Weekly Base Ball Resumé. There has been considerable change in the Western association pennant race during the past week. By losing two straight games to St. Paul Omaha has experienced quite a set-back, and now ranks only twenty-five points ahead of the Apostles, and the probabilities are that they will come back home next Thursday with a much smaller margin than this. Milwaukee has won seven straight games, and is playing in the form for the first time since she stands an elegant chance of taking at least two out of the three games the Dentons play there to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday. The Omahas, it should be remembered, are in a crippled condition, and cannot well expect to get back in form until after their return home.

Standing of the Clubs. Following is the standing of the Western association clubs up to and including yesterday's game.

Table with columns: Team, Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Rows include Omaha, Milwaukee, St. Paul, etc.

Cricket Next Saturday. The match between Trinity cathedral and All Saints church which was postponed a few weeks ago on account of the weather, will be played next Saturday afternoon at the fair grounds. The game will be very interesting, as the teams are evenly matched and neither side will allow any of their supporters to mention the possibility of defeat.

Lozier After Smith. Leon Lozier, the Council Bluffs sprinter, is ready to run young Smith, the colored stock yards runner, a one hundred yard race on Sunday afternoon, and would like to hear from the colored boy on the subject.

THE ADVENT OF TWINS. How Their Coming is Regarded in Different Countries. Few things are more mysterious than the unexplainable sympathy which often exists between two beings who came into the world together, says a writer in the London Standard.

poor, old, ill-fated Alleghenies seemed destined to die on the hillside. Brooklyn, in the American association, is coming up on St. Louis at a regular Spokane game, and another game will place her near and next with "the boss club," and then, oh, my! what a race there will be down the home stretch. All the country is pulling for the City of Churches, and indeed it would be a grand thing for American association baseball if she would beat the Browns out. There's betting all over the place. Baltimore continues to hold their place, the Athletics fourth and Cincinnati fifth, while Kansas City, Columbus and Louisville are still in their Killen's light for lost hours.

St. Lee's Benefit. All the preliminary arrangements for the grand testimonial to be tendered Manager Frank Seele, of the Omaha base-ball team, have been completed. The tickets go on sale to-day. The date of the benefit is Thursday, August 16, just one week from Thursday next.

The Corporation Crowd Indulging in an Immense Amount of Wire Pulling—General Weaver's Brilliant Scheme. The Iowa Campaign. Des Moines, Ia., August 4.—[Special to The Bee.]—The political contests now going on in Iowa are absorbing public attention to the exclusion of everything else. The primaries are being well attended and the farmers are coming out in force. Whoever may be nominated for governor, this one thing is certain—the candidate will be the choice of a majority of the republican voters and the platform will be a fair reflex of the sentiment of the party.

BEN BUTLER AT SEVENTY.

An Interesting Sketch of One of the Most Eminent of Men. At seventy years of age Butler is a stout, plucky person, whose unimpaired figure, especially in the neck and shoulders, strongly reminds you of the late Henry Ward Beecher's. Somehow, his way of standing up is exactly like Beecher's, says a writer in the Philadelphia Record.

Stories About Duelling. We sat in the smoking-room of one of the Long Island Sound steamers, says a writer in the New York Mail and Express, and an intelligent-looking member of the party, who smoked cigarettes, related the anecdote of Curran, the celebrated Irish barrister, who fought a duel with a man much larger than himself.
