Instances are cited where King and Latham have been responsible for the loss of games, and one game is cited where the circumstances were, to say the least, suspicious, between the Browns and the Athlets. King was in the box for the first two innings, and a well-known sport was backing the Athletics heavily. King's pitching was so execrable that he was taken out and Stivetts substi-tuted. after nights and days of playing tramp and preacher to reach New York. "Jake," said Mitchell, "wasn't anywhere near his perfect form when the fight began. That's all I can say on that point. But I want you to deny that I left Kilrain's company when he was in bad shape. I couldn't sit back in the car, you know, and hold him in my lap. I had to be in front to see that we didn't get arrested. It's proof that I did my work, or we wouldn't both he here, or mean I wouldn't be here."

Mitchell refused to say anything about Kilrain's whereabouts, but denied that either his own wife or Mrs. Kilrain was in town. It is authoritatively reported that Sullivan left Chicago for New York last night, In that case he will arrive here some time this evening. This course, it is said, has been

SUSPICION POINTS TO THE SONS. John Elkins and His Wife Found Dead in Bed With Their Babe

Sleeping Peacefully Between Them. An lowa Murder,

DURUQUE, Ia., July 17 .- John Elkins and wife were brutaily murdered last night on their farm in Elk township, Clayton county, this state. Eikins second son, a boy of eleven, by a former wife, slept in the barn, and states that he was awakened about 3 o'clock by a rifle shot. Going into the house fearful sight met his eyes. His father was lying dead on the bed with a bullet through his brain, and his wife also in bed with her head smashed in. The babe was still steeping, the boy says, between them. Grasping the babe he made his way to a neighbors and gave the alarm. The coroner's jury is investigating the matter. The murderer has not been found, but suspicion rests on the boy and his older brother, a young man of twenty, who both had a grudge against their step-mother. Elkins was a man of fifty and his wife twenty-seven.

A $30,000 Fire. WATERLOO, Ia., July 17 .- Special Telegram to THE BEE. ]-The business portion of Shell Rock, Butler county, was badly corched by a fire that broke out in A. R. Walker's grocery store at about 11 o'clock last night. The fire is supposed to have originated from matches carried into the partition walls of the building by mice. Before it was got under control seven business house were destroyed. The heat was so intense that several buildings on the opposite side of the street caught fire, but the flames were extinguished. # CRONIN'S TRIAL Andrew Fog's Version of the Sup-posed Proceedings.

CHICAGO, July 117 .- |Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-States' Attorney Longnecker refuses either to admit or deny that he has received a very important statement recarding the Croning case from Andrew Foy, a North Side Irishman and a member of Camp 20. Judge Löngnecker admits, however, having had several interviews with Foy. is stated on good authority that Mr. Foy has given some valuable testimony concerning the actions of the camp which led up to the appointment of the committee which tried and condemned. Dr. Cronin. The story he is credited with telling is in sub stance that at the second meeting over which Beggs presided as senior guardiaa. Dan Coughlin made a bitter attack on Dr. Cronin. He charged him with being a follower of Le Caron and a British spy, and with having set himself to break up the Clan-na-Gael, by creating dissentions in its ranks. He denounced Cronn as a fire-brand, a disorganizer and a British spy.

Coughlin created the most intense excite-ment, uproar and confusion, which is in-describable. This gave John F. Beggs, in his effort to restore order, an opportunity to make a speech, and in doing so, according to Foy's story, he made a still fercer attack on Cronin. Then Tom Murphy followed and Captain O'Conner read Dr. followed and Captain O'Conner read Dr. Cronin's charges against the triangle. The appointment of a committee to try Cronin was agreed to. At a subsequent meeting, held May 3, Foy inquired if the committee had been appointed, and was told they had presented their report. The murder of Dr. Cronin followed the next evening. Judge Longenecker was further asked if he had found the main who sent him the anonymous communication describing the trial of Dr. Cronin by the committee. He smiled a happy smile and went so far as to

From the state attorney's whole manner and conversation it was evi dent that he was feeling exceedingly good, though he was not yet prepared to outline his future programme in the case in respect to calling another special grand jury and indicting more of the suspects. John F. Beggs, indicted for complicity in the Cronin murder, made another applica-tion to-day for his release on bail, this time to Judge Altgeld of the criminal court. The application was refused.

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF FRANCE.

The Charter Started for Paris Yesterday. POWDERLY AND HIS COLLEAGUES

They are Not Excreised Over the Action of the Seceders-Powderly Declares in Favor of the Secret Ballot.

Down to Business.

CHICAGO, July 17 .- [Special Telegram to THE BEE.]-General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, and his condjutors, Holland, Wright, Hoyes, Deviin and Costello, got fairly down to business at their Sherman house quarters this morning and made considerable progress in examining complaints, petitions and reports in relation to the order in the Northwest.

"The charter of the first assembly of France," said Powderly to a reporter, "was prepared this morning and started on its way to the old country. It was given to Mrs. Barry, the general director and instructor in woman's work, and she started for Philadelphia and thence to Paris. The first assembly has been organized for some time, but we have held back the charter, preferring to send by a special messenger."

"Was there any danger of it being destroyed if carried by the mail?"

"Well not particularly, but the French assembly is working in secret and it is a question whether even the names of the mbers will be made public "Is it under a prohibitory ban ?"

"No, but they prefer to work secretly." Is anything being done or will anything be done by your board to bring back the secening members of the Knights of Labor who have organized a rival order?" "Oh, no; we do not want them back. We are stronger without them. They formed the disturbing element in the order and we were glad to have them go. They were hostile to the principles of the Knights of Labor. Now that they are out, we have no hostile feelings toward them and are per-fectly satisfied to have them succeed. It is

Then there was a general running talk on the course to be pursued by the order to solve the problem of labor troubles, and it developed that no single line will be fol-lowed but a series of educational efforts, the most important of which is to ballot for reform

"That something of this kind is necessary can be seen by the state of affairs in my own state, Pennsylvania," said Mr. Powderly, "There in the coal fields the laborer is under the grind of the milistones, and every offor has been made to convince him that his remedy is in his own hands at the polls, but when election day comes he walks up as usual for the old parties and for men who go usual for the old parties and for men who go to congress and sell out. These laborers can not plead ignorance. Every man over eighteen years of age has had a chance to post himself, and why is it he votes against his own inte-rest? It is a question of easy solution to the thinkers and readers of to-day, and the only remedy is the secret hallot, where the only remedy is the secret ballot, where the citizen can vote without fearing to express his own feelings and bring misery upon humself by his vote. Several bills have been prepared for the development of this theory, but not one covers the requirements. It is only a pretense so far." A telegram was received from Pennsyl-vania that the strike in the Homestead Iron works of Carnegie, Phipps & Co., had been Carnegle proposed a 15 per cent discount of wages and the men struck. The company to-day gave in, and the men were to return at the old schedule. It was decided this morning by the executiv. board that next general, executive session of Knights would be at Atlanta, commencing on the second Tuesday in November.

MIXED BLOODS IN CONTROL. They Show Their Hand at the Cheyenne Agency. CHEVENNE RIVER AGENCY, Dak., July 17.-

[Special telegram to THE BEE.]-The Indians, met in council among themselves early this morning, and soon after came over to the pavillion, where they were met by the commissioners. There were about the same number as at the council on Monday, though now they seemed to have different leaders in two half-breeds, who tooks positions in the front ranks, and during the council held a firm control of the Indians and prompted them in all their sontiments, as expressed in their speeches. This is the first agency at which the mixed bloods and squaw men have not all been in favor of the bill unanimously.

The ranches of some of these men are on the land, which it is thought probably animatos their opposition. The strong probabilities are that the Indians, if left alone, would be favorably disposed. Straight Head, captain of the police, gave the Indians a short talk before the talking began. Some difference of opinion seemed to exist as to the cause of the action in coun-cil, but this was settled and the council was begun by the asking of some questions and their answers by Governor Foster. Whether they understood the optional features of the severalty provision is not clear. White Swau, Charger, Crow Eagle, Hump Rib and Bring Grubspoke at length about the various provisions of the bill and asked numerous jucstions concerning the boundary lines, Swan boyan his talk by saying:

Swan began his talk by saying: "All of the Indian race who have been brought upon this iand are full of jealous spite and meanness. They are all rascals and all will tell a lie. You are a great peo-ple and have a great name, but I have not iven you my answer." He then dwelt at length upon the promises of the treaty of 1886 and 1876, speaking of the boundary lines and expressing dissatis-faction with the size of the reservation remaining to them. He concluded his talk by saying: "I am not satisfied with this blit and do not think I can sign the treaty."

Following White Swan were the indians named, all of whom expressed themselves as not favorable to the bill, though one noticable feature was the lukewarm way in which the declinations were expressed, there being but two in all who absolutely declared themselves against the treaty. When the council had been prolonged until about 2 o'clock the Indians asked for an adjournment for a short time, as they were getting tired and hungry. The council then broke up to assemble at a later hour upon the ringing of the bell at the agency. So far all expressious have been against the bill, but it is not yet thought to be defin tely settled. General Crook informed your correspon leny could iy that, as yet, he m no definite opinion the result of the negoti form to the result of the negotiations here. Some strong effort will be made to checkmate the influence exerted by the two mixed bloods who have been so bitter in their opposition. This afternoon and even-ing there will be much quiet work done on the outside, and the real situation will doubt-less be known in the morning. Major Warner's absence is now definitely known to be to meet Major Pollock at Sioux City, he having telegraphed Warner to neet him there and make some arrangements relative to the matter of signatures at Pine Ridge.

An Interesting Rumor.

NEW YORK, July 17 .- | Special Telegram to THE BEE, |- There is some interesting gossip current anent democratic politics. A rumor goes that a deal has been made which shelves ox President Cleveland permanently and places ex-Secretary William C. Whitney in the lead as the democratic presidential candidate in 1899. Last week there was an influx of democratic leaders from Ohio to see Colonel Brice, of the democratic national committee, and their presence here is considered by shrewd Cleveland democrats as another link in the chain of evidence that the deal has been made. A prominent Cleveland democrat said to-day he had every reason to believe that the machine democrats have dropped Mr. Cleveland. His story of why the ex-president was dropped is the same as that given by the rumor. Senator Gorman of Maryland was at first opposed to the election of Colonel Brice as chairman of the democratic national committee. He felt that the colonel represented the free trade ideas of Cleveland and he did not wish to have another campaign with the same issue as that of 1885. His opposition to Colonei Brico was assuming definite shape when the lead ers got together and mapped out a course that placated the Maryland senator and made him an enthusiastic supporter of Brice. The deal was that Whitney should have the support of the committee for the presidency in 1892 and Colonel Brice should be elected chairman and then should make a strong fight for the senate from Ohio. If he failed o succeed Senator Payne, then he was to be supported by the committee for the vice residency. Matters have worked well since the alleged deal. Colonel Brice was elected chairman and Senator Gorman was hearty in his sup-port. The Randall-Gorman wing has won over prominent Cloveland domocrats by promising to see that they are well taken care of if the national ticket wins in 1892. Ex-President Cleveland still thinks his most influential friends are for him and they permit him to indulge in the flattering de lusion.

Kilrain Arrives in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 17 .- Jake Kilrain who arrived in Baltimore yesterday after noon, has entirely recovered from the effects of his battle. He does not show a mark of any kind. In speaking about the great fight, Kilrain said squarely that he was whipped, but thought he was largely the victim of circumstances. When asked directly if he thought he had been drugged, he said, "No." Johnny Murphy, when asked the same ques-tion, answered that there was something wrong, but that for the present his tongue was tied, but when the time came he exwas tied, out when the time came and ex-pected to make some important revelations. In speaking about the fight, Kilrain said: "I knew I had not been trained properly and was not in fit condition to fight Sullivan, but if I had not gone into the ring people would have said I was a coward, and I meant to fight if I was killed. The crowd there was against me, and the referee, I think, while a square man, was partial to Sullivan and knew nothing about the rules. Both he and the crowd were all the time telling me to go up to Sullivar and i went, knowing I would only be knocked down. Of course the referee had no right to say a word, and under the rules I could run all around the ring, but there was no one but little Murphy here to coach me, and I blindly went up and took my medicine. The fact that though I was knocked down repeatedly, but not knocked out, shows Sullivan's terrible blows damaged by the heat on the way. did not have the power some people sup-posed they did. HANGED, BUT RESUSCITATED. A Murderer Reported Alive After

His Supposed Execution. ATLANTA, Ga., July 17 .- A month has passed since John Pickett explated the crime of murder on the gallows. His memory has been reawakened in a remarkable manner The report comes from Sumpter county that Pickett is still alive and living in that portion of the state; that after the hanging his body was taken in charge by friends, who worked successfully at resuscitation. The story has created a good deal of interest in this city, for if Pickett is still alive and is appre-hended, the question is whether he can be further punished. He has been declared egally dead, and the case will prove one un paralieled in the history of the state.

LOST IN THE AIR.

Campbell's Big Balloon Disappears

With an Aeronaut on Board. NEW YORK, July 17 .- An experimental trip was made yesterday by E. D. Hazen, an experienced aeronaut, in the air ship invented by Peter C. Campbell. The ascent was nade from Brooklyn. It was estimated that there was gas enough to carry 700 pounds and 250 pounds of saud bags were put in the car with the aeronaut and an electric in the car with the abronaut and an electric motor to propel it. After the ship had risen several hundred feet the propeller fan used for raising and lowering the ship was lost and feil to the ground. The air ship started out toward the ocean. There was started out toward the ocean. There was some disagreement among the spectators as to the exact direction taken, but the general opinion was it went toward Coney Island and the ocean. Neither aronaut nor air ship has been seen since, though diligent inquiry has been made and the telegraph along the shore freely used. The worst is feared.
