PROGRESS WITH THE INDIANS.

The success of the negotiations for opening the Sioux reservation is not yet assured, but the outlook is not altogether unfavorable. On Thursday the commission encountered, at the Cheyenne river agency, the first threat of violence that has been offered it...

CONNECTION WITH THE MAIN LINE.

The plea made by the Rock Island is that owing to the reduced tariff rates ordered by the commissioners, that railroad is obliged to reduce its train service and accommodations in order to prevent pecuniary loss. A decision in this case by the commissioners will be eagerly followed by many interior towns of Iowa with like complaints.

THE MACHINES KNOCKED OUT.

The rank partisanship that has prevailed in our school board for years, to the detriment of taxpayers and discipline of the schools, has at last received a setback. The apportionment by the president of the board of the various chairmanships of the committees culminated in an angry protest from Messrs. McConnell, Clarke and Sholes against the appointment of democrats to chairmanships of important committees.

AN IRON-CLAD BANKING LAW.

The Construction Put Upon Some of Its Provisions. WILL ACCEPT REGENCY HONORS. Important Cases Gone to the United States Supreme Court—Caster's Farmers' Alliance—City News Items.

THE CONSTRUCTION PUT UPON SOME OF ITS PROVISIONS.

The attorney general construes section 11 of the new banking law as follows: "To the Honorable Board of Bank Examiners—Gentlemen: The most important question arising at this time, under the provisions of the banking law, comes under the provisions of section 11; and while I believe that the intention of the legislature was to require all corporations, firms or individuals, doing a banking business, to do the business on their own capital, and not upon borrowed capital, and for this reason the re-accumulation of commercial paper is not considered as money borrowed under the law, but section 11 seems to imply that a bank can loan to any one firm, one corporation or one individual, a sum that shall not be over 30 per cent of the capital of the banking institutions making the loan."

CHENEY, O. C. BELL, W. B. TAYLOR AND PROF. JOHNSON.

Lincoln has been offered the Des Moines base ball franchise in the Western association, and if a competent manager can be obtained it is said that acceptance will be voted this evening or to-morrow. A splendid game of increase was played at the corner of R and Twelfth streets has been the subject of considerable criticism of late. Distribution of work in the different paying districts is said to be the cause. The "hold up" there stops two street car lines from entering the business portion of the city, and therefore causes no end of annoyance.

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

The action of Mr. Parrell in withdrawing from the case before the Parnell commission, was forced upon him by the refusal of the court to order the production of the books of the Loyal and Patriotic League. The National League was compelled to produce all its accounts in the hope that by the drag net process, some entry might be found which might give a color of truth to the gross charges made by the London Times.

THE LAW FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY IN BRAZIL.

The law for the abolition of slavery in Brazil went into effect last year, and the papers of Rio de Janeiro have been giving accounts of its operation and results during the year. The Rio News says it has now been proved that the apprehensions and predictions of danger from emancipation were unfounded. The freedmen have kept the social order of the empire, and have been diligent in doing the work for which they are paid on the plantations. In short, it is evident from the experience of the past year that the abolition of slavery in Brazil has not brought about the evils which were predicted from it, but has been advantageous in many ways to the people of all races in the country.

REGENCY HONORS.

It is said that M. J. Hill and J. T. Mallahan decline to accept regency honors another term. The former has been a member of the board of university regents during the past six years from the Second, and the latter from the Third congressional district. It is learned that the president has been to elect two members of the board from each of the three districts, and it is probable that there will be a departure from it. At the same time, the Secretary of the regency has been named in the persons of E. L. King of Polk, J. L. Kalay of Webster, and E. M. Corwin of Taylor. The third member in the person of Senator Jewett, of Cass. It is understood that either one of the three gentlemen named from the Second will accept the honor, if nominated and elected, and that they will not make a fight for it. The friends of Senator Jewett, from the third district, say that they can press "him into service."

CURRENT CUTENESS.

Washington Capital: Nobody objects because the church organ goes off on a toot every Sunday. Judge: If any man wants to be forgotten let him hire some one to propose a public monument to his memory. Texas Siftings: The president has not had his photograph taken lately, but several applicants for office have taken negatives of him. Boston Transcript: Gaddy, whose father was a circus tumbler, now goes about boasting that he is one of the sons of revolutionary sires. "Puck" Cohen: "I tell you, mine friend, those clothes will wear like iron." Upon Downes: "I believe you; they look a little rusty already."

THE sentiment in favor of creating a legislature consisting of but a single body of lawmakers, is finding considerable favor among the delegates to the constitutional convention of Dakota. While it is true that such an innovation breaks into the machinery of government to which we have become accustomed in the nation and in the state, it nevertheless has many features to commend it.

WHILE I MAINTAINS A VAST ARMY AND IS CONSTRUCTING FORTIFIABLE FLEETS HER PEOPLE ARE STARVING.

WHILE I maintains a vast army and is constructing formidable fleets her people are starving. The patriotic pretext for this enormous military expenditure is the danger that France would maintain the Mottomac line if it should be weak and defenseless. Yet to the French at Marentia and Solferino in 1859 the Italian monarchy owes its existence. Curtozza and Lissa, in the war of 1866, were humiliating Italian defeats. No greater boon could be conferred upon the Italians than a cessation of their costly army and a cessation of their costly attempts to cope with the great and wealthy European powers in naval armament. If the European balance of power be not a mere fiction Italy is safe under the protection of Germany, Austria and England from the encroachments of France, and the necessity of maintaining vast armies and navies. But there is no disposition on the part of France to oppress their neighbor and former ally beyond the Alps. On the other hand, evidence is not wanting of an extreme willingness in some of the politicians of Italy to provoke a general war with France upon almost any pretext, if they could be assured of the support of Germany and Austria. A war with France would enable the Italians to put to a satisfactory test their military strength. While the government is thus draining the resources of the Italians for military expenditure, the people are sinking deeper and deeper in poverty and distress. In some populous districts the people are dying of hunger by thousands. If the Italians should abandon their warlike policy they would be enabled to develop their industries and regenerate their strength. If they should maintain this policy much longer they will be reduced to a general pauperism and dispirited, with all the expenditures for fleets and armies, to keep the field against a vigorous foe.

THE KANSAS STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE IS DOING THE PEOPLE OF THAT STATE SOME SERVICE AS SHOWN BY AN ADMIRABLE MONTHLY CROP AND WEATHER BULLETIN.

THE Kansas state board of agriculture is doing the people of that state some service as shown by an admirable monthly crop and weather bulletin. This report is both reliable and thorough and its facts and figures are usually prepared with uncommon care. It would appear that for the month ending June 30 the excellence of the crops has been generally maintained, and that a large harvest is anticipated. In the absence of live official data for Nebraska it may be reasonably inferred that the crop prospects for this state are equally as good if not better. The national crop agricultural bureau recently gave this state a rating higher than that of Kansas, and there has been nothing to indicate that its standard has been lowered.
