

1 AFTER THE BATTLE OF FISTS.

Muldoon Says Sullivan Refrained From Needless Rushing.

JAKE THE GREATEST SLUGGER.

Always Barring Boston's Undeclared Butlers—A Humor That Jake Was Drugged, and a Charge of Hypochondria.

John L.'s Trainer Talks.

New Orleans, July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—William Muldoon, the wrestler, who trained Sullivan, had today to say to an Associated Press reporter to-day when asked his opinion of the fight:

"My impression is that it is the greatest fight that ever took place between heavy weights. The fighting was fast and furious all through, and I don't think the man was ever more than whipped Sullivan yesterday. He was as good as the end of the fight that he had fought over half an hour. He was as strong as when the fight commenced, and could have fought two hours longer if necessary. He refrained from fast and needless fighting by my advice, as I did not want him to meet with any accidents. I consider Kilrain the greatest heavy-weight fighter living outside of Great Britain. He is a game and determined fellow and I think if he had fought according to his own judgment instead of taking the cowardly and tricky advice of the men who were behind him he would not have been biased by the people present, and the American public would have more to admire in him to-day than at any time since he came into prominence. I don't think he was in condition for a hard fight in this hot climate. He was trained too fine and soon became weary. He lost seven pounds in seven days before the fight and after the battle was over he was just six and a quarter pounds lighter than when he entered the ring. He was not a bit tired, was cheerful and in no way injured. My advice to him is to live the balance of his life easy and to never again enter the ring as a professional. He is now restored to perfect health and may yet live long and enjoy good health if he will only take care of himself. I always have been an object of derision to the public that he is a natural born fighter and could fight a long and scientific battle if necessary, provided he had the proper training and put into condition. Now that I have done that, I am through forever with all ring fights. I never again want to see a man knocked out by a fellow who has been fighting yesterday. I think boxing a grand exercise and will do all I can to encourage it, but I think ring fighting is too brutal and I want to see no more of it."

Was Kilrain Drugged?

New Orleans, July 9.—The pugilists and their friends who created such a great furor here for the past week or two have all left the city, and affairs are assuming their normal condition. Kilrain, who was believed to have received such terrible punishment about the body, appeared this morning to be as fresh as the day. After his return from the battle field he vomited a somewhat offensive substance, which was kept for analysis, in order to determine whether he had been dosed (as he intimated) or not. Rumor has it that Kilrain has been suffering from disease, but he is now perfectly cured, and in order to satisfy himself whether this was true or not, he had the doctor examine him. He was evidently suffering great physical pain and appeared to walk with difficulty. The doctor was finally convinced that not only was he suffering from disease, but that he had had a surgical operation performed and that he had been taking medicine ever since his arrival here. It was on the morning of his arrival here he was seen taking medicine from a vial. A doctor stated to some members of the club that he had been treating Kilrain for some time. These facts only became known in the club to-day, and the consequences thereof are being discussed by the members. When he had gone, they wished they never had invited him. Prof. Robinson, in charge of the pupils of the Southern Athletic club, who witnessed the fight, stated that he was certain of returning that the fight was a fake from the beginning to the end, and that Sullivan and Kilrain were both parties to it. This explained Sullivan's mannerisms, and the fact that when he had him at his mercy several times during the fight, when he could quite easily have knocked him out. His assertions were made openly to members of the club and have evoked no little comment. Some say he is mistaken, for too many blows were struck and too many knees were kicked, and too much punishment for a fake fight. Kilrain arose this morning and desired to take a bath in the swimming tank, but was not permitted to do so. At 7:15 Kilrain, with his manager, Poney Moore and Dr. Dougherty left for the north via Texas, in order to avoid going back through Mississippi, where they feared arrest.

WANTS TO PUNISH THEM.

Gov. Lowry Says He Will Extradite All Parties to the Fight.

New Orleans, July 9.—The sporting fraternity in town spent the morning talking over the fight. Many left town by the early trains and by night the majority of them will be gone. Kilrain is still suffering severely, but his backers say no bones are broken, and especially Sullivan and Kilrain, with their seconds. Sullivan's fear of arrest will probably interfere with the arrangements for his reception, and the doctor will be kept in attendance. Arrangements are being made to have the Sullivan party go back to New York by steamer. The backers of the big fellow want to keep him from drinking, and believe this will do him good.

A Requisition for Kilrain.

New Orleans, July 9.—A New Orleans special says the governor of Mississippi got out a requisition for Kilrain's arrest, but Jake gave everyone the slip and left there at 7:15 this morning over the Queen & Crescent route, getting over the state line before he was missed. He will go straight through to Hattiesburg, where he is expected to arrive early Thursday morning. Sullivan leaves for the north at 3:30 this afternoon. The false reports stating this morning that Kilrain was in the hospital with three ribs broken, caused much excitement among the sporting fraternity.

Won't Take Fox's Bell.

New Orleans, July 9.—Sullivan says he will not accept Fox's belt, either for his billiard or himself, feeling that this is not necessary to establish his title as the champion pugilist. He will remain several days as a guest at 29 North Rampart street. This evening he will be given a reception by the young men's athletic club of the city. Kilrain, it is reported this morning, has three ribs broken, and will be unable to travel for some time.

Kilrain a Sick Man.

New Orleans, July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Kilrain is lying at the South-land hotel, and his doctors are in attendance upon him. The secret of his poor fight yesterday is patent. Two weeks ago, while in Baltimore, he had a surgical operation performed in the groin. Stearns said that Mitchell disclosed Kilrain's condition, but he had forfeited the money and allowed the fight. The Bee man personally examined Kilrain today. Sullivan is all right.

Smith Challenges Sullivan.

London, July 9.—Smith has challenged Sullivan to fight in Europe for £1,000 a side.

Fight Interest in New York.

New York, July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—There was much interest shown in this city in the result of yesterday's prize fight, and the sparse news that reached here during business hours concerning the movements of Sullivan and Kilrain were eagerly discussed in the lobbies of the hotels, in the exchanges, barrooms and private offices—in fact, wherever crowds of two or three persons came together. But there was not much money on the fight in this city, the backers of Kilrain fearing to put up their funds at the quoted odds of 10 to 7—owing to the confidence displayed by the friends of Sullivan. There were reports of bets amounting to thousands made living outside of the city, but the betting was nearly all talk. Until long after midnight the barrooms were crowded with men drinking and yelling for Sullivan. The fight undoubtedly has brought back all the time and prestige to Sullivan in the metropolis.

BASE BALL.

Standing of the Clubs.

Table showing the standing of the Western association clubs, up to and including yesterday's game. Columns include Club Name, Played, Won, Lost, Per Ct.

Minnesota 11, Milwaukee 6.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 9.—Milwaukee defeated Milwaukee to-day by hard hitting.

Score:

Score breakdown for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota. Columns include Milwaukee, Minnesota, and various player statistics.

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota.

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

Score breakdown by innings for Milwaukee vs. Minnesota (continued).

BY INNINGS.

editorial excursion, took along with him four of Ed Ithery's homing birds, with the intention of liberating one at Denver, one at Salt Lake, one at Ogden and one at Portland. The first bird liberated was a blue check named Lady Beck, which was given wing at Denver Monday noon, and yesterday at 4:20 the bird returned to its cage in this city, having done the 900 miles in twenty-eight hours and twenty-five minutes. This is a remarkable flight when it is considered that the bird is but eighteen months old, and was never trusted at a long distance. Without halt or rest the bird should have reached here in six hours from its liberation, but notwithstanding the fact that Ithery possesses a first-class strain of these remarkable feathered messengers. The bird liberated from Salt Lake is hourly looked for.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Governor Heaver and the state board of relief have decided to distribute $500,000 among the Johnston sufferers.

The river Indus has overflowed, and the adjacent country is under ten feet of water.

A dispatch from Chippewa Falls says L. J. Newell, a well known local actor, has disappeared with about $70,000.

The National German Teachers' association began its nineteenth annual convention in Chicago yesterday.

Kansas Crop Prospects.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Heavy rains have visited this state during the past two days, and came in good time for the corn crop. All the crop reports indicate that the outlook for the corn crop in Kansas was never in all the history of the state so promising as it is this year.

The average is larger than any other year, and the condition of the crop is all that could be desired.

Eulogies Mrs. Hayes.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Francis E. Willard, president of the world's W. C. T. U., has issued an address to the officers and members of the association eulogizing the character of the late Mrs. Frances Hayes, and stating that no woman ever had so much to discountenance the social use of intoxicants. It requests that memorial services be held in all local unions on Sunday, July 21.

Nebraska and Iowa Postmasters.

WASHTON, July 9.—Among the postmasters appointed by the president this afternoon are the following: S. C. Leland at Toledo, Ia.; August E. Bergman at Spirit Lake, Ia.; W. H. Stewart at Geneva, Neb.; William E. Campbell at Secumeb, Neb.; Henry L. Strout at Plattsmouth, Neb.

An Advance in Floor.

LEEDS, July 9.—The Corn Millers association here has made a further advance of one shilling a sack in the price of flour. This action has been taken on account of bad reports of crops in Russia combined with a decrease in foreign arrivals.

A Fatal Trip.

KILBOURN CITY, Wis., July 9.—Emil Plettig and Gus John, of Chicago, accompanied by guide, attempted to run the dam in a row boat this morning. Plettig and John were drowned by the capsizing of the boat. The guide escaped by swimming ashore.

Fifteen People Killed.

ROCHESTER, Pa., July 9.—A passenger train collided with a freight train near Clunista to-day. Fifteen passengers were killed and many injured.

A Murder Breaks Jail.

LOUISVILLE, July 9.—W. J. Hanson, under a ten-year sentence for murder, broke jail last night at Princeton.

THE UTICA REINSTATED.

The Council rescinds the Board of Public Works' Act.

The council committee on the subject in one round at the council meeting last night, and the Utica board, recently rejected by the board of public works from use in the public improvements in the city, was restored to full rights with the Milwaukee and Louisville cements. The matter was introduced by the following resolution, offered by Congressman Davis:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Utica Black Ball brand of cement has stood all tests equal to any American cement, the same should be put on the list of cements to be used in all public works where natural cements are required, subject at all times to the tests required of all American standard cements.

A motion to refer the resolution to the committee on paving, curbing and guttering was opposed and the bill was ordered to pass.

Mr. Haswell favored Mr. Davis' resolution. He stated that an Omaha agent of one of the companies in favor of the board of public works had written to him, and he told them that if they would give him the agency of the Utica he would not use it, and he would stand out. He stated that the Utica cement stood all the required tests and should not be excluded. Mr. Ford seconded Mr. Haswell's position.

Mr. Davis, in urging his resolution, stated that the board of public works had rejected the cement because certain paving work, in which the cement had been used, had proved unsatisfactory, when, as a matter of fact, the fault was entirely that of the contractor, who had not used the cement as directed.

He stated that the board of public works had no right to make a distinction in the grades of Louisville cement, although there are thirteen different makes at Louisville, some of them manufacturing cements that were unfit for use in any public works.

After some further discussion the resolution was unanimously adopted, and having been amended to include Mankato cement.

The other business of the council was of a routine nature.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Success of the Bostonians in "Pygmalion and Galatea."

No more pleasurable entertainments have ever been given in this city than those which have taken place under the auspices of the Bostonians. Formerly known as the Boston Idealists, there are few people who patronize opera who do not readily recognize and appreciate the fact that the change in name indicates but a slight change in the composition of the old-time favorite company.

By way of attesting this fact, the Grand last night was crowded with an audience of brilliant musical and social audiences which ever assembled in the city.

The opera was "Pygmalion and Galatea." It was the beautiful story of Gilber's comedy of that name worked to music, with a few interpolated scenes by Mr. Weil.

The interest of the story does nothing by its recital in music. On the contrary, it is greatly increased by the beautiful and concerted pieces in which the opera abounds.

All the principals have been brought round and render their very well. The chorus is very good.

This afternoon "The Musketeers" will be presented, with Juliette Gordon, Charlotte Maconda, Louise Bianchi and Messrs. Barnabe, MacDonald and Huff in the leading roles.

A Slight Blaze.

A lot of second hand mattresses and carpet in a second hand furniture store at 1716 St. Mary's avenue caught fire in some unknown way last night about 12:30. Some young men passing the store saw the blaze, broke in the side door, and carried the burning stock outside. The proprietor of the store and his family were sleeping in the rear and were unconscious of the danger until all was over. The fire department was called out and soon extinguished the flames.

A Fictive Wife.

Officer Vizard found a three days' old infant on the door-step of a family named Johnson, near the corner of Seventh and Pierce streets, last night. No trace of the parentage of the little waif could be discovered. The people in the house reluctantly consented to keep the little one until morning. It is probable it will be taken to the Open Door to-day.

GREENE CHAMBERLAIN ORGANIC LOSING.

The Eighth Annual Session a Most Successful One.

MUSICAL DAY CONCLUDES IT.

A Summary of the Good Results Which the Assembly has Accomplished—Beatrice Ends a Profitable Meeting.

The Last Day at O-tope.

CHIEF ASSEMBLY GROUND, July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—With the going out of the electric lights to-night the eighth annual session of the Nebraska Chautauqua will close. People realize that the time is short and seem disposed to make the most of what remains. The camp was awake until an unusual late hour last night, but eventually, after a well known and successful playing of the evening concert, and retired to their beds. Just as they had wandered into dreamland, there to hear again the sweet strains of the "Coelican Vespers," and the magic notes of cornet and zither, they were rudely aroused by an unconscionable wailing howl for a supper, which cranked about a central position and lifted up a notoriously loud cracked voice to proclaim that he was "Climbing up Jacob's ladder—ladder." The pestiferous serenade of the irate officer, who peremptorily commanded the uproar to cease.

Early rising was the rule, not the exception, this morning. There was a great deal of packing to do, and the majority were interested in the examinations and concert rehearsal. The morning prayer meeting was a farewell meeting, and well attended. Mr. Stewart, who has so ably conducted these meetings during the entire session, spoke earnestly of the good they have accomplished, but they would not cease with the assembly, but would be continued throughout the year in the homes of all who have attended them during the past fortnight. Many others spoke in like manner and the meeting was full of serious, earnest thought. The morning hours were devoted to written examinations. Many who have regularly attended the various classes grow timid and shy, but a goodly number did all that was expected of them. The number that passed written examinations in the various classes were as follows: Dr. Duryea's bible class, 35; Prof. Jacoby's normal class, 4; Mrs. Kennedy's Palestine class, 30; Children's class, 45. The examination in each of these classes consisted of fifty questions, covering all the ground passed over during the entire session. At 11 a. m. Prof. Sprague delivered his highly interesting lecture on "Millionaire Paradise Lost." This was the last of all the excellent lectures in this year's programme.

At 12 o'clock the musical day at O-tope, Chautauqua was treated to two fine concerts—as fine, indeed, as any ever given in the state. An entirely new programme was prepared for the "Musical Day." The first concert was given by the Nebraska Chautauqua, and the list of singers is sufficient proof of the quality of the concert. Programme for 2 p. m.:

- 1. Song—Bedouin Love Song—Combs and Mrs. Powell.
- 2. Song—"One Song to Young"—Back, Mr. Eddy.
- 3. Chorus for female voices—"Charity"—Rossini and Mrs. Powell.
- 4. Song—"The Two Grenadiers"—Schumann and Mrs. Gates.
- 5. A—A Spring Song—Lecolme and Madam Carrington.
- 6. Song—"The Ruffian"—Pinsuti and Mrs. Gates.
- 7. Corset Solo—"The Lost Chord"—Sullivan and Miss Park.
- 8. Duet, Quartet and Chorus—"I Waited for the Lord"—Mendelssohn and Madam Carrington, Mrs. Powell, Messrs. Eddy and Gates.
- 9. Song—"One Song to Young"—Ambrose and Miss Minkler.
- 10. Song—"Infelice"—Verdi and Mrs. Gates.
- 11. Selections of "The Barber of Seville"—Verdi and Mrs. Gates.
- 12. Aria from "Ernani"—Verdi and Madam Carrington.
- 13. Song—"Queen of Sheba"—Pinsuti and Mrs. Eddy.
- 14. Song—"Good-bye"—Sostri and Mrs. Powell.
- 15. Zither Solo—"Polka"—Tittig and Miss Park.
- 16. Cantata—"Hear My Prayer"—Mendelssohn and Madam Carrington.

At a private meeting of the chorus class yesterday the following resolutions were adopted:

- 1. That we tender our unfeigned and hearty thanks to Dr. R. Palmer for the interest, patience and kindness with which he has conducted our drill sessions and concerts, and for the sympathy and courage with which he has stood by us in all our difficulties, and in case of his return next year, for which we earnestly petition the assembly management, we pledge our loyal and fraternal co-operation and endeavor.
- 2. That we also express our profound regard for the noble and noble character of the position as accompanist of this choir, and that we earnestly request that he be returned to us for the assembly of 1890.
- 3. That copies of these resolutions be furnished to Dr. Palmer and Mrs. Raymond, and representative of the press for publication.

A called meeting of the assembly trustees was held at 7 o'clock last evening, and the next year's programme. To-night the tent dwellers return to their white abodes for the last time this year. The morning tents were left in the city, and the summer city will be deserted. The gold of autumn and the snows of winter will drift over these lovely grounds, and spring will again clothe them in verdure. The Chautauqua tent to seek and find another unalloyed fortnight of physical, mental and spiritual enjoyment. Perhaps the scheme of the prayers and songs, and of the magnificent lectures and sermons of this year will linger in these groves and halls. All the principals have been brought round and render their very well. The chorus is very good.

This afternoon "The Musketeers" will be presented, with Juliette Gordon, Charlotte Maconda, Louise Bianchi and Messrs. Barnabe, MacDonald and Huff in the leading roles.

A Slight Blaze.

A lot of second hand mattresses and carpet in a second hand furniture store at 1716 St. Mary's avenue caught fire in some unknown way last night about 12:30. Some young men passing the store saw the blaze, broke in the side door, and carried the burning stock outside. The proprietor of the store and his family were sleeping in the rear and were unconscious of the danger until all was over. The fire department was called out and soon extinguished the flames.

A Fictive Wife.

Officer Vizard found a three days' old infant on the door-step of a family named Johnson, near the corner of Seventh and Pierce streets, last night. No trace of the parentage of the little waif could be discovered. The people in the house reluctantly consented to keep the little one until morning. It is probable it will be taken to the Open Door to-day.

THINGS RUNNING SMOOTHLY.

So Say the Members of the Interstate Association.

THINK THEY WILL PULL THROUGH

Chicago Railroad Men Apparently More Cheerful as to the Prospects for the Future—The Union Pacific.

Other Associations.

Chicago, July 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Twenty-four hours have made wonderful difference in the opinion of the Chicago railroad men in reference to the collapse of the Interstate Commerce Railway association. Monday afternoon the majority believed the association would meet for the first time to-day. To-night it was impossible to find a man who believed the association was likely to meet to-day.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.

President Dodge, of the Denver, Ft. Worth & Texas, made a statement of the reason of his withdrawal from the association, and he had the kindest feeling for the association and he only withdrew because his direct competitors in the south were not members.

President Adams said the meeting at Ft. Worth would be justifiable and would have no effect upon the Union Pacific membership.

Hearty applause greeted these speeches, and the bug-a-boo set up as a cause for the smashing of the association vanished in the air.