Des Moines Races.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 3.—[Special Telegram to THE HER.]—The races at the state fair to-day drew 15,000 people, the chief attraction being Axtell, the precious three-year-old Iowa coit. He was advertised to give an exhibition trot, but as the track was only a half-mile track and three conds slow, it was not expected that he ould lower his record. When the beautiful horse, driven by his owner, Mr. Williams, drove past the amphitheater, they were greeted by deafening cheers. After a good start, he went around the track at a rattling pace, completing the mile in 2:22, or, allow-ing for the slowness of the track, in 2:19, which, for a half-mile track, is as good as he deeds, heroic sufferings and sacrifices is a people without a history. To cherish such memories and recall such a past, whether crowned with success for consecrated in defeat, is to idealize principle and strength of character, intensify love of our country and convert defeat and disaster into pillars of support for the principle and strength of support for the principle and support for the pr of a battle with a tailor to-day. The fair ballet dancer had taken several pair of tights to a tailor for cleaning, and on calling for them to-day was assessed $10. This she thought was too much, but the tailor "assured her it was a case of pay or no tights.'

The lady refused to pay the $10 and the tailor hung on to the clothes. Then the actress lit into him. She kicked him simultaneously with both feet under the chic and in the stomach, but the tailor countered with his bot goose and the premiere danseuse wilted. She has sworn out a warrant against the bailor and the case will be settled before Justice Lyon.

MRS. PARNELL DYING.

Her Life Almost Brought to a Close by Old Age.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—[Special Telegram to The Bes.]—Mrs. Delia Stewart Parnell is slowly dying of old age and its attendant infirmities at Bordentown, N. J. The doctors say her days are fast coming to a close. Mrs. Parnell was found at her home to-day in a feeble condition, but she forced a faint smile when informed of the rumor of her death.

"No. I am not dead, but dving," she said. "My life is slowly but surely ebbing away, and I realize my days are numbered. As they say out west, I am dying with my boots on, and I will not give up until 1 have to go to bed. My life has been one long series of trials and tribulations as far back as I can remember, but during my darkest hours I never thought of dying, for I expected to live to see the Irish people on their native heath, led from under the bondage they suffered from English tyranny and oppression. But I do not believe I will see the happy day, for, while the light of my existence is flickering, the hope of Ireland's immediate freedom is lessening day by day. My son has been trampled upon for his views on the rights of the Irish people, and my heart has bled for every insuit he has rebeived. While he is suffering martyrdom abroad, I am being trampled upon at home. A certain man is trying to blast my reputa-, for he has instituted a law suit against me for the recovery of a sum of money which I do not owe him. This has necessitated a great deal of labor on my part and has ruined my constitution. For over six months I have been overhauling papers and docu-ments which have been accumu-lating about lifteen years. I have gone through every one of these papers three times and my eyesight has been rained. I cannot see any more; and although it is necessary for me to go over the papers again, I cannot do it. The nerves of my eyes are burning, and I fear that in a short time I shall be totally blind, If my eyes are not closed forever before that time comes. The work must be done, however, for there are certain papers which must be found be-fore the stand which I have taken in this lawsuit may be vindicated."

SOUTH DAKOTA DEMOCRATS. They Will Hold Their Convention at

Huron To-Day. HURON, S. D., Sept. 3.-[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Many delegates to the democratic state convention here to-morrow arrived this afternoon. The canvass to-night indicates that either F. M. Ziebach, E. W. Miller and P. F. McClure will be nominated for governor, and J. W. Hardin for lieutenant governor. The latter is the choice of the ant governor. The latter is the choice of the farmers. Judge Tupp, Judge Spencer and Judge Thomas will be nominated for the supreme bench. Wright, of Sioux Falis; Harris, of Yankton; Van Buskirk, of Watertown, and Walsh, of Red Cloud, want the congressional nomination. J. D. Lawler is a candidate for treasurer, and either Hudley, Engle or Croofoot will be named for attorney general. The canyassing to-melt is quite A NIAGARA FALLS FARE. Nobody Believes Graham Made the Trip in a Barrel.

BUPPALO, N. Y., Sept. 3.—[Special Telegram to True Ber.]—"I will gamble all I can get that Graham did not go over the fails yesterday," said a Niagara Falls man who knows the barrel man. A newspaper man who made a thorough investigation of the alleged trip, while he cannot prove that it did not take place, is confident that it did not, Weeks ago he was told of what was up and was askelf to help out the "fake." When the was asked to help out the "fake." When the first barrel was sent over the fails a few weeks ago to says it was Graham's intention to swim out to it, get in and be picked up, but this scheme did not work because the barrel went to pieces. It has nover been Graham's intention to go over the fails, and no one at Niagara believes that he did. Some time ago a syndicate of special friends jumped Larry Donovan from suspension bridge—that is, a dummy went over, Donovan was picked up, and taken ashore in a soaked condition, and the papers throughout the country were treated to extended accounts of the great 190-foot jump. These same men have since turned to extended accounts of the great 190-100t jump. These same men have since turned their attention to Graham, and he, by their aid, has done many things at the falls that he did not do. Some of them, it is suspected, have engineered Graham's trip. Inaced, in some of the dispatches sent out it is stated that Graham was driven to his hotel in a hack in which were Buffalo reporters. Strange, then, that no Buffalo paper has asserted as a fact that Graham did go over the falls. It is stated that a showman has been backing the scheme with the intention of adding Graham to his collection of mon-

Dedication at Greeley Center. The first church building at Greeley Center was dedicated on last Sunday, September 1. It belongs to the Methodist denomination, but has been helped forward by nearly all the Protestant people of the town. Rev. J. W. Shank, presiding elder of the Grand Island district, preached the dedicatory sermon to a full house and took a subscription of $300 to meet the expense of completing the tower and furnishing the auditorium. The church is $28x46 feet, with side tower and vestibule. The cost completed will be $1,800. Of this amount Rev. E. H. Dupuy, the late pastert had collected $1,000. The Church Extension Society, will place the society practically free from debt. Rev. L. Campbell, of Scotia, preached in the afternoon, and in the evening Rev. Dupuy delivered his fare well sermon and left on Monday to resulted his studies at Drew Theological Seminary. The success of the enterprise has been marvelous.

Governor Lowrey Thinks There Will Be No Race War.

THE NEGROES ALL DISARMED.

There Still Are Mutterings, Bu Things Will Soon Settle Down -Some Conflicting Reports.

Were Any Black Men Killed? NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 3.-A Jackson, Miss. special says: In an interview to-day Gov ernor Lowrey made in substance this answer to general questions on the state of affairs in Le Flore county: "On arriving at Greenwood I found some excitement among the people, not from any fear of bloodshed detween the races, but rather the menace of the negroes and their defiant attitude of two days before, and this probably was intensified by the fact that the negroes, or at least quite a number of them, were armed with Winchester rifles. The maccessibility of the town in the vicinity of the disturbance, rendered the getting of information from there very difficult. In the meanwhile three military companies had arrived and quite a number of volunteers from the surrounding counties of Carrollton and Grenada. The citizen volunteers, or a number of them, at least, seemed determined to have matters their own way. I feared that if they went to the scene of the disturbance in the excited state in which they were, they would do harm. After a consultation, it was finally decided that the military, instead of the citizen volunteers, should be sent to the aid of the sheriff in enforcing the law. In conclusion the governor said he had no fears of further trouble. arrived and quite a number trouble.

The Capital Light Guards, of this city, arrived here from Le Flore county at 3 p. m. to-day. They report that there had been armed negroes near Minter City, but they were dispersed before the arrival of the military. There was a large body of white men armed, who had flocked there from various points before the arrival of the troops. These men had dispersed the negroes and captured their leaders.

The reports as to whether any negroes had been killed on the negroes had been killed on the negroes were been killed, or the number captured were conflicting. One negro was killed by an other for refusing to join them. One man told the officers that he saw six dead negroes, Other reports place the number higher, while some denied that there had been any killed except the negro killed by another

The troops captured and turned over to the sheriff forty negroes. It was reported after the troops left that one negro leader was hanged.

The sheriff, under whose orders the troops were placed, notified them they were needed no longer, and they left by boat. A number of the company told the Associated press correspondent that it was impossible to get reliable information as to what occurred; that it was a certainty that from 300 to 400 negroes were armed and congregated, vow-ing vengeance on Saturday night, and it was certain large bodies of white men had dis-persed them and captured some of them, but no true account could be obtained. The white people of Shellmound deserted the place Saturday, and sought refuge in safer

Bad Feeling in Alabama. CHICAGO, Sept. 3 .- A dispatch from Birmingham, Ala., says: The saloon row between white men and negroes, Friday night, at Haverton's store, in Bibb county, the killing of John Lawrence by two negro burglars, and the lynching of the latter Sat urday, have caused much bad feeling beurday, have caused much oad feeling between the two races, and a murderous conflict may be expected at any moment.
The negroes have massed in and about C ntervale and are well armed. A Bibb county man said that so great was the alarm felt that Saturday night two trusty citizens were sent to Nashville, Tenn., for 100 Winchester rifles. He said no work had been done there since Friday, and if a conflict came every negro in the county would be exterminated.

A DEPUTY SHERIFF KILLED. He Made Himself Obnoxious at Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 3.- Special Telegram to The Beg.]-Joseph Jacobs, a supporter of Minor and a deputy sheriff of Franklin, La., was shot this morning just as the polls were opened. He was shot in the back. The only particulars of the shooting is a dispatch received by Chairman Moore, of the democratic committee. It is stated that Jacobs had been troublesome and officious at the polls. Neither the commissioners nor the by-standers knew he was deputy sheriff. No announcement to that effect had been made, so when he drew his pistol and made a murderous assault he was shot down before he could fire. The wound is not necessarily fatal. No disturbance whatever followed.

Price is Elected. NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 3.—Telegrams from various points in the Third congressional district indicate the election of Andrew Price, the demogratic candidate. good majority, over H. He Was Consequently Arrested by a Blue Cost Humanitarian. Mr. Rudolph Schmidt, a respectable appearing traveling man from St. Louis, while on his way to his room at the Barker hotel Monday evening, happened to see the poor horses attached to a crowded street car struggling up the hill on Thirteenth below Howard.

"It's a shame," said Schmidt, turning to his companion, "to abuse poor dumb brutes in that way."

Before his comrade could reply a member of the police force laid his hands on Schmidt with the remark:

"Swearing on the street, are you?—you blackguard, come along with me," and he gave the traveling man a jerk that almost tore his coat.

Schmidt was indignant that he should be arrested on such a pretext, and refused at first to go with the policeman. But the officer jerked out his club, and as Schmidt had heard how young Jamieson had suffered under Bloom's club a year ago, he went to the lock-up. The hearing of his case was continued until to-day.

Eugene Welsh is the name of a healthy young man who wandered into Doane's saloon, on Ninth street, last night, and called for beer, for which he laid down a $20 gold piece. The bartender could not make the change, and Eugene was about to leave his hat, when a stranger present volunteered to settle the bill, and go up town with Eugene and get the change. The latter consented, and the twain repaired to the saloon of Harry Brandies, at Eleventh and Douglas streets Harry hadn't $20 in change, but sent his porter out after it. The stranger followed and called the porter, saying that he wanted to look at the gold piece. Then he deftly substituted a $1 piece and floated away. In
