 Charlie Roth has purchased the Ogdon house barber shop, and took possession yesterday morning.

The council will meet as a board of health at 10 o'clock this morning to consider a report of Deputy State Veterinarian Stoneham concerning the use of impure milk in this city.

Officer F. P. Fowler and wife celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary at their home, No. 417 East Broadway yesterday. A large number of friends were in attendance and the occasion was a very pleasant one.

John Hammer will open a sample kiln of hard-burned brick to-morrow. This will be inspected with much interest, as there is a general desire to see the quality of the brick can be turned out here for paving purposes.

The Dodge Light Guards had a drill in the Emory last evening in their new uniforms. Captain Schartz, of the Omaha Guards, was present and inspected them. They made a very fine appearance. They will go to camp in command of Lieutenants Aitchison and Dixon.

The good Templars will hold a public installation of officers at the Broadway M. E. church this evening at 8 o'clock. Musical and literary entertainment will be given and the officers for the next quarter will be installed. The ceremony is an interesting one and a pleasant evening is anticipated. All friends of the order are cordially invited to be present.

Justice Hendricks tied the matrimonial knot for three happy couples yesterday evening. Ovid Wilson and Alma Anderson, and John Nelson and Annie Jensen, were all from Omaha, and came in a bunch to have a double ceremony performed. Soon after, W. A. Robinson, of Omaha, and Ella Carroll, of Chadron, put in an appearance, and were made one flesh in the sacred matrimonial style. They all departed with a parental blessing.

There was a runaway dash on Broadway yesterday morning that was quite remarkable, from the fact that the street was filled with teams, yet no collisions resulted. The runaway started near Twelfth street, and was stopped only by the fact that the horse reached the flying animal, attached to an open buggy, dashed down the street on a keen run, wearing to the right and left, dodging horses, buggies and motor trams in a most astonishing manner. Numerous hair-breadth escapes were experienced, but at the finish the damage column did not top fifty cents.

A Fight on Budget Prices.
 Although not generally known by the members of the amber colored liquid, there is a beer war of good-sized dimensions now being waged in this city. An interesting game of freeze-out is being played by the local wholesalers against those who represent beer of outside manufacture. It seems that a certain man in the city has been handling Peoria bottled beer, and managed to work up a very good trade. He sold on the system, collecting at the end of the month. The representatives of local houses reduced the price of their goods, in order to shut them out. They made a cash price, putting it considerably below what the Peoria man could profitably sell for. This not only took all his trade, but left things in such shape that he can not collect all his outstanding accounts. It is stated that the local dealers send a large quantity of their product to the lake Sunday afternoon and gave to the retailers there. In this way they have established themselves there and taken all of Mr. Peoria's lake trade, and the consequence is that he has himself completely shut out. His employers are now in the city and are making arrangements to inaugurate a rate of prices that will take away the bread of their competitors. They are bound to keep their fire on the market, if they have to pay consumers a small amount to drink it. If the war proves a hot one, it will give the political leaders a rare opportunity to lay in a stock for campaign consumption at very unusual rates.

A DELAY IN MANAWA'S ELECTION

The Success of the Resort—The Confidence of a Foreign Investor—The Council's Doings—Bluffs Personalis.

Manawa's Delayed Election.
 "Our corporation will come too late to do us any good this year," remarked a Manawa citizen yesterday. "It will be the middle of September before we finally get our officers elected and municipal affairs running in proper shape. All this week and the week following, an unwilling blunderer gave the whole thing a setback. The notices of election were only posted ten days instead of the thirty required by law, and so our election on the incorporation will have to be held over again. That will take place about the first of next month, and then it will take just about two weeks for our officers to be elected and sworn in. Everything is going along nicely, however, and the lake will experience no unpleasant results from the delay. Over the Burlington did not amount to much, as it was not properly worked up and advertised. Another is to come in this week over the Northwestern, and we hope it will be considerably larger than the other, as there are a number of first class towns along that line between Carrol and Bluffs."

"The way to work up an excursion and make it pay is to make a bargain with some church society in the town from which the party starts, and give them a percentage from the sale of tickets. They will bring a crowd and will see that everybody knows what is going on."

"Sunday was the biggest Sunday that the lake has ever seen. There was no special attraction, but the 4th of July is the only day that has turned out a larger crowd. It wasn't a very heavy day for the bathing establishments, as everybody seemed to be waiting to go in with the crowd, and the crowd didn't go in. It turned around quite cool about 5 o'clock and was so chilly during the evening that few cared to go into the water. A hot evening would have caused a demand for more bathing suits than could be furnished. Manawa is all right, and I am more than pleased with the great increase in patronage. The pavilion on the south side of the lake is closed for the season."

The lessee was under contract to keep open the entire season and keep an orchestra of five musicians, but the raids on the beer joints were too much for him. He said the folks wouldn't dance without beer, and he has folded his tent and gone back to Omaha. I can't tell whether any move will be made against the joints on the north side, but it seems to be an established fact that no more booze will be sold on the south beach."

A Happy Investor.
 C. P. Braslan, of Minneapolis, who represents the syndicate which has invested so much money in property near Manawa, is in the city for a two days' stay. He expresses himself as well satisfied with the investments made here. He has been offered a large advance on the prices paid by him, but does not want to sell. He is as enthusiastic as ever over the future prospects of Council Bluffs and vicinity, and is disposed to buy more rather than part with what he has. He is very much pleased with the lake and its surroundings.

Have your old furniture upholstered good as new. R. Morgan, 732 Broadway.

Residences and vacant lots for sale in all parts of the city, in monthly payments. A. A. & Co.
 Finest bathing in the world at Manhattan beach, Lake Manawa. Motor runs every half hour until midnight every evening.

Council Proceedings.
 The city council met last night, Mayor Rohrer presiding; Aldermen Bellingier, Knueper, Waterman, Lay and Weaver present.

The monthly claims were allowed, amounting to about $6,000.
 A claim for $120, by S. E. Maxon, for furnishing a set of plans for a new hose house, was filed.

Mr. Ross asked that Thirteenth avenue be excepted from the grading contract work of Third street. The contract having been awarded, the mayor was directed to request the contractor to postpone this part of the work until next season.
 Mr. Shoemaker of Omaha, asked that the intersections on Broadway from Thirty-third to Thirty-sixth streets be changed, having been improperly located, as was alleged in his petition. Referred to the engineer.

Colonel J. D. appeared on behalf of C. B. Jacquemin & Co., and asked that the grading tax on lot 6, block 32, Kiddle's addition, be released by payment of the tax, which is not due until 1890, so that they can secure the condemnation money, the union depot company having condemned this property. A resolution was adopted covering the same.

H. Eiseman & Co. asked that a nuisance be abated on the lots east of the new store building, the lots being below grade, the water running into the cellar of the new building. Referred to the city attorney.

Mr. Moore of Omaha, a partner of the Pacific house, asked that the building be examined as to its capacity. Mr. Wickham, the largest owner, stated the building is being repaired, and the petition was tabled. A number of property owners on Washington avenue asked that the assessment for grading on that street be corrected. Referred to the engineer.

Franklin avenue property owners asked that the paving on that street be laid out with a width of twenty-five feet from curb to curb, and that the parking be allowed inside the sidewalk. Referred to the street and alley committee.

All streets and avenues between the Northwestern tracks and Sixteenth street and Broadway and Tenth avenue, were ordered to be graded by resolution. It was afterwards laid over, owing to there not being a three-fourths vote in its favor.

A warrant for $100 was ordered drawn to pay for cash orders for food for the department.
 Bids for the construction of the new hose house were opened as follows: J. A. Murphy, $4,995; Thomas Gates, $4,990; P. Wind, $4,985; M. Hughes & Son, $5,000. On motion, J. & P. O. Wickham were awarded the contract.

Miss Gerner, with a recitation, Miss Palmer and Mr. Treynor, with solos, will add to the benefit concert to-night.

Pucked by the Police.
 Notwithstanding Mayor Rohrer's letter to the chief of police, insisting on a stricter enforcement of the Sunday closing order, the result of "stricter enforcement," as shown in police court Monday morning, was a greatly increased number of drunks. How it thus happened is a matter of conjecture. It could hardly have been that the boozers were "onto the racket," as nothing appeared in the papers concerning it until Sunday morning, so it is not probable that a premature warning induced them to fill up on Saturday night.

At any rate there was a full score of them when the court officer ordered his awkward squad to fall into line and "dress up" when Judge Hendricks put in his appearance yesterday morning.

Pat Patton was charged with getting drunk and trying to do a lot of brass knuckles on Pierce street. He was touched for $10.00 and his partner, A. Smith, was released.

Otto Thompson and Andrew Johnson, two Omaha carpenters, came across the bridge and filled a bottle with Missouri river water. When the cork was removed in the Bluffs, the atmosphere caused a change that discolored the old time miracle of turning water into wine for the fluid from the channel of the big study had become metamorphosed into the ugliest kind of whisky, and Otto and Andrew, who innocently partook of it, were soon under full headway on the wildest kind of a toot. The court recognized the source of the difficulty, and intimated that the culprit could patch up matters by paying $10.00 each.

Pat Dempsey and James Robinson were another pair from Nebraska soil who had gazed too ardently on the red-eye, and kicked up a rumpus on Broadway. Officer Fowler had arbitrated the case and his services cost the defendants $10.00 each.

E. Deeds had overloaded and it cost him $10.00 to have his equilibrium restored.
 J. O'Neill was another who took on more than he could carry and his balance was restored by dropping $10.00.

William and Archibald Cullen created a disturbance near the Northwestern and had their hearing continued until this afternoon. The police appeared, they were drunk, and gave them the full dose, $10.00.

A couple of "rats" printers from Pittsburg excused their presence from the city in the worst manner possible. They were given fifteen days for vagrancy. James Haskins and William Spears got full and tried to clean out Ninth avenue. The police appeared, they were drunk, and were overhauled and the court exacted the limit from each of them.

A young darkey named Sexton Riels was run for fooling with the hydrant in Bayliss park. The court read him a severe lecture and discharged him, after warning that it would be no use to have his head plugged up any more water pipes.
 J. Mackey was fined $11.00 for getting too much speed out of a horse which was not rapidly disposed of himself.

Fine jewelry, watches and diamonds; cleaning and repairing at E. Barhor.

WHEN PEOPLE MARRY.

Curious Things Shown by Records of Pennsylvania.
 Thirteen per cent of all the men married in Pennsylvania last year married women older than themselves, says the Philadelphia Record. Seven per cent took wives of their own ages, and the remaining 80 per cent married women younger than themselves. The average age of the men was twenty-seven years, and of the women twenty-three years. These interesting facts are found in the annual report for 1888 of Secretary of Internal Affairs Thomas J. Stewart, which contains many other curious information about the matrimonial propensities of Pennsylvanians. Thus it appears that more men are married at the age of twenty-three than at any other age, and that among women twenty-one is the favorite age. The youngest wife of 1888 was only thirteen years old, and the oldest was aged seventy-one. Two boys of sixteen were married, and two old graybeards of eighty-six ventured into matrimony, probably not for the first time. Of 14,726 women married, and whose ages were given, 4,055, or 27.5 per cent were less than twenty years old. Among the men there were only 493 who were 60 years old. There were 23 girls of 14 years married, 105 of 15, 353 of 16, 816 of 17, 1,333 of 18, 1,424 of 19, 1,322 of 20, 2,042 of 21, 1,617 of 22, 1,140 of 23. After the latter age, the numbers of those who found husbands rapidly declines. These figures show that if a Pennsylvania girl is not married by the time she is twenty-three years old the chances are that she will become an old maid.

Men proceed more leisurely about matrimony. Figures for the two 10-year-old husbands in 1888, there were 38 aged 17, 128 18 year old, and 325 19 years old. The figures then take a jump to 637 at 20 and reach the maximum in 1,565 at 21. They decrease slowly after that. There were 177 men married after they were 50 years old, but only 171 women.

There was a remarkable disparity in the ages of some of the couples. A woman of 59 years married a man of 31, and an old man of 74 married a maiden of 24. The youngest couple were a 17-year-old husband and a 15-year-old wife. The girl of 13 married a man nineteen years older than herself. A man of 54 married a girl of 18, his age being just three times that of hers, and a man of 48 did nearly as well, taking a 17-year-old wife.

In the marriages where the women were older than the men the differences in ages rarely exceeded five years. There were eighty-three marriages where one of the parties had previously been divorced.

It is estimated that there were 6,000 marriages of couples from this state in Camden alone, and of course, there must have been many more in other cities and towns in other states bordering on Pennsylvania.

Sticking to the Point.
 Cleveland Plain-Dealer: A gentleman in this town had a very bright and very droll little boy. The other day the little fellow feigned illness. His father came in and shook him gently. He remained immobile and silent. He shook him harder and would have waked a sleeping person. No movement, no noise. The boy thought he was acting natural. The father threw a drop of water in his face. Not a wince. He emptied a pitcher. Not a twitch. He threw him on a bed. The boy slept on. Soon the mother asked him why he said nothing when his father shook him.
 "Tos I was asleep," he answered.

Hard Alternatives.
 New York World: Flossie is six years old. "Mamma," she asked one day, "if I get married will I have to have a husband like pa?" "Yes," replied the mother, with an amused smile. "And if I don't get married will I have to be an old maid like Aunt Kate?" "Yes," "Mamma" after a pause said—"It's a tough world for us women, ain't it?"
