

THE INVINCIBLE WHITE SOX.

Another Brilliant Victory Placed to Their Credit.

BURDICK WILL ROTATE TO-DAY.

And the Iowa Corn Huskers Will Make a Frantic Last Endeavor to Win a Game From Omaha.

Standing of the Clubs.

There has been but little change in the position of the teams in the Western association since last Sunday's review.

The changes in the National league have been Chicago's big jump over Cleveland, and Pittsburgh's magnificent work in pulling up and dashing past Indianapolis.

In the American association the fight for first place between St. Louis and Brooklyn is an unprecedented fierce one.

Following is the standing of the teams in the different bodies now mentioned:

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Rows for Omaha, St. Paul, Minneapolis, etc.

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Rows for Boston, New York, Philadelphia, etc.

Table with columns: Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Rows for St. Louis, Brooklyn, Baltimore, etc.

Omaha is down the Corn Huskers again yesterday afternoon without turning a hair.

From some cause or other the opinion seemed to prevail very generally before the game that Omaha was to be defeated.

Just why the fans should be apprehensive of disaster at Burdick's hands, however, is one of those things that no fellow can find out.

It is not that Burdick is a very formidable one, a startling character as to justify these forebodings, and Mr. Burdick will probably realize this afternoon that the White Sox all have their "eyes" on him.

But as it is, however, Burdick did not twist yesterday, neither did Omaha lose.

Chicago also got his base on balls, but was doubled up by Strauss, and Crooks' hit terminated the game.

Cleveland also got his base on balls, but was doubled up by Strauss, and Crooks' hit terminated the game.

St. Louis was first at bat and took his base on four wide hits.

But the game was not over until it was over, and it was a pleasure to witness a game over which he presides.

But the game was not over until it was over, and it was a pleasure to witness a game over which he presides.

But the game was not over until it was over, and it was a pleasure to witness a game over which he presides.
