

A PHENOMENAL ATTENDANCE

Fifty Thousand People on the Fair Grounds Yesterday.

THE VEGETABLE MARRIAGE.

The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" Wed—A Monster Parade and a Display of Fireworks.

LINCOLN BUREAU OF THE OMAHA BEE, 1029 P STREET, LINCOLN, SEPT. 12.

The attendance was phenomenal and the weather all that could have been asked for the big day of the fair.

During the races this afternoon the grand stand was literally packed. It is said to seat 8,000 people comfortably.

The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course. She drove around the track twice and sustained her past records.

Floral Hall.

Nature smiles at Floral Hall. There is by all odds the finest and best assorted display of cut flowers and plants ever seen at the annual state exposition.

W. H. Hesser, of Plattsmouth, and Sawyer & Co., of Lincoln, occupy the south half of the east wing.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish. Exhibitors as follows:

J. M. Russell, of Wynona, fifty varieties of peaches.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

Hess & Swoboda, of Omaha, occupy the central stand of the fruit.

The north and west wings contain the display of fruits. This, too, is as fine as the east and eye could wish.

A. Hodge, of Omaha, occupies the north half of the same wing.

were never put on public exhibition. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. O. F. Spencer, one of the company's able representatives.

The McCormick Company's Display. One of the most interesting parts of the fair grounds is the power house and around this the interest of every farmer is fastened.

Prominent among the displays made in this department is that of the McCormick Harvesting machine. The exhibit is in charge of Mr. O. F. Spencer, one of the company's able representatives.

In conversation with Manager Binford a Bee reporter was given some interesting particulars regarding the first manufacture of the McCormick reaper, which is a matter of interest to the multitude that will use these farm necessities.

Red Polled Angus—Warren, Sexton & Offord, of Maunhattan, took all the prizes in the show. The prize for the best cow was awarded to Albert Kemp, Lincoln.

Swine Premiums. The following premiums were awarded in the hog show to-day: Grand sweepstakes, No. 1. Best pen of breeding hogs, one boar and four sows.

The County Collective Exhibits. The readers of THE BEE are somewhat familiar with the county collective exhibits made in the past year.

The Crete Nurseries' Exhibit. This well known Nebraska industry is, as usual, on hand with an attractive and interesting display.

The Wool Growers'. In the sheep exhibit Nebraska has some of the premiums, though the competition from the outside is very strong.

The Draft Horse Association. The annual meeting of the Nebraska State Draft Horse Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Western Resources building on the grounds.

The Cattle Show. Good judges of cattle say that the cattle exhibit this year is at least 25 per cent greater than last year.

The Poultry Exhibit. The pavilion shows 2,000 birds and pet stock, including guinea pigs, lop-eared rabbits, ferrets, white mice and rats.

2 years and under 3. Russell Sounds, Lincoln, first; and under 3 years and over, B. O. Cowan first; I. Barr & Son, Davenport, Ia., second.

Polled Angus—Bull, 3 years and over, J. Evans & Son, first; and under 3 years and over, J. L. Loebe, Beatrice, first and second.

Swine Premiums. The following premiums were awarded in the hog show to-day: Grand sweepstakes, No. 1. Best pen of breeding hogs, one boar and four sows.

The County Collective Exhibits. The readers of THE BEE are somewhat familiar with the county collective exhibits made in the past year.

The Crete Nurseries' Exhibit. This well known Nebraska industry is, as usual, on hand with an attractive and interesting display.

The Wool Growers'. In the sheep exhibit Nebraska has some of the premiums, though the competition from the outside is very strong.

The Draft Horse Association. The annual meeting of the Nebraska State Draft Horse Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Western Resources building on the grounds.

The Cattle Show. Good judges of cattle say that the cattle exhibit this year is at least 25 per cent greater than last year.

The Poultry Exhibit. The pavilion shows 2,000 birds and pet stock, including guinea pigs, lop-eared rabbits, ferrets, white mice and rats.

The Corn King and the Grass Widow. The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course.

The Vegetable Marriage. The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course.

and that the competition was limited to Nebraska. The prize for the best cow was awarded to Albert Kemp, Lincoln.

Swine Premiums. The following premiums were awarded in the hog show to-day: Grand sweepstakes, No. 1. Best pen of breeding hogs, one boar and four sows.

The County Collective Exhibits. The readers of THE BEE are somewhat familiar with the county collective exhibits made in the past year.

The Crete Nurseries' Exhibit. This well known Nebraska industry is, as usual, on hand with an attractive and interesting display.

The Wool Growers'. In the sheep exhibit Nebraska has some of the premiums, though the competition from the outside is very strong.

The Draft Horse Association. The annual meeting of the Nebraska State Draft Horse Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Western Resources building on the grounds.

The Cattle Show. Good judges of cattle say that the cattle exhibit this year is at least 25 per cent greater than last year.

The Poultry Exhibit. The pavilion shows 2,000 birds and pet stock, including guinea pigs, lop-eared rabbits, ferrets, white mice and rats.

The Corn King and the Grass Widow. The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course.

The Vegetable Marriage. The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course.

The Corn King and the Grass Widow. The "Korn King" and the "Grass Widow" were the center of attraction at the course.

THE TENTH STREET VIADUCT.

President Adams Says It Must be Built by the City.

IOWA TRAINS IN OMAHA.

Leaving the Fort Worth Road—The Line to National Park—The Outside Bill and Railroad Matters in General.

In the President's Cabinet. Charles Francis Adams, president of the Union Pacific, was at the headquarters yesterday.

Postoffice Doings in August. Postmaster Peter Cochrill makes the following gratifying report of the work done in the postoffice during August.

Registered letters delivered, 85; Letters, 34,236; Postals, 2,717; Newspapers and periodicals, 10,493.

Mail collected, 37,392; Registered letters delivered, 85; Letters, 34,236; Postals, 2,717; Newspapers and periodicals, 10,493.

A Contest for a Medal. The Odd Number Pleasure club, one of the popular and influential societies of the city, will give a social and dance at Sappy Mills next Sunday.

"Duty of Husbands to Wives." A lecture will be delivered Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building.

Secretary Nason, of the State Development association, held a meeting on the 10th inst., and explained the objects of the association.

Trumbull's long-tailed trotter was visited by hundreds to-day. Trumbull is a recent acquisition to Nebraska breeders and is located at Rock.

Everything was quiet on the grounds throughout the day. The police and officers failed to assert their presence.

The religious dining hall fed 3,200 people to-day. The hall is a fine building and is well equipped.

The University and Industrial school hands formed a band to-day. The band is well trained and will give a fine performance.

This is done at the wish of persons along the new line now being built, who preferred this temporary makeshift to waiting indefinitely for the electric cars.

At present the double tracks on the motor line extend on East as far as Thirty-second street and a force of men is laying the second track from Thirty-sixth to Fortieth streets.

The "Life of the flesh is the blood thereof," pure blood means healthy functional activity and this bears with it the certainty of quick restoration from sickness or accident.

A car standing on the Union Pacific side-track in the lower yards was broken into Tuesday evening, and among other things, taken, were two saddles and a bridle belonging to Chicago parties.

A dog which bit Patrick F. Halfpenny was shot by a policeman. O. B. Hill has removed to the Clark-Ritchhart building, N street.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hasbun is very sick with remittent fever. C. M. Sanford is building a fine combination store and residence at No. 323 R street.

Captain John Murphy, of the Armour-Cudahy fire department, has resigned. Captain Cavanaugh, of the Omaha fire department, will succeed him.

John Haines and Frank Cahill, two young men boarding at the Hotel, went out on a bicycle ride last evening and were heard of since. Their friends are becoming alarmed.

Very Risky Indeed. To tamper with symptoms indicative of growing kidney disorder is to neglect for a brief time a useful stimulation of the renal organs.

American English in Paris. It is well that it is American English that salutes the ear all over Paris.

A car standing on the Union Pacific side-track in the lower yards was broken into Tuesday evening, and among other things, taken, were two saddles and a bridle belonging to Chicago parties.

Good morning Have you used PEARL SOAP? "YOST" WRITING MACHINE.

USE PEARL TO PLAMP CHIMNEYS THE BEST IN THE WORLD MADE ONLY BY GEO. A. MACBETH & CO. PITTSBURGH, PA.

STRANG & CLARK STEAM HEATING CO. Steam and Hot Water Heating and Ventilating Apparatus and Supplies. Engines, Boilers, Steam Pumps, Etc.

A. B. MEYER & CO., SHIPPERS AND DEALERS IN COAL & COKE 103 South 15th Street, Opp. Postoffice. Telephone 1480.

Brownell Hall! BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, Corner of Tenth and Worthington Streets, Omaha, Neb. The Rev. Robert Doherty, S. T. D., Rector.

STANDARD SHORTHAND SCHOOL. Offers the best facilities for acquiring the art of SHORTHAND and TYPEWRITING. LARGEST LIBRARY and BEST SCHOOL in the West.