

THE DAILY BEE. E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily (Morning Edition) including Sunday...

WAIVER FOR THE INVESTIGATION. According to the most trustworthy authority the investigation of affairs in the pension bureau ordered by the secretary of the interior was requested by Commissioner Tanner...

But allowing a considerable margin for overstatements of what may ultimately be accomplished, and properly omitting from consideration the matter of time, the plan still commends itself as one of the very greatest importance to the nation.

the fact that the glass of their lamps is clear, and the lamps are kept very clean all the time. In this city the lamps on the principal thoroughfares are of an ancient, village pattern, and the light is scarcely visible through panes of glass that are either smoked up or covered with the dust of ages.

of melted glass. The weekly production of the tank is expected to be 6,102 boxes. The number of men employed on the tank is 48.

A QUEER COINCIDENCE. Two Yard Foremen of the Burlington at the Point of Death. The yard foremen of the Burlington at this point are lying at the point of death at St. Joseph hospital.

ly understand that these selections were made for obvious reasons. But they came to success reaching an agreement that did the principals, therefore, it was decided to call in a third party. Here was where the real trouble commenced.

THE DAILY BEE. Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending July 23rd, 1889, was as follows:

Ben's Bad Form. General Ben Butler sailed to Bar Harbor in his yacht the other day, went to Mr. Blaine's house, left his card, and then put to sea again.

STATE AND TERRITORY. Nebraska. The people of Harrison want a park. A forty-acre addition has been made to the Callaway town site.

Scott Goes to Kansas City. John W. Scott, a prominent chief clerk in the general passenger department of the Union Pacific at this place, was yesterday appointed division passenger agent of the Union Pacific at Kansas City.

PROGRESS OF THE CHURCH. Bishop Hare's Sermon at Trinity Cathedral Last Night. "There is a door opened before us, and with the opening of the door comes added strength to work in the fields that lie beyond, and greater success also."

THE UNION PACIFIC OFFICIALS are gradually learning what kind of a union depot Omaha wants. If we can have our streets lighted as cheaply with electricity as with gas, the electric lights should by all means be given preference.

By using proper precaution, the council could remedy this condition in the future. It is therefore foolhardy to order the laying of pavement on newly made streets that will have to be repaired nearly every time a rain occurs, at great cost to the taxpayers of the city.

THE NEW ENGLAND trip of President Harrison has been arranged, and he will take it early in August, his destination being Bar Harbor, where it is understood he will remain some time.

THE MODERATE PROHIBITIONISTS. The prohibitionists have nominated a candidate for governor of New Jersey. When the high license republican candidate is defeated and a low license democratic candidate elected, the prohibitionists will point out how the republicans might have won a victory for temperance by throwing all their votes to the prohibition nominee.

WYOMING. A building association has been incorporated at Evanston with a capital stock of $200,000. Curley Coleman, wife of the well known Cheyenne pioneer freighter, has lost her reason.

LOGIE'S FILE LOSS. It was a prominent fire insurance agent who said yesterday that the various companies interested proposed to vindicate themselves before the community by bringing suit to ascertain what method A. B. Logie pursued in obtaining the award recently made to him on his loss by the burning of the old Lehman store on Farnam street.

LOWRY'S INCONSISTENCY. The Over-Sensitive Effervescence of the Mississippi Governor. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., July 24.—To the Editor of THE BEE: Governor Lowry, of Mississippi, in an interview telegraphed from Jackson, declares that he is "taking such steps as will in the end bring all the parties, principals and attendants of the Sullivan-Kilrain prize fight to justice."

THE STRAWBOARD MAKERS of the country have agreed to form a trust for the purpose of controlling the trade and satisfying itself with a reasonable profit. This last statement, however, contains considerable chaff.

THE EXTENT OF IT. Mr. Richard J. Hinton, who has been assigned to the senate committee on irrigation to assist in the work of organizing the inquiry and other details, says that the question of irrigation means the reclamation from aridity to fertility of an area out of which eight states, each as large as Indiana, can be made.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD. St. Paul workmen will buy a tract of land and build a village. At Newport, R. I., masons and bricklayers work nine hours and get $3.50.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD. In England the wood-crafters are enjoying good times. There is plenty of work and wages are increasing.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD. There are more idle men in London now than were in it at the same time of the year for the past a year.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD. The profit-sharing principle is beginning to be looked upon with favor by some English employers in their dealings with workmen.

THE INDUSTRIAL FIELD. The Swiss government has inaugurated a movement looking toward a universal reduction of hours of labor for workers in factories and on farms.

RELIABLE parties who have just made a tour of South Dakota contradict the report of poor crops there. Never before in the history of that great young commonwealth were the prospects as good for an abundant harvest.

THE BANK CLEARINGS, the railroad earnings and the foreign commerce of the country indicate that a larger volume of business is being done this year than at the corresponding period a year ago.

The Makers of a Well Known Churn write: "We have been often asked by dairymen: 'What is the very best soap to use to properly cleanse dairy utensils?' We have invariably replied, 'The Ivory,' but as for giving specific directions for washing dairy utensils, it is really summed up in making them thoroughly clean.
