Sunday Shavers.

There was but one barber shop open in this city yesterday, and that was run by a Seventh-Day Adventist, on Upper Broadway.

When night came and one of the hottest days of the season had passed the conviction had been confirmed that Council Bluffs afforded business a better system and pleasure resorts that will give her an enviable prominence as a city where cool retreats from the blazing heat are within the reach of the humblest citizen and of such vast extent that thousands of strangers can mingle with her own people and not create a crowd where one individual can be a nuisance to the rest.

Judge Aylesworth gives his decision to-day. The anti-closers are quite positive that it will be in their favor. They fully expect to open next Sunday, and one of them stated that he had received quite positive assurance that there would be no further trouble.

The closing action is not at all worried over the outlook as they have shut up all the shops for two Sundays, and believe that the outlook for the future is in their favor.

Call on the Birkinbine Engineering and Supply Company, 115 Pearl street, Council Bluffs, Ia., and examine the same as in Omaha. It will pay you; samples sent on application.
