FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES. The decision of Judge Blodgett, of the United States circuit court, declaring the Minnesota meat law unconstitutional, contains statements of fundamental principles, applicable to all legislation of this character.

however, that the number of cattle per thousand of population was less last year than in some former years, for example in 1890 and in 1885, while the mean price was considerably lower last year than in 1885 and has been still further reduced this year.

It was proposed at the constitutional convention at Cheyenne that the salary of the governor of the new state shall be fixed at two thousand dollars, which would be five hundred dollars less than the governor of Nebraska receives.

Montana will be the first state to try the Australian system of voting. As everyone knows, this means the voting of each individual, without the assistance of ward workers in a private room set apart for the purpose.

Omaha's Sublimity Atmosphere. A notable item comes from Omaha—"Grave diggers are cutting rates." This is an indication that their business is dull, and Omaha is to be congratulated.

A Display to Be Proud Of. The display at the Coliseum in Omaha is certainly a worthy exhibit and reflects credit upon the business men of Omaha.

A Tedium Weaning Process. People living in the western portions of Kansas and Nebraska should be attracted to Denver as often as possible.

Western Social Fad. Speaking of the Vanderbilt ball party for the New York "400," the "bung tung" of Omaha are having fun with themselves at swimming parties, while at Kansas City the party is all the rage.

A Literary Thief. The Omaha Sunday Herald is an unaccountable literary thief. Last Sunday it stole from the Sunday Star of the week previous five special articles, making seven and a half columns, and even had the audacity to print vile reproductions of the illustrations accompanying the articles.

GREAT MEN. Chauncey M. Depew has come back from Europe full of the notion that the world's fair of 1893 will be the greatest show on earth.

The Two Dakotas. Hughes county has bought a $1,400 poor farm. Work has commenced on the new Baptist church at Vermilion.

Black caps threaten Mrs. Mary Scott, of Redfield, is still the victim of a circulating scandalous tale about her neighbors.

Donation parties mean something at Olivet. Rev. N. B. Baldwin received three million from parishioners recently.

The code of Dakota provides that any person who will maintain a watering trough beside the highway so it can be used by the beasts and traveling public, shall be entitled to a $5 a year rebate on road tax, and $3 more for holding a bucket and cup for the use of people.

The Redfield Journal says that James L. Davis, the young man who won the West Point cadetship at the recent examination at Redfield, is reported to have been rejected at the examination at West Point on the account of a defective eye.

Wine Worth Its Weight in Gold. The best "recovery" that I ever heard of was that of the famous pipe of Marston, of which the remnants remaining to forty-four bottles was sold in 1858 at the duchess of Ragusa's sale to the late Baron James Rothschild.

Old Comanche the Only Survivor. The old horse Comanche, the only survivor of the famous Custer massacre, is still handsomely cared for at the government expense at Fort Union.
