PRIZE FIGHT PERQUISITES.

The Heavy Losers and Those Who Won Their Stuff.

SULLIVAN IS $27,000 AHEAD.

An Omaha Man Said to Have Gathered in Fifteen Thousand Dollars-Kilrain Wants An-

Much Money Changed Hands. New York, July 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The atmosphere was not here yesterday and last evening, but the Sullivan enthusiasm was hotter. It permeated the entire city. In sporting circles the Sullivan fever was unbounded, and scarcely a man could be found who didn't say; "I knew it all the time." The interest in the great prize fight was nearly as intense as it was on Monday. Sullivan's colors were everywhere about the city, and at almost all the picture stores the windows were filled with his portraits in all positions and every shade. One dealer estimated that more than five thousand pictures of the champion of the prize ring had been sold in this city and Brooklyn since the news of his victory came on Mon doy evening. Poor Kilrain was almost for-gotten and no one had much to say about him, except to glory in the fact that they had prophesied his defeat right along. How much money changed hands on the result will, of course, never be known. Sullivan takes the stakes of $20,000. His half of this, $10,000, was put up by Muidoon, Johnson and Wakely, and in the ordinary course of events is to be returned to them. Their profits on the speculation are represented by hots they have won. Sullivan is a sented by bets they have won. Sullivan is a clear gainer in the stake money by $10,000: he takes 60 per cent of the gate receipts, and this would yield him another $10,000 net; he bet $1,000 with Kilram in the ring, and his putside bets are estimated at $5,000. His repts are therefore about $26,000, and from s is to be deducted the expenses of training, hotel bills, traveling expenses, and incidentals. Placing these items at the top figure of $4,000, there remains a balance of $22,000 which the Boston boy has to his predit, just because he won "Fox's dog collar," and $5,000 for the value of the "dog collar," and John L. is in $37,000.

Collar," and John L. is in $27,000.

Richard K. Fox loses heavily. He is out the $10,000 stakes, which he put up personally; the belt, which it is said cost $5,000, and about $5,000 which he advanced for the expenses of his agents in Canada when the atch was made and recently in Baltimore d New Orleans. It was he who put up the $1,000 which Kilrain bet in the ring, and it is understood also that he paid Kilrain's train-ing expenses, besides paying a salary to Charlie Mitchell and Mike Donovan for the past three months. A moderate estimate of his loses places the figures at $25,000.

It is estimated that $500,000 changed bands on the fight. Sullivan was the favorite in the stock exchange, where his buckers won about $10,000. There was big money waged in the Consolidated exchange. Gus Tuthill and Billy Smith won heavily. Arthur Lumley is in $6,000 on the fight. Ed. Rothery, of Omaha, who is in the city, won $15,000.

Sullivan Leaves New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, July 10 .- Quite a crowd assembled around the steamship Hudson this morning to see John L. Sullivan and party off, as it was believed he would take passage for New York. It appeared, however, when application was made for six berths to accommodate the party that only four could be obtained. It was decided not to take these and they entered into nego-tiations with the passenger agent for the Southern Pacific line. The party evidently intended to avoid going through the state of Mississippi, where it was feared an arrest would be made, and it mined to go through Texas. At 10:40 the Sullivan party got into a carriage and drove off, their baggage having been sent to the Southern Pacific depot a few hours before. When Sullivan left his boarding house, his face still betrayed the marks of Kiirain's punishment. The party will doubtless proceed to Houston and thence to Boston via St. Louis.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 10 .- The Kilrain party passed through Little Rock this aftermoon. Kilrain was very sick, and from all appearances was badly used up. The fact that he was sore from punishment could not be better illustrated than by noticing him when he attempted to put on his coat. Kil-rain said that he had been licked, but not fairly, and intimated that he would take the fight up at the seventy-fifth round at some future time. He acknowledged that it was one of his off days and said if the light had come off the day before he would have made a better showing. He made no complaint, however, only that he was not at his best.

Kilrain Sick and Sore.

Jake Wants Another Go. NEW ORLEANS, July 10 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |-On the train last evening Charlie Mitchell indignantly repudiated the assertion that he did not want Kilrain to win, and that he had not trained him properly. He said: "Before the fight I would have staked my life on him, so confident was

I that he would win. The battle was fairly fought, and Jake was not a match for Suilivan. He was beaten on his merits."

Kilrain is not satisfied with the result of the fight, and believes that he was not fit. He says he wants another go at Sullivan, and will issue another challenge a month hence to fight him for $30,000 a side.

Sullivan Frightened.

Monile, Ala., July 10 .- John L. Sullivan got on board a Louisville & Nashville train at Grand Bay, Ala., at 5 o'clock this after noon with Mike Cleary and Muldoon, his seconds, and Charley Johnson, his backer. Sullivan was much excited when informed of the rumor of Kilrain's death. The party are very uneasy, fearing arrest. They seem much at sea as to what course to pursue. Sullivan says he undoubtedly punished Kiirain terri-bly and looked as though the rumor was no great surprise to him.

A Sheriff After the Pugs. NEW OBLEANS, July 10. - The sheriff of Marion county, Mississippi, was here this morning for the purpose of arresting Sullivan and Kilrain. He has gone to Baton Rouge to get a requisition from the governor and will return to New Orleans this evening. In the meantime the pugilists are getting sway as fast as steam can carry ther

SECRETAN'S SEIZED PICTURES. Something About the Collection to be

Sold on Saturday. [Copyright 1889 by James Gordon Bennett.] LONDON, July 10 .- | New York Herald Cable-Special to THE BEE. |- When the col lapse of the syndicate occurred some English creditors contrived to obtain possession of seventeen of the best of M. Secretan's pictures as security, and those now hanging in Mr. Christie's rooms in King street, where they will be sold next Saturday. As their estimated value is something like £40,000, it may be supposed that they are interesting and important. They include eleven works of old masters, and six modern French pictures of the school of 1830. The principal pictures are two landscapes by Hobbima One a large picture from the Sandonato col-lection and the other a beautiful, if a rather example from Hamilton palace The larger picture is injured by a very vul-gar frame, but this will probably not affect buyers. Before Prince Domisoff bought the picture at a very great price it belonged to Mr. Charles Hanbury Tracy, who bought it at the Countess of Holderness' sale in 1802 for £394. Two good examples of Woverman, an excellent Isaac Ostale, a small Adrian Vau de Velde, and a head of the Madonus by Perugine or one of his scholars are all worth scoing, and two out of four picture by J. 13. Pater are fine specimens of that un-equaled artist. The modern pictures include Millet's "Le Vanneur," one of his brilliantly painted single figures, full of spirit and rural labor, though hardly likely to excite

the world as the Angelus excited it. Legitime Sulking in His Tent. NEW YORK, July 10 .- | Special Telegran to THE BEE. |- The last steamer from Cuba states that Admiral Gherardi, after visiting Cape Haytien and St. Nicolas Mole in the Kearsarge, and learning the facts about the seizure of the American vessels, went to Port-au-Prince on June 29 and talked plainly to Legitime. He then returned to St. Nico has Mole and communicated with the navy epartment by cable. Legitime is sulking h tent, taking consolation in Voodoo relig-ion and rum. His followers are deserting rapidly to Hippolyte, and the best informed merchants in Port-au-Prince city think that within a month he will be compelled to fly in a foreign man-of-war.

Omaha and Niobrara to Be Connected By Rail.

THE MATTER ABOUT SETTLED.

A Gap of Only Twelve Miles Remains to Be Ironed-Two Horse Thieves Captured at Bassett-State News.

An Important Connection. NIOBRARA, Neb., July 10 .- [Special to THE BER. |-The filling of the gap between Niobrara and Verdigre, a distance of twelve miles, whereby Niobrara and Omaha will soon be connected by rail, is now an almost assured fact. Late last fall a committee of citizens was organized, of which H. Westerman and E. A. Houston were made president and Secretary. Communications passed between the officials of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad company, which established one important fact: that it was the intention of this company at some future time to extend the Norfolk and Niobrara division to this place. No encouragement as went to pieces and St. Paul won the game. to when that "future time" would be was held out. Secretary Houston was given full power to act, and Ed. A. Fry was requested to correspond with Attorney General Leese regarding the unironed grade made by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad in 1880 to the point where the Elkhorn Valley road now stops. General Leese gave satisfactory encouragement as to condemnation proceedings, and Secretary Houston, after six months of corresponding, finally received a letter from President Hughitt, of the Northwestern system, that a committee from Nio-brara would be granted a hearing on June 13, which committee was headed by Hon. S. Draper. The outcome of the committee's visit is the condemnation proceedings against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad's idle grade, in the hands of General

A Disgusting Case. WEST POINT, Neb., July 10 .- [Special to THE BEE. |-M. Kuhn, formerly editor and proprietor of the West Point Progress, has been getting himself in trouble, the details of which are too shocking and disgusting to appear, even in public print, as news. The information will be a surprise to some, but to those who know him best it is but a natural outcome. He came here about two vears ago and purchased the Progress office. paying a little down and giving a mortgage for the remainder. His wife is much respected, and was a hard working dressmaker, doing a good business. She often gave him money, and witnesses are plenty who have seen him squander it on fare and poker, and he was a noted cheat at cards. For some time he has been in the habit of indecently exposing his person to ladies passing his office, which is situated at the corner of two principal streets. Most of bis indeencies were committed at the rear of his office, in an addition, and in frontof the window, but some report having seen him doing the same thing at the front, and even in the front office door in the dusk. The matter has been kept quiet, as ladies dislike preferring such a charge against one calling him-self a man. When the report was first made, some two weeks or more ago, i seemed almost impossible to accept it. Bu after the ice was broken, the cases began to multiply, and included young misses, young women and married ladies, until the question might be asked who had been missed. His victims are the daughters and wives of our business and professional meh, some of whose names are well known in Nebraska whose names are well known in Neoraska and this vicinity, and their integrity is un-questioned. During the last week in June the feeling against him ran so high that talk of tar and feathers, riding on a rail, and a public whipping were freely discussed. His wife was to go away on a visit July I, and after she had gone he was to have been given his medicine. But he suddenly decided to accompany her, and did so. During his absence of a week other cases were re-ported. When he went away it was not thought he could return and face his disgrace, and she hope was freely expressed that he might no more return. That visit of a week was worth much to him, as he would probably have been roughly handled, be-cause vengeance was declared against him. But your correspondent found that he passed through here Sunday night on a west-bound train, going no farther than Norfolk, and the following morning he had brass enough to come to the town and take his accustomed place. Within a short time however, his have actually transacted some business in the way of collections. He evidently did no care to remain here after dark Monday, and departed west on the S p. m. tram, destina tion unknown, saying be would return or Tuesday, though he failed to put in an ap se and it is hoped this time he wil stay. He has no more to do with the office and it is under different management.

He got cash at the bank for half this amount, and a certificate of deposit for the remainder. He came to Davenport from Wyoming and got the cer-tificate cashed at the First National bank in this city. The return of that certificate through an Omaha bank gave the Wyoming authorities a clue, which they followed up by telegraph. The police in this city succeeded in getting hold of a young lady to whom Bartels was soon to be married, and she upsuspectingly gave them all the infor-mation they needed to capture him. He was located in St. Paul and was arrested there Monday night. Sheriff Yand is now on his way to get him, armed with all needful requisition papers. Bartels has relatives here and in St. Paul. Although she is in the same city with him, the young lady does not know that her lover is here in limbo, but supposes him to be in the hands of his friends in St. Paul. The bank at Cheyenne is supposed to be pushing the case.

A Strange Question. DES MOINES, Ia., July 10 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE. |- A strange question has been presented to the governor. Some years ago some tracts of school lands, comprising about three hundred acres, in Fremont county, were sold. The county assumed the responsibility, and has since been paying interest on the same to the school fund. The muddy Missouri some years after lands were sold changed its bed and washed out the 300 acres, leaving not a vestige of the two farms. One of the purchasers is a bankrupt and cannot pay for the lands; the other one has the means to pay, but refuses to pay until the lands are de-livered to him. Fremont county now comes to the governor and asks to be relieved of paying any more interest on these debts. The government has referred the matter to the

A MEETING OF GENTLEMEN. Inter-State Commerce Railway Association in Session.

CHICAGO, July 10 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-The presidents of the roads which are members of the Inter-State Commerce Railway association held one session to-day. The only topic under consideration was the break in St. Paul rates, the members agreeing unanimously that all possible means should be used to raise the present ruinously ow rates to their former standard. It being agreed that the Chicago, Burlington & Northern held the key to the northwestern situation, it was decided, if possible, to secure the attendance at the meeting of one of the officers of that road. Telegraphic communication being had, Vice President Harris agreed to be in Chicago to-morrow morning to discuss the question of au aliround advance in rates. The Chicago-St. Paul roads are by no means sanguine of any satisfactory result, but many of the presidents expressed the belief that the diffulty could be settled. Upon receipt of the favorable reply from Vice President Harris the presidents adjourned until to-morrow afternoon, when they will listen to the report of the committee appointed to wait on Mr.

All divisions of the Western Fraight association met to-day. The most important topic under discussion was the notice of the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City of its intention to apply proportionately the St. Paul low commodity tariff to Missouri river and intermediate points. It becoming manifest that no conclusion could be reached, the matter was turned over to the board of managers of the Inter-State Railway association.
The board, in anticipation of the action, had appropriated a committee to confer with President Stickney and General Manager Egau, of the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City. The conference will take place early to-morrow morning and the board of managers will immediately act on the result. Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City of its intenmediately act on the result.

Asphalt Pavements.

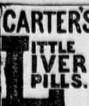

Public opinion in New York is begin ning to lean toward asphalt for the re-paving of the streets. There is no such traffic anywhere in America, or anywhere else in the world, as on Cheapside in Loadon, and there asphalt is ex-clusively used. Whenever a little wear begins to show repairs are at once made on the principle that "a stitch in time saves nine."
