GRIEVANCES OF FARMERS.

The farmers are this year more aggressive than ever before in giving expression to their grievances and seeking methods to relieve them.

The development of this movement, which in its wide scope and great importance is of national concern, has been very marked in the southern states.

More recently there have been conventions of farmers' alliances in a number of the states of the south, all of which have followed the general lines laid down by the congress.

The result is a general expression in favor of the consolidation of the Southern Interstate Farmers' alliance with the organization known as the Wheel, the Farmers' union, and the Union Labor organization.

Of equal interest with this movement in the south is that of the Farmers' Federation of the Mississippi valley.

There will be no dearth of amusements in Omaha during the week, a fact which the visitors to the city will not fail to appreciate.

Neither the millionaires of New York or Chicago are in a hurry to go down into their pockets to subscribe stock to the world's fair exposition.

The recent war in Hayti consumed $10,000,000 of money and 400 men. This statement would not indicate any very great amount of personal bravery among the combatants.

Building permits to the value of three million dollars have been issued in Omaha since the beginning of the year.

McCook, in this state, will hold a reunion of soldiers and sailors October 9, 10, 11 and 12, and accommodations will be provided for at least ten thousand people.

to the former law. It is free, also, from other serious defects of the former law, and provides for greater expedition in settling cases in bankruptcy.

There has been a steady growth of sentiment for several years in mercantile circles in favor of a new law, and this has become quite as pronounced in the west as in the east.

There is a demand for reform in the system of army promotions. The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger calls attention to the anomalous system under which promotions in the army are made.

The health of his wife has made it necessary for Rev. A. S. Cain to resign the pastorate of the Methodist church in Burlington, and he will remove to northern Indiana.

Proclamations have been printed for election in Riverdale, Grant and Armada towns in Iowa, and it is expected that upon the proposition to issue bonds to aid in constructing a road up Wood river valley.

A new baptist church is to be built in Davenport to cost $24,500. Five hundred people have been put to work this week decorating the Sioux City corn pile.

The corner stone of the new Grace M. E. church at Burlington will be laid next Thursday.

A Fort Madison man has a best growing in his garden which measures twenty-seven inches in circumference, getting larger each year.

White George Doty, of Hubbard, was expanding his gold mine by sinking a shaft to break his jaw in two places and smashing his cheek bone.

Standing Rock agency. He was selected by the tribes at that place to represent and speak for them when the Sioux commission proposed the purchase of their land a short time ago.

The work of paving the city, especially in the residence districts, is being pushed forward with considerable activity, and the prospects look favorably for adding at least ten miles of new paved streets before the season closes.

It appears that Leavenworth, Kan., has lost 15,000 in population owing to prohibition. The population of Kentucky is on the increase.

A circulating library is to be established at Cedar Rapids. A soldiers reunion is to be held at Plainview September 11, 12 and 13.

The Logan Valley fair will be held at Wakefield September 10, 11 and 12. A four-legged chicken, alive and vigorous, is being shown at Wyandotte.

The Richardson county supervisors have let the contract for building five iron bridges, to cost $1,200. The Paving Brick company of Nebraska City is engaged in machinery for the manufacture of paving bricks.

A Silver Creek, Merrick county, couple have been blessed with two pairs of twins inside of eighteen months, all girls, and alive and well.

A man living near Madison has struck a boiling well at a depth of a little over sixty feet and hopes are entertained that gas will be discovered.

A son of a Mr. Burrows, living near Doniphan, celebrated his eighth birthday by being kicked by a horse, losing several teeth and having his face badly cut.

G. R. Heald, sheriff of Custer county, has been elected over bonds for trial on the charges of keeping a gambling house and selling liquor without a license.

The sheriff of Hamilton county has returned from Lewistown, Idaho, having in custody Jacob J. Frei, who is wanted at Aurora for disposing of mortgaged property.

The clearness of plate-glass windows is impaired by washing them with soap containing resin, which always leaves a thin, semi-transparent coating over the surface. Ivory Soap contains no resin, and if used with tepid water, a sponge to apply the soap and water with, and a chamois to rub the window-pane dry, your windows will prove the truth of the saying: "Clear glass is to a house what beautiful eyes are to a woman."

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
