WHY HE PLEADED GUILTY.

A Criminal Confesses to Petit Larceny to Establish an Alibl.

SUPPOSED TO BE A BURGLAR.

Willful Little Annie Kelley Tells a Fib About a Young Lady Friend -One of Forepaugh's Clowns Arrested.

LINCOLN BURBAU OF THE OMARA BER,) 1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, August 23,

J. H. Foster, the man convicted of petit inrceny a few weeks since, completed his sentence in the county jail to-day, and was released. On information from Gage county, however, he was rearrested and again committed to jail. It appears that he is wanted there on the charge of burglary. Foster called for an attorney and straightway swore out a habeas corpus before Judge Stewart, and the question of his detention under ser vice of the last warrant was argued this afternoon at 4 o'clock. There is a web of peculiar circumstances surrounding Foster that has been overlooked by the press generally. It will be remembered that Ed Cert filed the complaint that first led to his arrest in this city. He charged him with stealing a pair of pants from his store on Ostreet. Prior to this, however, he and two others, Barnell and Stout, were under surveillance by the police force as being implicated in breaking into Welsh's house and burglarizing his safe last June. But no formal complaint of this was ever entered. Cerf's complaint included Barnell and Stout. At the trial Foster entered the plea of guilty and was sentenced to the county jail for ten days. Barnell and Stout stood trial and were acquitted. Subsequently it developed that Foster had not been near Cerf's store on the day the pants were stolen; indeed, it has been proved that he was not in the city. When he was arrested his wife gave it out that he had been in the burglary business. Recent developments are such that the public think that he pleaded guilty and accepted the sentence of the court, hoping to evade a more serious punishment that he thought stared him i face. There is no reasonable doubt but what he ought to do service for the state, and it is said that he will do so if the Gage county authorities get hold of him.

A Depraved Little Girl.

Word was received yesterday at the police station that a young girl who gave her name as Apple Kelley had been put off the train at Culbertson. Some Lincoln people were there, and to them she said she lived in Lincoln, but that she was running away to Denver. She said that she worked in the Peerless laundry, and though her parents lived in the city, she roomed for the greater part of the time with another girl, a Louise Waggoner, in the third story of the Zehrung & Dunn block. This Miss Waggoner, she said, did fancy work for a living, but had persuaded her to go to Denver and enter a life of shame in the house of Miss Waggoner's sister. These Lincoln people provided for the girl temporarily and notified the Lin-coln police. Officer Malone was sent out yesterday after her and brought her in this

Miss Waggoner, who was arrested yesterday, spent the night in the police station much to her own chagrin, as well as the honest looking young fellow's who said that he was engaged to be married to her. Miss Waggoner said that she had a sister in Denver, but that she was only a fiftcen-year-old girl, and could not be engaged in that busi-ness. She said that the Kelley girl had left her room Tuesday evening, saying that she intended going home to spend the night, and that she had not seen her since. She denied that she had recommended such a life to he but on the contrary had warned her against

The case was called in the police court this morning, when the Kelley girl, who is but a little chit of a thing, only fourteen, and does not look over twelve, was sent to Mrs. Dr. Lane to be examined. The case against Miss Waggoner was dismissed and the Kelley girl's parents took her home.

Judge Field, on next Monday, will decide the matter specially. It is said that the village of Bennett is "wrent in twain" over the controversy.

City News and Notes.

General Van Wyck passed through the city this morning en route home from Tobias, where he addressed an assemblage of citizens gathered together in honor of the first anniversary of the Farmers' Protective association. The general delivered the dedicatory address at the opening of the associ-

C. McKillip, of Seward, was in Lincoln to-day to look a ter the registration of the waterworks bonds of that city. It appears that Seward recently voted $30,000 of bonds, that Seward recently voted $30,000 of the proceeds of which are to be used in the construction of a system of waterworks, and to make everything secure Mr. McKillip, who is the city attorney of Seward, came in to see that the history of the bonds was per fect in every particular. Christ Rathmann, county clerk of Washington, was in the city to-day en route home from Alliance. Officer Splain arrested an old back woods looking farmer in the Forepaugh parade this morning, and took him to the police station. The laugh was on Splain, however, when he found that the old "farmer" was one of the clowns with the show.

People in General.

People in general should know what's est to do in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. It is a well established fact that prompt relief may be and in any case of colic, cholera morbus, dysentery or diarrhea by giving a few doses of Chambertain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. It acts quickly, can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.

The Medical Record Comes Oat Against Brown-Sequard.

NEW YORK, August 23.-|Special Telegram to THE BEE . - The Medical Record will print to day an editorial by Dr George F. Shrady denouncing the Brown-Sequard elixir as the foolish conceit of an old man in whose mind dreams of returning youth had assumed the counterfeit of reality. Dr. Sbrady says the method prescribed in relation to the elixir is on its face preposterous and its vaunted effects impossible and ridiculous. It is opposed to all known physiological and biological laws, and had it not been bolsterod up by the reputation of Brown-Sequard it would searcely have been heard of outside of the Paris society where it had been pro-posed. Along with this editorial is an ar-ticle entitled "An Experimental Study of the Beaus Council, the anomaly be an originat Brown-Sequard Theory" by an eminent physician, Dr. Henry P. Loomis, in which he reviewed all the cases on which he tried the fluid in Believue hospital, to each of which is added a comment to the effect that there had been no improvement or that the improvement had not been permanent. In one case the treatment was injurious. Make no Mistake. By dispelling the symptoms so often taken for comsumption. SANTA ABIE brought gladness to many a household.

Cattle. Friday, August 23. It is impossible to fully convey to the mind of a shipper in the country the true state of the cattle market. The market on beef cattle was simply dead, and it was midday be-fore any cattle of that description changed hands. In the afternoon there was some trading at prices 40(250c lower than the best on Thursday of last week. Very fair or good beeves sold at $3.50. About half of the cattle were western rangers. The number of na-tive beef cattle was not so very large, and aside from a bunch or two the quality was not very desirable. There was not what could be called a prime bunch of heavy cattle on the market. There was plenty of butch-ers' stock on sale, such as old and common cows. There was not much change in the cows. There was not much change in the prices on this class of cattle, and yet some of the buyers thought they got their cattle a little lower on account of there being more to select from. There was a little more de-mand for canners, and there was consider-able trading in them, though mostly in small lots, odds and ends. Cows sold at $1.70a2.50, largely at $1.75a2.00 and canners at $1.46a155. There was plotted to cover and 1.65. There were pictured and the stockers and feeders, especially little stockers, in the yards. There were quite a good many buy-ers, but they took hold a little slow. Prices remain about the same. Native feeders sold at $2.25(@3.15, and some westerns at $2.50. Hogs.

The hog market fell away 10c to-day under the influence of a heavy decline in the eastern hog market as well as in the provision market. Although salesmen were a little slow to let go of their holdings a clearance was effected before midday.

The Freight Reduction Order.

The order of the state board of transporta tion reducing freight rates on coal shipments, with the string attached, seems to be causing some annoyance and anxiety in railroad circles. It is doubtless still in mind that the board ordered all roads doing business in the state to confirm to the schedule recommended in Secretary Garber's report and findings on the Sutherland Manning complaints, within the time required by law, or appear before the board and show cause why it is unreasonable and unjust. General Manager Burt, of the Elkhorn, writes the board of secretaries that while the road he represents desires to comply with all orders and requirements of the board, the order in-dicated is so manifestly unjust to his people that he desires to be heard as to its unreason-ableness, and asks for a date and place for the hearing. It is also stated that, other or appear before the board and show caus for the hearing.
