

THE DAILY BEE. E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION...

A SIGNIFICANT TENDENCY. Among political tendencies there is none more significant or interesting than that of a large, intelligent and influential element of the democracy to look elsewhere than to New York for the next presidential candidate of the party.

principle having remained in force for twenty years, the secretary did not think it would be in the public interest to make a radical departure from it, and he makes the conclusive suggestion that the question no longer open to administrative construction.

WITH re-considered prospects the American company sets forth its determination to dig the great Nicaragua canal. But a reading between the lines reveals the fact that the company is extending a broad invitation for the generous American public to step up and subscribe liberally for canal stock.

ber S. Rev. F. A. Hardin, of Chicago, will be in charge of the meeting. Isaac Wilson, of Malcom, has become insane. At one time he was the leading man in the county, and was worth probably $100,000.

Everybody Talking Politics at the Capital. WORK AT THE OLD PARK WELL. One More Effort Will Be Made to Stop The Flow of Brine - R. C. Outcalt's Model Stock.

Lincoln Bureau of the Omaha Bee, 1029 P. STREET, LINCOLN, August 4. The special water committee will know in a few days whether the scheme to shut off the flow of salt water in the F street well is successful.

Sworn Statement of Circulation. State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss. George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of THE DAILY BEE for the week ending August 3, 1889, was as follows:

It is the desire to avert this apparently inevitable conflict, with all its possibilities of mischief to the party, that has prompted the suggestion that the time has come for the democratic party to cease regarding New York as the focal and turning point in a presidential contest, and to give some thought to the rest of the field.
