For the past three or four weeks there has been nothing but mad dog scares, the laws being strictly enforced. Why is there nothing said about runaway teams? A farmer comes to town; there is no place to hitch his horse; it either runs away or a policeman comes along, takes it to the stable and then the poor farmer has to pay the cost.

There is a city ordinance stating that there must be at least two rings to every lot of a certain size ring and not less than a certain number of feet apart. Not one-tenth of the places in Omaha have the rings, and those who have them do not use them in accordance with the ordinance. This is more of a necessity than the killing of dogs. The taxes on them have been paid.

A Missing Plumber. George Jones, a plumber who came here from New York during the recent plumbers' strike, is missing. His wife, a handsome young woman, reported the matter to Chief Scavo and requested his assistance in the search for her husband. She states that they came direct from England two months ago, and were induced to come to Omaha by an advertisement in a New York paper calling for plumbers in this city.

Constitution. If not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Druggists, by weakening the bowels, aggravate rather than cure the disease. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify to the benefit derived from the use of their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every day, and I feel as if I could not do so willingly without them.—G. W. Bowman, 20 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

I have been taking Ayer's Pills, and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe and effectual cathartic.—John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health.—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully endorse them for the purposes for which they are recommended.—T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

A NOBLE WOMAN.

Mrs. Hayes' Character Considered By a Gentleman Who Knew Her. Hon. John M. Hawley, of this city, attorney for the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley road, was assistant secretary of the United States treasury during President Hayes' administration. He had charge of the appointments and was familiar at the white house by reason of the fact that he had to call there nearly every day.

Speaking of Mrs. Hayes' death, Mr. Hawley said: Mrs. Hayes was one of the most estimable women whom I have ever known. I knew her well by reason of the fact that General Hayes, and no woman ever occupied the position of mistress of the white house, was so much respected and honored. She was gentle and engaging in her manners, most intelligent and entertaining in her conversation, and capable at the same time of entertaining a large circle of guests, made up of different callings and professions, and making them all at ease and happy in her society.

She was a woman of strong convictions and great force of character, and always ready when the occasion demanded it to assert herself and to urge what she considered to be the course of right. She drew about her wide circle of devoted and admiring friends who thoroughly appreciated the loveliness of her character and enjoyed her confidence. She was a great credit to her country as she was a most fit representative of what her country could produce, and her shining virtues and beautiful character may justly be admired and imitated by the women of her country.

"Her death will bring mourning into very many households. "The news of her death," he continued, "is the cause of much grief in my family."

A Great Battle is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparil is the best with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field and restore peace and bodily health for ever.

Double Assessment. OMAHA, June 26.—To the Editor of THE BEE: 1. Can you enlighten the public as to whether the city council, sitting as a board of equalization has any legal right to raise the valuation of real property from 10 to 20 per cent above the county assessor's valuation?

2. And has the city council any right to take the county assessment of 1888 as a basis for a levy of city taxes for the year 1889, as is done now, thereby causing unequal valuation on property between county and city in the same block and of equal value?

3. Can a county assessor be called to account and be held responsible for unequal valuations of a difference of 100 per cent for property in the same block and of equal value?

Every property owner interested in the welfare and growth of our young city will surely not object to any reasonable tax, but will I, but we all have a right to call a halt to this crying evil of the present unequal and too high taxation. We must find a remedy to abate this outrage.

Will you kindly do your part in stirring up the citizens to discuss this serious matter publicly? Respectfully, JOHN H. V. LEHMANN.

1. Under the law neither the county commissioner or the city council would have a right to raise the valuation, except for the purpose of equalization. 2. The law provides that the city council shall be governed by the last county assessment, which would be the one for 1888. The county assessor cannot be called to account for unequal valuation.

Delayed Her Departure. Robert Morrow is in trouble again. Several weeks ago he was arrested for wife-beating and was placed under bonds to keep the peace. Mrs. Morrow has since refused to live with him, and was at the union depot yesterday on her way to Colorado, where she has a sister living. She was accompanied by John Conway of Council Bluffs, who was going to California and had intended to take Mrs. Morrow safely to her destination. Morrow heard of the proposed departure of his wife and followed her to the depot, where he assaulted Conway while he was entering in checking Mrs. Morrow's baggage. Both men were arrested on the charge of fighting.

Mrs. Morrow deferred her departure for the Centennial state, and will remain in the city as a witness against her husband when the case is called for trial. Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, and cures colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

Anderson's Scheme. During the commissioners' meeting yesterday Anderson tried hard to get in his work on County Clerk Roche again, but failed. It happened that the latter had given the Sixth ward assessors vouchers for their pay. In order to get at the matter and create a row, Anderson moved that the assessment allowances for the Sixth ward, which were ordered last Saturday, be reconsidered, but his motion was voted down. O'Keefe exposed the objects of it by stating that he could see through them as plainly as he could see Anderson's face, so that he would have done just as the clerk did.

LITERALLY THE STAFF OF LIFE.

Another greatly superior quality possessed by the Royal Baking Powder is that by which the preservation of important elements of the flour is effected in raising the bread by the mechanical operation of the gas, without fermentation.

Yeast, and all baking powders that produce the leavening gas by fermentation, as is well known, destroy a portion of the nutritive elements of the flour, and particularly those which are the most healthful and the greatest aids to a perfect assimilation of the food.

The Royal Baking Powder, while perfectly leavening, retains without change or impairment all those elements which were intended by nature, when combined in our bread, to make it literally the "staff of life."

No leavening agent or baking powder, except the Royal Baking Powder, possesses these great qualifications.
