THE SPECULATIVE MARKETS.

More Activity and Higher Values in the Wheat Pit.

THE COMPETITION OF RUSSIA.

English Traders Think They Will Be Independent of American Supplies Till January—Corn More Active—Provisions Nervous.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There was a reversal of the speculative sentiment among wheat traders to-day which was productive of more activity in business and a higher range of values. Mutual inquiries were frequent among scalpers as to the cause of the improvement and a general ignorance was prfessed of any outside reason for higher prices. There were several items of news in circulation, however, which might account for the shorts desiring to cover. Among those was cabled a paragraph from a leading London newspaper to the effect that European deficiencies would require 18,000,000 bushels to make them good, but before going farther another feature of the European trade may be here introduced. A gentleman connected with one of the leading houses on 'Change, which has extensive English connections, has just returned from abroad and says that at present the wants of England are being supplied by Russia at lower prices than are prevailing here, that English millers have learned to make good flour from a mixture of Russian and Indian wheat, and that while traders there are not bears at the prices they are paying for wheat they think they will be practically independent of American supplies until January next. This, of course, represents only an individual opinion, but is the result of inquiries by close observing Chicago merchants. Inspection returns are showing the wheat arriving here as going from bad to worse, as out of 333 cars received here to-day only seven cars inspected No. 2, and in store here now there are only 893,000 bushels all told of contract wheat, while at the same time last year three times as much in store did not deter a certain gentleman from running a corner. There was a report of about ⅝ at one time on a rumor that the government report to be published this afternoon would show a decrease of 3 points in the condition of spring wheat. The general crowd, however, was not prepared to believe in any leaking out of advance intelligence. The course of prices was almost steadily upward from the start. December opened at 77⅝c, which was ⅛c over the previous day's closing quotations, advanced to 78¼c, declined to 77⅞c, again up to 78⅝c, off to 78¼c, then up to 79⅛c and closed at 78¼c. September was depressed by free offerings early but later recovered tone and closed steady at 76¼c.

Corn was more active and firmer, partly in sympathy with wheat, partly owing to 100 cars less being received here than was calculated on and perhaps in a greater measure to the firm hold which prominent operators appear to have on September. Trading was without special feature, being largely of the scalping character. Fluctuations were narrow, but the under-current of the speculative feeling favored the bull side. The enormous shipments from this port is sufficient indication of the views of consumers regarding present values. Prices had a narrow range. October selling from 33⅜c to 33⅝c, closing at 33⅜c, and May from 35¼c to 35¾c, closing at 35¼c.

Oats exhibited more life than for several days previously, ruling fairly active and firm to ⅛@¼c higher, under moderate buying. The receipts were below the estimate, and small postings are expected for to-morrow, and with moderate strength elsewhere. There was a fair buying on account of shorts. May improved ½c to 23½@23¾c, with December touching 20¼. Some desire was showing to change September into October, the difference being about ⅛@¼c. No. 2 white for September was stronger at 21⅜c; No. 2 regular sold at 19⅛@19c. No. 2 regular sold at 19⅛@19¼c.

The provision trade is still nervous. The underlying sentiment is unquestionably bearish, and there is evidently more disposition to favor the short than the long side. The January product showed some strength to-day under the buying of pork by brokers at times, credited with representing Armour, but for this year's deliveries the level was lower than that of yesterday. In October pork, which is governed by unnatural causes, the movement was very irregular. It opened strong, was sold off 75c during the excitement occasioned by the free offerings by Cudahy, and was afterwards taken in charge by Hutchinson and boomed. It closed at a net decline of 15c, or at $11.40. The day's range for the same article was $10.85@11.60. September pork was nominally the same as October. Lard for September and October declined 21½c. It rested at $5.92½ for the first named month and $5.87½ for October. October lard sold at $5.85@5.92½. September short ribs were easier, selling off 7½c and closing at $5.05@5½. October short ribs closed at $4.90, or 5c higher than yesterday.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—CATTLE—There was nothing particularly new in the trade this morning. The run was only moderate, made up of 3,000 natives, 3,000 Texans and 3,000 rangers: but on account of the big run yesterday when near delivery buyers filled their orders to the full limit business to-day ruled rather slow, with a weak range of prices at the decline of 10@15c noted yesterday on all classes, except, perhaps, a few loads of fancy export steers. Natives, Texans and rangers are 10@15c lower than last week, and all are liable to rule slow at a decline for the remainder of the week, as the receipts in two days show an increase of 7,000 over the same time last week, native butchers' stock grades selling down to a lower mark. Stockers and feeders are also down to the low water mark. Choice to extra beeves, $4.30@4.65; medium to good steers, 1350 to 1500 lbs., $3.80@4.40; 1200 to 1350 lbs., $3 40@4.10; 950 to 1,200 lbs. $2.80@3.60; stockers and feeders, $1.90@3.00; cows, bulls and mixed, $1.20@3.00; bulk, $1.75@2.10; steers, $2.00@3.00; cows, $1.30@2.00; winter-fed Texans, $2.35@3.60.

HOGS—The trade opened active and uneven, with only about 10,000 hogs in sight, the remaining 4,000 estimates being delayed, mainly on the Burlington, that road reporting 102 cars back as late as 10 o'clock. A few urgent shipping orders were filled at a slight advance, but in a general way there was little or no change as compared with yesterday. Packers did but little buying until late in the day and went in largely at $3.80@3.95, occasionally going up to $4.00. Best heavy selects sold at $4.00@4.10, and one or two lots at $4.15@4 17½, the latter sorted by the shipper at $4.25. Light sorts were steady at $4.50@4.55.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—STOCKS—The action in stocks on Monday was not such as to clearly define the forces at work or give much basis for future action. The west, as represented by Chicago, is standing by the Grangers, and dispatches predict a 10-point further advance in the favorites, the chief of which appears to be Burlington. The market opened with prices irregular and London buying Reading. The changes from last night were mostly losses, but extended only from ⅛ to ⅝ per cent generally. With Jersey Central, Louisville and Lackawanna each off ½c, the only really active stocks were Reading, St. Paul, Louisville & Nashville and Lackawanna. While there was a moderate business in Erie, Missouri Pacific, Atchison and Burlington, the rest of the market was quiet to dull. The weakness of the opening continued during the early trading, and further fractional losses were sustained, which brought the net loss in Jersey Central, Louisville & Nashville and Manitoba up to 1 per cent, with other active shares following. Reading was the one strong spot in the list, and at 48 it was ⅜ per cent higher than last evening, though it afterward retired to the opening prices. During the hour to 12 o'clock there was a change of sentiment and the buying became more general throughout the list. The recovery was barely enough to again reach last night's figures, and the market was dull. The slight recovery in stocks before noon did not hold, and realizing was the order of the day. Declines were general, but not sharp. Northern Pacific touched 75⅞, Burlington 108⅛, Rock Island 107⅜ and St. Paul 73. There was a slight rally from bottom prices before the close, but the list showed net losses in standard stocks of ⅜ to 1¾ per cent, with Grangers generally ½ to ⅝ off for the day. The belief is that St. Paul common will again be passed to-morrow, but preferred may pay better than before. The opinion is pretty general at the close that the reaction is over and the advance will now be resumed. The most conspicuous losses for the day were 2 per cent in Jersey Central, 1¼ in Manitoba and Lackawanna, ¾ in Louisville and ⅝ in lead trusts.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle

Tuesday, Sept. 10.

Although Chicago was reporting cattle lower the market here was steady, in fact the feeling was a little better. The general market could not be called active, and yet a good many cattle changed hands before the close. Native beeves sold at $3.00@4.00, largely at $3.70@4.00. Range steers sold at $2.30@2.70 and Texans at $2 40. Cow stuff, canners, etc., though not over abundant, was in liberal supply and sold at steady prices. Native cows sold at $1.50@1.70 and canners at $1.00@1.25. Quite a good many western cows sold at $1.60@1.70. Good feeders and stockers were in pretty fair demand and if anything prices were a little better than yesterday. The native feeders brought $2.30@2.75.

Hogs.

There was some improvement in the hog market to-day. Prices advanced fully 5c on all grades, and trade was active, and the pens soon cleared. Shippers were free buyers of both heavy and light hogs. Light hogs sold quite largely at $3.90, and as high as $3.95, while the heavy hogs went mostly at $3.80@3.85, and as high as $3.90. There was a considerable sorting up of loads but a good deal of it was in a small way, that is two to four hogs being thrown out of a load.

Sheep.

There were a few here which sold readily, but the market was a little easier. Not many sheep are coming here, but what do come bring good prices.

Live Stock Notes.

Gust Raff, from Valparaiso, brought in one load of hogs.

J. Vankirk, of Silver City, was a visitor on the market.

C. W. Dook, from Casey, Ia., came in with one car of hogs.

Charles Scheck, from Imogene, Ia., was in looking for feeders.

C. W. Sheldon, came in from Percival, Ia., with one load of hogs.

Bust, of Bust Bros., from Creighton, was in with one car of cattle.

C. A. Carlberg, from Arlington, came in with a load of hogs.

G. C. Underhill, from Unadilla, came in with a car of hogs.

J. M. Emery came in from Council Bluffs with one car of hogs.

G. Jones came in from Henderson, Ia., with one car of hogs.

Mr. J. D. Houston, of York, Neb., was looking over the market with a view of buying feeders.

The receipts of hogs, as compared with a week ago, show a falling off of about 3,000 head. The market is now 15@20c per hundred higher on heavy hogs and 5c higher on light hogs than it was on Tuesday of last week.

Are you contemplating sending in some grass hogs? If so, come prepared to sell them about 50c per 100 below the price they would bring had they been fattened on corn. —[The Chicago Markets.

At a special meeting of the Live Stock Exchange yesterday at 3 o'clock it was moved and carried that the exchange vacate the rooms now occupied by them and take quarters on the fourth floor.
