David Nicholas, a young man employed at Dobany's livery stable, mourns the loss of his watch and chain, which were stolen from the pocket of his vest while hanging in the office.

At the regular weekly drawing of the Burhorn Watch club Saturday evening the following were the lucky ticket-holders, in classes 6 & 4 respectively: T. Maloney, Charles Arnd, Mrs. T. Jefferson and L. T. Shugart.

The citizens on Avenue A are right up "on their ears" because of the delay in repairing the grade of that thoroughfare. It is about time the city authorities insisted on the fulfillment of their orders.

The grading on Avenue C, near Ninth street, is in a very bad condition. A large hole has been washed in the center of the roadway, and unless it is repaired pretty soon the city is liable to have a big damage snit on its hands.

Chris. Hosen, has secured the contract to erect a two-story brick block, 34 x 40 ft., for T. J. Evans, on the lot adjoining Cole & Cole's hardware store on Main street, at the head of First avenue. Work will commence on the building at once.

During the month of June the attention of Dr. Stewart, assistant state veterinarian of this city, was called to fourteen cases of plandera, nearly all within this county. All of the afflicted animals but one were killed.

At present there are four cases in the county, one in Rockford and three in Crescent township.

Arrangements are now being made to hold a grand concert in Dobany's opera house on an early day, in which the very best talent in Omaha and Council Bluffs will take part.

The program has not yet been announced, but a rare musical treat is promised. It will be arranged to suit the taste of the audience, a chance in the trades display raffie will be included.

There was a foot race at Union park yesterday afternoon, between Anderson and Tolles for a purse of $25. Tolles gave Anderson four yards' start in a dash of fifty yards and was beaten by a margin of two feet.

Anderson, who was a member of this year's Rescue racing team, is a fast fifty yard sprinter and would run Tolles a very lively race on any track.

Dobany's opera house is receiving a thorough renovation. New scenery, furniture and decorations are under headway, which will make it when it opens in September what Council Bluffs has never had before—a first class theatre—the best in the state.

In the matter of attractions, some of the best have been engaged, among them, The American Opera company, Milton Kobes, Haverly's minstrels, Thomas W. Keene, Jarboe, and Maggie Mitchell. After September

Council Bluffs people will not have to go to Omaha to enjoy a first class play or opera.

A lively time is promised to-day between the property owners on West Florence street and the motor company. The company is raising the grade at the intersection of Pierce and Union streets, so as to get over the hill back of John Clausen's residence. This raise of grade will necessarily damage Pierce street property, and injunctons will be cot-tened out this morning restraining the motor company from making such a grade. John Clausen refuses to have the grade back of his house lowered. It looks as though the motor company would have to accept the grade as they find it.

In obedience to a new order issued on Saturday evening the peanut vendors and retail fruit dealers, who kept their wares day, refrained from displaying any of their wares outside their places of business yesterday. Their stores were open, and their customers were compelled to go inside. The object of the move has not yet been officially announced, but it is said to be to give the streets less of a wicker day aspect on Sunday.

Several of the parties recently affected attribute the move to the recent action of the barbers in closing their places of business on Sunday.

Officer Doyle and his little club.

Sunday was a great day at the beer garden in the eastern part of the city. There was a large crowd in attendance, and very few of those present have ever made a record for themselves as among the standards. The beer was of the best, and the prohibitionists of the city. There was plenty of beer and an abundance of drinkers to dispose of it. Everybody was warming up in the most approved beer garden style, when Officer Doyle appeared on the grounds.

He soon singled out a Wilbur young German generally known as "Schuester," whose proceedings he watched for a short time with a disapproving eye, and then proceeded to place him under arrest. The prisoner was not disposed to meekly submit, and the officer quivered his wrist with the persuasive "come along." At this point the narrative branches, and widely differing stories are told by the interested parties. Doyle says that his prisoner refused to go, and he helped him on the arm with his club, when the nipper slipped off, and the fellow, who was very drunk, fell to the sidewalk, striking his head on the curbstone.

The story told by several witnesses is that Doyle struck his prisoner a terrible blow over the head with his club, instead of on the arm, as he states. At any rate the German had a frightful rash out in his scalp, and had to be conveyed to his home near the brewery, and a couple of days' convalescence was regarded as quite serious.

After this affair was reported, the proprietor of the garden was notified to clean up his place, and ordered not to open again during the day.

Delecting a New Church.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Second Presbyterian church, on the corner of Harmony and Logan streets, was formally dedicated in the presence of an audience that filled the aisles and almost the pulpit of the church. The services were of a very impressive nature, conducted by Dr. Phelps, of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by the pastor in charge, Rev. Mr. Williams.

At the conclusion of the services Dr.

Phelps, in a very pleasant manner, recounted the history of the church from its inception, through its various stages to its present completed state, and stated its present financial condition. There was a little debt remaining, but when the eloquent speaker mentioned his remarks it was really to take ings, and it only required the formality of a collection to realize enough to pay every cent owed.

A brief history of the causes which led to the organization of this religious body will be interesting in this connection.

In the year 1837 during the summer, when religious feeling is generally at a low ebb, the seeds were sown of what has since grown into a flourishing young church. Proceeding to that time church advantages in the city, in which this church is now located had been obtainable only in the Broadway M. E. church, and the fact was that there was to be enjoyed by a very large portion of the people. Realizing the religious destitution of the neighborhood, a number of prayer meetings was instituted, and the first was conducted by Mr. J. M. Palmer, Mrs. J. A. Palmer, Mrs.

V. Fisk and others, until the attendance became so large that these rooms, which were located in the rear of the lot, were found to be inadequate, and a committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws of a permanent organization. On July 31, 1838, this committee presented the results of their deliberations, which were finally adopted August 28 of the same year. The first church organization was "The Ladies' Harmony Mission Society." Its object, "To promote the cause of piety and religion in the community, and to instruct under the laws of the first officers elected were as follows:

Mrs. Vassili Fisk, president; Mrs. Henry

Douglass, vice president; Mrs. L. A. Moomaw, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Palmer, treasurer.

Directors—Mrs. John Hamner, Mrs. W. U.

Shrewsbury, Mrs. William Fisk, Mrs. John

Fair, Miss Carrie Burgess, Miss Hathe

Palmer, Miss Ida Pruyn, Miss Lena

Daughters were held and subscriptions obtained to meet current expenses. A lot was immediately leased and a building secured and built, and on Sunday, the 9th of September 9, was dedicated to the worship of God. Representatives were present from all the denominations in the city, and Rev.

J. G. Leinen, of the Baptist church, preached the dedicatory sermon from Malachi, chapter III, verse 1: "The Lord, who is your God, will certainly come to his temple."

From that time services have been regularly held in the chapel, ministers of Council Bluffs and Omaha, and on the Sabbath and laymen from the several churches leading the prayer meetings. During all this time the ladies met current expenses by social and individual contributions.

On July 13, 1857, a meeting was called to consider the purchase of a lot. A committee consisting of Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Mrs. W. M.

Squires and J. H. Wescott were elected, who, according to instructions, at once procured a lot on the corner of Logan and Harmony streets, 50x90 feet.

Believing that the purpose of the original founders would be better carried out by so doing, it was decided on December 6, 1858, by an almost unanimous vote, to turn the lot over to the Ladies' Harmony mission and protection of the Presbyterian church of this city. A resolution was also adopted
