NOT AFRAID.

Referee Fitzpatrick Makes a Morning Call on Governor Lowry. New York, July 15.—A Jackson, Miss. special says: John Fitzpatrick, of New Orleans, the referee in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, arrived here last night. He went to the governor's office this morning as soon as it was open, and informed the governor that he came to answer whatever charge there might be lodged against him for alleged violation of the law of Mississippi. Preliminary of the law of Mississippi. Fitzpatrick was waived and Fitzpatrick gave a bond of $1,000 to appear at Purvis, Marion county, Tenn., on the 17th inst. His name was promptly signed by citizens of this place.

Mitchell in New York.

New York, July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Kilrain's trainer, Charley Mitchell, having discarded the habiliments of the ministry, arrived in this city about noon to-day disguised as a tramp. He entered Strube's hall at Third avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, with a beard of several days' growth, and a pair of deerstalker's friends would not have known him. An hour later he emerged from the hall with a natty light suit of tweed and patent leather boots. During the afternoon he visited several sporting resorts along the Harlem river, apparently having lost all fear of police interference. Among other places he went to Harry Hill's place, the studiously excluded reporters Mitchell came alone. His father-in-law, Tony Moore, is expected to-morrow. A report is made that Mitchell and Moore had arranged to sail for Liverpool on the Cunard steamer Etruria, Wednesday morning.

A Rather Fishy Story.

Baltimore, Md., July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The wife of Charley Mitchell, New York to-day, in obedience to a telegram from her husband at Toronto, Jake Kilrain's wife went with her. A letter was received at Kilrain's house to-day addressed to Jake, from one Henry Hudson, of Chicago. The letter said he won $1,000 on the fight by overhearing Charley Mitchell's conversation with a man about fifty-five years old, with a mustache and an English accent, to bet he had on Sullivan as Kilrain's foe. The letter was a forgery. The writer also says that he watched Mitchell in the ring and saw him communicating with Muldoon by signs. This is regarded as a very wild and fishy story, and no reliance is placed in it.

Mixed in the Mill.

Purvis, Miss., July 15.—C. W. Rich and J. T. Jamieson were arrested last night and brought here on warrants charging them with aiding and abetting the Sullivan-Kilrain fight. They were placed under bonds for their appearance at the next term of the circuit court.

Kilrain Passes Through Rochester.

Rochester, N. Y., July 15.—Jake Kilrain passed through here on the east-bound express to-night. He made no attempt to conceal his identity. He was wearing a dark suit and a top hat. He was seen by several people who recognized him. He was seen by several people who recognized him.

Loosing Fines in the Valkyrie.

London, July 15.—[New York Herald Cable Special to THE BEE.]—It is the general opinion of yachting authorities that the Valkyrie stands no chance of winning the American cup.

Frenchmen Still Celebrating.

New York, July 15.—The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the fall of the Bastille, began yesterday by the Frenchmen here. The French societies held a parade, which was reviewed by Mayor Grant and a number of distinguished Frenchmen. The parades were held in the afternoon, and the games and amusements were participated in.

Want the Veterans to Come.

Washington, July 15.—A meeting of the common council to-night, a resolution was adopted not to abandon the Grand Army encampment preparations, but to invite the veterans to come. This action was largely in answer to assurances of large attendance from all parts of the country, and by the attitude of Commander-in-chief Warner, who urged all veterans to come.

Instructed for Larrabee.

Atlantic City, July 15.—[Special to THE BEE.]—At the republican county convention here, Late Young, of the Telegraph, was nominated for state senator by acclamation, and Silas Wilson was nominated for the lower house. The delegation to the state convention was instructed for Larrabee.

GERMAN-AMERICAN SCHOOL.

Will It Be Continued Under Old Auspices Next Season? The Hamburg academy was closed and will not be reopened for school purposes. It was situated on Twentieth street, immediately south of Dodge. It was in charge of Professor Hempel, the accomplished and energetic principal who for several years conducted the classes of the German-American school.

WITHOUT RIGHT OF DOWER.

And Denied the Privilege of Seeing Her Child. DECREE IN THE CARTER CASE. The Belle of Dayton and the Chicago Lawyer Go Their Separate Ways.—The Cause Appealed.

She Will Shine on the Stage.

Chicago, July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The long arguments expected to be made on Mrs. Caroline Louise Carter's motion for a new trial of the Carter divorce case were not offered before Judge Jamieson this morning. W. J. Hynes and W. R. Morrison for the soon-to-be theatrical star, and Edwin Walker for the notorious Leslie Carter, appeared in court at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Hynes announced that she and Mr. Morrison, after a consultation, had determined not to argue the motion. The fact is that both the lawyers thought it would be time wasted. They took it for granted that Judge Jamieson would overrule the motion anyhow. When Mr. Hynes made the statement that he did not propose to press the motion for a new trial, but allow it to be overruled pro forma, so as to facilitate an immediate appeal to the appellate court, the judge found he had an easy task before him and he therefore formally overruled the motion for a new trial. Then the cause was set for a new trial, but allow it to be overruled pro forma, so as to facilitate an immediate appeal to the appellate court, the judge found he had an easy task before him and he therefore formally overruled the motion for a new trial.

A Parliamentary Tangle.

Paris, July 15.—The chamber of deputies by a vote of 461 to 13, to-day approved the bill providing for a credit of 58,000,000 francs, spread over five years, for the building of warships. The bill went to the senate, where it was referred to a committee for adjournment taken until evening. At the evening session President Meilne, in the chamber, read the decree closing the bill. The bill was then referred to the vice president, who announced that the chamber having decreed the close of the session without notifying the senate, the latter had no right to object to the adjournment. The vice president declined to listen to the senators, who insisted that the naval bill be referred to the senate. There was a great deal of shouting and confusion. The session was read amid intense excitement.

The Sherman Brothers' Trouble.

Chicago, July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The hearing of the case of the grain commission firm of Sherman Brothers & Co., arrived this afternoon from England, accompanied by his attorneys. The latter say that he has returned to explain the singular complications in the firm's transactions. How great the embarrassment can be learned. Associates of the firm say that the firm's assets are clear it may amount to $300,000, and is not far from $500,000. The firm is owned by Stephen W. Sherman, who has been in the city for some time. THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Its Organization Perforated By the Election of Officers. The board of education to-day elected all the members present except Mr. Felton. The meeting was called to order by H. G. Clarke, president of the old board. The secretary reported that the oaths of office of the two rejected members and the three new members were on file. Mr. Felton was elected president, and Mr. Clarke, vice-president and secretary. The first ballot for president resulted as follows: Goodman 8, Clarke 6. Mr. Goodman was declared elected and at once took his seat.

NOT SO BAD.

No Loss of Life at Princeton and the Damage Not So Great. Princeton, N. J., July 15.—A report was received this morning that the town of Princeton, in Butler county, Ohio, has been destroyed by a terrific storm. The town was situated on Hamilton's road, and the damage to property is estimated not to exceed $100,000. The damage to crops, fences, etc., is very great. The highway was a ruin, and was about a quarter of a mile wide.

Another Pennsylvania Flood.

Reading, Pa., July 15.—An unusually heavy rain storm prevailed early this morning throughout Lebanon valley. A number of creeks overflowed their banks. Hundreds of fields are submerged, and crops which had been cut and left lying in the fields were washed away. The water flowed into the lower floors of a number of houses, and many occupants lost their household effects.

The Worst in Years.

Lancaster, Pa., July 15.—The storm of Saturday and Sunday nights in the northern parts of Lancaster county was the heaviest in years. Along Hommer and Middle creeks five mill dams were carried away, and in Elizabeth township five bridges were destroyed. A large amount of fencing and growing crops were destroyed. The creeks are higher than ever before known.

Lightning Strikes at Kansas City.

Kansas City, July 15.—A terrible rain storm, accompanied by violent lightning, passed over this city this evening. Hannah O'Connor, two years old, was killed by lightning, which demolished a number of pens at the stock yard, and struck off a corner of the Bonaventure hotel.

FAILED IN THEIR ATTEMPT.

Iowa Bank Robbers Make an Unsuccessful Raid. THE CASHIER TOO VIGILANT. Hearing of the Complaints of the Iowa Jobbers Before the Railroad Commission—Other Haskey News.

Bold Attempt at Bank Robbery.

Oskaloosa, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A very bold but unsuccessful attempt was made shortly after noon to-day to rob the Farmers and Traders National bank of this city. The bank fronts upon First avenue. On the east side of the building an alley runs through the block. At half past 12 o'clock the cashier, Captain John H. Warren, was alone in the bank, when a stranger drove up in front and sent word to the cashier that there was a lame man in a buggy who wished to deposit some money. The stranger then took a roll of bills out of his pocket and counted them over and over, never in the meantime glancing at the bank or away from his bill.

ENJOYING HIS VACATION.

The President Transacting Only Necessary Business. POSTMASTER PAUL'S CASE AGAIN. Roosevelt Makes Another Examination and the Last State of That Office is Worse Than the First.

Washington Telegram.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15.—The president, while practically enjoying a vacation at Deer Park, still keeps one eye upon the business of his office in Washington. As the heads of the various departments get their papers into his hands, the appointments of the various subordinates under them they will be sent to the Alleghenies, and the president will, if he approves the recommendations in each case, sign the commissions and return them to his executive clerk, Major Prudden, and the announcement of these appointments will be made from the white house, at least. The report which has been in circulation to the effect that the president proposes to hold cabinet meetings and carry on a regular executive office at his cottage in the mountains, is unfounded. He will, while there, devote a little attention to business as possible, and will try to enjoy his vacation to the fullest extent. He will see the Washington only when compelled to do so, and will not mix up business with pleasure further than the needs of the public service demand. His absence has caused a complete stoppage of the office-seekers, and the hotel registers show fewer arrivals during the past two or three days than at any time since the beginning of the summer. The recess just preceding the election.

Disasters to Paul.

The civil service commissioners are at work upon the supplementary report in relation to the conduct of affairs in the office at Milwaukee. This report will be ready for presentation to the president upon his return to Washington. The report would have been sent to the full board of commissioners on account of his action in permitting violation of the law in the selection of Milwaukee. A Baby's Trousseau.

Children's Wardrobes Which Rival the Luxuries of Royalty. Not long ago Mrs. Clarence Peck, who belongs to the family of millionaire Peck, of Chicago, and is the mother of a two-year-old child, ordered a baby's trousseau. The only specification contained in the letter was to "make it as nice as you can." And that is precisely the way the tiny outfit which the official reports of each county officer should be written. Auditor Evans has had this baby's trousseau, but did nothing of it because reports have not been ready for some time. He has now, however, agreed that it cannot be completed before the first of October.

Help For Horse Stealing.

Boone, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A man named George Miller was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Harding, of Webster county, on the charge of insulting a Fort Dodge lady. When captured he had in his possession about fifteen head of horses, for which he could not satisfactorily account. He answers to the description of a man who stole the horses from a livery stable near Orange City, and will be held on that charge. He has a deep cut across his face and two of his fingers are missing. He is now being held in a cell at Fort Dodge, where he is being kept for a trial.

A Boy Drowned.

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—This afternoon Harry Paisley, the eleven-year-old son of William A. Paisley of this city, was drowned in the river about one hundred and fifty yards above the dam. He had been blown into the water and he had waded into the river to get it, and got beyond his depth. He could not swim at all, and soon sank. Those on the bank tried to rescue the unfortunate boy, but all efforts were in vain.
