Mormons to Tread It and Press Out the Nation's Blood.

TO AVENGE JOSEPH SMITH.

The Declaration of an Elder in Tennessee Which Caused Great Excitement and a Peter the Hermit Crusade.

Saints Have a Hard Time.

Nashville, Tenn., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The Mormon members in Wilson county looked very threatening Sunday, but were quickly downed. The Mormons are on the alert, and the anti-Mormon party grows more indignant at every "revelation." Just now, however, the elders have hidden under fear of tar and feathers. In preaching to one congregation Sunday, one of the elders told his sympathizers that they belonged to them, that they were preparing to take it by force if necessary, and would have it if they had to take blood out of every man in this country; that the church was preparing an army for that purpose. "For," said he, "the blood of Joseph Smith must be avenged, and God commands us to overthrow this government for its oppression of the saints. The great sin of the world is not yet been trodden. We are to tread it, and tread it we will until we have pressed out the last drop of blood from the veins of the personal existence of this accursed people." One sympathizer to whom this was spoken became alarmed at the excitement in the community, and he immediately called a meeting Sunday at Friendship to a crowd. He had a letter from a lady in Kentucky who had joined the Mormon church, and she had returned home and has the courage to tell the truth. She denounces the system as deceptive and rotten, and the priests and elders as a lot of scoundrels. Benjamin Bright, who was an active participant in the first Mormon revival, asserts that he never knew any of them, and henceforth he is an "American and not a Mormon." The people are determined to drive the Mormon elders from this part of the country.

NOT READY FOR PLANTS.

Why the Park Commission Refused the Woodman Collection. For over a month past the park commissioners have been considering a proposition from Mr. and Mrs. Clark Woodman to donate to the city their valuable collection of tropical plants. Mr. Linsinger strongly urged that the collection taken at the present time would be something of a white elephant on the commission's hands. Dr. Miller thought, and so expressed himself, that the plants would be a very valuable addition to one of the parks, but was not certain that the commission would accept a house for their accommodation, either now or next spring.

This Afternoon's Game.

The Omahas and the Milwaukee will meet for the second game in their present series this afternoon, and with Davies in the box, Captain Shook says they have a mortgage on the game. People who are desirous of seeing the Milwaukee play must turn out to these games, as they are the last they will play on these grounds this season. Clarke and Nagle will be Omaha's battery this afternoon. The Milwaukee will be in fine condition and excellent spirits their friends can anticipate another brilliant struggle.

St. Joseph's St. Paul 2.

St. Joseph, Mo., August 9.—St. Paul could not hit Knell, who was backed up by faultless fielding. Tuckerman, on the other hand, received life infield support. Daily's holding out and Schellhaas' work behind the bat were the features. Score:

Jack Haley Held From.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., August 9.—In your issue of the 7th appears an account of a shooting affray in which one Jack Haley is accused of shooting one "Muddy O'Neill." I desire to say that I have been in Cedar Rapids for the past thirty days, working on the Republican. As I am the only Jack Haley, a "printer from Davenport," it must be that some one else has taken my name for the purpose of shooting a man who had answered questions of his crime. Your description and statement of my age, etc., is correct. My home is at Davenport, where I was born and raised, and where I have lived ever since. Any time I am wanted, I can be found at the Republican office in this city. Please give this a place in your issue, as I am sure it will stand charged with a grave crime as attempted murder.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S STORM.

Great Damage Done in Various Sections of Nebraska.

CASS COUNTY DEVASTATED. Charles Bradley, an Otter County Farm Hand, Surrenders Himself For a Murder Committed in New York.

Did Lots of Damage. LOUISVILLE, Neb., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—One hundred and fifty rain storms that have visited Cass county occurred last night. Thousands of dollars worth of damage has been done in this portion. Bridges are washed away, roads turned into ditches, houses flooded, and the fences and trees washed away. Mr. A. C. Cina, who lives on the bottom west of town, was driven out of his house and had to take to the hills with his family, wading through water waist deep. He lost everything he had—his household furniture, clothes, live stock, fences and garden. His loss will be $1,000. Fifteen to twenty families of quarrymen, who were living in tents and wagons close to Rowland's quarries, lost everything, besides having to wade to the hills during the storm without shelter.

Will March to the Reunions.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Lion post No. 11, G. A. R., have completed arrangements for their march to the reunions at Kearney and have nobly remembered the old vets at the soldiers' home. Each one will be presented with a ticket for the round trip. They will start Tuesday morning, and have secured the necessary funds which will be elegantly decorated for the occasion.

She is Dead on Snakes.

HARTLEY, Neb., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—A few days ago Miss Sue Gouley, living a few miles south of town, found a large rattlesnake on the prairie. Finding no stick or stone, she took off her shoe and threw it at the reptile several times. As she stepped on her shoe she struck the snake on the hand, biting her glove, but inflicting no injury. The brave girl jumped on the snake's head and stamped it to death.

THE RAILROADS SUSTAINED.

An Important Decision By the Iowa Commission.

A QUESTION OF JOINT RATES. Any Law Compelling Their Enforcement Declared Unconstitutional—The Governoratorial Race—Other Hawkeye Items.

Joint Rates. Des Moines, Ia., August 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The railroad commissioners to-day rendered a very important decision on the question of joint rates, in answer to complaints of Burlington and Davenport jobbers. When the complainants appeared before the commissioners some weeks ago they charged that the railroads, by refusing to make joint rates where two or more lines were used, caused delays in their shipments, to the advantage of Chicago and other competitors. They said that they were compelled to rebill and reship at all junction points, instead of being allowed one through shipment, as heretofore. They asked the commissioners to compel the roads to put in joint rates which would be lower than the sum of the two locals, and avoid the trouble and delay of reshipping. The question was one of great importance, and the railroads insisted that the commissioners had no right under the law to do this. The commissioners, in a voluminous opinion, sustained them as to this fact, and go further and intimate that a law compelling them to do this would be unconstitutional. The required amount will be subscribed in stock, and work on the canal will probably be begun this fall.
